--Crackers, Candies and Candy prizes, "way down," at OWNBEY BROS.

MR. W. M. HAGOOD is still improving his beautiful lot.

MRS. JONES and family, left us last week to make their home in Greenville.

THE crop in this section is nearly all gathered and sold.

THE moderation of the weather was soon accompanied by rain.

REV. D. W. HIOTT, has been called to the pastorate of the Easley Baptist Church.

REV. S. P. H. ELWELL, will fill his last appointment with the Methodist church here next Sunday.

ADDED a new lot Musical Instruments. OWNBEY BROS.

THE birthday of one Editor and the "Devil" of the MESSENGER, occur in November.

THE farmers are busy plowing in wheat and oats, of which, large crops are being sown.

THE dwelling house of W. H. Hester, of Central, was burned last Friday night.

MRS. A. D. MOSELY, the hospitable hostess of the "Mountain View House" is visiting friends in Georgia.

A LITTLE two-year old son of Enoch Richardson died with croup on last Wednesday night. We extend our sympathies to the family of the above.

CROCKERY, Tin and Hollow-ware, cheap, at OWNBEY BROS.

ONLY four weeks from next Tuesday until Christmas. With what fond anticipations do the children look forward to that day.

EASLEY has about as many carpenters as Pickens has lawyers. They are all busy too. Their work show signs of improvement.

AN unfavorable piece of news reached us on Tuesday of the failure of Drennan & Brother, an old firm of Easley, but at the time of the failure they were doing business in Greenville.

MR. A. M. NEAL, of Pickensville, thinks that Bermuda grass is a great fertilizer, and that the staple of cotton grown on lands infested with it is of a superior quality.

ALL Goods in our line at mud-sill prices. OWNBEY BROS.

MAJ. H. C. BRIGGS, has been quite ill since last Saturday. He is thought to be some better at this writing, (Thursday), and we hope it will not be long until we may see his genial face upon the streets again.

WE were shown two potatoes from the patch of John Barr, Esq., that weighed 9 pounds—the two. He says he made 200 bushels, all very fine.

MR. W. F. Wait, has in his possession a large white hen, which laid 118 eggs in as many days in succession. The above can be vouchered for. We are now open for the hen question.

—Best Cream Cheese in the market, at OWNBEY BROS.

THE young men contemplate having a Tournament Christmas. No doubt it will be very pleasant. Johnnie N. is getting his "single-footer" in good practice for the occasion.

RAYMOND, a little son of Mr. Theodore Smith, of Anderson, County, died on last Tuesday morning. He was about two and a half years old and had been ill about four weeks with the whooping cough.

EASLEY, with all of her guano agents, will have more competition in the fertilizer line. Messrs. Ferguson & Miller will erect soon a large guano house opposite the shop of Mr. W. F. Smith.

PICKENS is having an excited discussion among some of her learned citizens over the pronunciation of "Whew." We hope it will be amicably decided, and rendered euphonious.

HENRY MOORE, colored, got his right hand badly lacerated in the gin of L. M. Berry last Wednesday. The forefinger was cut off at the first joint. The wound was dressed by Dr. Tolleson.

SOON we will miss the pleasant countenance of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green. They move to Anderson next week for the winter. Mrs. N. A. Green, Mr. Green's mother, will move from Greenville and will occupy his residence.

MR. W. J. PICKLE, who lives about three and a half miles above here, killed last week a hog weighing 530 pounds nett. It was raised by Mr. Pickle. What is the use of buying Western bacon, when so much of it can be raised at home?

—Another lot fine Stoves, just arrived, at OWNBEY BROS.

GUANO agents, merchants, a hotel keeper who has outside business, and bloated bondholders, are going to furnish many of our farmers with fertilizers, &c., next year. Isn't it well that there are such men in Easley who can afford to help keep up the indigent, yet generally honest man.

JIM ADAMS, the ticket agent who was arrested in Charlotte some time ago for defrauding the Railroad company, has turned State's evidence, and implicated four Conductors on the Air Line. Mr. Adams, we learn had been suspected of crookedness a long time ago. We have but little faith in such confessions.

WM CARSON and Tom Goode, who were tried at Greenville this week, for the murder of James Massey, were convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years each in the penitentiary. As the prisoners were taken away Goode remarked: "I am glad we got off so light," and received the congratulations of several friends upon his good fortune.

WE learn of a new candidate in Pickens for honorable mention. It is Mr. Boggs, junior, who may some day follow in the footsteps of his Lyncurgian father.

There is also another aspirant, in our town, for the councilman's chair. His efforts will be united with those of his father, Mr. Isaac Williams, in making Easley one of the grand distributing points of upper Carolina.

WE say hurrah for the farmers who are honestly endeavoring to settle their just accounts, despite the evil teachings which might have resulted from a grand mass meeting. Make an effort to pay up the merchants, friends, so that you may live off of their favor again next year. Remember those who have so kindly fed and clothed you, and who are willing to do it again if you will but treat them right.

TRIAL JUSTICE'S COURT.—The following cases have been disposed of by Justice Gossett during the past week: The State vs. Wm. M. Welborn, swindling. Case sent up to Court of Sessions for trial.

The State vs. James H. C. Durham, assault and battery. Case transferred to S. D. Stewart, Trial Justice, for trial.
