

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAINS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

DEMOCRATS LOSE TWENTY-SEVEN IN NATIONAL HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

GAIN 2 IN SENATE

Charles S. Whitman Overwhelmingly Defeats Glynn for Governor in New York.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Returns up to midnight with many congressional districts unheard from showed Republican gains of twenty-seven members in the national house of representatives.

At that hour seven Democratic seats in New York State had been overturned; five in Illinois with prospects that this would be increased still further; four in New Jersey; three in Pennsylvania with probabilities of more in accordance with the general result in that State; one in Indiana; one in Maryland; two in Massachusetts; five, the entire State delegation, in Connecticut, and one in Ohio, former Representative Nicholas Longworth of the first district, having defeated Representative Stanley E. Howdle, who retired him two years ago.

Indications were that the Democrats might increase their majority in the senate from ten to twelve, the reported victory of Roger C. Sullivan, of Illinois, over Lawrence V. Sherman, making a difference of two votes. Results in California, Kansas, Colorado, Indiana, Oregon and South Dakota were still in doubt and nothing had been heard from the contest in Washington between Wesley L. Jones, Republican, and W. W. Black, Democrat.

Late returns indicated the reelection of Senator William P. Dillingham, Republican, of Vermont, over Charles A. Pouty, Progressive-Democrat.

Democratic leaders were claiming victory for Senators Chamberlain in Oregon and Shirley in Indiana. Republican leaders expected to claim Kansas for Charles Curtis and South Dakota for Representative Charles H. Burke.

Little had been heard from the fight in California or the senatorial fight in Colorado, where Senator Charles S. Thomas was meeting with determined opposition.

Among Democratic members of the house returned were: Albert O'Hair, Berea, Ohio; B. H. McWhorter, Birmingham, Ala.; Charles C. Brown, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles H. Bell, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles C. W. Pennington, New York; Charles H. Brown, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles C. W. Pennington, New York; Charles H. Brown, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles C. W. Pennington, New York.

Late Connecticut returns confirmed the complete overturning of the State delegation in the house, five Democrats to be succeeded by five Republicans.

New York, Nov. 3.—Sweeping Republican gains throughout the country, which reached a climax in this State by the overwhelming victory of Charles S. Whitman for governor, and James W. Wadsworth to succeed Elihu Root in the United States Senate were indicated tonight in early returns of the elections.

Heavy falling off of the Progressive vote in many States, the return to Congress of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, decisive Republican gains in New York and Illinois in the house membership, and the overwhelming defeat of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer by Senator Boies Pennington in Pennsylvania were featured of the early returns.

Democratic leaders, however, were pleased by a triumph in Massachusetts, where former Representative Samuel W. McComb was defeated for the governorship by Governor Walsh.

Early returns indicated that the Democrats would retain control of Congress with approximately no change in the Senate majority, but by a decided reduced majority in the House. At a late hour results in Illinois, Indiana and California and Colorado as to the Senatorship were in doubt.

In Illinois, Roger C. Sullivan, who had the endorsement of most administration leaders, Secretary of State Bryan excepted, was leading in Chicago and Cook county by a large majority over Senator L. V. Sherman, Republican, and Raymon Robins, progressive, who Senator Sherman was claiming the victory in the county districts and was claiming the election.

Senator Shirley, Democrat, found in the Indiana early returns a strong opponent in Hugh Miller, the Republican candidate, with former Senator Charles C. Dickerson, the Progressive candidate, taking a smaller vote than had been expected.

In Colorado Senator Charles W. Thomas, Democrat, was being hard pressed by Hubert Work, Republican, for the Governorship.

The triumph of George Henry in the Maryland early returns was one of the outstanding features of Wednesday. Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, was defeated by Governor Robert D. Beall, Republican.

gressive, engaged in a spirited contest for the seat of Joseph L. Bristol. Senators elected as a result of hard battles were Frank B. Bantger, Republican of Connecticut, opposed by Governor Simeon E. Baldwin; Albert B. Cuzins, Republican, of Iowa, who defeated Representative Maurice Connelly; John Smith, Democrat of Maryland; William J. Stone, Democrat of Missouri; Jacob H. Galliger, Republican of New Hampshire, who was opposed by Representative E. B. Stevens.

