

A Landslide For Richard I. Manning

Sumter Man Carried All But Two Counties in State

HIS MAJORITY CLIMBED TO NEARLY 30,000

Betha and Shealy Were Elected By Immense Majorities; Anderson County Completely Reversed Its Position of Two Years Ago—Wyatt Aiken Has Large Majority

(From Wednesday's Daily)

While not so many gathered in front of The Intelligencer office last night to hear the glad tidings that Richard I. Manning of Sumter, had been elected governor of South Carolina and to watch the returns on the other elections, as did on the occasion of the first primary, yet the crowd last night made up in happiness for what it lacked in numbers and the voters gathered on Main street got real genuine enjoyment out of every bulletin received—for the simple reason that everything received during the night showed that there was no longer to be any factionalism in South Carolina.

By ten o'clock it was a clearly established fact that Manning, Betha and Shealy were elected and it was almost as fully established that the anti-administration forces had won out in the race for county offices.

Anderson's Showing.

From the very first it appeared that Richard I. Manning would carry Anderson county. He received a good vote at the cotton mills and in the country and swept the towns where he is known personally.

The county ticket was interesting in its developments. Wyatt Aiken ran away with Dominick, carrying every county in the district, including Anderson.

G. N. C. Boleman, for many years county auditor but for several years out of politics, defeated for county treasurer Dr. W. A. Tripp, an appointee of Gov. Blease.

J. Mack King, another appointee of the governor, appeared in the earlier returns to be defeated but later he came from behind and now it appears will be elected by about 75 or 100 votes.

Some good men were elected and some good men were defeated in the commissioners' race.

The legislative delegation will probably consist of J. L. Shearer, senator; Jno. T. West, S. A. Burns, Geo. M. Reed, Rufus Fant, Jr., J. H. Hutchison and Sam M. Wolfe. There are two boxes to be heard from which may put W. W. Scott in, but it is hardly probable.

If the present delegation, Scott, Gray and Nelson, have been defeated; Summers offered for the senate; Ashley and Hall did not seek another term.

WILL APPEAL TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Railroad Presidents Will Submit Plan For Increase in Rates During War

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 8.—A committee of railroad presidents will appeal directly to President Wilson tomorrow to assist them in devising means for tiding over the difficulties they say have grown out of the war in Europe. They are prepared by law before Mr. Wilson facts and figures tending to show that the war in Europe has made it practically impossible to raise additional funds.

NO BREAD FAMINE.

There will be no bread famine in the United States this year. The largest wheat crop in history has just been harvested and according to the United States Department of Agriculture, the total production is approximately 911,000,000 bushels; nearly 150,000,000 bushels more than any previous crop produced in the United States. We have at least 350,000,000 bushels of wheat which are not needed for consumption at home or for seed. The surplus production of the United States usually goes to Europe, but under present conditions, caused by the European war, this cereal cannot cross the ocean. About 75,000,000 bushels have already been taken for export, but most of it is being held at the ports of departure.

DAY OF PRAYER IS DESIGNATED

PRESIDENT NAMES THE DAY TO PRAY FOR PEACE AMONG NATIONS

SUNDAY OCT. 4TH

All God Fearing People Are Asked To Pray For Peace in Europe

Washington, Sept. 8.—President Wilson today signed a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to pray for peace in Europe. The proclamation sets aside Sunday, October 4, as a day for prayer.

The President's proclamation follows: "Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle when the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from terrible sacrifice."

"And whereas, it is our especial wish and longing of the people of the United States in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace;

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October, a day of prayer and supplication and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite in their petitions to Almighty God, that overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none. He vouchsafes his children healing peace again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship, nor any wholesome fruit or tid of thought in the world; praying also that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our wilfulness and many errors, and lead us unto the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at Washington this 8th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fourteen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON, By the President: "WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, Secretary of State."

MR. MANNING IS GRATEFUL

Stood With the Crowd Before the Bulletin Boards in Sumter

Special to The Intelligencer.
Columbia, Sept. 8.—At his home in Sumter tonight Richard I. Manning, who has been nominated governor, received the returns in a truly democratic manner, standing in front of a bulletin board on Main street, surrounded by hundreds of his town and country friends. Mr. Manning would make no statement tonight except that he was profoundly grateful to the people of the State and that to him the earnestness of the people in supporting the principles for which he had stood argued well for the future of South Carolina.

Frank W. Shealy who has been elected railroad commissioner was in Columbia to receive the returns. "I want to thank the people and I will work to serve all the people," said Mr. Shealy. He paid a tribute to the press of the State.

