SOCIETY

Attractive Visitors.

Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell of Savannah who was formerly of Anderson and who is now the guest of Mrs. Swain Gilmer and Mrs. Rhett Parker was one of the attractive visitors at Rose Hill Club, card afternoon of this week.

Four card tables were placed in the left room and after a number of exciting rubbers cards were laid aside and dainty refreshments served the players who were:

Mrs. Swain Gilmer, Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell, Mrs. James D. Hammett, Mrs. Ralph Ramer, Mrs. K. P. Smith, Misses Nancy and Kathrene McCall, Miss Helen Fant, Mrs. A. S. Farmer, Mrs. Christie DeCamp, Mrs. Harrington Godfrey, Miss Grace Spencer, Mrs. Ernest Cochran, Mrs. T. E. Howard, Mrs. Bond Anderson, and Mrs. James Baldwin.

Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell of Savannah, who has been the guest of Mrs. Rhett Parker on West Whitner street for the past week was the attractive honoree Thursday afternoon when her hostess entertained with an informal neighborhood tea.

Mrs. Robert Ligon and Mrs. Harrington Godfrey assisted Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Maxwell in entertaining the callers.

From five to six the guests called and were served a refreshing cup of tea.

Invitation Issued.

Mrs. N. Ida Pruitt requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Ruth

Mr. Charles Edwin Kinsey on Thursday evening October the first fifteen hundred and fourteen at eight-thirty o'clock Greenville Street Anderson, South Carolina.

Supper for Visitors.

Prof. Millie Bonham of New Orleans and Mr. and Mrs. Procter Bonham of Greenville were the guests of honor at a delightful supper party Monday evening, when Gen. and Mrs. M. L. Bonham entertained in their honor at their home on Greenville Street.

Covers were laid for twelve, who were Mr. and Mrs. William Banks, Miss Smith of Abbeville, Judge Meminger, Mr. W. W. Smoak, Miss Marhost and hostesses and the honored guests.

Teachers Meeting.

The teachers in the Sunday school of the First Baptist church held a delightful meeting Thursday evening. After an interesting lesson study an informal reception was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served.

Birthday Dinner.

Mr. J. S. Fowler entertained a number of his friends at dinner at his country home Wednesday evening in honor of his 60th birthday.

Tables were placed in the dining room hall, and porches for the guests and here they were served an elaborate dinner.

Instead of the customary way of each guest giving the host a present, he was given a handsome cut glass water set from all his friends present. After dinner talks were made by several of the guests.

Welcome Home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Vines who have been spending several weeks in New York State and Virginia were given a warm welcome home Tuesday evening by the members of the congregation of the First Baptist church. The church was beautifully decorated on this occasion. Quantities of cut flowers and ferns being used. Over the rostrum where the flowers were banked were the words in large letters, "Welcome Home."

The following program was greatly enjoyed by all present:

Hymn 36. Prayer, Rufus Fant. Scripture and Words of Welcome, Rev. O. L. Martin. Welcome from Church, T. Allen. Welcome from Ministerial Union, Rev. D. W. Dodge. Hymn 29. Greetings from College, Dr. J. P. Kinard. Glad words from the Classes, C. B. Earle. "Sun of My Soul," Matthews. Greetings from the Organizations J. M. Paget. Presentation to Dr. Vines, A. L. Smothers. Response, Dr. J. F. Vines. Presentation to Mrs. Vines, Dean Raliffie. Hymn 306. Doxology. Hand Shaking.

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee." Dr. Vines was presented with a handsomely bound book with a picture of the church on it. This book contained a word of welcome from each class in the Sunday school.

Mrs. Vines was given a bouquet of exquisite flowers.

Palmetto Chapter.

The Palmetto Chapter U. D. C. was delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon when Miss Eubank Taylor was hostess to the members at her home on North McDuffie street. Miss Miss Martha Bonham, the president presided, and after a short business session Mrs. James Thompson read an interesting paper on the fall of Fort Sumter. Miss Martha Bonham and Mrs. Fred Burnett gave beautiful vocal solos. The greater part of the afternoon was given to Miss Bessie Major who has just returned from Europe where she spent the summer traveling. Mrs. Major and her party were in the midst of the war zone and her talk was most interesting and beneficial to all present. For days they did not know that war had been declared as they could not read the papers and so were not greatly alarmed, however they soon ran short of funds and realized the seriousness of their position. At the conclusion of Miss Major's talk, Miss Taylor assisted by Mrs. Gus Hudgens, Mrs. William Muldrow and Mrs. Burnett Townsend served a delicious salad course.

Miss Geer Honored.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Batson entertained with an informal party in honor of their house guest, Misses Irene Geer, of Anderson, Emma Drake of Perzer, Lucy Davis of Rome, Ga., and Annie Maude and Corrine Haynie of Dixon Annex. Progressive conversation was the feature of the evening's amusements, interspersed with music by several of the guests.

