

VETERAN NEWSPAPER MAN VISITING HERE

H. P. SIMONDS OF TEXAS IS IN THE CITY

HIS EXPERIENCES

When His Paper Was First Founded Had To Carry Guns In Order To Protect His Plant

Among the visitors to the city is S. P. Simonds of Texas, who founded the first newspaper in that part of Texas west of the Pecos river. In 1878, just after the Texas and Pacific Railroad was completed across Texas to El Paso and had reached Pecos City, as the town was then called, Mr. Simonds started the publication of the Pecos News. This was the first newspaper started in a territory 400 miles long and 500 miles wide. At that time Pecos had less than 500 people and was noted for its Saturday night entertainments. Mr. Simonds made this paper go, and stated here last night that on several occasions he had to carry his guns with him to keep the cowboys from destroying the plant. He remained in Pecos three years, selling his plant to Caille Perrett who still lives in Pecos and who is a friend of Secretary Whaley of the local Chamber of Commerce. The Pecos Valley News was brought up by the Pecos Times in 1894. In 1911 Mr. Whaley, now the secretary of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce, purchased the Pecos Record. In 1912 the Record purchased the Pecos Times which had absorbed the Pecos Valley News, and a new paper, composed of the three consolidations, called the Pecos Record-Times was launched. It is now being published as a daily and weekly paper at Pecos.

Mr. Simonds has not been back to Pecos since he left there in 1890, and he was delighted to find a former Pecosite in Anderson when Mr. Whaley had a regular love feast here yesterday. There are many people who Mr. Simonds knew in Pecos and the relatives who still live there and who Mr. Whaley knows, including F. W. Johnson, Baptist deacon, irrigator, commercial club enthusiast, and railroad promoter and millionaire ranch owner. Mr. Caille Perrett, to whom Mr. Simonds sold his paper still lives in Pecos and is a large irrigator. Mr. Simonds owned a large section of the Pecos lands when Mr. Whaley was a child, which he gave up rather than pay the state taxes. This land is now within the incorporate limits of the city of Pecos, a model modern, up-to-date city of approximately 6,000 people and worth perhaps a half million dollars. Such is the transformation of 35 years.

Announcement Yesterday That All Street Car Conductors and Motormen Will Be Rewarded

(From Sunday's Daily.) Not only the street car conductors and the motormen, but the public of Anderson will be glad to learn that the G. S. & A. Railway Company has announced an increase of pay for the street railway employes in this city. The announcement was made yesterday and effective on July 1 every one of the employes will begin to receive a larger salary. In a letter from the manager of the Anderson branch, received yesterday by T. F. Hill, superintendent of the Anderson street railway, Mr. Hill is given the following information: "Beginning July 1 the pay of the motormen and conductors will be increased from 12 1/2 cents per hour for the first year to 15 cents per hour and the years of service will be rewarded by increase of pay to one cent per hour for each year of service until 20 cents per hour is reached. The minimum day rate will be increased from $1.50 to $1.70. It is with pleasure that we are giving this increase and take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of the faithful service of the motormen and conductors in your department." This will be good news and will be welcomed by every one in the city. Anderson has a set of motormen and conductors of far more than average intelligence and each and every one of them is courteous and polite at all times.

J. H. BRISSEY DIES OF HIS INJURIES

Venerable Citizen of This County Never Rallied—Funeral This Afternoon at 5:30

(From Sunday's Daily.) M. J. H. Brissey who has been despondently ill at Anderson County Hospital for several days, passed away yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 5:30 at the home of his son, W. L. Brissey on Calhoun street. Mr. Brissey was seriously injured a week ago last Tuesday when a horse which he was driving ran away and caused him to receive injuries which from the first appeared to be very serious. He had come to the city from High Shoals in a wagon that day, and even before leaving for the city expressed a premonition that he should not come. On the return to the country the horse ran away with the sad results stated. Mr. Brissey was rendered unconscious and was never thoroughly aroused to consciousness, although he awoke partially at times. He sank into a stupor about three days ago and never rallied. He did not appear to be in pain, but just slipped away. The deceased had for many years been one of the staunch citizens of Anderson. He was born in Greenville county on the 11th of April 1842, and came to the city with a company from that county. He was a good soldier and served continuously in every battle that his company went into, but was never wounded. He was one of the happiest of the old soldiers at the reunion this year. He settled in Pickens county after the war and lived there about 25 years and about the same length of time in Anderson. His old home was on South Main near the Orr Mill. Mr. Brissey was a carpenter and millwright by trade and was well known over all of this section of the state. His wife was Miss Permelia Francis Rodgers, daughter of John Rodgers of Greenville county who preceded him to the grave 22 years ago.

