College Glee Club.
The Anderson College Glee Club composed of 16 young ladies, who have been trained by Miss Sara Strathman, will give a delightful entertainment in the college auditorium on Monday evening. A beautiful program, consisting of solos, duets, trios and choruses, has been arranged and it promises to be one of the most charming affairs ever given at the college. Admission prices will be 25 cents and tickets are on sale at Evans' Pharmacy. A large audience should be present on Monday evening.

Red Cross Seals.
As the Christmas season draws near the young ladies in charge of the sale of red cross seals will rapidly push their sale, and they earnestly ask the cooperation of every one in Anderson to help them raise a nice amount for this cause.

Ladies' Day at Elks Club.
Friday was an usual Ladies' Day at the Elks Club and quite a number of ladies were the guests on this occasion. The days at the Elks home are always charmingly pleasant and informal and fully enjoyed by the ladies. Mrs. Ralph Ramer and Mrs. A. S. Farmer served dainty refreshments after which dancing was enjoyed by a number of those present for quite a while. Mesdames C. F. Foss, T. L. Cole, C. S. Morrison, J. H. Henny of La Grange, Ga.; W. D. McLean, O. D. Anderson, A. S. Farmer, Ralph Ramer, Misses Jessie Browne, Caroline Vance of Columbia, Lalla Mae Dial of Laurens, Louise Gilmer, Ella May Cummings, Bertha Caplin, Ina Patrick and Mrs. Hunter were among those present.

Informal Little Hook Party.
A charming little affair on the week's social list was the hook party given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Brownlee at their pretty home on South McDuffie street. This popular and attractive young couple had just a few friends in for a pleasant informal evening and a very happy occasion it proved to be.

Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Horton, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cely, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holman.

Miss Watson Ill.
The friends of Miss Etelle Watson will regret to hear that she is seriously ill at her home on South McDuffie street.

In Honor of Judge Memminger.
A pretty compliment to Judge Memminger, who has been holding court here, was the elegant dinner given in his honor on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. Frank Watkins at their pretty home on North McDuffie street. The beautiful decorations were suggestive of the Christmas season and were prettily carried out in every detail. The cut glass and silver making the table particularly attractive. The evening was an unusually pleasant one and thoroughly enjoyed by all present, among whom, besides the honor guest, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sheard, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shumate, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Prince and Mr. A. H. Dagnall.

Mrs. Wm. Overman.
The following complimentary notice in Salisbury (N. C.) Post of Mrs. Overman's brilliant and able address delivered on historical evening at the recent U. D. C. convention in Yorkville will be read with great interest by her many friends and admirers in Anderson. Besides her rare mental endowment, Mrs. Overman possesses a gracious and charming personality that makes her a leader among women:

The many Salisbury friends of Mrs. William H. Overman will be interested to learn that during the recent U. D. C. convention in Yorkville, S. C., she delivered a brilliant and able address, of which the York News gives the following complimentary notice: "A splendid address was delivered by Mrs. William H. Overman of Anderson, former president of the North Carolina division, U. D. C. Mrs. Overman spoke on 'Our Birthright—The Rebuilding of the South,' and she thrilled every hearer with her interesting address."

teresting address."

Mrs. Overman received many compliments on her address, which was most graciously and enthusiastically received. Many distinguished men and women who were present complimented her highly and called her address eloquent. In introducing Mrs. Overman, the State historian of the U. D. C. compared her to Hypatia, saying that "she had lived in South Carolina, been captured and carried off to North Carolina, representing perpetual youth!" During her stay in Yorkville, Mrs. Overman was an honored guest at the handsome home of Hon. David E. Fife, member of congress, and was the recipient of many charming social attentions. Notwithstanding her warm welcome and enthusiastic reception by South Carolina Daughters Mrs. Overman is still a member of the North Carolina division of the U. D. C., loyalty to "the Old North State," having kept her from moving her membership.

Priscilla Club.
Mrs. Arthur Holman was the gracious hostess to the Priscilla Club on Friday morning. This club was organized by these ladies before they were married and so several weeks ago they all decided to reorganize and they have already held several delightful meetings, one of the pleasantest being the one Friday morning. Mrs. Holman is an ideal hostess and the members present Friday were: Mesdames Raymond Fretwell, Tom Allen, W. J. Muldrow, S. L. Prince and Ed. Marshall.

Miss Carrie Fretwell has gone to Charleston to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer are at home after a week's visit to relatives in Charleston.

Miss Elizabeth Hudgens has gone to Epworth to visit Mrs. J. W. Payne.

