GEORGIA SOLONS ARE IN SESSION

The Usual Tide of Bills To Save The Country Has Been Presented

Atlanta, Ga., June 24.—The Georgia legislature declared itself open and ready for business this morning and got down to work. The house was called to order by Speaker Burwell, a prayer was recited by Bishop Warren Candler, John T. Bolleide called the roll and the session was on its way. In the senate the solons got down to business with but slight formality.

The calendars of the two houses were called already with bills side-tracked last summer, but that didn't hinder the members from pouring in a stream of new ones, all designed to save the state from impending disaster.

Bibb county lawmakers have a bill to legalize the sale of real beer under the laws now applying to the well known "high beer" which has helped to make Georgia famous. "They're selling the real stuff, anyway, so why not let's have it done legally?" they said.

The veteran of all bills, one which has bobbed up at every session since the legislature met on Marietta street, is still waiting action. It provides for creating the office of lieutenant-governor. Nobody has any real objection to having a lieutenant-governor but somehow they just can't get a chance to vote on that bill.

The suffragists of the state threaten to turn Atlanta into a miniature London and use real militant methods if they don't get action on the bill giving them the vote. The organization has many workers in the field and several of them are pretty enough to make single members—and maybe a married one or so—do anything desired.

There are six-dozen members in the house this year, few taking office through the death of previous members and one taking the place of a member resigned. They are H. A. Peacock, of Dougherty; A. P. Deadyler, of Elbert; Ben Williams of Meriwether; T. B. Carroll of Catoosa; G. G. Glenn of Whitfield and John D. Clark of McIntosh. The last named was elected only yesterday to succeed the late Representative Atwood. He had no opposition.

Gov. Slaton's message will be read tomorrow. The house, so far, is without a real leader. Just who will make himself the Napoleon of the representatives is yet to be discovered, but it is probable that out of the rank and file some general will arise before the session is well under way.

The equalization bill is likely to bring on the big fight of the year. It passed last session by a bare one vote and its opponents are confident of repeating it this year. The bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into dry territory is apt to bring on a general prohibition anti-battle before it is not dead. The bill was buried in committee last year after a bitter fight but is sure to reach a final vote this session. The school book question, Representative McCrory's bill to have the state publish school books, is also still on the calendar and to judge from the newspaper controversy of the past winter is likely to be debated with considerable acrimony.

The leasing of the Western and Atlantic railroad properties is also to come up and with it the Atlanta plan to erect a great concrete plaza over the tracks of several railroads within the heart of Atlanta. The city is heartily back of the plaza plan and the leaders say the state would profit as much as the city by co-operating in putting the plaza across.

The salary versus the fee system arises again in Representative McMichael's bill to put Solicitor-general on a straight salary. While it would materially reduce the income of solicitor in the larger cities it might be of advantage in quiet counties where cases are few, and fees far between.

The child labor fight is already being vigorously launched by its supporters and a red hot fight is anticipated. The strike now on in an Atlanta cotton mill is expected to play an important figure in the debate. The first harbingers of the legislature today was John T. Bolleide, clerk of the house, who arrived in his usual spotless apparel and his ever-ready smile to prepare the house for business.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY

A Mother in Israel Has Gone to Her Reward. Mrs. Susan Brown died Saturday, June 13th, and her body was laid to rest the day following at Green Roads church, beside the grave of her husband, George Brown, who preceded her some 16 years ago.

Truly may it be said that she was a mother in Israel and the world was better for her having lived in it. Mrs. Brown was in her 90th year. She was greatly loved by a large circle of relatives and friends and she is missed by them all. She is survived by five children, one son and four daughters. Mr. John Brown, of Barnes; Mrs. James Latham of Abbeville; Mrs. Lee Burton of Lincolnton, Ga.; Mrs. Archie McKee, of Iva and Mrs. S. McMahan of Iva.

The pall bearers were grand sons of Mrs. Brown as follows: Messrs. Creece and Walter McMahan; Charlie, John and Will Brown and Lester McKee and Oliver Latham.

