actors and actresses are destitute here.

The benefit matinee given at the Chicago

Opera house last week by actors and actresses in Chicago for the destitute, was a signal for a flood of letters of appeal for aid directed to Stuart Robson.

As a result, $500 was withhold from the receipts for the assistance of needy actors. In many of the minor companies salaries are badly in arrears, although actors prefer to stay in their organizations and work for nothing than to risk losing back pay altogether by resigning.

Scores of specialty people are working their way eastward from the Pacific coast and are waiting in Chicago for something to turn up. Most of these are also waiting for something to eat, and are liable to continue to wait.
