The War of Business

Clear Eye, Strong Arm, Good Health, are Secrets of Success.

The man with the punch, both mental and physical is the big business success of today.

His bodily health is the force behind his business possibilities.

The business world has no time to listen to the groggy staff.

Sour stomach, malaria, indigestion, coated tongue and a hundred other bodily ills come from an out-of-order liver.

Calomel used to be considered the only relief. Modern medical science has provided a far milder and more pleasant form of liver relief in CARSWELL'S LIVER-AID, a purely vegetable-liquid remedy.

A large bottle can be had for 50 cents at Frierson's Pharmacy Bolton, S. C., where the purchase price will be promptly returned in case you wish it after trying this wonderful remedy.

Manning Congratulated By Hundreds of Friends

Sumter, Sept. 1.—From men in every walk of life, from every section of South Carolina, Richard I. Manning of Sumter, who will make the second race for governor has received congratulations and offers of support in the second primary. Several of the candidates for governor who failed to get into the second race wired that they are ready to support Mr. Manning now and to help place him in the governor's office.

John G. Clinkcales wired Saturday morning to the effect that Mr. Manning could count on his support. Mendel L. Smith of Camden, was the first candidate to offer his services in the fight that will be made for the Sumter man.

Some of the messages that have come from Sumter are ringing in their appeal for good government and many are a clarion call to the people of the state.

R. O. Bryan, of Georgetown, says Mr. Manning will be the next governor. He wired: "I congratulate you, our next governor."

From Old Charleston.

Charleston county stood by Mr. Manning in the first primary and reports from that section now indicate that he will sweep the county in the second primary. Two Charlestonians well known throughout the state wired Mr. Manning:

"Heartiest congratulations. You will be proud of old Charleston. We will do better for you in the second. Hunter R. Boykin, Frank D. Bell."

Sumter people in other sections showered congratulations. Here is a telegram from "Tex" Silbert, who now lives in Newberry: "Congratulations. We are with you. All work harder than ever."

Senator Epps and many others from Williamsburg county wired. Senator Epps predicts Mr. Manning's election as follows: "Congratulations to our next governor."

That Spartanburg is bound to be won by Mr. Manning in the second race is the opinion of J. R. Brown. He wired: "Congratulations, Governor Manning. You will stand by all our people."

From Beaufort: "Hurrah for Governor Manning. Beaufort county is still on the job." This was signed James M. Rhett.

Lexington county stood handsomely by Mr. Manning. Two of the strongest Manning counties were Lexington and Newberry. The following telegrams were received from these sections:

"Congratulations, Lexington and Newberry, with you to the finish." D. F. Ehrd, S. J. Derrick.

Sheriff M. M. Burford of Newberry, known all over the up country, wired: "Good hearty congratulations and best wishes for success."

K. P. Dorchester, came the following: "Congratulations. We have been desperately proud to have you in the second race." M. S. Connor.

Representative E. P. McCravy of Pickens, the author of the McCravy local option compulsory education bill, wired Mr. Manning as follows: "Congratulations. I am yours for service." Command me."

From Williamsburg: "Congratulations to the next governor of South Carolina. Williamsburg will do her duty in the coming primary." W. D. Jenkinson, J. D. O'Bryan.

From Prof. John G. Clinkcales: "Congratulations. Count on my support."

These are but a few of the hundreds of messages that have come to Sumter with regard to Mr. Manning's race and offers of support have poured in by letter and otherwise.

MANNING TRUE MAN

F. P. McGowan of Laurens: Ball on Loyal Fellow Citizens.

Editor, The Intelligencer:

I wish to say a few words in behalf of Richard I. Manning, a candidate for governor in the second primary. I have known Mr. Manning for 12 years and can say conscientiously that he is a true man in every sense of the word. I was in the legislature with him for four years and during a part of that time boarded in the same hotel or boarding house with him and became intimate with him and learned much of his true character. Socially, he was courteous, kind and considerate. In the discharge of public duty, he was always wise in council, fair, able and diligent in debate, and absolutely free from political or legislative trickery.

Friends and countrymen, rally to the support of Manning, trust his leadership and in electing him governor you will do credit to yourselves and reflect great honor upon the state, the common mother of us all.