Andrew W. Betha was in Columbia. "He will later issue a statement."

LAST SURVIVOR DEAD

Woman Charged With Implication in Plot of Lincoln's Assassination.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Amanda Weeks, last survivor of those arrested at the time of the assassination of President Lincoln and charged with having been implicated in the plot, is dead at her home here at the age of 89. She was at the home of Mrs. Surraat at the time of the murder and was said to have remarked when she heard the news: "Lincoln should have been shot long before." She was released after ten days in prison.

HANDSOME HOME WAS BURNED YESTERDAY

MISS ESSIE CLINKSCALES SUFFERED LOSS

INCENDIARY FIRE?

Home Valued at About $5,000 Burned to Ground—Insurance of About $3,000 on Building

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
The handsome home of Miss Essie Clinkscales in Martin township was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire occurred between 5 and 6 o'clock and while breakfast was being prepared. Miss Clinkscales had already arisen before the blaze was discovered.

When the blaze was discovered Miss Clinkscales gave the alarm and succeeded in summoning several of her neighbors, a result of which much of the fine furniture in the house was saved, although a quantity of furniture stored in the second story of the house was lost. The house was valued at approximately $5,000 but it is understood that the owner carried insurance of $3,000 on the building. The house was a large brick building, two stories, and was one of the nicest in the neighborhood.

Miss Clinkscales is of the opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin. She says that she distinctly remembers closing and locking the door last night when she retired and when she arose this morning she found the front door open. The fire could not have started from a flue as it seems to have originated in a closet, removed from any proximity to a chimney or flue. Miss Clinkscales is convinced that some one forced open the front door during the night, knowing that she and her cook were the only people in the house.

One reason why it was possible to save so much of the furniture was that Miss Clinkscales had prepared to move to Anderson to make her home and had everything packed up, preparatory to moving to town Wednesday. She had rented her place to a Mr. McDonald and he was to take charge Wednesday. In all probability the matter will be referred to the Anderson county officers and they will be asked to make an investigation, in an effort to determine whether the fire was of incendiary origin.

VARIOUS RACES FOR LEGISLATURE

Third Race In Greenville—Spartanburg Elected Only One Please Man To Legislature

Of all the races in the second primary, people in every county evinced almost as much interest in the race for the general assembly as in any other office. This was particularly true of Anderson county and there is yet great interest here, because of the fact that there may yet be a little doubt as to the outcome, but it appeared this morning at 2 o'clock that Fant and Hutchison and Wolfe are elected, although White Plains and Bowling Green, two small boxes are yet to be heard from. The following is the complete vote in 52 boxes in Anderson county: Rufus Fant, Jr., 3,805; J. H. Hutchison, 3,585; Sam M. Wolfe, 3,547; W. W. Scott, 3,364; Asa Hall, Jr., 3,056; Oscar D. Gray, 2,864.

In Greenville county Martin was elected, while there will be a third race between Mauldin, Means and Greer.

In Spartanburg county Arnold, Query, Rodgers and Lyles are elected. Rodgers is the only member of the house elected from Spartanburg who is a "Blenasite" and it is said that he was elected as a compliment to the mill people.

In Richland county Hoyt, Hammond, Alan Johnstone, Jr., and Huffman were elected, while there will be a third race between McMahan and Clinkscales. All anti.

In Pickens county Jas. P. Carey, Jr., was elected a member of the general assembly.

In Oconee county the vote stood as follows: Shirley, 1,114; Brown, 1,027; Elias Earle, 1,021; Hughes, 912. This race was particularly interesting as both Shirley, who headed the ticket, and Elias Earle, who lost by a few votes, have lived in Anderson county and are well known and have many friends here.

R. W. TRIBBLE'S Fall Hats Are All Here

AND a bewildering assortment it is! With all the new shapes and the many novel shades and striking color combinations, there is a far greater variety than ever before. Even the stiff hats show many distinctly new "kinks and curls." The satisfaction of coming here was never before so evident. TO PLACE POORE ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

CHARGED WITH KILLING OF KELLY

IS TRIED TODAY

Court of General Sessions Had a Busy Day Yesterday and is Now Down to Real Work

(From Thursday's Daily.)
Early this morning the fall term of the court of general sessions for Anderson county will complete the case against Will Belcher, charged with the murder of a negro named Roebuck, and then the state will turn its attention to the case of Claude Poore, charged with the murder of a man named Kelly at Williston.

When court convened yesterday, the first case that was called was that of J. A. Brock, a young white man of the Ebenezer section, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and also with carrying concealed weapons. The case took up the greater part of the forenoon and was concluded at the noon hour. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature and guilty of carrying concealed weapons. The defendant has not yet been sentenced.

