

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Atlanta Affair

Atlanta Affair Elks Convention. So well pleased was Atlanta with the Imperial Council of the North...

Insurance Men Meet Wednesday

A number of Anderson insurance men will go to Columbia Tuesday night to attend the South Carolina Underwriters Association...

Boy Kicked By A Mule

Brondus Camp, a son of John Camp of the Fisher store section of the county, was kicked by a mule...

Mr. Tate Decides To Run Again

John H. Tate, who announced his candidacy for alderman from ward 4 when L. P. Frazier resigned...

Music Recital At Starr School

The pupils of Starr are anticipating a delightful event for next Tuesday evening when the music pupils of Miss Annie Halford will give a public recital...

Special Pictures For the Reunion

The manager of the Palmetto theater left last night for Atlanta where he goes to secure a special program for the two days of the Confederate reunion here...

Delegates Have Been Appointed

James D. Hammett has announced that he will be present at the Washington Convention of the National Foreign Trade League...

May Offer For Auditor's Office

While in the city yesterday Prof. R. A. Abrams of Starr, told a reporter for The Intelligencer that he would probably offer for the position of county auditor in summer's election...

Anderson Man Is the President

John A. Huggins of Pelzer, president of the South Carolina Cottonseed Crushers Association, has given out some very interesting plans for the annual meeting...

Hope to Hold Big Reception

Officials of the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company are planning to hold a general reception for Anderson people when the handsome new building on Whitner street is completed...

Merchants Asked To Make Displays

G. J. Renner of Greenville has been spending several days in Anderson, endeavoring to secure contracts from Anderson merchants for decorating their places of business for the State Association of South Carolina Cities...

Enormous Shipment Of Silver Spoons

Walter Keese & Co., prominent jewelers of this city, are exhibiting a wonderful line of silver spoons in their display windows...

Crops Are In Need of Rain

Every Anderson county farmer spending yesterday in the city complained loud and long of the lack of rain. The farmers say that cotton is not coming on well where it is up...

Fire Adjusters Here Yesterday

Two fire insurance adjusters came to Anderson yesterday for the purpose of making an adjustment of the loss sustained recently by F. S. Fowler when his garage was burned on Market street...

PERSONALS

(From Sunday's Daily.) George Embler of the Portman section was in the city for a few hours yesterday.

J. M. Fisher of Level Land spent part of yesterday in the city on business.

Prof. R. A. Abrams of Starr was among the business visitors to the city yesterday.

R. R. Keston of Iva, was in Anderson yesterday for a few hours.

Clyde Smith of Abbeville, spent yesterday in the city with friends.

A. J. and Esther Cromer of Iva, were among the well known visitors to spend yesterday in the city.

Harry Hall of Lenoir, Ga., was in the city yesterday on business.

Lewis Jackson spent yesterday in Anderson, the guest of Glenn Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Smith have returned to Greenville after a short visit to their daughter here, Mrs. T. L. Cely.

Balley Brazelton of near Belton spent a few hours in the city yesterday.

James G. Harris of near Belton was among the visitors to spend yesterday in Anderson.

Clark Webb of Piercetown was in the city yesterday for a short stay.

Will Canfield, a well known Honea Pash man, spent yesterday in Anderson.

Dock Bannister of Martin township was in the city yesterday on business.

O. W. Casey of the Five Forks section was in Anderson yesterday.

L. N. Martin of Martin township, spent a few hours in the city yesterday and reported that he lost a fine horse Friday, the animal coming to his death from pneumonia, and several other farmers have made similar complaints.

Planning for the President's Home. Architects have practically completed the plans for the handsome new home to be erected on the campus of Anderson college for the new president of the institution and work will be begun on the building within the next few weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Dickson of Townsville spent yesterday in the city with friends.

Magistrate W. P. Bell of the Level Land section was in the city yesterday on business.

W. J. Johnson of Pelzer, Route 11 was in the city for a few hours yesterday.

W. M. P. Hall of the Flat Rock section was in the city yesterday on business.

J. E. Ford of Spartanburg was in the city yesterday, a guest at the Chiquola hotel.

DeWitt Fant of Birmingham is spending a few days with his mother in the city.

C. F. Brazelton of Belton was among the visitors to spend yesterday in the city.

Frank Pearson of Greenville is spending a few days in the city with friends and relatives.

Mrs. E. M. Davis of Oakway spent yesterday in Anderson on business.

J. B. Galloway of Pendleton spent part of yesterday in the city on business.

J. D. Bates of Hartwell, Ga., was in the city yesterday for a few hours.

Photo copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.

American Bluejackets Patrolling the Streets of Vera Cruz

Very soon after the guns of the Mexican "snipers" had been silenced and the federals driven from the city of Vera Cruz the invading American sailors and marines, under the direction of Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher...

BEAUTIFUL BABIES SEEN YESTERDAY

FIRST EVENT OF ITS KIND FOR THIS YEAR

THE PRIZE WINNERS

Daddy's Pride and Mamma's Pet Put On Exhibition in Anderson Yesterday

(From Sunday's Daily.) Daddy's pal and Mamma's darling excited much admiration in Anderson yesterday when the first baby show was held in the chamber of commerce.

