

Mr. Phillips had Stomach Trouble for More than Five Years.

Mr. W. R. Phillips, Jr., 139 Moreland Ave., Atlanta, Georgia, writes: "I had the catarrh and stomach trouble for more than five years, and I faithfully tried all the medicines I saw advertised, and found they all failed to cure me. I then heard of Peruna. I purchased six bottles, and after their use I soon discovered that I was well, safe and sound. I now weigh two hundred and ten pounds, and have never been sick since I took Peruna. It surely is the best medicine for colds, stomach trouble and catarrh that I ever heard of."

ered a violation. During the Russo-Japanese war, however, an American firm built the parts of several submarines, consigned them to its own agency in Russia, and then sold them to the Russian government.

Although the transaction was kept secret until the shipment was concluded, it was generally held at that time that no law had been violated.

Mr. Schwab recently returned from Germany and England and it was said he brought contracts for many million dollars worth of war supplies with the British government.

Quite so. Some men bark at everybody in spite of the fact that they keep a dog.

in a nearby room, holding herself ready to testify if called upon. When she later returned home she suffered another nervous breakdown.

Before the inquest, Mrs. Carhart, saying Calloway was not a member of their party at the club last night. "He just dropped around to our table casually and had a few drinks, then left," she said.

Mrs. Carhart went on to say that after they reached home she left her husband's room to go to the bath room and as she passed along the hall she saw, through the open door of her son's room, a man fumbling in a bureau drawer. "I screamed and Mr. Carhart came to the door," she declared. "Get your pistol, I cried. Mr. Carhart then entered my son's room with his revolver and I soon heard two shots. Then he came back. 'I've killed whoever it is,' he said."

Calloway was about 35 years old and a bachelor. He was a friend of the Carhart family and had been in the latter's home many times as the guest of Louis Carhart. He was a brother of Frank Calloway, president of the Atlanta Southern Association Baseball club, and prominent in various business affairs.

Carhart is about 50 years old, while his wife is younger.

Mountain chapter of the American Revolution. The afternoon session consisted of reports of various officers.

"Historical Night" was observed tonight, and that proved to be one of the most interesting features of the convention. "A Plea for the Priceless," an address delivered by Rev. Dr. Howard Lea Jones of Charleston, was one of the most brilliant efforts heard during the present meeting.

"Our Birthright," was the subject of an address delivered by Mrs. William H. Overman of Anderson, formerly State president of the North Carolina U. D. C. The musical selections and readings were both enjoyable features of tonight's program.

"So long as the tariff is made in politics and log rolling there can be no stability of industrial conditions and business can have no peace. The way to provide stable industrial conditions and business peace is to accept the principle of protection as a fixed, national policy and to take the tariff out of politics.

"We call attention to the necessity of prompt action on the Murdock tariff commission bill, introduced in May, 1913.

"Progressive principles are permanent and the law is more than ever evident that the Progressive party today is the necessary organ for their realization."

Fetters Dismissed. COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—The Ohio supreme court today dismissed the petition of the Anti-Saloon league for writs of mandamus to compel a recount of the votes cast in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Toledo, on November 3 last.

Representatives of the league asserted that a recount in the cities would prove that gross frauds were perpetrated which resulted in the defeat of the prohibition amendment and the adoption of the home rule amendment, a wet measure.
