

FARMERS HERE DESERT UNION

SIX AND TWENTY CORRESPONDENT THINKS BY SO DOING A GREAT MISTAKE WAS MADE—OTHER MATTERS.

Williamston, Oct. 12.—If the farmers of the South and West had taken the advice of the farmers union and stuck to the principles as taught by that organization what would the results be today? They didn't grasp the opportunity when it presented itself and what is the result? Because the other fellow didn't stick, and because we didn't stick someone else didn't and so it has gone on and on until the union has dwindled down to a very small number, and without a doubt the few who have stood to the back are today ten times better off than those who quit early in the fight. Those who have been guided by the teachings of the union will scarcely feel the depression that has now got the entire country in its grasp. Having failed to take the advice of others who had our best interests at heart, and to follow the dictates of our own conscience and use common sense, who have we got to blame for our present condition but our selves. It is within ourselves that misery has fixed its seat. Our disordered hearts and misplaced desires are the instruments of trouble which we now endure. There are those today who are living in ease and plenty and know nothing about the scenes of sore distress which are at this time passing in all parts of the world, millions struggling for a poor substitute to support the wife and children whom they love, and who look up to them with eager eyes for the necessities of life which they can hardly procure.

How do we know but that the present troubles will turn out to be the greatest blessing that we have ever received. We should remember that by disappointments, and trials the violence of our passions are tamed. Would it not be better for us to cease looking on with so much discontent? Let us adjust the balance of happiness fairly. When we think of the enjoyments we want, we should think also of the troubles from which we are free. If we will allow a just value to the comforts which we now possess, we will find room for a great deal more satisfaction. Let's remember and admire the wisdom of Agur's petition which was "Remove from me vanity and lies. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Feed me with food convenient for me; lest I be full and deny thee, and say who is the Lord, or lest I be poor and steal and take the name of my God in vain!"

Unless there is a great change in the near future the farmers in this section will not need an act of the legislature to get them to curtail their cotton crop in 1915. Most of them will use common sense. More oats have already been sown than ever before and we are just beginning the good work.

Mrs. Wm. Griffith was carried to the Anderson Hospital a few days ago for an operation. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

A little child of Oliver Trammel is at present very low with fever, with little hopes of its recovery.

While others are praising the good work of Mr. Banks while an editor in Anderson lets some of us give W. W. Smoak a boost for trying to give us an up-to-date and readable paper. We have noticed a decided change for the better in The Intelligencer since he has taken charge of the paper as editor. While we do not agree on all things political still we have no fight to make with him about that, for he may be right and we may be wrong, or we may be right and he may be wrong. Just a difference of opinion is all and as far as our ability goes we are going to give him all the help that we can. Let's all give our new editor all the assistance and encouragement that we can and thereby be benefitted in more ways than one. We can differ in opinion and still be friends and one true friend is worth more than enough politicians, stacked one on top of the other to reach to the moon. While the "Jolly Band" plays Dixie (instead of that funeral march we told them to learn last summer) lets pass around and give him the right hand of Democratic fellowship.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE GATHERED AT UNION

SYNOD IS HOLDING INTERESTING SESSION.

ATTENDANCE GOOD

Anderson Ministers And Delegates Present and Taking Part in Meeting.

Members of the Presbyterian church in Anderson are much interested in the Presbyterian Synod, for South Carolina, which is now in session at Union, Rev. Dr. W. H. Foster, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Anderson, Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge, pastor of the Central church of Anderson, and J. M. Giles are among the local people in attendance at the church convention.

The Synod opened for its 102nd session in the beautiful Presbyterian church at Union on Tuesday night and since that time the body has been hard at work.

The opening sermon was preached by the Rev. G. A. Blackburn, D. D., pastor of Arsenal Hill church, of Columbia, the retiring moderator. His text was Ephesians 1:18 and his theme, "The Riches of the Glory of His Inheritance in the Saints." It was an impressive discourse and received the close attention of a large congregation.