T. M. WATSON AGAIN.

Atlanta, Ga., June 24.—A bit of ginger has been injected into the gubernatorial campaign by the active support Judge Nat E. Harris, of Macon, by Thomas E. Watson, in his Jeffersonian. Judge Harris's letter to Mr. Watson commending him for previous

IMMENSE STORE TO BE OPENED

Fleishman Bros., of Anderson and Florence Are Spreading Themselves

The Fleishman brothers, who have a large store here and are doing a steadily growing business, have completed a trade by which they will have one of the largest stores in the state, perhaps the largest. It will rival the great Ocker store at Hartsfield, which is said to cover the greatest floor space. The new store of the Fleishman Brothers, at Florence will cover an entire half of a block, as described in the following dispatch from Florence to the daily papers.

Florence, June 23.—There have been a half dozen deals in Florence real estate within the last few days. One of these deals, it is stated, was made by the B. Fleishman & Brothers, who own large department stores in this and other southern cities. It is said that the Fleishman's have in contemplation one of the largest department stores for Florence to be located in South Carolina.

Another of the deals is that of a corporation having purchased a city property in order that they may build for themselves a Florence home for their offices and headquarters. With these facts before the public, and the great addition to the Florence shops of the Atlantic Coast Line and a doubling up of their forces, it is a wonder that Florence folk should say that "Florence is growing and coming to the front with leaps and bounds."

A MODEST MAN

Capt. J. M. Dunlap, the old war horse, and the only Confederate survivor now holding office in this county, was in the city yesterday on business and yielded to a long time acquaintance from his district, in fact he is denouncing everything democratic, but singing the praises of N. E. Harris. Many good men have been defeated because of Tom Watson's support and Judge Harris is welcome to it.

CAUCASIA GOLFERS BUSY

Tournament on At Asheville for Amateur Title of States. (By Associated Press) Asheville, N. C., June 23.—In the annual tournament of the Carolina Golf Association for the championship of North and South Carolina, play started today with an invitation tournament open to both professional and amateur. The honors were divided between C. T. Dunham, of Charlotte, amateur, and the professional from the same city, Tom Bonnar.

Dunham negotiated the 36 holes in 151 while Bonnar needed but a four on the second eighteen to win the contest. He attempted a 2 on the home green, however, overplayed, and finally took five to hole out.

Tomorrow starts the contest for the amateur title of the Carolinas and the entry list includes some of the best known golfers of the two states. Several teams are entered for the Capers Memorial cup and an interesting feature of the tournament will be the playing for the cup offered by Frank Prebey, a well known amateur golfer, for the best "ringer" score of the tournament.

PUBLICITY FRIDAY

What Passed Between United States and Japan to Be Given the Press. Washington, June 23.—Secretary Bryan announced today that by arrangement with the Japanese ambassador correspondence on the California alien land ownership act would be given to the press for publication simultaneously in Japan and the United States, Friday.

It was pointed out as significant today that since the last note from Japan the arbitration treaty between the United States and Japan, which had lapsed by limitation, has been resumed. Some time ago Ambassador Gutrie was appointed with a suggestion of the Japanese foreign office as an issue between the United States and Japan in the California land case involved the construction of a treaty it was eminently suitable for adjustment by arbitration before the Hague. At that time the arbitration treaty between the two countries was not in effect.

Knapp, of New York; Edmund Sachon, New Orleans, and Francis J. Sheppard, Montreal.

DENIED INJUNCTION

The Supreme Court Declined to Step Between Growers and Treasury. Washington, June 23.—The supreme court today declined to issue an injunction restraining the treasury department from granting Cuban sugar the twenty per cent differential provided by treaty, in addition to the new reduced rates of the tariff law. The merits of the case, brought by the state of Louisiana, were not passed on, however, and the decision did not preclude action in the customs court.