SEVEN MURDER CASES FOR CRIMINAL COURT

SOLICITOR READY TO BEGIN WORK

MEMMINGER HERE FOR THE THEATRE

Doubt About Presiding Judge Is Settled By Announcement That Popular Jurist Will Preside

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The doubt about whether Judge Memminger, Judge Wilson or Judge Devore would come to Anderson to preside at the coming term of the court of general sessions for this county was settled yesterday when definite announcement was made that Judge R. Withers Memminger will come to Anderson and open court here on the morning of Monday, September 7. Judge Memminger is popular with the lawyers of Anderson and he is popular with the people of the county and he will receive a cordial welcome.

The coming term of court will last hardly more than two weeks, although it is understood that it could last longer if necessary. However, Clerk of Court Pearson has drawn juries for two weeks and it is believed that the business of the court can be dispatched in that length of time.

All told there are 45 or 50 jury cases to be tried at this term of court but Solicitor K. P. Smith says that he expects to get the docket pretty well cleaned up in a fortnight. There are seven murder cases to be tried at this term of court, these being:

Claude Poore, charged with the murder of Joe Kelley. It will be remembered that Poore was a member of the police force of Williamston and that Kelly was an ex-policeman. The affair created great interest in Williamston when a negro, charged with the murder of Matthew Jones, Archie Colyer, charged with the murder of Rosamond Walker. This killing occurred near Belton and the defendant is only a young boy. It is believed that this may be nothing more than a case of accidental killing.

Will Garrison, charged with the murder of Will Hall. This killing occurred on Peoples Row in Anderson and was the usual negro killing about a woman.

W. J. Harris, a white man, is charged with killing Lewis Goode in the Fork section of the county.

Ulysses Davis, a negro, is charged with killing Jim Emmons, another negro in North Anderson last Sunday night.

In addition to these cases one murder case was mentioned from the last term of court, this being Will Becher who is charged with killing Warren Fieback.

There are also 25 or 20 miscellaneous cases, which have arisen since the last term of court, the charges ranging from arson, to assault and battery.

About 10 cases were brought over from the last term of court on account of the sickness of defendants and the absence of material witnesses and all these are to be tried at this term.

Ten or twelve cases were also tried at the last term of court in which the defendants were convicted and sentenced but under the terms of their sentences, they were to appear at this term and receive the remainder of their sentences.

F. H. DOMINICK MUCH PROVOKED

Talks of Bringing Suit For Libel Against Certain Newspapers In District

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

F. H. Dominick, candidate for congress in the district which includes Anderson, has been much provoked on account of a recent publication, and unless retraction and apologies are made it is his intention to prosecute one or more papers for violation of the libel laws.

The article to which he refers appeared in a Seneca paper first and later in an Anderson paper. It alleged that Mr. Dominick had held a secret conference with supporters at a hotel in Seneca and had announced his determination to oust the postmaster there and at some other points and to name some of his own men.

Mr. Dominick says the only color of truth in the whole matter is the fact that he spent a few minutes in Seneca on the day mentioned. He was on his way to Pickens and held no conferences.

Mr. Dominick spoke rather bitterly of the matter in connection with other charges made against him. He was provoked about a tale that he had shipped liquor to Central and to Seneca. The only truth in these statements, he said, is the fact that two packages, each about the size of a quart bottle, were shipped to him at these places. Each package contained a quantity of liquor. The Intelligencer office, Mr. Dominick says, printers, ink is less dangerous in an election.

Throughout the campaign, Mr. Dominick says, that he has treated his opponents fairly and he will give $100 to anyone who can prove any defensible act on his part in the campaign, or can prove that he has made any promises of place or other thing of value to get votes.

THE GOVERNORSHIP

(News and Courier.)

The election of Richard I. Manning over John G. Richards is the second primary to be held on September 8, or it to be easy. Out of a total vote going above 130,000, the vote for the four candidates who made the race as a favored supporters of Governor Blaise aggregates only about 45,000 or a little more than one-third cast last Tuesday. The bulk of the ballots received by Blaise, Clinkcales, Coover and the two Smiths ought to go to Manning in the second primary and he will receive some of the votes which were cast for Irby and Simms.

This is the way the situation figures out on paper, and this, we believe, is the way it will figure out at the polls. But the thing against which the great mass of voters who have declared for a change of policies in South Carolina should guard above everything else is overconfidence. Such a feeling, hopes, apathy, and apathy is the greatest danger that will befall the friends of good government should any of these chances. They should go to the polls themselves on the 8th of September and they should see to it that all those with whom they have influence do so also.