After the sermon, the roll was perfected by the stated clerk, the Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., of Spartanburg, and nominations for moderator were called for.

Prof. A. E. Spencer, of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, was nominated and elected by acclamation.

The Rev. H. C. Hammond and the Rev. W. J. Glanville were nominated for assistant clerk and the former was elected.

Daily sessions were ordered from 9:30 a. m. to 1 p. m., 3 to 5 p. m. and 8 a. m. to adjournment.

The stated clerk announced the death of the Rev. E. F. Reid, the Rev. J. W. Query, the Rev. Howell Taylor and the Rev. J. G. Richards.

Synod was then adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Alexander Bryant, D. D., of Charleston.

VERDICT FOR $1,300,000

New York, Oct. 14.—Instructed to bring a verdict for $1,300,000 or nothing, a jury in the State Supreme Court today decided for Edwin Gould in his suit against F. Augustus Heine for the recovery of $1,300,000, part of the purchase price, with interest, of stock in the Mercantile National Bank. A thirty-day execution was granted at the request of Heine's counsel.

The sale of Mercantile National Bank stock by Gould to Heine was made in 1907. Heine paid $500,000 in cash and gave notes for the balance. The balance in the suit occurred today was that he was defrauded, Heine declaring the stock was not worth the price Gould set.

THE ESSAY

By A. W. Meredith Who Won Subscription to Daily Intelligencer.

In the contest for the best essay on "Patriotism in Time of War Abroad and Peace at Home," Mr. A. W. Meredith, of Westminster, R. F. D., won the year's subscription to the Daily Intelligencer.

There were a great number of contestants, and high credit is due Mr. Meredith for winning in a contest of this kind with so many contestants competing. Herewith, we publish the essay complete.

PATRIOTISM In Time of War Abroad and Peace at Home. "Loyalty is imbedded in the American character. Especially are Americans loyal to home and one another. In times of distress that our loyalty to country shines forth. Our past history is filled with many acts of heroism demonstrating the kind of loyalty that has carried us through crisis after crisis and placed us at the top among nations. At present the world is probably forcing the greatest crisis in its history, brought on by the great war raging in Europe. This crisis for the time being affects us here in America more vitally than it does the nations involved. We were totally unprepared for it. Our commerce with Europe is almost destroyed, because we depended on European ships to carry it. Hence this crisis demands of the American people a loyalty of a new kind—a commercial loyalty. Now is the time for "sticking together." Now is the time to rectify our mistakes. Now is the time to prepare for the opportunities bound to follow. In the meantime our people must live. Our schools must go on. The great machinery of our government must continue to turn. Money must be kept in circulation. The "Buy-a-Male of Cotton" slogan was originated primarily to help the farmer. But the farmer must not get the idea that he's the only one who needs help. The merchant and supply man need it just as badly. The farmer must make sacrifices to pay his debts, that he may be able to get supplies for next year. The banker, merchant and mill man must show the farmer that they will help bear the burden. It will be hard for a while, but the making of men requires such. And it is written there's a crown for him that overcometh."

NEW DIRECTORS OF SOUTHERN R. R.

Elected at Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Company Tuesday.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 13.—Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, and Dr. John C. Kilgo, of Durham, N. C., bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were today elected directors of the Southern Railway Company, at the annual meeting of stockholders here. Other directors elected were John Korr Branch, a banker of Richmond; Robert Jamison, of Birmingham, Ala., and Charles Steele, of New York. The majority of the road's directors, it was announced, now are Southern men. This is in fulfillment of a hope expressed by Fairfax Harrison, president of the road, in an address made in Chattanooga last January. "Today's meeting of the stockholders," says a statement issued by a representative of the company, "was the first at which they have had the opportunity to take directly a hand in the management of its affairs and the election of directors, the voting trust, which has been in control since the organization of the company in 1894, now being in process of dissolution. A large number of stockholders attended the meeting in person and more than 90 per cent of the total capitalization was represented. The meeting was open to the public." C. S. Steele, of Columbia, was in the city yesterday, a guest at the Chiquola hotel.
