NEWS FROM OUR SISTER CITY

Newsy Items of Interest From Friday's Belton Journal

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Woodside announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Charles, to Dr. Edward Cecil Frierson. The wedding to take place in October—Sunday's Greenville Daily News.

TAYLOR-MAHAFFEY.

Miss Lula Taylor and Leonard Mahaffey, of Belton, were married last Sunday afternoon in the presence of relatives and friends at the home of Rev. H. C. Martin, four miles of Belton. Rev. G. A. Martin conducted the marriage ceremony in an impressive manner. This happy couple will make their home in Belton.

PROTRACTED MEETING.

A protracted meeting is being conducted at Triangle Baptist church this week. Rev. H. C. Martin, the able pastor, has with him in this meeting his brother, Rev. G. A. Martin, of Hendersonville, S. C., Colleton county. Mr. Martin is an able preacher and the meeting is being largely attended and those attending the services are being greatly benefitted spiritually.

For several years Rev. G. A. Martin has been located in Colleton county and is very popular in the low country. He has about all the charges he can fill—some five or six. While on his summer vacation he has been busily engaged at different places carrying on summer revivals. While in and near Belton Brother Martin is among his own people and all are delighted that he and his wife will be here until the first of September.

The meeting at Triangle will continue through tomorrow.

BRAZIL DAVIS DEAD.

Brazil Davis, who lived near Belton, died Friday afternoon after a long illness. Mr. Davis was a good Christian man—a consistent member of the Baptist church—a good and generous neighbor—was one of the heroes of the Confederate army. He was one of the best soldiers in the Confederate service. His comrades speak in highest terms of his bravery. The deceased was 76 years old at the time of his death. He leaves a heart-broken wife—no children were born to this union. Rev. N. G. Wright, of Belton, conducted the funeral service Saturday afternoon in the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends, after which the interment took place in Belton cemetery.

Mr. Davis was a great sufferer and his death was a relief to the physical body and a blessing to the soul which we have every reason to believe is at rest. He was wounded several times while in the service for the lost cause, but he never murmured but did his duty as a man and soldier.

Just a few more years and the last call will be given the old soldiers and many hearts will ache in every section of the beautiful Southland of ours.

PAGE-ALAWINE.

Charles Alawine and Miss Lillie Page, of near Belton, were happily married last Sunday afternoon at the home of Rev. H. C. Martin. Rev. G. A. Martin, of Hendersonville, S. C., performed the ceromony.

COX-ROBERTS.

A marriage that came as a surprise to their many friends in Belton was that of Miss Irene Cox and Ernest B. Roberts, which took place in Greenville last Tuesday morning in the presence of a few friends.

The bride is one of Belton's popular ladies, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cox, of Belton.

The groom is from Columbia, but is located at Belton and holds an important position with the Piedmont and Northern Lines. Mr. Roberts is very popular among his comrades and has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will return to Belton this week and will make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Maddox, of Seneca spent Wednesday in town, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mitchell, on River street. They were en route to Donnalds, where they will spend some time before returning home.

The following party motored over to Anderson College Tuesday for the day: Mr. and Mrs. Joel T. Rice, Mrs. W. P. Haynes, Mr. George Rice, Mrs. Jessie B. Lewis, Mrs. W. E. Greer, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. H. M. Geer and Mr. E. T. Breazeale.

MRS. CHAS. OWEN DEAD.

Mrs. Charles Owen died at her home in Belton Tuesday after an illness of three weeks. Mrs. Owens was one of our good women, was aged thirty-five years old and leaves a husband and eight children and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Rev. N. G. Wright, of Belton conducted the funeral service and enterment took place at Dorchester Baptist church Wednesday afternoon.

The town is deeply in sympathy with the bereaved family in their sad bereavement.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN

With the passing of summer and elections, comes school days again. Just two weeks till school begins again and Belton will be bright again with the happy faces of children and teachers. The trustees have decided to open school on September 7th and the following teachers have been elected:

Down Town School

First Grade—Miss Frances Burns, of Anderson.

Second Grade—Miss Ruby Williford of Anderson.

Third Grade—Miss Marguerite Adams, of Charleston.

Fourth Grade—Miss Claudine Skelton, of Anderson.

Fifth Grade—Miss Susan Covington, of Greenville.

Sixth Grade—Miss Hattie Hardin, of Chester.

Stventh Grade—Not decided yet.

High School, History and Mathematics, Miss Helen Goldsmith, of Fountain Inn.

