Have You a Mother?

Have you a mother? love her well, While she is spared on earth, Wait not till death shall call her hence. To know her precious worth.

Wait not till she lies cold and still, Most beautiful, though dead, To think of what you should have done, Before her dear life fled.

Think now how much she should be loved,

And prize her as you ought, Or else your life, when she is gone, With sorrow shall be fraught.

O! watch her, guard her with your love. While with you she is left, For when she leaves you, life will seem Of every joy bereft.

Oh! soothe her in her hours of pain, Be gentle and be mild; How sweet 'twill be for you to think You've been a faithful child.