Mr. Brissey had retired from active work in the last few years and was giving his time to visiting around among his children. At the time of the accident which caused his death he was living with his son J. H. Brissey at High Shoals five miles east of the city. Mr. Brissey had property in Alabama and Florida. Of the 11 children born to Mr. and Mrs. Brissey 6 are living, Messrs. W. L. J. H. and John Brissey of this city; Mrs. J. C. Nalley of this county; Mrs. Charley Burgess of Jacksonville, Fla. and Mrs. Press Friddle of Belton. It is expected that all of the children with the exception of Mrs. Burgess will be here today. Mr. Brissey is also survived by four brothers and one sister, C. C. Brissey of Orrville; I. H. Brissey of Charlotte; N. C. Charles Brissey of Richland; G. M. Brissey of Pendleton and Mrs. Grace of Greenville. The announcement of his passing could not be made last night, but the funeral services will be conducted at the home of his son by the Rev. J. W. Speake, his pastor, at 5:30 this afternoon. Interment at Silver Lake. Mr. Speake said last night that he had been urged to stay in Charleston, where he has been on conference matters, but he felt that something was happening here and he is glad that he came back at this time. He saw Mr. Brissey passing on the wagon on the day of accident and the good man seemed unusually angry and he will not say if he was a good man indeed, but the announcement of his passing.

Mrs. E. P. Kramer has returned from Boston where she has been the guest of her daughter Mrs. Evans.

CUSTODY OF CHILD IS BASIS OF SUIT

PELZER PEOPLE SUING FOR POSSESSION OF BABE

NOW BEING ARGUED

A Most Interesting Case Between Chapman Family of Pelzer Is Occupying Court's Attention

(From Friday's Daily.) One of the most interesting cases ever heard in Anderson was argued before His Honor, Judge George E. Prince in this city yesterday. The action was brought by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chapman of Pelzer against Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Chapman of the same place and hinges on the custody of a child, Charles, the son of the first named. There were many queer angles to the case and those who heard it manifested great interest. It seems that when the child was born, it was weak and sickly and it was taken by its grandparents. Shortly after that time E. C. Chapman and his wife parted and Chapman went to Texas, his wife returning to her home. Meanwhile the child was in the custody of its grandparents. Finally Chapman returned from Texas and effected a reconciliation with his wife but one of the terms of the agreement was that he must get the child back from its grandparents. He endeavored to do this but was unsuccessful, and then another quarrel occurred between E. C. Chapman and his wife and again they separated. This was again repeated, it now seems, from the evidence in hand, that they have gotten together and if they can gain the custody of the child will be able to live together again. The grandparents set up the allegation that the couple should not have the child because they are not fitted for the task of rearing it. They also claim that their father has not contributed to its support. Judge Prince heard the arguments yesterday and at the conclusion announced that he would take the case under consideration and announce his decision later.

NEGRO ALMOST LOST HIS LIFE

Was Knocked Unconscious When Lightning Struck and Killed His Mule Friday

While an electrical storm was in progress last Friday afternoon, Cleve Howard, a negro, had a narrow escape when a mule was killed by lightning and Howard was knocked unconscious by the shock. Thos. B. Kay had his threshing outfit at Vance Colley's farm, about two miles from Williamston and when the storm came up at 3 o'clock all of the party except the negro made a break for a nearby shelter. Before Howard could get away the lightning killed one mule, injured another so severely that it will die and almost killed the negro as well. When the white men saw the mules and the negro fall they rushed to them and succeeded in bringing the negro around, after working on him for about an hour. A similar effort to revive one of the mules was successful but Mr. Kay said yesterday that he would also lose his animal. When asked whether or not he had any insurance, Mr. Kay said that he had $150 on each mule but he believes he will be prevented from collecting this by a clause relative to the mules being in his own stable. The two animals were easily worth $600 and the loss to Mr. Kay will be severe.

