THE RESOLUTIONS

As a Body the Trustees Are Op- and more than half of those in attend-posed to the General Assembly ance pledged themselves as personal Making Any Postponement of Taxes.

The most important matter to come before the body at this meeting was the election of officers for the coming year. This resulted as follows: Dr. year. This resulted as follows: Dr. W. A. Tripp, president; J. M. Paget, first vice-president; T. C. Jackson of Iva, second vice-president; E. C. McCants secretary and J. W. Sanders of Pendleton, assistant secretary.

J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, opened the discussion on the propaged postporture.

on the proposed postponement of tax paying and the superintendent point-ed out that such a step would be dis-astrous to the schools, of the coun-ity. He discussed several features of the proposed step and presented a very proper and capable argument against the postponement of the tax payments. When he concluded his remarks a general discussion of the question took place and J. A. Brook moved that the tax moved that the payment of taxes be not postponed and the following reso intion unanimously carried: "We, the Trstees' Association of Anderson county, in convention assembled do go on record as asking our General Assembly to oppose at the eytra session any movement toward the postponement or payment of taxes for the will be enormously detrimenta to all the scrools of the county.

E. C. McCants, superintendent of the city schools, introduced a resolution regarding the county superinten-dent of edcation, which was nani-mously carried. His resolution was to the effect that the Body lend every possible aid to the county superin-tendent in an evert to get more ade-quate pay for his services. Also that this term of office be made to corres-pond with the scholastic year, begin-ninb on July I and that his term of office be for four years instead of two years as is now the case.

Leadership and Its Responsibility.

Says the Anderson Thtelligencer: "The Hon. W. F. Stevenson, of Cheraw, has suggested a plan for financpresent sirious times. Whatever Mr. He is recognized as one of the great logal intellects of the South. • • • • He proposes several big things for the legislature to do. They are so big that the average mind may not readily see ther necessity and importance, but we feel sure that if Mr. Stevenson

'ays they are all right before the law the courts will say the same thing." The opinion which the Anderson newspaper holds of Mr. Stevenson's abilties is shared by a very considerable number of South Carolinians in all sections of the state. There are in all sections of the state. There are a great many citizens, and note few legislators, who look to Mr. Stevenson no one of our leaders of legislative thought. They are ready to trust his judgment in many matters even heyond their own. His aggressive championship of any cause with which he is destricted has commanded their re-

HELD A DELIGHTFUL RECEP-TION YESTER-DAY.

ALL MADE MERRY

Teachers of School, with Friends and Patrons, liad an Enjoy-able Day.

When the good women of a section get busy on any proposition, there is going to be something happening pretty soon, and if they once make up their minds to do a thing it will be done, and whenever they do a thing it is bound to be done well. The truth of the above statements was very manifest yesterday afternoon when the Lebanon Rural School Improvement Association gave a reception to the faculty and patrons of Lebanon High School, in honor of the opening of the achool, which took place yesterday morning.

Promptly at 4:30 o'clock a large number of the patrons and friends of the school assembled at Lebanon park, and for a season forgot that there is war in Europe, and that cotton sold for 7 1-2 cents at Anderson yesterday. They did not seem to be aware that there was any such thing as war or cotton in existence. Their one thought was the success of this year's session of the Lebanon High School, and to make everyone present enjoy the first reception given by the School Improvement Association.

No gathering is complete without or-atory, and Mr. Robbins, a member of the board of trustees, acting as mas-ter of ceremonies, talled upon severof those present for short addresses. of those present for short addresses.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Hanner Tues-day evening, October 29, and took away their darling boy, little Guy He had been sick two short weeks with typhoid-pueumonia. No one knows what little Guy suffered but God alone. Everyhing was done for the little sufferer but God had planned that medical skill should not avail. Everything that thing that loving hands and a good hurse could do was done for little Guy but he passed over the river to join his little brother, who has gone on before.

join his little brother, who has gone on before.

While loved ones watched beside the bed of the dying child in this moment of sacred stillness it seemed that the heavens opened to receive the spirit of little Guy. So sweetly, so peacefully it entered into its heavenly rest. The home is lonesome and said since little Guy has gone away. The father and mother feel that hopes have perfaited with the flower they cherished so. Will the faith and love of these fond parents we know they can say: Thy will be done.
