ANDERSON COUNTY CAME IN FOR GENEROUS RECOGNITION

FROM GOVERNOR IN MAKING UP THANKSGIVING LIST OF FAVORS

GETS ONE-TENTH OF TOTAL NUMBER OF CASES IN WHICH CLEMENCY WAS EXTENDED—RECORDS.

Anderson County came in for a generous share of recognition from Governor Cole. L. Blease in making up his Thanksgiving batch of pardons, paroles and commutations of sentences, as one-tenth of the "favours" handed out on the eve of the great national holiday were extended in cases that went up from this county.

All told, the governor exercised clemency in 101 cases, and of that number Anderson County lays claim to ten. Of this number of cases five were for manslaughter, one for assault and battery with intent to kill and four for violation of the dispensary law.

Following are the cases in question with a few details in connection, this data being gathered from the court records in the office of the clerk of court:

Berry Carter (negro). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve six months upon the public works. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve his sentence.

Oscar Lewis (white). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve six months upon the public works. Paroled, during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law he shall be required to serve the sentence.

Will or W. M. Gentry (white). Convicted at the June, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of violating the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 or to serve six months upon the public work of Anderson County. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law he shall be required to serve the remainder of the above mentioned sentence.

D. C. Alken (white). Convicted at the January, 1913, term of court for Anderson County, of violation of the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve three months upon the public works. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve his sentence above mentioned.

J. Allen Emerson (white). Convicted at the February, 1907, term of court for Anderson County, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Paroled, August 15, 1913, upon condition that he leave the State of South Carolina within 24 hours and never return. Pardon granted November 25, 1914.

The Emerson case is too well known to the people of Anderson County to warrant elaboration here. Emerson shot and killed Mr. Tom Drake, one of Anderson County's most prominent and successful planters, in the latter's own home. The case attracted interest throughout the upper section of the State, owing to the prominence of the parties involved.

Bob Bigby (negro). Convicted at the May, 1913, term of court for Anderson County of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Paroled.

Bob Bigby, it will be recalled, shot and killed another negro by the name of Henry Johnson, his brother-in-law, in North Anderson, on May 8, 1913. The killing took place in the afternoon about 3 o'clock and was the outgrowth of a family quarrel.

R. Garrett Dodson (negro). Convicted at the January, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of manslaughter and sentenced to four years on public works. Paroled.

E. Garrett Dodson and George Dodson were jointly indicted for the shooting and killing of Zeke Bradley, at Mount Pleasant church, colored. The killing occurred on Sunday, August 2, 1913, during a meeting at this church. When the case came to trial the grand jury found a no-bill against George Dodson.

Clifton Washington (negro). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson County for manslaughter and sentenced to three years on public works. Paroled.

Clifton Washington and Henry Harris were jointly indicted for the killing of a negro woman, Ida Kelley. The killing took place March 14, 1914, on James Pearman's place, near Honea Path, though the negroes did not live on that plantation. Washington was an Abbeville County negro. Upper trial jury was acquitted.

LEO M. FRANK GIVES OUT STATEMENT FROM HIS CELL

DECLARES THAT HE IS INNOCENT

REVIEWS THE CIRCUMSTANCES

Says He Was Prosecuted For a Crime of Which He Had No Knowledge.

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTA, Nov. 27.—Leo M. Frank, under sentence of death for the murder here in April 1913, of Mary Phagan, today gave out a statement to the public declaring his innocence of the crime and reviewing the circumstances surrounding his trial and the legal steps taken to obtain for him a rehearing or the setting aside of the verdict.

Frank's statement was given out from his cell in the Fulton County jail, where he has been confined since his arrest several days following the discovery of Mary Phagan's body in the basement of the pencil factory of which Frank was superintendent. He declared he has been "prosecuted wrongfully and grotesquely for a crime of which I have no knowledge," and mentioned that in all the steps taken for a new trial the question of his guilt or innocence has never been reviewed by the higher courts, but only the legality of the proceedings have been considered.

Commenting upon the conditions and circumstances surrounding his trial in Atlanta in July and August, 1913, the prisoner in his statement says: "The jurors heard the demonstrations both within and without the courtroom, the applause when the prosecution scored a point; the disapproval when the defense won a point; they saw the chief of Atlanta police and the colonel of the militia in conference with his honor the judge." Continuing the statement reads:

"If those conditions which obtained constitute a legal judicial trial; if the issue of life and death could be reasonably presumed to be faithfully considered in such an atmosphere—then God help us all. * * * Consider the 12 jurors; they were on trial too; their very lives hung in the balance."

The statement relates briefly the actions of Frank on the day the murderer was committed and the prisoner then turns to a vigorous denunciation of James Conley, a negro, who was employed as a sweeper at the pencil factory, and who was the prosecution's principal witness. Conley now is serving a year's sentence as an accessory after the fact to the Phagan girl's murder. "It was not shown," the statement declares, "that Jim Conley, who had a long police record had neither the motive to conceive the crime nor the opportunity to commit it. * * * Before you can take his negro's word, he must show that he himself is innocent."

Frank closes his statement with reiteration of his declaration of his own innocence and with further charges against the veracity of Conley.

Decide Shooting of Prisoners Was Justified

(By Associated Press.)

DOUGLAS, Iles of Man, via London, Nov. 27.—(7:40 p. m.)—A coroner's jury today decided that the shooting of several German prisoners of war in a riot at the Isle of Man detention camp last week was justified.

Colonel Madoc, camp commandant, testified he thought the riot was provoked. The clash was in the dining room and the commandant said a red hand made of cardboard was placed on the dining room table at dinner and that a chair was thrown through a window. The guards were unable to use their bayonets and in the opinion of Colonel Madoc were justified in firing.