Democratic senators in the South were re-elected without difficulty, new Senators from Southern States chosen being: Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama and Representative Thomas W. Hardwick of Georgia. Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, Democrat, of Kentucky was chosen for the long term.

Francis E. McGovern, Republican, was elected, according to the early returns, to succeed Senator, Stephen Republican from Wisconsin.

The triumph of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Republican, over Frank T. O'Hair for representative in the 15th Illinois district, seemed certain on the early returns. Other Illinois Republicans who were turned out of the house in the last Democratic landslide who will be returned to Congress are William B. McKinley, Charles E. Fuller and John A. Sterling.

Republicans also made gains in New York, Oscar W. Swift defeating Representative James H. O'Brien in the ninth district; Rollin B. Sanford defeating Representative Peter G. Teneyck; Walter W. Magee succeeding to the seat of Representative Jno. R. Clancy, while R. L. Haskell, Republican, was elected in the tenth district.

The defeat of Representative Charles A. Korbly, Democrat, of Indiana, by Merrill Moores also marked the general trend of Republican gains throughout the country.

George E. Payne, Republican of New York, one of the oldest members of the house in point of service, was re-elected without difficulty.

Election of state officers resulted in a few turnovers. In New York Governor Glynn, the Democratic candidate for reelection, was defeated by District Attorney Whitman, Republican. Frederick W. Davenport, progressive nominee, in support of whose candidacy Ex-President Roosevelt devoted most of the campaign, was left far in the rear, his vote being exceeded by that of William Sulzer, who was deposed as governor last year.

In Tennessee there also was a change in party control when Governor Ben W. Hooper, the Republican incumbent, was defeated by Thomas C. Rye, Democrat.

In Pennsylvania, where occurred one of the excited campaigns, Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican, early took a long lead over Vaite McCormick, Democratic candidate for governor, who was endorsed by the Progressives.

In Ohio the race for governor between James M. Cox, Democratic incumbent, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, was close, with Governor Cox in the lead on early returns.

Defeat of woman suffrage in Missouri and North Dakota was indicated. Meagre returns from California showed Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive, leading Fredericks, Republican, and Curtis, Democrat, by a slight margin. The senatorial situation also was in doubt. Representative Joseph R. Knowland, Republican, James D. Phelan, Democrat, and Francis J. Heney, Progressive, all showing strength.

In Ohio the prohibition issue was uppermost. In Cleveland and Dayton the "wets" were victorious by large majorities.

Ohio Stays Wet and the Women Can't Vote.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The election of Warren G. Harding, Republican, to succeed Theodore E. Burton, Republican, in the United States Senate, an extremely close race between Governor James M. Cox, Democrat, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, for governor; the decisive defeat of both the woman's suffrage and the prohibition issue in this State; and the probable passage of the "home rule" amendment, an act alleged to favor the "wets," are the result thus far indicated in the Ohio election today. The gubernatorial contest probably will not be decided until the final precincts are tallied.

Connecticut Back to Republicans. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Connecticut returned to the Republicans today. Frank B. Brandegee was re-elected United States Senator over Governor Simeon E. Baldwin by a safe majority. With the vote nearly all counted indications pointed to election of a solid Republican congressional delegation.

The Progressives with nearly 35,000 votes last year, polled only a trifle more than 5,000 today.

Judge Means H. Holcomb, Republican, was elected governor by a majority of about 10,000. The Senate and House will be Republican.

Two Surprises in Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—There were two surprises in the Indiana election today, the unexpected election of Hugh Miller, Republican candidate for Senator, and the poor showing of the Progressive candidates.

Returns seem to indicate Senator Shirley will be re-elected.

Merrell Moores, Republican, classmate of former President Taft, easily defeated Congressman Charles Korbly in the seventh district.

The outcome of the State ticket is in doubt.

Fredericks Republican and John D. Curtin Democrat. For United States Senator the early returns were too close to hazard a forecast.

At anti-prohibition quarters it was asserted that prohibition had been defeated more than two to one.