Shower for Mrs. Earle.
Mrs. C. B. Earle was Mrs. Clarence Sullivan's charming honor guest at a household shower on Friday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. Lella Sullivan on South McDuffie street. Mrs. Earle's attractive new home on South McDuffie street is just being completed and her many friends anticipating her beginning to keep house have planned several delightful showers in her honor and she has been the recipient of many pretty and useful articles for her home. Mrs. T. S. Crayton and Mrs. Walter Brock met the guests at the door and invited them into the cozy parlor where some time was spent in an informal social manner. Later the ladies were invited into the dining room to inspect the beautiful display of gifts for the honoree and here an elegant salad course was served by the fair hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Wones. Mrs. Sullivan's guests were: Mesdames J. R. Vandiver, W. H. Nardin, Arthur Holman, Raymond Fretwell, Nardin Webb, G. B. Greene, T. E. Howard, W. J. Muldrow, J. M. Sullivan, Jr., Jake Sullivan, John Brozaale, Le Roy Pates, B. B. Hart, J. J. Baldwin, Clarence Brock, Florence Thompson, Ed Marshall, Bryan Walton, Eula Dillingham, A. P. Johnston, Harry Geisburg, F. E. Watkins, Jr., Will Diver, Misses Annie Chapman, May Russell, Helen Patrick, Nelle Barton, Joe Broyles, Rhoda Vandiver.

A Christmas Wedding.
The following invitations have been issued:
Mr. Mathew Anderson Cobb requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Weeple Lenora
Mr. Marshall Wesley Mason on the afternoon of Wednesday, the thirtieth of December, at a quarter after four o'clock
Triangle church near Belton, S. C.
L. D. C.
The "L. D. C." enjoyed two exceptionally attractive social affairs during the past week which add much to the desirability of membership. The affairs of the organization have progressed splendidly, far beyond the expectations of its originators who are more than satisfied with the results of their efforts. There will probably be no more meetings this month, due to the holiday season, but these will be resumed shortly after the advent of the New Year. A number of innovations in entertainments have been planned and the members are looking forward with pleasure to the resumption of activities.

A Delightful Party.
Miss Elizabeth Robinson was the attractive hostess for a few friends on Thursday evening when she entertained in the "play rooms" in the yard at the beautiful home of Mr. W. I. Brissey. The evening was spent in a delightfully informal manner and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. Dainty refreshments were served.
Her guests were: Misses Lois Wells, Ruth Wells, Willie Cann, Esther Lassiter, Nelle Findley and Misses Wallace, Messrs. A. B. Beeland, E. P.

Valentine, R. B. Findley, G. P. Lassiter, Jule Earle John Earle John Will Robinson and Dr. Forest Suggs.

"Watch Party."
The members of the Elks Club are planning a charming reception and card party for the evening of December 31, when those present will watch the old year out and the new one in. These young men have established quite a reputation for their beautiful social affairs and this announcement will give a great deal of pleasure to the members of the social set, and they will look forward to this occasion as one of the chief attractions of Christmas week.

Miss Berta Newton of the city schools was called to Baltimore yesterday afternoon by the critical illness of her father, who is in Johns Hopkins hospital.

Mrs. J. E. Forney left yesterday for Augusta and Thomson, Ga., to visit her sons.

Miss Mab Bonham, who has been visiting friends in Baltimore left yesterday for New York, where she will visit friends. Miss Bonham will return home in time for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Bales Entertains.
A small but charming little informal affair was given by Miss Azalce Bales on Tuesday evening when she entertained about a dozen friends at the pretty home of her brother, Mr. George Bales, on Calhoun street. Cards were enjoyed and later they were put aside and dainty refreshments served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sanders, Misses Gertrude Sanders, Lella Mosely, Margaret Archer, Charlotte Parks, Prof. Parks, Messrs. Mac Sanders, Ned Provost, Thomas Cartwright and Mr. Keyzer.

Rose Hill Club.
A congenial party of ladies played cards at the Rose Hill Club on Tuesday and after several delightful games the cards were put aside and dainty refreshments served. Among those present were: Mesdames A. S. Farmer, C. B. J. DeCamp, Alice Sykes, T. E. Howard, J. I. Baldwin, J. D. Hammett, J. H. Godfrey, B. B. Gossett, Valentine Murray, Margaret Evans and Felicia Murray.

Mr. Barton's Dinner Party.
One of the handsomest affairs of the whole week was the dinner given by Mr. J. E. Barton on Friday evening at his beautiful home on Calhoun street. His guests included the city council and city officials, 16 in all, and a most delightful time was spent by all. The dining room was exquisite in its decorations of red, suggestive of the Christmas season, with an elegant arrangement of cut glass and silver and tall crystal candelabra with red candles. The only flowers used were red carnations. An elegant eight course dinner was beautifully served, after which a number of splendid toasts were given. Mr. J. H. Craig, in his own happy style, acting as toastmaster. Mayor J. H. Godfrey, "Does Anderson Need Street Paving and Why?" City Engineer Wade Sanders, "Best Methods of Street Paving;" City Attorney G. C. Sullivan, "Bond Issue and How to Obtain It;" R. E. Ligon, "Great Anderson;" T. F. Watkins ended with a few bright and well chosen remarks that ended a delightfully pleasant occasion.