At the hour of eleven-thirty delicious refreshments, consisting of pink and white neapolitan cream and white cake were served by Mrs. Batson assisted by Mrs. W. D. Whitaker.

The color scheme of pink and white was beautifully carried out in all the rooms, out roses being used extensively. The veranda was a lovely confusion of ferns and potted plants forming an ideal background for the happy groups of guests chatting by the light of the moon.

At the midnight hour the guests departed having spent a most delightful evening.—Greenville News.

Surprise Party.

Miss Cora Cox who has just returned from a delightful summer spent in the New England States was given a cordial welcome when Misses Clarence Townsend and Marcella Guest planned a surprise party for her Friday evening. The guests all met at Miss Marcella Guest's home and from there went to Miss Cox's home on South McDuffie Street. It was a complete surprise to the honoree as she had been told she was going to the picture show for the evening.

Eight tables were placed in the spacious living room, library and hall and here rook was enjoyed for an hour. On the small tables a delicious ice course was served by Mrs. Cox assisted by Mrs. Leroy Falles and Miss Lucia Childs.

One of the most delightful card parties of the season was given Friday afternoon when Mrs. Ernest Cochran entertained at her home on North McDuffie street in honor of Mrs. George Aide of Italy and Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell of Savannah.

Mrs. Cochran's living room and library were beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns. Bowls and vases of the favored flower being placed on mantels and tables. Here four tables were placed for the players and at the conclusion of a number of interesting rubbers Mrs. Cochran presented Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Aide each with an exquisite bouquet of roses. For holding the highest score Mrs. Rhett Parker was presented. Gambrell took them to save the hostess from being embarrassed.

After the cards had been laid aside a delicious salad course was served the guests who were, Mrs. George Aide, Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell, Mrs. Rhett Parker, Mrs. Swain Gilmer, Mrs. Sam Orr, Mrs. Harry Orr, Miss Lydia Orr, Miss Grace Spencer, Mrs. James Hammett, Mrs. Louis Gray, Mrs. Charles Gambrell, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Ralph Ramer, Mrs. P. K. McCull, bouquet of red flowers, Mrs. Charles Ly, Mrs. J. L. Sherard and Mrs. Raymond Beatty.

The church was elaborately decorated with gollen rods and ferns. Masses of this yellow flower being banked about the altar. To the strains of the Lehengrin wedding march by Mrs. Bon Aull the bridal party entered the church in the following order: The bridesmaids coming down one aisle and the groomsmen down the other, meeting at the altar and forming a "semi-circle" around the bride and groom. First came Miss Miss Ida McCreery with Galliard Hunter, Miss Ida Allen of Lowndesville with Luther Dodd, Miss Louise Aull with Eugene Evans, Miss Sallie T. Cade with John Russell. The maids all wore attractive white lingerie one would claim the booby, a huge cd with a lovely pot plant. As no frocks with wide white satin girdles and carried huge bouquets of golden rod.

The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Ray Masters of Anderson, and was met at the altar by the Rev. Mr. Smith, the bride's pastor, performed the ceremony using the ring service. The bride wore a modish blue suit with Persian trimming. Her hat and gloves matching this attractive costume. A shower bouquet of white asters formed the bride's bouquet.

Miss Masters wore an exquisite white satin gown, with chiffon draperies. Her flowers were the same as the maids, golden rod.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Eskew and has numerous friends in Anderson. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party was delightfully entertained at the home of the bride's parents, where a delightful was beasted fully decorated for this occasion. All elaborate dinner was served the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Aull are now on their wedding trip and after their return will make their home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Nancy and Katherine McCall of Texas, were the guests of honor at an informal card party Saturday afternoon when Miss Helen Fant entertained for them. After the cards had been laid aside the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The players were: Misses Nancy and Katherine McCall, Mrs. K. P. Smith, Mrs. Shuford, Mrs. Adams, Miss Caroline Vance, and the hostess.

Miss Jane Foster and Norton Campbell were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother in Pendleton Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. Only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were asked to witness the ceremony.

An important meeting of the Civic Association will be held with Mrs. Will Diver at 8 o'clock on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Many matters in which the entire membership is interested are to come up and the president, Mrs. Rufus Fant, urges all of the members to be present. Dr. J. O. Sanders will give a talk on "The Needs of a District Nurse."

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the St. John's Methodist church will meet with Mrs. A. M. Sharpe on McDuffie street, on Monday Sept. 21, at 4 o'clock.

Friday evening a delightful informal dance was given at Rose Hill Club. This was the first dance of the fall and several congenial couples enjoyed the one step and hesitation from nine till twelve with an intermission for a buffet supper served in the grill room.

Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell of Savannah and Mrs. George Aide who are being so pleasantly entertained during their stay here were again the honorees on this occasion.