New Jersey. TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—President Wilson's home congressional district, the fourth of New Jersey, today elected Elijah C. Hutchinson, Republican, to succeed Congressman Allan B. Walsh, Democrat, by about 2,000 plurality.

Meager returns indicate strong Republican gains throughout the State and the Democrats probably will have more than four or five of the twelve congressmen. In the present delegation are ten Democrats. The Democrats probably will retain their majority in the State senate, but apparently have lost control of the assembly.

Michigan. DETROIT, Nov. 3.—Scattering returns late tonight indicated that at least eleven Republican congressmen have been elected in Michigan and the two Progressive congressmen defeated for reelection.

Frank E. Doremus, Democrat, appeared certain of reelection, and Samuel W. W. Beakes, Democrat, was running a close race for reelection with Bark L. Bacon, Republican.

Democrats Leading in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Governor David I. Walsh, Democrat, was leading according to returns from three-quarters of the State in today's election but it was uncertain whether the Democrats again had obtained other places on the State ticket.

Congressional figures were slow in coming in. Early returns indicated little change in the complexion of the Massachusetts delegation.

Sullivan Safe in Illinois. CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—At 11 o'clock tonight indications pointed with practical certainty to the election of Roger Sullivan, Democrat, for the United States Senate.

Election of 16 Republican congressmen in the State, including the two at large, was claimed by John C. Evrnan, secretary of the Republican national congressional committee.

Arizona. PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Partial returns from most of the fifteen counties in the State indicate the defeat of prohibition. Ralph Cameron, Republican candidate for governor, appears to be leading.

Senator Mark Smith, Democrat, was re-elected. Carl Hayden, Democrat, re-elected congressman at large.

Rhode Island. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 3.—R. Livingston Boockman, Republican, had a lead of nearly 5,000 votes over his Democratic opponent for governor, Patrick P. Quinn, with returns from one-third of the State at hand tonight.

Wisconsin. WILWAUKEE, Nov. 3.—Emanuel L. Phillips (Republican) of Milwaukee today defeated Judge John C. Karel, (Democrat) Milwaukee, for governor of Wisconsin by a plurality estimated at 25,000.

Connecticut. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Returns from one-fourth of the towns in Connecticut indicate a Republican sweep. Brandegee, Republican, has a substantial lead over Baldwin, Democrat, for United States Senator.

Back to Republicans. MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 3.—New Hampshire today abandoned the Democratic regime of the past two years, electing a Republican governor, Roland H. Spaulding.

Virginia. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 3.—All Democratic Congressmen in Virginia were re-elected.

Has Set Limitation On Stay of Cruiser

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Replying to an inquiry from the Japanese embassy the state department announced today that it had set a limitation on the stay of the German cruiser Geyer at Honolulu, where she is put in move that two weeks ago for repairs. Unless the Geyer leaves by a specified time, which was not made public, she will be interned for the war.

It was said the Japanese inquiry was not in the nature of a protest, although Japan is known to be anxious that the case be settled because of the threatened danger to Japanese shipping in the Pacific.

A large Japanese cruiser has been just outside Honolulu harbor since shortly after the Geyer's arrival and another Japanese battleship arrived there yesterday.

Republican Elected. MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—Returns tonight indicate that Governor McGovern, Republican, has been elected United States senator by a plurality ranging from 1,000 to 1,000 votes over Paul O. Hastings, Democrat.

CAROLINA SCHOOLS TO HAVE "CLEAN-UP" DAY

OBSERVED HERE ON FRIDAY, NOV. 6.

IN EVERY SECTION

Schools Are Asked to Enlist in the Movement and to Make House and Grounds Attractive.

Teachers in the public schools of Anderson county are looking forward to Friday, November 6. That day has been officially set aside as "clean-up" day for every school in the State and under the direction of their teachers the pupils in the schools will carry on the work of renovating the interior of the buildings and cleaning off and beautifying the grounds.

This is a very happy inspiration on the part of Miss Mary Eva Hite and every school in the county should take a hand in the work, as will probably be the case.

Miss Mary Eva Hite, president of the South Carolina School Improvement association, has distributed cards on which a standard of judging the work is given, and she recommends that this card be filled out immediately after "clean-up day" and kept permanently in the school room.

