HORTON OUT FOR CONGRESS

BELTON MAN IN THE RING FROM THIRD DISTRICT WILL BE A WINNER

Friends Are Sure Mr. Horton Will Be Very Much in the Race to the End.

Congressman Atkin is to have a new opponent for his seat in congress and Anderson county a candidate. For some time it has been rumored that Belton had a citizen with congressional aspirations, and was considering the matter of offering for the position of representative from the Third Congressional district. All rumors are now at an end and John Horton is in the race to stay and, his friends say, to win. It is believed that he will poll a large vote in Anderson county, and this is the largest voting county in the district. Coupled with the large vote he will carry in the other counties, his supporters and friends in this county see nothing in the way of Anderson's having a representative in congress.

The following sketch of Mr. Horton's life has been sent The Intelligencer from a warm friend of the candidate living in Belton: "John Aiken Horton, our candidate for congress, was born in August 1874 on his father's farm near Belton. As a small boy he attended school here in Belton, having to walk the distance of four miles twice each day. He was determined to have an education, and never stodd back on account of wind or weather, but was always present and always led his classes. From here he went to the Patrick Military Institute in Anderson, teaching school there the summer months to pay his tuition. He was graduated from this institution in 1895. He then went into the grocery business on a small scale, but soon his business had grown to be one of the largest in Belton.

In 1903 he organized the Farmer's Bank of Belton with a capital stock of $25,000.00. He met with a great deal of opposition in this venture, especially by Hon. A. C. Latham, but when this gentleman saw how determined Mr. Horton was to succeed, he withdrew his objections and was one of the largest stockholders, showing how much confidence he had in Mr. Horton. The bank has grown to a surplus of $17,000.00 under his able management. He did all of the work himself for several years, but now he and his partner have both agreed to keep up with the work of the bank.

He was secretary of Belton for three years, retiring each time on account of ill health. He has been an active member of the Anderson county Agricultural Society, and has been elected to the office of president of the same. He is a member of the Anderson county Agricultural Society, and has been elected to the office of president of the same. He is a member of the Anderson county Agricultural Society, and has been elected to the office of president of the same.

Mr. Horton was married in June 1910 to Miss Emma Tate, of Elberton, Georgia's most attractive young ladies. Socially they are one of the most popular couples in Belton, and as a business man Mr. Horton is honored as highly as any man in Anderson county, because he has succeeded at everything he has ever undertaken, because his character is clean and honorable, because he sticks to his business, because he can always be depended on to be at his post and because he will do what is right while he is there.

That is the kind of a man Belton is offering to this district as a candidate for their representative and sure that is the kind of a man every good householder in this district wants to represent him in our congress.

If you vote for Mr. Horton you can feel safe that when a roll is called in congress he will be present to answer to his name and to have your interests fully represented. He is a man who has thrown in close contact with farmers, all of his life, he knows the farmer's needs not the theories, but the actual needs.

Living for years in a mill town, he also knows their needs and being a banker, he knows their needs and is ready to work for them all to the very best of his ability, as he has always done in everything he ever undertook to do.

Belton is proud of Mr. John Aiken Horton and predicts great things for him in the future.

JOHN M. CANNON SHOT IN THE BACK.

The Testimony Brought Out in The Trial at Laurens on Friday

Laurens, June 19.—That the two wounds in the back caused the death of Col. John M. Cannon, who was killed at Gray Court several weeks ago by Joseph G. The physician stated later that wound on the shoulder might have caused death. He testified that five bullets entered the body of the dead man, two of them striking him in the back.

A jury was drawn with the loss of very little time. A large crowd is in attendance and interest is expected to increase as the trial progresses.

New England Woman Shot Her Husband Because of Her Affection.

Exteter, N. H., June 20.—Henry H. Folsom, a Boston lawyer, was found dead today with a bullet in his head on the road between here and New Market. His wife was standing over the body with a revolver in her hand, according to the police, and was arrested.

"I did it because I loved him," she is alleged to have told the police, who say she declared she was jealous of her husband.

After a hearing Mrs. Folsom was held for the October grand jury. She said the court would not have understood if she told her reasons for the shooting.

Chief of Police Davis testified that when he asked Mrs. Folsom why she shot her husband, she answered: "So he would not marry another woman."

The Folsoms were in a two seated carriage when the shooting began. It is believed Folsom was driving and his wife was in the rear seat. Five shots were fired, all taking effect.

Mrs. Folsom is about 40 years of age. Her husband was a little older.

Torreon, Coahuila, June 19.—(Over Military Wire to El Paso.)—Heavy rains in the states of Coahuila, Durango and Zacatecas have made the operation of the troop train extremely difficult. ENROLL ENTIRE NAME

Ex-Gov. John Cary Evans, chairman of the State democratic party, stated over the phone Monday to The Intelligencer that he was compelled to rule that the committee in stating the "full name" had meant the entire name, and if the matter should ever come before the state executive committee on an appeal from some voter being challenged, he believes that the committee will rule that the full name should have been used, although the purpose of the rule is not to make complete but merely to identify the voter.

He recalled the fact that two years ago there were some 12,000 names that were duplicated, and this rule was passed in order that there might be no confusion and no doubt of the right of a person to be enrolled and to cast his vote.

While the law states that it is not necessary for the middle name to be used in indictments, further than for purpose of identification, yet Gov. Evans advises that it would be better for the voters if they would enroll their complete names and thus avoid any question arising and any challenge being made. He would not attempt to dictate to any county committee, but he wishes his own position to be understood fully in the outset. He recommends that if any persons have enrolled and have not given both christian names in full, they see to it that the roll be corrected so far as their names are concerned, as in a multitude of precaution there is safety.