The Tabernacle Evangelist has been cutting a wide swath in this State of Pennsylvania for the past year. He is called the Tabernacle Evangelist because he will not hold his meetings in any sort of building save a tabernacle built for the purpose.

BEING GOOD TO THE COW

The kindly dispositioned and ever vivacious Columbia State on hearing that a New Jersey hair expert had advised gentle treatment towards the cow if the owner wanted to reap rich lactical reward...

ORR MILL MEETING

Directors and Officers Are Re-elected For Year. The stockholders of the Orr Cotton Mills in their annual meeting held in the office of the company at noon yesterday expressed themselves as being well pleased with what the mill has accomplished during the year.

DR. JOHN G. CLINECALES

Dr. John G. Clinecales, president of Wofford college will speak at the following churches next Sunday, the 17th instant. Antioch at 11 a. m., St. Glenwood at 3:30 p. m., and at Zion at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. A. R. Hamilton

Mrs. A. R. Hamilton returned with Mrs. Esther Hunt to Larkinsville Monday, Oct. 29, where they will spend about two weeks.

Mrs. W. R. A. Garrett

Mrs. W. R. A. Garrett of this city, attended services at Six Mile last Sunday. He states that there were between 1,000 and 1,500 people present.

Mrs. M. C. Rogers

Mrs. M. C. Rogers died at his home on the farm of Mr. John Wyatt, seven miles south of this city on the 15th inst. He is survived by his wife and several small children.

Mrs. J. H. Fruit

Mrs. J. H. Fruit of Starr was shopping in the city yesterday for a few hours.

Henry Hall of Hartwell, Ga.

Henry Hall of Hartwell, Ga., was among the visitors to spend yesterday in the city.

Mrs. E. M. Davis

Mrs. E. M. Davis of Oakway spent yesterday in Anderson on business.

Mrs. B. Turner

Mrs. B. Turner has gone to Greenville where she will be the guest of friends for a few days.

Advertisement for Conkey's Lice Powder and Conkey's Lice Liquid, including a small image of a person.

Advertisement for Harley-Davidson motorcycles, featuring an image of a motorcycle and the text '5 horse power, with step starter. Only $210.00.'

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Under this head will be run short announcements of candidates. The rates for these are as follows: For county offices in both daily and semi-weekly, till election $7.50; in either alone, $5.00, cash in advance strictly. For city offices: in daily only: Mayor, $5.00; aldermen $3.00.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce myself a candidate for county commissioner for the Third Section, consisting of Jarvis, Brink, Cross, Williamson and Hopewell townships, subject to the action of the democratic primary.

EASLEY NEWS

(From Progress.) Mr. O. W. Parrish, who was returning from his store, Saturday night in a delivery wagon was run into by an automobile being driven by Mr. Erace Fennell of the Easley mill village. Mr. Parrish was knocked from the wagon and was quite seriously hurt. The car was considerably damaged.

A Long and Interesting Program has been arranged for the closing exercises of Mountain View school, south of Easley, on May 15 and 16. There will be several addresses by prominent speakers, recitations, dialogues, orations, music, songs, etc. The public is cordially invited each day.

A (Sensational) Story on the Farm of Mr. J. H. Johnson of the farm of Mr. J. H. Johnson, near Easley, was destroyed by fire about four o'clock Sunday afternoon. It was occupied by Mr. Waldron, another family who were away at the time. The house and contents were a total loss, which will amount to about $300.

On next Saturday there will be an all day picnic at Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian church.

Three prominent speakers from the agricultural department of Clemson college will address the crowd. Bring a big dinner basket. All are invited.

A very large congregation attended the services at Mt. Pleasant Sunday. The second Sunday in May is always looked forward to as a big day with the church. The services last Sunday, conducted by Rev. D. W. Hott, who has been pastor there for thirty-eight years.

Dr. John G. Clinecales, president of Wofford college will speak at the following churches next Sunday, the 17th instant.

Mrs. M. C. Rogers died at his home on the farm of Mr. John Wyatt, seven miles south of this city on the 15th inst. He is survived by his wife and several small children.

Mrs. A. R. Hamilton returned with Mrs. Esther Hunt to Larkinsville Monday, Oct. 29, where they will spend about two weeks.

Mrs. W. R. A. Garrett of this city, attended services at Six Mile last Sunday. He states that there were between 1,000 and 1,500 people present.

The old soldiers' meeting at Cross Roads church on last Thursday, May 7, was a booming success. Notwithstanding the busy season of the year, the house was filled and many could not get inside.

The dinner was almost beyond description, both in quantity and quality. We were made to feel that we were part of the community in Pickens county.

in the afternoon the old soldiers had an experience meeting and it was interesting to hear some of the old soldiers' stories.

Especially good was the speech of Capt. S. T. Prior, Capt. J. A. H. McGee, Mr. Sam L. McCall, Mr. Zede Watkins. All were a great day.