The following are the possible points named: Yard, 20 points; water supply, 10 points; floor, walls and ceiling, 20 points; windows, 10 points; stove, 10 points; desks, 10 points; blackboard, 10 points; material, 4 points. The following are the sub-divisions and points:

Yard—Yard clean, no bushes, stumps, weeds or trash (5); no ash pile (2); no loose paper or lunch thrown down (2); trash barrel or box placed on grounds (2); outhouse clean, unmarked and in good repair with box of lime in them (5); two or more trees and as many shrub, planted on grounds (4).

Water Supply—Good spring well kept or pump affording pure water, (3); water cooler and individual cup thoroughly cleaned (3); no water on the floor (1); sink near water cooler (3).

Floors, Walls and Ceilings—Floors scrubbed monthly or properly oiled, (5); floors well swept, dust down used when sweeping and the paper on the floors (4); walls well cleaned or painted a good shade (6); ceiling a lighter hue (2); no old calendars or gaudy colored pictures on the walls (4).

Windows—No panes broken (3); panes well cleaned (3); windows opened for ventilation at recess (2); window board or glass and windows lowered at the top (3).

Stoves—Polished regularly (4); zinc under stove (4); stove jacketed (3); attractive wood box or coal scuttle, nothing on floor around stove (3).

Desks—Desks clean and not covered (3); no waste paper or trash hidden in them, but books kept in them when not in use (3); teacher's desk well arranged and attractive (4).

Blackboards—Neatly framed with moulding and kept clean (5); chalk rack and erasers clean (5).

SEND TROOPS TO STRIKE DISTRICT

FOUR COMPANIES OF FIFTH U. S. CAVALRY AT FORT SHERIDAN READY TO GO TO MAINTAIN ORDER

Labor Union Leaders Say Miners Will Welcome Troops to Ft. Smith, Ark.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary Garrison today ordered four companies of the Fifth United States cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Illinois, to Fort Smith, Ark., for use in maintaining order in the Hartford Valley coal strike district. These troops will be commanded by Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has had experience with cavalry troops in the Colorado mining fields. Secretary Garrison explained the order as follows:

"We have reached the conclusion that it is impracticable to enforce the law and the orders of the United court in Arkansas by any other means. The court had appointed a receiver for the coal mines; the mines had been blown up and the men who had been arrested charged with the crime had been released from the custody of the United States marshal forcibly by the friends. The United States court had been unable to enforce its processes.

"The troops will not undertake to serve any processes; they will confine themselves to making it possible for the civil officers to perform their functions. They will prevent any obstruction in the course of justice. The State has nothing to do with the case."

Major McClure was selected by Secretary Garrison to command the troops because of the manner in which he discharged his very delicate duties in connection with the protracted mine strike in Colorado.

It was expected the troops would leave Chicago tonight, and be at Fort Smith before tomorrow night. About 350 men will be in the command.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Four troops of the Fifth United States cavalry at Fort Sheridan were ready today to leave early tomorrow for Fort Smith, Ark., to maintain order in the Hartford Valley coal strike district. Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has been with troops in the Colorado mine districts, will be in command. The machine gun attachment will be a part of the equipment.

About 250 men comprise the four troops.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 3.—Labor union leaders in the Hartford Valley coal strike said today that the miners would welcome the appearance of United States troops to preserve order.

Deputy Marshal Black, who went to Hartford today to make an effort to serve seven more warrants charging conspiracy, had not been heard from tonight. Black was warned by a crowd of masked men who took prisoners from him Saturday night to stay out of the district.

Vessels Carrying Copper Permitted to Proceed

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—An official dispatch from Ambassador Page at London today indicates that the Italian vessels San Giovanni and Regina de Italia, laden with American copper and detained by British authorities at Gibraltar, have been permitted to proceed to their Italian destinations. While the dispatch did not state specifically that this action had been taken, it was construed by some officials here.

Orders Suppression of Newspaper Articles

(By Associated Press.) OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 3.—The Canadian government has ordered suppression of newspaper publishing articles calculated to promote sedition among alien residents. Weekly newspapers printed in the German language in Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary and Edmonton have openly condemned the Allies and upheld the acts of Germany and Austria in the war.

