

ANOTHER FEATURE ADDED TO OUR GREAT SALE

$19.98 Buys Values Up To $40.00 $14.98 Buys Values Up To $35.00 $10.98 Buys Values Up To $25.00

Lots of new styles have been added to replace the goods that have closed. We especially call your attention to an imported Belgium Serge, the last to be had in this country for some time to come.

Satisfaction and Fit Guaranteed--

We are selling our goods this season regardless of the cost of their production on the market. The reductions that we are making you is greater than 50 per cent. Our label dreads in this city who wear our tailored garments. Do not delay your selection, it will pay you to place your order at once. The wonderful results of this sale in the great numbers of orders taken up to the present has proved to us beyond a doubt, that you need clothes, well made clothes, and that you must have them at the price of 5 cent cotton, and that's what we are giving you. We are the losers, because our goods were all purchased before these conditions arose. If you purchase all your requirements and commodities at the same rate that we are selling you your Tailor-Made Suit, you will positively not feel the effect of the cotton market and other adverse conditions.

THE ADVANTAGES OF A GRAIN ELEVATOR

POINTED OUT BY ONE WHO IS FAMILIAR WITH THE SUBJECT

CREATES MARKET

And Takes From the Farmer Grain in Any Quantity For the Cash.

The following points answering the question "why a grain elevator for Anderson" have been prepared by one familiar with the subject for the benefit of those who may be interested in the project, but who are not so familiar with the position as they would like to be.

1. A grain elevator performs the function of taking the grain, whether wheat, corn, barley, or other grain, from the farmer in small quantities or large quantities, as the farmer wishes, and storing it, as the farmer wishes, in a safe place, for him at cost or for a profit, as he may wish, for cash, paying him immediately upon delivery.

2. It creates a general market for the sale of all grain, and sells its product locally and elsewhere throughout the country on the basis of present market values.

3. It brings to the community grain buyers, who bid and buy the grain, paying cash for it.

4. It grades, cleans, dries, sacks, markets, and puts up the grain on the basis of present market conditions.

5. It guarantees a cash market for all grain of whatever kind, marketable upon the world's markets, at a steady cash business.

6. It does away with "swapping" grain among the farmers, and guarantees sale of local grain upon the local market.

7. It indirectly is a great builder of the livestock industry, creating an artificial demand for high grade livestock and hogs.

8. Grain being a staple article of commerce, like cotton, always had a present market value, and the elevator finances itself by "advance orders" for grain from grain buyers, and "advance sales" of grain from the farmer to the buyer, never speculating and always selling and buying upon the basis of the actual market. Financially it is easily handled and is a splendid account for any bank.

9. If you don't have a grain elevator, there is no cash market for grain that can be depended upon, and even if a market no guarantee that the farmer will get the actual value of the grain based upon its selling value in the grain markets.

10. No country can attempt to raise grain for commercial sale without an elevator, which performs all the functions of buying, selling, cleaning, drying, delivering and guaranteeing price and grade.

11. It is simply essential.

MR. UNGER MAKES A STATEMENT

Statement Relative to the Values Offered for the Trade.

In order to correct an erroneous statement, which we understand has been circulated by one of our competitors relative to the values we are giving the public, also our financial standing, etc. etc., we wish to state positively that the values offered in our different sales recently put on are BONA-FIDE and strictly as REPRESENTED, and we DEFY anyone to DISPROVE any STATEMENT which we advertised in any advertisement relative to ANY ONE of these sales.

Furthermore we CHALLENGE any other Tailoring concern in the Piedmont to GIVE the Public as GOOD VALUES as we have given, and are NOW giving. Values—$40.00 values for $19.98; $35.00 values for $14.98; and $25.00 values for $10.98.

Mr. Klockner, what have you to say about the Columbia Tailoring Company? We buy our raw materials (woolens and trimmings) DIRECT from the MILLS and having a BIG ORGANIZATION we buy in LARGE QUANTITIES which gives us a TREMENDOUS ADVANTAGE over our competitors, and we therefore give our patron the benefit of these big savings.

We have imported Woolens in our Anderson Shop at this very minute, some of which came from Brave and Historic Little Belgium which will go down in history as the "hero" of this war, no matter which side wins, for their bravery astounded the world, and their valor is immortal.

We will ask any person contemplating the purchase of a Suit or overcoat who is handed a "knock" about our methods of doing business, or the values we are giving, to see us first before passing judgment on us.

Respectfully,
F. M. UNGER, Mr.

Better Mail

Intelligencer Now Gets to All Parts of County on Time.

Through the efforts of Congressman Wyatt Aiken and the courtesy of the Piedmont and Northern Railway, residents of Piedmont, Pelzer, Williamston, Belton and Hones Path and all those who get their mails by rural free delivery routes out of those towns will hereafter be able to get "The Intelligencer" on the morning of its publication.

Some time ago when trains were taken on the Southern Railway the Intelligencer did not reach these towns until after the rural carriers had come out. Consequently subscribers living in the country did not get their Intelligencer until the following morning.

The matter was taken up with Congressman Aiken who secured the consent of the postoffice department for a mail sack to be carried on the Anderson on the "Interurban" car which leaves here at 5:40 o'clock. The new arrangement was started last Tuesday morning and has been living splendid satisfaction. No other mail but "The Intelligencer" is handled in this sack which goes out in the morning.