CAMPUS ADDITION ANDERSON COLLEGE

J. L. Hambree Will Erect Stand-some New Home For the President

(From Sunday's Daily.) The bids for the erection of the home for the president of Anderson College were opened in the office of the architect, Casey & Pant, today by the chairman of the executive committee, R. S. Ligon. The contract for the erection of this beautiful building was let to Mr. J. L. Hambree and when completed will cost about $5,500. Messrs. C. M. Guest, P. B. Bailey and the W. L. Brissey Lumber Co. also bid on the contract, but Mr. Hambree was successful in bidding the lowest, although all the bids were very close together. The plans call for a building in the Colonial style, brick veneered, stone roof and in every way in harmony with the other buildings of the college. The first floor in front will contain a large reception hall, 25 feet long and 15 feet wide, and the president's study about 12 feet long and 10 feet wide, a dining room, living room, stair hall, toilet room and kitchen. A basement has been provided for steam heat, coal and fruit storage. The second floor contains four large bedrooms, sleeping porch and bath, with plenty of closet room and linen storage space. All floors will be polished and the walls decorated in washable wall paper. When completed this home will be a handsome addition to the college grounds and a credit to the donor, Mr. C. B. Sullivan, whose love for and interest in the college makes it desirable to provide this beautiful home for its president.

NATION IN DEANCE

Bryan Declares the United States is a Great Power in Peace

Washington, June 15.—Declaring the United States is the greatest factor in the movement toward peace, Secretary Bryan speaking here today at the flag celebration in the postoffice department said that peace regarding what constituted the strength of nations, and that peace was a duty. "Formerly power was thought to be dependent on the number of battleships or mariners that a nation possessed," he said, "but that is not the idea today and it will be even less so tomorrow." Mr. Bryan said he was grateful that he had been part of the share of the participation of a man who stands before the world as a peace advocate. At the same time he said that the Illinois Women's Suffrage act was a great step toward the equality of the sexes and that the act would be a great step toward the equality of the sexes.

END OF LONG FIGHT IS ALMOST IN SIGHT

NEW FREIGHT RATES SOON TO BE IN EFFECT

JULY 20TH IS DATE

Anderson To Enjoy Better Rates Than She Ever Had Before, Saving $60,000 Per Year

It was announced last evening by the Transportation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, W. W. Sullivan, chairman, that the new interstate freight rates to Anderson, about which the Atlanta conference of the Piedmont cities and railroad officials of the Southeast was held, would go into effect on July 20th, thus partially ending the long fight for the equalization of freight rates of this city, Greenville and Greenwood. The new rates are the best that this city has ever had and place Anderson on a better freight equalization basis than at any time in her history. In fact, the reductions are large and important and will amount in the aggregate to a gross saving to Anderson merchants of upwards of $60,000 per annum, and perhaps more. It is stated that Mr. Sullivan, who has represented Anderson through the local traffic bureau of the chamber of commerce, is well satisfied with the reductions and the new basic rates, but is still contending for certain other reductions, and he also was successful in getting the Atlanta conference to agree to give Anderson any benefits which Spartanburg might secure based on the present contest filed before the interstate commerce commission by Spartanburg, contending for the Charlotte rates at least, and probably lower, because of shorter mileage from the Ohio River points and points based thereon. The traffic department deserves great credit for this successful fight, and Anderson and after July 20th will be able to compete so far as freight rates are concerned with any other city in this section of the Carolinas. In fact, Anderson is on a splendid rate basis now—or rather will be on and after July 20th, when the new rates go into effect. There should be an immediate stimulus in Anderson's jobbing business, though it is wisely pointed out by the traffic bureau of the chamber of commerce that the chief beneficiaries after all will be the farmer and the consumer.

DR. TRIPP MAY BE IN COMING RACE

Report Has It That He Has Determined To Accept Treasurer's Office—Will Ask Election

While Dr. W. A. Tripp of Brush Creek has not made any official announcement himself as to whether or not he will accept the appointment as treasurer of Anderson county, reports yesterday had it that Dr. Tripp would come to Anderson next Tuesday at a give formal notice of his acceptance at the same time, according to rumors at this office. This will be news to Anderson people as Dr. Tripp said he last Monday that he would not be a candidate for the office in the coming election, even though he decides to accept the appointment and fill out the unexpired term of C. W. McGee. During the past few days Mr. McGee has had a number of visitors to call upon him and express their regret over the fact that he is to retire from office. Dr. Tripp has also had a number of his friends to urge the acceptance of the office on him. While the above report could not be verified last night it is generally believed that there may be some truth in the statement and should Dr. Tripp accept and announce that he is a candidate it will occasion little surprise.

