Be Not Over-Confident Advice to Manning Men

Indications Are That He Has a Tremendous Majority, If the People Will But Come Out and Vote Next Tuesday

To the White Democratic voters of South Carolina:

We have just passed through one of the most strenuous campaigns ever known in South Carolina. The nominee for the most important office, that of Governor, has not as yet been selected. The final decision in this race will be Tuesday, September 8th, when you will be called upon to decide by your ballot between John G. Richards of Kershaw county, and Richard I. Manning of Sumter.

The indications are that Mr. Manning will be nominated by a splendid majority and will be our next governor. The friends of good government do not become over-confident and careless in the matter. We must work every minute from now until the votes are counted and Mr. Manning is declared the nominee. Do not relax your efforts just as victory is within our grasp. Let us not be content with the nomination of Mr. Manning, but see how large a majority we can give him and the cause he represents.

Messrs. Clinkscales and M. L. Smith have already tendered their support and services to Mr. Manning, and it is expected that Messrs. Cooper and C. A. Smith will do the same as soon as the State Executive committee officially declares the result. If the supporters of these candidates will now rally to the support of Mr. Manning and put forth their best efforts in his behalf, he will roll up one of the greatest majorities ever known in this State, and will make a Governor of whom South Carolina will be proud.

Mr. Manning will use his best efforts to build up our state in every way that is best for the people. He will hold himself above factionalism, and will know no class or faction, but will be the friend of all the people.

The next two years will be critical times with the farmers of South Carolina, and it is necessary that a sound and experienced business man and farmer be placed at the head of our government, especially at this time. Mr. Manning is just exactly the combination needed. He is a business man of the highest type and recognized ability. He has been a farmer practically all his life. He owns farms in Sumter and Barnwell counties, and gives them his personal attention at all times.

Mr. Manning has promised if elected, to support every measure that will benefit the farmer.

He also pledges himself to the enforcement of all laws, including those against race track gambling and the blind tigers. He will be governor of all the people, and will be a credit and honor to the State.

The people in Mr. Manning's home county, Sumter, gave him a majority of more than four hundred over all opponents, while his opponent received less than one-third of the total vote cast in his home county.

Get busy, men, and keep busy until the votes are counted and Hon. Richard I. Manning is made Governor of South Carolina, the state we love so well.

Let us forget the past differences, and put forth a strong fight for South Carolina. If you will do this and get your neighbor to do the same, Mr. Manning will be nominated and elected by a splendid majority.

Respectfully,
O. K. LaRoque,
Marion, S. C., Sept. 1, 1914.

"LOW COUNTRY" IS SOLID

Manning Will Come to the Piedmont With a Big Majority.

Editor The Intelligencer:

The lower part of the state is alive in the interest of R. I. Manning. He will get, from what I can learn, nearly all the votes cast for the anti-Blessing candidates for governor. He is gaining strength daily, and we feel sure that he will be nominated. I hope that Anderson county will back him, as I feel sure that he will make us a great governor, combining business experience with his knowledge of government. He is well equipped for the office, and if you in the up country will support him as we will in this section of the state, he will be elected by a big majority.

THEY'RE MEMBER THE OLD VILLAGE

Former Citizens Prefer Buying Goods From Anderson People Whenever Possible

Anderson people know that "chickens will come home to roost" but they do not know that most of the people now living away from Anderson, but once residents of this city, still prefer to do their buying here when it is possible. Of course, not all advertising in the Intelligencer is the best way for any Anderson merchant to get results but for the benefit of those unacquainted with this fact, the following is given. S. M. Orr and E. E. Frierson, both of whom once lived in this city but are now engaged in business at Heardmont, Ga., under the firm name of The Frierson-Orr Company, wrote the following letter to the Intelligencer:

"We notice in The Anderson Intelligencer that you are handling lumber and plan to plant 2 1/2 bushels of crimson clover and would like to locate the material from you. How do you get the material from you? How do you get it? How much will it cost, and how much will it take?"

They are members of the old village and prefer buying goods from Anderson people whenever possible.

Heardmont, Ga.

WHO IS J. H. PATTEN?

In this issue appears an advertisement inserted by friends of Fred. H. Dominick, candidate for congress. It is a copy of a circular being distributed throughout the district. We feel sure that it will do Mr. Aiken's cause no harm.

Sometime ago, Mr. Aiken, on account of some personal matter, was attacked by Jas. M. Baker, secretary of the United States senate. Baker is nominally a resident and a large taxpayer in this district.

But who is Mr. Patten? In order that Mr. Aiken might have a chance to meet these charges in this last issue of the same weekly Intelligencer before next Tuesday, we asked his secretary, W. W. Bradley if they wished to make any statement. Mr. Bradley replied that it would be unnecessary.

He charges that Patten is a Boston man, no doubt a Republican, who married in Anderson county but has no right at the eleventh hour to come scattering such trash over the district. It is none of his affair at all.

Card of Thanks

J. M. Holliday, candidate for commissioner for the 5th district wishes to thank the voters for the support given him in the first primary, and asks that they support him in the second primary. If elected, will treat each community the same and work in harmony with the supervisor and other commissioners.