Electric City Sparklets

(From Sunday Daily.)

Merchants Enjoyed Fine Day's Business.
One of the leading merchants of the city stated last night that he had had the biggest day's business of the fall, and merchants generally were unanimous in pronouncing Saturday one of the busiest days of the season. For one thing, the weather was ideal, thus enabling people living at a distance to get to the city. Another cause is that the holiday season is on, a time when trade naturally picks up. But with it all, there is not the amount of business being done now that was done last year at this time, a condition which is naturally to be expected.

Express Office Has Xmas Seals.
The management of the local branch of the Southern Express Company stated yesterday that the Anderson office is plentifully supplied with "Don't-open-until-Christmas" seals for the use of those who desire to send their Christmas presents before the rush and have the opening of the same by the recipients deferred until the proper time. These seals will be supplied patrons of the express company. The local office expects the movement of Christmas goods to begin this week.

S. M. Wolfe Resigns As U. S. Commissioner.
Sam'l M. Wolfe yesterday forwarded to Judge Henry A. M. Smith of the United States district court his resignation as United States commissioner at Anderson. This action on the part of Mr. Wolfe was made necessary by reason of his being elected to the legislature, the law forbidding one holding two offices of honor or profit at the same time. Mr. Wolfe was appointed commissioner six years ago by Judge William H. Brawley, now retired. Upon the expiration of his first term, Mr. Wolfe was reappointed.

Sends to Ira For White Man.
Sheriff Ashley yesterday sent Deputy Jim Williams to Ira to bring back to Anderson a white man named Ira Earle, who is charged with non-support of his family. Deputy Olin Sanders went to Ira some days ago after Earle, but the latter is said to have fled upon the approach of the officer and made his escape. The arrest in this instance was made by Deputy J. H. Cann, constable for Magistrate Young of Ira.

For Benefit of Belgian Sufferers.
A contest will be given at the residence of Judge and Mrs. W. F. Cox next Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock by a corps of well known artists of Greenville. The proceeds of the concert will go to swell the local Belgian relief fund. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. It is announced that the party from Greenville will render the concert without cost, that is, they will make the trip to Anderson for only their expenses. The concert will be under the direction of Prof. Poston, director of music in the Greenville Woman's College. Those who will take part in the concert are: Miss Wineco, soprano; Mrs. Luther, contralto; Mac Rabb, tenor; Frank Cox, bass; Prof. Gale Swirt, violin.

Nearly 12,000 Bales Short.
According to figures furnished by L. A. Bolt, special agent of the government for the correction of ginning statistics in Anderson County, the number of bales of cotton ginned in the county up to December 1 number 49,950. The number of bales ginned up to December 1 last year were 60,807. The difference in the amount of cotton ginned for the two periods is 11,757 bales, in favor of last year. It is stated that the large amount of cotton which did not open is responsible for the shortage in the crop for this county.

News From Seneca

Store Burns Friday Morning.
Special to The Intelligencer.
SENECA, Dec. 12—Early Friday morning the store operated by Foster Bros. at Richland was discovered to be on fire. The building was soon a mass of flames and the stock of goods was a complete loss partially covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin, and during the day two suspects were arrested. It is thought that the building was fired to cover the tracks of robbery.

The City Being Re-rated.
Mr. H. C. White, of Columbia, representing the South Carolina Inspecting and Rating Bureau, has been in the city for several days re-rating the mercantile and dwelling houses, for the insurance companies.

Many friends in Seneca of Mr. Lewis H. Cary of Greenville, are glad to hear of his election to a seat in the city council. Mr. Cary comes from a family conspicuous for its public service, and no doubt will acquit himself with honor to the family and credit to the town he serves.

On last Monday afternoon Mrs. J. W. Byrd, entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church and a few friends in honor of Miss Hunter, with a handkerchief shower. A Miss Hunter is soon to be married to Mr. T. B. Jones of Townville. A contest in the form of a romance in verse afforded a great deal of amusement. The prize was a book of "tried receipts." It was won by Mrs. W. J. Holloway, who graciously presented it to the bride elect. The handkerchiefs were collected by little Miss Sue Alice Lawrence and presented in a pretty little speech. Mrs. Byrd was assisted in serving a very elaborate luncheon by Mesdames J. L. Lowry and J. L. Lawrence. On next Friday afternoon Mrs. B. A. Lowry will entertain in honor of Miss Hunter.

Miss Sadie Donald and Mr. B. M. Grant, both of near here were married at Townville, on last Sunday.

On the same day another couple from Near Seneca were married at Townville by Rev. T. U. Ligon, at his home. They were Mr. Marshall Dillard and Miss Ola Sheriff from the Friendship neighborhood.