Game Between Riverside and Gluck Was Fine With Gluck Winner By Score of 4 to 0

The second game of the mill league season played in Anderson was staged yesterday afternoon at Buena Vista park when the fast Gluck Mill team won from the Riverside aggregation by a score of 4 to 0. Jam-up ball was played on both sides and the fans enjoyed it just as much as any league game ever played on the local field. The hits were few and far between and before the eight inning the ball played was Class A. In that inning a few errors and a hit or so spoiled the affair to a slight extent.

REV. J. W. SPEAKE EXPLAINS FACTS

Says Mr. Harley Came Here By Invitation and Had An Appointment With Mr. King

Editor The Intelligencer: On returning to the city today, I was very much surprised at the spirit of an article written by Mr. King, supervisor of Anderson county concerning the temporary case. In this article Mr. King is apparently bitter and I believe unjust to Rev. J. L. Harley. I note the following expressions: "I refused to allow a man by the name of Harley who claims to represent the anti-spoon league;" also, "The other gentlemen who appeared were courteous and reasonable and I have no objections to make regarding their conduct."

I have no desire to criticize Mr. King, but do think the public should be acquainted with the facts. Mr. Harley is serving his 28th year as a member of the South Carolina conference. He has been unanimously elected for the seventh year by the State executive committee of South Carolina anti-spoon league (interdenominational), as superintendent and therefore becomes the official representative of all the protestant denominations in accordance with this act of the state executive committee. Mr. Harley has been appointed for the seventh year to this work by the bishops presiding at the South Carolina conference. The State of South Carolina is his territory and his responsibility. Mr. Harley does not go into a county as a minister. He received letters from citizens of Anderson county and from some of the ministers requesting him to come to Anderson county on behalf of the cause he officially represents. He accepted the invitation extended and he was present when he had his interview with Mr. King. Mr. William Banks was present at the request of Mr. Harley, to get the facts for publication. The question of extending the petition came up. Mr. King stated that in order to be fair to both sides, he would not let us see the petition until there could be present representatives from both sides. He said he was willing for the prohibitionists to have representatives and he further requested Mr. Harley to know what they would be suitable.

Mr. Harley, after studying his list of signatures, stated that since 1910 would suit and make note of same in his memorandum. In accordance with this agreement I understood the same to Anderson June 11th. I am surprised to read from Mr. King and Mr. Harley was discourteous and unreasonable on this occasion. Mr. Harley and other ministers may. I make these statements in behalf of the church, the name of the conference and a number of the people who is living in this city. This is my suggestion upon any official petition of Mr. King or the prohibitionists. It is made in strict privacy. Anderson, S. C., June 15, 1914. J. W. SPEAKE.

Mr. W. W. Wood says that it is a fact that $700,000, 000 more dollars are sent in the United States each year.

One of the most delightful of all the associations and conventions now being held will be that of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of South Carolina which meets at Wrightsville Beach on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Barton of Clemson college will address the cotton crushers' convention on "The New Cotton Industry in the South and What it Means to the Farmer and the Oil Miller." Along similar lines will be an address by E. M. Nighthart of Atlanta, of the federal bureau of animal industry on "Co-operative Methods of Tick Eradication." "Cotton Diseases Means of Prevention and Eradication" is the subject of the address to be delivered by H. W. Barre of Clemson college, S. J. Summers, M. D. of Cameron will speak on "What Does the Farmer Expect of the Oil Mill?" W. A. Withers of the Agricultural and Mechanical college of North Carolina will discuss "Cotton Seed Meal as a Hog Feed." C. L. Ives of Newbern will speak on "The Relationship of the Interstate Association to the State Association."

Besides these addresses on the program, there will be discussions of the various subjects of interest to the cottonseed crushing industry by other members of the association. The new officers of the association will be elected on the final day of the convention.
