COLE Three-Furrow GRAIN DRILL Is The Proper Implement with which to do it.

It is generall, conceded that wheat and oats planted between September 15th and September 30th have fifty per cent. better chance of a maximum production than that which is planted later. This is true for the reason in a large measure, that May is usually a dry month and cuts the grain off.

Then again, it is imperative to plant grain crops early, so they can be gotten off earlier in the spring, and a corn and pea crop planted on the same land, thus giving two money crops from the same land in merce and Col. E. J. Watson, Commissioner of Agriculture, for a general season, spent yesterday in the city. good roads meeting to be held in Columbia on October 1st, at which time ways and means would be discussed for a campaign to construct bridges and highways throughout this state. Unforeseen complications have arisen, necessitating the postponement of this movement from the first of October until the first week in December. A great deal of interest is being manifested in this movement, not only by the citizens of South Carolina but by the American Highway Association, who are in sympathy with the movement, and have volunteered their good offices toward making it a success.

On Sell Dinks
A P. Spence:, president of the Andreson Chero-Cola Bottling Company seceived a letter from Hoke Smith in which Senator Smith advises that there will be no tax placed on soft drink bottlers. The Georgia Senator ways that if such a measure had been drink bottlers. The Georgia Senator says that it such a measure had been proposed in the Senate that he would have been against it, but as it is, the House decided to drop the matter and therefore it never reached the Senate. It will be remembered that the Anderson bottlers filed a lengthy telegram to their Representatives and Senators a few weeks ago, protesting against the proposed action.

Viece Inherited

Her Uncle's Money.

Mrs. C. B. Bruce yesterday morning received a letter from a well known law fim of Richmond, Ky, in which she was informed of the death of her uncle, Dr. J. C. Morgan, and the fact that she was one of the death of her uncle, Dr. J. C. Morgan, and the fact that she was one of the heirs to the estate which he left. It is understoond that the property left by Dr. Morgan is estimated at $75,900 and it is probable that Mrs. Bruce will receive a substantial part of this sum, although nothing was said in the letter from the attorneys as to the amount she will get.

Association Are About Organized.
Since the opening of the public schools in Anderson county, the teachers of the various schools have been making many plans for the first meeting of the Teachers' Association, meeting of the Teachers' Association, which will be held on the second Monday in October. This association last year furnished much pleasure for the teachers and at the same time the meetings had a very helpful effect. The Trustees' Association will held its first meeting on the first Monday in Geotober.

tary of the south Carolina Bankers as sociation, received a telegram last night announcing that the executive committee of the association will meet this afternoon in Columbia Mr. Holeman will leave Anderson this morning at 8:25 to be in attendance at the meeting. While the reason for this meeting. White the reason for this meeting was not given in the telegram, it is understood that it has probably been called with a view of arranging for a meeting of all the bankers in the state, at which time business and financial conditions in South Carolina will be discussed.

High School Is Organizing Forces.

The first athletic meeting of the students attending the Anderson High school took place yesterday when John Hood was elected "red dent of the association and C. W. Riser was elected budgets." ser was elected business manager for the football team. The captain of the football team will be elected within the next few days. About 35 students were out yesterday, afternoon, trying for a place on the team, and the high school exidently hes plenty of good material its year. The average weight of the team will probably be between 135 and 140 pounds and it will be a husky looking organization.

Almost Had A

Second Murder.
When the police, were summoned to Wilson Cavalry church, Sunday night they thought that a second murder had turned up in Anderson over Sun day. White services were going on a Polly Geiger and Ella Harris and Polly proceeded to work on Ella with cither a razor or a very sharp knife.

As a result of her injuries, the woman was bleeding very profusely when the officers arrived and was almost dead. The Geiger woman succeeded in making a get-away and is still at large.

Reen Yesterday.

A very interesting old volume was brought into the office of The Intelligencer vesterday. The book is entitled "The Confession of Faith" and was printed in Edinburg on October 9, 1789, by Alexander Kincaid. Considering the age of the volume it is sidering the age of the volume, it is a wonderful state of preservation and the type is easily read. The book is now the property of Mrs. Eula Cromer and she values it very highly.

Cotton Sold At Same Price.

At Same Price.
Notwithstanding the fact that there was no improvement in Anderson's cotton market yesterdsy, the farmers of the county are in good heart as a result of the recent advances and they are determined to hold on to their cotton until it sells for 10 cents, come what may. The market price in Anderson yesterday was nine and one-quarter cents and practically no cotton was marketed at that figure. Possibly five or six bales were sold. Possibly five or six bales were

Sava Conditions

Are Nuch Improved.

While spending yesterday in the city Charles L. Bryant, of Richmond, discussed conditions prevailing at this time in Virginia in talking with a revorter for The Intelligencer. Mr. Bryant says that hundress conditions have improved wonderfully within the last few weeks and that Virginia hardly knows now that such a thing as a financial stringency, ever existed. He says that the money market by about normal again in his state 9 and that they are getting ready for an era of great prosperity.