When arrangements for this new mail service were made with the postoffice department, officials of the Piedmont and Northern lines very kindly consented to handle the sacks and distribute them at the several stations along the road. The general public doubtless appreciates this show of generosity.

To Resign

C. V. Palmer Will Give Up Duties With the P. & N.

Mr. C. V. Palmer, general freight and passenger agent of the South Carolina division of the Piedmont and Northern Railway, better known locally as the Greenville, Spartanburg & Anderson railway, will cover his space with the company within the next month, as he is according to a statement confirmed by Mr. Palmer. He is not in a position now to make known his plans for the future.

Mr. Palmer is well known in railway circles and the announcement that he is to retire from his present position to which he was promoted last July comes as a surprise to numerous friends. He came here from Charlotte, succeeding C. S. Allen, who was subsequently promoted to the position of traffic manager of the P. & N. system with headquarters here. Prior to his removal to Greenville, Mr. Palmer was general traffic and passenger agent of the Piedmont Tractor Company, with offices in Charlotte. He is recognized by his associates as a capable railway man.

As to Mr. Palmer's successor, no information is given out in official circles, and nothing as to proposed plans is known.

Mr. A. A. Aull of Piedmont stopped over in Anderson yesterday for a short while en route to Va.

URGENTLY APPEALS TO ODD FELLOWS

Managers of Orphanage at Greenville Call For Assistance.

Odd Fellows of Anderson are appealed to in behalf of the orphanage at Greenville in the following statement which has been sent out from the home:

"To the Odd Fellows of South Carolina:

"The superintendent and board of trustees of the Odd Fellows' orphan home at Greenville desire to address you at this season with a statement of facts and with an appeal for action. The semi-annual taxes for the term ending June 30, 1914, amounted to only $1,358. Now we have repeatedly established the least actual base for running expenses to be $4,000, and this does not include something for our girl in college and another at training to become a nurse, and also two others studying to become self-supporting. Owing to the bad economic condition of the South, our superintendent has been unable to visit family lodges and consequently the cash donations and contributions for efficiency have not come forward, and the result, the home has gotten slightly in debt for the actual expenses of living. We have dismissed our kitchen and one teacher, leaving only the superintendent, Mrs. Kline and one teacher in charge of the institution. Every other leak has been stopped, but there is no way to satisfy hungry children and keep them warm without food, clothing and fuel, and no way to buy clothing, fuel and groceries without money. This is one leak that can not be stopped.

"Therefore, we appeal to every Odd Fellows lodge in this State and to every benevolent Odd Fellow who has a few extra dollars for charitable purposes to come to our rescue at this time. Only one brother, Dr. G. A. Neuffer of Abbeville, sent in a work day contribution, his being $3.50. Please let us hear from you without fail and do not miss this thanksgiving without sending in your donations. Lists should be circulated for personal pledges now and the secretaries of the different lodges are the proper persons to start this list. We should decide for the future of the orphan home; we must be let into children's hearts this winter and we must not let the grand lodge with a big debt. This is truly a time for prompt action.

"The undersigned is signed by J. J. McSwain, chairman; T. M. Bennett, secretary; H. J. Southern, treasurer; A. B. Longley, trustee; E. A. Kline, superintendent.

Letter From the People

That Fire Engine.

Mr. Editor:

I notice that the city fathers are thinking about having a Steam Engine at a cost of about $3,000.00 to $3,500.00.

As a tax payer I write to protest against any such extravagance in the management of the affairs of our city. The outfit we now have is sufficient for all needs, as the majority of the houses are one story, and the water pressure is all that is necessary. I am satisfied if the insurance companies determine to raise the rate of insurance, they will give us at least six months notice. I also note what the mayor says, or is quoted as saying about his friends. This does not look good to me, besides, I thought the "friend business" had played out, and that the public welfare would be looked after by the people's representatives in a business like way, and not through friendship only.

Mr. Editor, I hope you will continue to "hammer away" in your editorials until you get for this city a commission form of government, with the referendum and recall attached.

Very respectfully,
Anderson, S. C.
Tax payer.

SOLONS IMPRESSED WITH BIG COLLEGE

LEGISLATORS OF THREE HOME COUNTIES INSPECT ED CLEMSON PLANT

A REVELATION

For Some Who Had Not Been There Recently—Only Two Absent.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Returning yesterday from Clemson College, where they were invited for the purpose of making a thorough inspection of the big institution and its manifold features, members of the Anderson County delegation to the general assembly expressed themselves in an enthusiastic vein concerning their findings.

The delegations from Anderson, Oconee and Pickens Counties were invited to the college by President Riggs and gathered there Tuesday morning. Yesterday afternoon they were taken over the farms, out to the experiment stations, and to various other points where the agricultural features of the college were demonstrated. Tuesday night they heard an illustrated lecture by Dr. Riggs on the administrative features of the institution. Yesterday morning they were carried through the various buildings and departments of the plant and shown every feature that was interesting.

All but two members of the entire representative force of the three counties were present at the college, the absent members being Mr. West of the Anderson contingent and Mr. Carey of the Pickens party. The visit was thoroughly enjoyed by all representatives and proved a revelation to several who had not been through the institution in some time.

Some time ago, realizing that Anderson, Oconee and Pickens Counties were the "home" counties of Clemson College, the institution being situated right where these three counties are joined, President Riggs invited the representative delegations of the three counties to come to the college and make a thorough inspection of the big plant and all its departments.
