

SALVATION ARMY TO ENTERTAIN THE POOR

PLANNING BIG NIGHT FOR AUGUST 28.

EVERYTHING FREE

People of Anderson, Unable to Afford Night of Pleasure Will Be Given Real Treat

While Anderson people means are touring the county, or enjoying the breezes of the sea coast, there are dozens of families in the city without the funds to have such outings and people who cannot afford even a visit to the ice cream parlor or to the moving picture shows.

The director of the Anderson branch of this great organization announced yesterday that he is making plans for a big "free" night for the poor people of the city which he will stage on August 28 in the Army hall.

Mr. Belcher announced yesterday that the affair will take place on an evening of the 28th, and he hopes that every family in the city, without funds to purchase these luxuries, will come out and share in the pleasures of the evening.

He also stated that the program for the evening would consist of songs and recitations and there will be no lack of entertainment.

Of course in arranging for an event of this kind, the Salvation Army will find that its resources are limited, and for that reason it benevolence the people of Anderson to come to its assistance in money as far as possible.

Great credit is due Ensign Belcher and his helpers for what they are accomplishing in Anderson.

THRIFTY FARMERS NEAR ANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Perry Making Their Farm Near Town a Garden Spot

Nothing is prettier or gives a feeling of greater satisfaction than looking over a farm well tilled, and seeing the forces of nature controlled in such a manner as to conserve the fertility of the soil and produce the maximum crop of the season.

Among the well tilled farms located near the city, and there are many such there is none better than that of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Perry, located two miles east of Anderson.

He has planted this year 53 acres. Of this 27 acres are in cotton, 12 acres in corn, 12 acres in forage crops and 1 acre in sweet potatoes.

One thing that impresses one on looking over Mr. Perry's farm is the cleanliness and neatness of his premises, and the fact that every bit of farm machinery of whatever sort is carefully put away out of the weather.

This small farmer demonstrates on his farm that he can make money on rented land. Mr. Perry plowed one mule himself and hired a negro for five months to plow the other.

The production of this newspaper man in this article and Mrs. Perry will soon be living in their own home and that are 1800 dollars an old man, he will be among the most prosperous and independent farmers and business men in Anderson county.

EVERYTHING MARKED THE LOWEST REGARDLESS OF COST OR LOSS TO US.

This is one time of the year when our entire time is devoted to but one purpose, and that is, to reduce stock as much as possible.

With us, at the present time, is not a question of how much profit we should make, no, no, profits or even cost is our least consideration, the main and most important question on our hands now is

How Much Goods Can We Sell to Clear Shelves of Surplus Stock

With us it is the end of a big season, new plans must be made, now Fall Goods must be taken in, and every inch of space must be reserved for that purpose.

THE GOODS WE OFFER NOW

are absolutely new and seasonable and will be in demand for the next sixty days to come, and while we are aware of the fact that we could get first price on all these goods as long as the hot sun is beating down on us, still our system of business demands a quick clearance and not wait until the last horn blows.

THEREFORE IN ORDER TO GET BIG RESULTS

We must give inducements that will meet with your approval, and if reasonable merchandise way underpriced, by far exceeding your expectations is an inducement to you, then we are sure to fill our big store to the fullest capacity.