The Will Belcher case was taken up about 1 o'clock and the defendant placed on trial for his life. The case lasted throughout the afternoon, and when the arguments are heard this morning it will go to the jury.

The following true bills were returned yesterday: W. O. Callahan, drawing worthless checks. Corroll O'Donnell, forgery. W. O. Callahan, disposing of property under lien. Ebb Williams, Jr., housebreaking and larceny. Will Garrison, murder of bicycle. Joe Blandon, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.

Eber Allen, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons. M. A. Wells, seduction. Alfred Gantt, larceny of livestock. Newell Williams, indecent exposure of the person. Robert Smith, alias Robert McIntosh, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.

J. W. Wicker McAllister, disposing of property under lien. George Gordon, forgery. R. L. Bryant, obtaining goods under false pretenses. No bill was returned in the case of Belton Nimmons, charged with abduction. 9-9-14llw

Clemson Hard Hit By European War

Advices From Over the South Eastern Markets.

Optimistic Feeling in Eastern Markets.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Sept. 9.—The more optimistic feeling noted in local cotton trade circles yesterday was even more in evidence today and seemed to be largely based on the reports of a better tone in the southern spot markets. Handlers of spot cotton said that their private advices from the south as well as the offers that were being received by New England mills suggested that southern shippers are becoming less panicky as to the probable effect of increasing supplies, owing to the measures that were being taken to relieve the immediate necessities of needy planters and to facilitate the holding movement.

"Buy a Bale" clubs are said to be forming all over the south, while rapid progress is also reported in the work of building warehouses, and many reports indicate that farmers are either holding cotton in the seed or hauling it back from the gin.

So far but little improvement has been reported in demand. Canadian mills are said to be buying considerable cotton and there have been moderate purchases for export.

LOSSES ARE ENORMOUS.

Deserters From Austrian Army Verify Reports That Losses Were Heavy.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 8.—Refugees and deserters from the armies of Austria in Galicia, according to information obtained in official quarters today, have told the Russian military authorities that their losses have been enormous. A number of Austrian regiments were decimated. The Austrians, according to these refugees, are fearful of an uprising in the mountainous Bukovina.

MANY ENTRIES MADE

Track Meet at Baltimore Attracts Athletes from All Parts of the Country.

New York, Sept. 9.—Nearly 400 entries have been received for the annual Amateur Athletic Union Track and Field championships at Baltimore, Friday and Saturday. The Junior championships Friday have drawn 194 entries and the senior title meet 205 entries. Clubs from all parts of the country are represented. The clubs of the middle Atlantic association had made thirty entries and the Southern association six. The entry list is one of the most representative ever received from these games and contains the names of almost all the prominent American athletes now in training.

There was not in Anderson any man more full of public spirit than Feaster V. Tribble. He took great pride in his public services. A little more than a year he unaided worked up a convention which was attended by possibly 200 Georgians, who came here to do what they could to get the interurban railway extended to Atlanta.

He made the national record this year in the T. P. A. membership contest. He took a lively interest in getting the Blue Ridge to extend the gas-electric service to Seneca, and he was always on the alert and was planning a big convention for the T. P. A. of Anderson this fall in order to welcome the national secretary. Mr. Tribble was proud of his work as a salesman, and he had made good in no ordinary manner.

It was just yesterday, on the day of his death, that his generous impulses were shown. He had heard of some young men who wish to attend Clemson College and are unable on account of the fact that no cotton is being sold. Mr. Tribble brought the matter to the attention of The Intelligencer. "This paper took up the matter at once with the president of the college on the suggestion of Mr. Tribble and asked if it were not possible to permit students to give their notes to the college. The effort in behalf of the young man was not successful but Mr. Tribble had done his part. Dr. Riggs wired The Intelligencer:

"Impractical to adopt general policy of accepting notes in lieu of student fees which are principally for provisions, clothing, etc., for which the college has to pay cash. The college is likely to be as seriously embarrassed as the patrons and has not now funds sufficient to run on until fertilizer tax begins to come in without overdrawing its bank deposits. We have 516 applicants and think we will have no trouble in filling up to our full capacity. As you know, the cost at Clemson is lower than at any other technical college in the south. Thanks for inquiry. Letter follows."

The war in its widespread ruin is going to injure the educational institutions of the south unless some immediate aid is effected. The improvements on the grounds and buildings at Clemson have had to be suspended. The college opened its doors yesterday for the school year.