High School English and Latin, Miss Lillian Shirley, of Anderson.

Superintndent, Prof. J. B. Watkins.

Mill School

First Grade—Miss Oma Cox, of Belton

Second and Fourth Grades—Miss Selma Hunter, of Belton.

Third and Fifth Grates—Miss Una Shaw, of Belton.

Miss Goldsmith will board with her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Boggs, and the others with Mrs. J. T. West, on Tilson avenue.

This is an able corps of teachers and the prospects are fair for the finest school term known in Belton. The children should all come the first day and not get behind by coming in late for it is so hard to catch up and puts the child at a disadvantage through the whole year.

W. C. Clinkscales, J. R. Mitchell and W. J. Mitchell, all of Belton, Route 1, were among those in town Wednesday on business.

N. H. McKee and daughters, of Belton, Route 2, who have been spending some time in Franklin county, Georgia, with relatives, have returned home.

W. L. Sutherland and R. J. Maddox, who have been spending some time with relatives and friends in Oconee county, have returned home.

J. L. Stone and R. R. Sweat, of Belton route four, were in to see us while in town yesterday.

Miss Miriam E. Lee, one of the efficient teachers in Anderson graded school, has returned from Rock Hill, where she attended the state teachers meeting. Miss Lee will spend the rest of the summer in Belton the guest of her father, W. E. Lee, and will return to Anderson when school opens.

Mrs. D. G. Smith and little daughter, Florida, of Belton, left last week to visit the former's mother in Lincolnton, N. C. Mrs. Smith will also go to the mountains while away to visit her mother-in-law, Mrs. Smith.

W. K. Stringer, the progressive president of the People's Bank, has had the handsomest sign put up on the window that has ever been seen in Belton. It is of pure gold leaf with red and black inlaid work, and is really a work of art and lends quite a city air to that part of town.

Messrs. L. P. Willingham, L. L. Harris, Willard Horton and W. C. Clinkscales went to Anderson Monday to hear the candidates for governor speak.

John A. Horton, Mr. R. Fuller Horton and Mr. John T. West were in Anderson Monday.

Messrs. Albert Fant, Dr. J. M. Hollombe, Herman Poore and H. Reid Sherard were among the members of Beltonians in Anderson Monday.

TONEY CREEK.

(Belton Journal.)

Messrs. R. D. Dawkins, Jim and Reuben, left Monday for Centerville, Ala., where they will spend a few weeks. Their many friends wish for them a pleasant trip.

There was a most enjoyable lawn party given at the home of Misses Nora and Edna Gossett Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Alice Young, of Baxeley, Ga., and Miss Vera Brown, of Chauncy, Ga. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns, delightful and refreshing punch was served. There were twenty-six couples present and all reported a jolly time.

Mrs. Tom Huff and Miss Annie Huff, of Chandlar, were the charming guests of Miss Edna Holliday last week.

Mr. J. C. Cothran is building him a beautiful mansion. He wants to get it completed by the last of September and move in it.

Miss Icy Shaw, of Belton, was the charming goest of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Holliday, last week.

Misses Ula and Morie Dill, of Greers, are spending this week with Miss Clara Cothran.

Mr. Tom Peden has been in this section about two weeks working the roads. He has with him a traction engine that pulls three roads scrapes and of course they are always welcome in here and we are glad to report a good road again.

The people of this community are very sorry to learn that Mrs. E. S. Cothran is going to leave us next near and move down near Hodges. He and his family will be greatly missed in this community.

Rev. M. M. McCuen will fill his regular appointment at Cedar Shoal Saturday and Sunday. The baptizing will be Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Langley, of Greenville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith.

Mr. Grover Huff, of Greenville, was a visitor in this community last week.

Mr. Berry Owens and family, of Westminster, are visiting his parents this week.

Misses Queenie, Mamie and Maggie Cothran attended church service at Daventon Tuesday evening.

MRS. A. P. KNOX DEAD.

(Belton Journal.)

Mrs. A. P. Knox, of near Belton, died Tuesday afternoon, August 11, and was laid to rest in Belton cemetery, Wednesday, August 12. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. N. G. Wright in the First Baptist church at this place in the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends.

The deceased leaves a heart broken husband and six children to mourn their loss. Mrs. Knox was a daughter of Mrs. Fowler, who in years gone by ran a very popular railroad boarding house in Belton.

Mrs. Knox was well known in Belton and had many relatives and friends here who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their hour of trouble.