THE FIRST WEEK

Was Quiet in the Campaign for the U. S. Senate. Charleston, June 23.—L. H. Wannamaker, Jr., who has been around with the campaign party for the first week, summarizes results as follows: "The situation on the stump, after the first four of the forty-four meetings, may be summarized as follows: Blaise has attacked Smith's record, while Smith has refrained from retaliating. Jennings and Pollock have jumped on to the records of both Blaise and Smith, while the governor has remained silent as to these particular opponents, and Smith has made only indirect reference to them.

Nothing sensational has developed so far, and the governor has not yet called for a hand primary.

Alleged Can Trust Case.

Baltimore, June 23.—Enormous prices were paid by the American Can Company to several Baltimore can makers for their plants, according to testimony at the hearing here before Examiner Edward Hooker, in the Federal suit asking dissolution of the American Can Company. John Black, of Black and Krebs, testified that about $750,000 was paid for the Baltimore and Indianapolis factories of that concern. They were said to be worth from $25,000 to $30,000 each. William Pitt was paid $200,000 for his plant, the machinery being worth about $18,000. Others gave similar testimony. All the first entered into an agreement not to engage in making cans for fifteen years. The hearing probably will last more than a week.

Kingly Good Wishes.

Washington, June 23.—In recognition of the official celebration of the birthday of King George, President Wilson today sent this congratulatory telegram to the British monarch: "I beg of your majesty to accept my hearty felicitations on this birthday anniversary and my best wishes for your continued happiness and well-being. At the same time I wish to convey to you the expression of good will which this government and people bear to your great country."

BUY YOUR VETCH SEED

Mr. Long Advises Farmers of an Advance in the Price. Editor The Intelligencer: I have just received information that there will be a decided advance in the price of vetch and clover seed within the next thirty days. I would thank you very much if you would call the attention of the farmers that it would be advisable for them to make their contracts and purchases at as early a date as possible.

One dealer in the state has already sold 140 tons of vetch seed. I received information not only from dealers, but the Department of Agriculture that there would be a great scarcity of these seeds. This is a matter of so great importance to the farmers of the state, that I am sure you will aid me in getting this information out as soon as possible.

W. W. LONG, State Agt. and Supt. Ext. Clemson College, June 20.

Railroad Passes Not Pay.

Washington, June 23.—Railroads are not liable for injuries to interstate employes or members of their families riding on passes which contain stipulations that the passenger assumed all risks while being so transported. The supreme court today so decided and held that a pass is not to be regarded as part of the compensation for which the employe works, but is in reality free and subject to any conditions the railroad may impose.

May Sue Tyrus Cobb.

McGee, who has resigned his position as county treasurer, will become assistant cashier to succeed Mr. Brownlee. It has been understood around town for some weeks that this move would take place within the next few weeks but for some good reasons, they did not care to make any announcement concerning the matter. The bank is in splendid condition and the regular semi-annual dividend of 8 per cent was paid.

Passengers Rescued

Belgian Steamer Sent S. O. S. When Injured on Rocks. (By Associated Press.) Scilly, England, June 23.—The Belgian steamer Gothland, Montreal for Rotterdam, laden with grain, struck Crim Rocks, near Bishop lighthouse, off Scilly Islands, in a dense fog today. Wireless calls for aid speedily brought the steamer, Lyonesse from Penzance, two lifeboats from St. Mary's and the steamers Ascanius and Montezuma from Lizard Head. The Gothland was badly damaged and a heavy sea made attempts to launch boats hazardous. The first boat fell from the davits and was smashed. The occupants of the boat were thrown into the water but a St. Mary's lifeboat rescued them. A second boat was swung out but with no better success. Eventually, all passengers, numbering 120 emigrants, and 89 of the crew were transferred safely to the Lyonesse and landed at Hightown, St. Mary's Island.

Several Were Injured.

It is feared the Gothland will be a total wreck, although the captain, officers and some of the crew remained aboard. The Gothland belongs to the Red Star Line but is under charter to the Canadian Line. She left Montreal June 12.
