After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I listened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether.

WANT OFFICE REFEREE IN BANKRUPTCY HERE

Bar Association to Ask U. S. Judge Johnson to Reestablish It. An effort is going to be made to have the Federal office of referee in bankruptcy reestablished in Anderson, and a committee of the local Bar Association will be appointed shortly to call upon United States Judge Joseph T. Johnson of the newly created United States district court for the western district of South Carolina and ask him to restate the office here and appoint someone to fill it.

As generally known, a referee in bankruptcy was established here until last summer, when the term of office of the referee, C. H. Galger, Esq., expired. Following a practice he had established in bankruptcy by not making recommendations where terms of office expired, Judge Emory A. Smith of the U. S. district court for the eastern and western districts of South Carolina, did not make an appointment to continue the office here.

On the contrary, he continued the office of referee in bankruptcy of Anderson and Greenville counties, and made J. J. Anderson, Esq., of Greenville, referee for Anderson and Greenville counties, together with the counties of Oconee and Pickens. As generally known, Oconee county was within the jurisdiction of the referee at Greenville.

If the office of referee is re-created here, it will be for both Anderson and Oconee counties. In other words, the Bar Association wishes to have the matter put back where it was before Judge Smith abolished the office here, that is, have a referee at Anderson for this and Oconee counties.