The Northwest Mounted Police have been ordered to put an end to the publication of such sentiments.

RE-RU-NA LAXATIVE-TONIC

An Unusual Opportunity

The special departments of Anderson College can enroll a few more pupils, and the College invites the ladies of Anderson and vicinity to take advantage of this opportunity.

PIANO Prof. and Mrs. Goode
ART Miss Ramsey
VOICE Miss Stranathan
DOMESTIC SCIENCE Miss Murray
VIOLIN VIOLIN Miss Smith
EXPRESSION Miss Wakefield

Whether you contemplate taking up the study of any of these studies or not, we will be glad to have you visit the College and see the work that is being done.

Anderson College

DR. JAS. P. KINARD, President

HOLLANDER WILL BE LOCATED HERE SOON

WHOLESALE FLOWER PLANT IS PLANNED WITH MR. SMITH

Interesting Visit to Anderson Told of Things Going on in His Native Land.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) That Anderson will soon be a wholesale distributing point for flowers to all parts of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia is the statement made following the arrival of Y. Van Staalduijnen in Anderson last night. This gentleman came to Anderson as a representative of a well known flower and bulb concern of Lieze, Holland, and has agreed to form a partnership with Furman Smith, the well known wholesale seedman of Anderson. They will embark in the business on a large scale and will operate throughout three of the southern States.

The visitor has been in America for only three weeks and he tells some very interesting stories about things going on in his country. He says that Holland fears absorption at the hands of Germany although his country is well able to cope with the attack of the enemy, should it ever come. "The sympathies of the greater portion of my people are with the Allies," says Mr. Staalduijnen, "for we believe the violation of the neutrality of Belgium was a crime for which Germany will be held to account, and her armies will be conquered before the war is over."

He says that the German army must not be discounted; that it is a wonderful machine and that it will take months and months of weary fighting to subdue the Germans if it is ever done. He thinks that the war will certainly continue for two years or possibly longer, although he believes that the Allies will eventually win.

Mr. Staalduijnen says that there are hundreds of thousands of Belgians, homeless and without food, in Holland and on their way to that country and that the people of his country are doing their very best to take care of the quantities of refugees coming into Holland every day. Formerly his country bought food stuff from Russia, according to the visitor, but they have now resorted to the United States and are obtaining the bulk of their supplies from this country.

The visitor says that if Germany wins the war, Holland will certainly be a poor and not only Belgium but Denmark and Holland as well, is says, however, that the tallest German he ever saw was not a foot taller than six feet tall and that it will be comparatively simple matter to cope with them. All the people of Holland will try to get to Amsterdam and then the gates to the Dykes will be opened. Holland is a fine flat below the sea level and when the gates are opened the country will be leveled with the sea. If so, German is a fine fact tell them they must all be drowned.

Mr. Staalduijnen will leave Anderson this morning for Greenville and the friends he has made in this city will look forward to his return and will welcome him as a permanent resident of Anderson.

S. G. BRUCE DENTIST

J. M. McCOWN GROCERIES

Out of the High-rent District.

Less Operating Expenses.

Sells Cheaper.

Full Line of Staple and Fancy Groceries.

Brand New and Fresh.

Your Patronage Appreciated.

J. M. McCOWN

Brown-Watson Building

Phone No. 22

Change In Location

I am now located over W. A. Powers' grocery store at 212 1-2 S. Main Street. I thank my friends for their past patronage and ask continuance of same.

I make prices at $6.80

I make a specialty of treating Pycorrhoe, Ayeo, lars of the gums and all crown and bridge work and repairing and forming teeth.

Order Caucasian Army to Attack the Turks

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 3.—(6:38 a. m.)—A dispatch from Tiflis, capital of the Russian government of the same name, says that the Caucasus Telegraph company says: "It is announced that the emperor has ordered the Caucasian army to cross the frontier and attack the Turks."

FROM NOVEMBER 1ST TO NOVEMBER 15TH WALLACE WILL GIVE REDUCED RATES ON PHOTOGRAPHS TO AVOID CHRISTMAS EARLY STUDIO 3 DOORS BELOW