Mr. Enoch Dove called on his best girl Sunday afternoon near Oakwood church. The Sunday school at this place is doing fine. There was a nice crowd attended Sunday to be such a bad day, and there will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock, by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Damatt. Everybody is cordially invited.

Everybody in this community is about done plucking geese, and have got a lot of strain sowed, but what about the war. It sure is bad, but we are glad that it is no worse.

The people in this neighborhood enjoyed a very nice time. Thanksgiving and killed nearly all the rabbits. I wonder what they will do next. They are talking about having a Christmas tree at Oakwood school.

Well, we are glad Christmas will see us here and hope everybody will enjoy a nice time, but hope no one will get drunk.

SENECA, S. C., Dec. 8.—Miss Mamie Kirby, aged fourteen, died at the home of her father, Mr. Dick Kirby, three miles above town, last Thursday night after a few days illness of typhoid fever.

She was a bright strong life, and her sudden taking away is doubly sad because so unexpected. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all their friends and neighbors in their sorrow.

The funeral was held in Poplar Springs church, conducted by Rev. Win. McAllister, and the interment was in the Poplar Springs church yard Friday afternoon.

Woodmen Hold Banquet. In spite of the very unfavorable weather, the W. O. W. meeting and banquet that was scheduled by the Richland lodge, took place and was pronounced a successful and enjoyable affair. Richland lodge is one of the strongest and most aggressive lodges of this order in the county, and this annual banquet and rally perhaps explains its vigor and growth.

About seventy-two are said to have been present and participated in the ceremonies and festivities. Four candidates were initiated into the mysteries of woodcraft. The Richland lodge was assisted in conferring these degrees by the degree team from Calhoun, which consists of J. S. Goodman, Frank Dillard, W. O. Morck, B. Gordon, A. Landroth, Int Taylor, Eugene Whutton, Jim Cole, L. E. Hunter, B. T. Dillard and R. P. Boogs.

ists of the churches of Seneca, Newry, Fairview and Rock Springs. This new arrangement seems to be well pleasing to the members of these churches. They are especially pleased with the preacher assigned them by the Bishop. Mr. Ballinger is well known throughout this section, having lived in this county for a number of years. He is a brother of Mr. J. J. Ballinger, of the Richland section of this county, and respected and honored by all who know him.