Those dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Harrington Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Christie DeCamp, Mr. and Mrs. Rhett Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Swain Gilmer, Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell, Mrs. Harry Orr, Mrs. George Aide, and Miss Lydia Orr.

Mrs. E. W. Masters was hostess to the members of the Due West Alumnae Friday afternoon at her home on North Main street. As this was the regular time for the election of officers a literary program was not planned. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

President—Mrs. E. W. Masters. Vice president—Mrs. A. M. Sharpe. Secretary—Mrs. John Hood. Treasurer—Mrs. Daisy Wilson. Gleaner—Miss Louise Agnew.

After the business session Miss Gene Harris who has recently returned from Europe gave an interesting talk. Miss Harris explained many points of interest that people on this side have been unable to comprehend from the newspaper reports.

Mrs. Clarence Brown assisted Mrs. Masters in entertaining her guests and serving a tempting sweet course.

Miss Georgia Marshall delighted the members of her Sunday school class of St. John's Methodist church last Wednesday when she took them out to Haynie's Mill for the day. The girls went out on an early car and spent the entire day. They took their bathing suits and, after spending the morning in the water, enjoyed a beautiful picnic lunch spread under the trees. The members of Miss Marshall's class are Misses Mae Ligon, Evelyn Hoke, Albert Farmer, Jatic McCue, Gertrude Hayes, Madge Laboon, Grace Laboon, Kate Laboon, Thelma Osborne, Evelyn Browne, Hazel Murphy, Denna Bleckley, Eleanor Frank, and Esther Lassiter.

The Dixie Chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Monday afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. Rufus Burris and Mrs. M. C. Dixon at the home of Mrs. Burris on Calhoun street.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Thursday morning when Miss Lois Harrison and Mr. Leslie C. Eldson both of Trenton, S. C. were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. M. Addison on East River street. The Rev. Hamlin Etheridge of Laguna, a relative of the bride officiated. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, yellow daisies and golden rod and the chosen color was used in every available way.

Miss Harrison was attended by Miss Ida Allen of Lowndesville, who acted as maid of honor.

The bride was unusual in her going away suit of blue taffeta with a stunning fall hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony which was performed at 8 o'clock, the bride and groom left for their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Addison entertained the members of the Harrison-Eldson bridal party and the out-of-town guests at a lovely dinner party Wednesday evening at their home on East River street.

Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell who has been the center of all social affairs for the past week left yesterday for her home in Savannah.

Mrs. W. L. Valentine of St. Louis arrived in the city yesterday and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Valentine in North Anderson for several weeks.

Kaiser's Pet Troops Destroyed London, Sept. 18.—The Paris correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says:

"All accounts in Paris agree that the famous Prussian guards corps, the elite of the empire, and the especial pride of the German emperor, has been virtually blotted out in the battles waged along the Meuse, Marne and Aisne rivers."

Steamer Burned. Hoboken, N. J., Sept. 18.—The passenger steamship Necess, of the Mallory line, burned to the water's edge at a Hudson river dock here tonight. The vessel, which piles between New York and Tampa and Mobile, was undergoing repairs here. Her first officer and eight firemen, the only persons on board, escaped with their belongings. No one was hurt.

Wife of Secretary of State in Favor of Woman Suffrage. (By Associated Press.) Washington, Sept. 18.—In a signed statement made public here today, Mrs. W. J. Bryan declared herself in favor of woman suffrage. The statement was made to set at rest rumors that Mrs. Bryan was opposed to the movement.

OWL DRUG CO. PHONE 636 ANDERSON, S. C.

Announcements made in Anderson yesterday in connection with the "buy-a-bale" movement was that of W. L. Brisey. Mr. Brisey announced that he would buy all the cotton he could get at 10 cents per pound, provided it was for material from his plant and on accounts with the Brisey Lumber company. This will sound good to the farmers of Anderson.

High School Organize Team. The boys attending the Anderson high school were busily engaged yesterday in canvassing among their number for those who have experience in playing football. Preparations now under way for the first practice of the season, which is to take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This party and it is said that all told this season will see more games of football in Anderson than for several years ago. The local team has secured the services of a splendid coach and it is expected that some good material will be developed.

Paris, Sept. 19.—2:45pm.—The Germans are strongly entrenched on the river Aisne with reinforcements from Lorraine, according to official announcements made in Paris this afternoon.

London, Sept. 21.—A dispatch to the Central News from Ghent says that the Germans continue the bombardment of Yperonde, presumably with the object of preventing a further Belgian sortie from Antwerp. There have been several skirmishes in and near the villages surrounding the Antwerp positions.

The Germans have entrenched themselves between Hotstade, 15 miles east of Ghent, and Sempst. The fort of Waelheim on several occasions bombarded these positions.

It is in such a battle where sometimes there is a vein of gold which the owner knows not of.—Swift.