The people of South Carolina have shown unmistakably that they want a governor of Mr. Manning's type, but he will be fought bitterly and hostile to his election will be the powerful financial interests. They are far more desirous of having a governor who will work in harmony with them than they are of having a tripartite senate.

The victory of good government can be made complete, and it must be made complete, but until it is complete an unrelenting vigilance should be all means maintained.

BRICK RECORD BROKEN BY ORDER YESTERDAY

ANDERSON CONCERN GOT BIG CONTRACT

FOR THE THEATRE

Anderson County Brick and Probably Anderson Stone Will Be Used in Handsome Building

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The largest single order for brick ever placed in this county was awarded yesterday by the contractor who will build the Anderson theatre. The contract goes to the big brick kiln at Pendleton and calls for 800,000 brick, all of which will be used in the construction of Anderson's new play house. Builders said last night that it was a larger order than had ever been let at one time in this city before and that probably the new building will require more brick than any other building in the city.

The contract was awarded by Nicholas Rooney, local representative of the S. W. Atkinson Co. of Atlanta, Ga. which firm has the contract for erecting the handsome new edifice. Mr. Rooney also sub-let the excavation work to Clarence Osborne, who began on the work yesterday. He estimates that he will be able to complete all of the excavating by Saturday and be ready for the contractors to begin their work.

Mr. Rooney directed that the first consignment of his brick order be delivered in this city Thursday and from that time on as fast as the manufacturers could furnish them and it is very evident that Anderson's theatre will soon be completed.

It was said yesterday that the Williamson quarry is figuring for the contract to furnish the crushed stone used in the construction of the building and it is believed that they will get it.

The building permits required by the city before a new building can be constructed was taken out yesterday and so far as can now be seen there is not a single hitch in the plans and preparations for the amusement place.

DISPLAY ANDERSON ON "MOVIE" SCREEN

EVERYBODY INVITED TO VISIT THE SQUARE THIS AFTERNOON

Photographer Has Arrived in City and Begins Today Preparing Pictures for Panama Exhibit

Ever see yourself in a moving picture? Then, this afternoon will be the one big chance of a lifetime because at 2 o'clock this afternoon W. J. Kraft of New York will begin turning the crank of his moving picture machine, making a film of the public square and everybody on the square at the time will be included in the picture and will be seen in every town in South Carolina and over at the Panama Exposition, where the picture is to be shown. Mr. Kraft said yesterday that he would start this afternoon promptly at 2 o'clock, and he hopes that there will be a goodly number of people on the square. It is necessary that there be a good crowd if Anderson is to show up in the picture as she should.

The moving picture man will start this morning at making pictures of the various industrial plants around the city and he expects to have all these completed by noon. He will then be able to devote the remainder of the afternoon to making the pictures of the scenes around town.

Mr. Kraft said last night that he was very favorably impressed indeed with Anderson and from what he has seen of the city he believes that Anderson will show up to as much advantage as any other city in the state.

SOUTHERN MEN TO WORK FOR ROADS

This County Will Have Delegates At Next Meeting of Southern Appalachian Association

One of Anderson county's well known good roads enthusiasts yesterday received a letter from Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, president of the Southern Appalachian Good Roads Association, in which Dr. Pratt asked that delegates be appointed from this county and be urged to attend the meeting. A portion of Dr. Pratt's letter said:

"The Southern Appalachian Good Roads Association will hold its sixth annual convention at Bristol, Va., Oct. 6-9, and the Bristol board of trade will join the association in an effort to make this the greatest convention the association has ever held.

"I herewith extend you a cordial invitation to attend the convention as a delegate, and I will thank you to appoint about ten delegates to represent your town at the convention.

"I know you will select men interested in good roads and who are able to attend, and I want to ask that you notify them of their appointment and urge them to attend. We will also notify them as soon as receiving the names and addresses from you.

"The association is not only doing a great work in encouraging the construction and maintenance of improved roads in the southern Appalachian territory, but is encouraging and promoting the construction of great interstate highways traversing all the states of the southeast and reaching other sections of the country.

"The convention will be educational as well as entertaining. Some of the best equipped men in the country will address the convention on the questions of location, construction and maintenance of roads, federal and state aid, and the progress of the road movement will be reported from all sections of the southeast. Literature and program giving further information will be sent all delegates.

"We fully realize that the country without good roads is a dead one, and we want to help make every community in the south east a live one. Will you not come and bring a few other live representatives to the convention? Leaders are cordially invited and can be appointed as delegates."
