

Preparations of a Local and Personal Nature.

—Send us the news carefully prepared and brief.
—Let the Sentinel-Journal know your visitors at your home.
—Four gallon cows always give milk after being sold.
—Read R. C. Carter's new advertisement and see how you like his prices.
—When the temperature runs up to 90 or 95, as it will soon do, look out for hail storms.

—Mrs. A. E. Long, of Philadelphia, Pa., who has been visiting Mrs. W. Dendy, has returned home.
—R. C. Carter, Liberty, has a few northern seed Irish potatoes to sell at 30c a peck.
—When you are in town call and see The Sentinel-Journal. We are always glad to have our friends come to see us.

—Prof. J. L. Murphree will sing at Antioch church the second Sunday in May. Other leaders requested to be present.
—By invitation of pastor, Dr. L. G. Clayton will preach at the Pickens Methodist church next Sunday, May 10th, at 11 a. m.
—C. T. Hutchins, of Liberty, was in Pickens Monday on business. It looks like it may be to see "Charlie" on the streets of Pickens.

—The Sentinel-Journal office is prepared to fill orders for every class of printing and we will be pleased to have your orders.
—If you want the people to know that you are in business and that you want them to call, put an advertisement in The Sentinel-Journal.
—He boasts that he doesn't advertise, but he's still doing business as a gold stand. "He means he's doing business at his old standstill."

—There is an exhibition in Columbia of handsome gold headed umbrellas, adorned with appropriate insignia. It is to be presented during the tour of the oldest visiting veteran.
—James Winchester, who is cutting shingles in the Crow Creek section, informs us that sap shingles will last twelve years, if they are dipped in kerosene. This seems reasonable, and we hope some person will try it on some of their buildings.

—The proceedings of the State of South Carolina against the Virginia Carolina Chemical company instituted by the attorney general some time ago charging the company with violation of the anti-trust law of the State will be opened in Columbia by the taking of testimony before the master of Richland county on Tuesday morning of last week.

—Mr. Alvin H. Dean, of Greenville, who was appointed by Governor Henry Sudduth, to be pardoned from the State penitentiary. It will be remembered that Sudduth was convicted of rape and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary.

—Mr. J. L. Boggs and daughter, Mrs. S. C., was in Pickens yesterday. Mr. Boggs, who is a veteran of the "Lost Cause", though getting up in years, is hale and hearty and enjoying life as of yore. While in town he paid the Sentinel an appreciative call. Mr. Boggs has been a reader of the Sentinel for many years and we hope he will live to be a hundred.

—The person of J. A. Brier, who has been appointed by United States Marshal Adams to a bailiff of the court, succeeding a very competent obliging white man, Capt. Isaac Daggett. Brier took charge of office Monday. The appointment makes two negro bailiffs of Federal court.

—The farmers have been moving week. Many of them have finished planting cotton and have much of their corn planted. The wheat and oats and wheat which made such wonderful growth in the winter are being bad. Many have given up hope of much of a yield from them while there are a few who say they see some signs of improvement in them.

—We have heard several complaints recently of subscribers failing to receive The Sentinel-Journal at the proper time. We are very careful in sending off each name at every post office, as a rule, it is not our fault when the papers go wrong. We ask as a favor that every one who fails to receive his or her copy of paper at the proper time will promptly report the fact to us in order that we may look into the matter and try to find out where the blame lies.

—The closing exercises of the re-graded school took place last Thursday evening. The exhibition was in every way a very creditable one. Mr. T. J. Mauldin delivered an address. Among other things he said the negro must get to work, just as every white man who expected to accomplish anything had to do, and while the negro could never be equal to the white man, his best end was the Southern white man. A roar of applause greeted the remark that the negro was here, and he was to stay.

—Contractor B. E. Grandy will complete Solon Rogers' house this week, and will start a nice house for A. Hagood; he has the contract for two-story brick store, 40x110 feet, for Messrs Folger & Thornley, to be completed as soon as possible, and started on a 20x30, two-story brick to go to the back of W. T. McFall's store; when this is completed Mr. McFall will move his goods to the back and will put up an opening brick store where his wood-structures now stand. Mr. Grandy is a conscientious contractor and does not work and putter off work off in hurry. We hope to see him handle

—J. Toomer (Bub.) Richey is quite sick this week.
—Earle Lewis visited the home-folks this week.
—They report that there is a fair peach crop left in the country.
—When you want bargains in most anything go to R. C. Carter, Liberty.

—The meeting for election of trustees in Bethlehem district, No. 20, will be held at 2 p. m. the 9th inst.
—See J. F. Harris for a nice line of shoes and groceries. Both these lines are very strong. See him before purchasing. Other lines of merchandise also first class.
—It is no longer "fashionable" for the people of this county to cry hard times. The vast majority are doing so well that when a man is not he is actually ashamed to tell it.

—N. D. Taylor, photographer, will be in his studio, Carey building, on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 12th and 13th. Remember the date and call on him for first class work.
—There will be a public entertainment given in the school building at Liberty on the night of the 13th inst. An admission fee of 10c will be charged and an enjoyable time is promised to all who attend.
—On Saturday night last the dwelling of Mr. Fred Gaines, who lives near Liberty, was entirely consumed by fire. Nothing, not even furniture, was saved. A defective stove flue was the cause of the fire.

—The upper portion of this county was visited by an exceedingly severe hail storm Sunday night. It is reported to have covered the ground in some places to a depth of several inches. The crops are so backward that little or no damage was done.
—Owing to an oversight the charter of the Camp of Confederate Veterans was not asked for, and in consequence the exercises, which were to have taken place on May 9, will have to be postponed until the 29th of this month.

—LOST—In the town of Pickens or on the road between Pickens and Anderson Mills, one black pocket book containing one $5 gold piece and some small change amounting to about $1. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to this office.
—The champion hustler lives near Gray Court in Laurens county. Saturday morning the 18th inst; he went to the field at 3 a. m. and put in three sacks of guano by the time his horse had his morning feed and was ready for the plow. He was kept busy the balance of the day covering the guano.

—Magistrate Harris held a preliminary case on Tuesday in which eight negroes, brick yard hands, were indicted for gambling. Policeman Griffin and Constable Nealey captured them Saturday night, near the brick yard, in a tenant house. The proof on four of them was sufficient to send them up to the Sessions court.

—Every one in Pickens is much related over the prospect of having a brass band, for one has been organized here, to consist of fourteen pieces. Handsome nickel plated instruments have been ordered and as soon as they are received practice under some capable instructor will be commenced. Such an organization will add much to the life of the community.

—Mule meat is worth 10 cents a pound in Charlotte. Mr. McClellan, a farmer, needed a mule. He went to the city and found a dealer with only one left. He asked $75. Farmer offered $50. They talked and jockeyed and disagreed as to the weight until the farmer offered 10 cents a pound. The mule was carried to the scales and pulled down 685 pounds. The $85.50 was counted out and the mule was sent to the farm.

—The Pickens Graded school will give an entertainment in the court house on the nights of May 21st and 22d, that will be "rich, rare and racy." The school children are practicing at every opportunity, and will be on their best behavior and make you glad you attended. A nominal fee will be charged, the proceeds to go to pay the expenses of the entertainment and the surplus to the Graded school tell and building for necessary repairs.

—Card of Thanks.
Mr. Editor: Please allow me space in your paper to extend our thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kindness to us in the sickness and death of our sister, Dora C. Smith. May God's blessings rest on them all.
Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Durr.

—Central Item.
Our town is still on a boom. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Isaquena cotton mill today quite a number were present and the following directors were elected: Col. D. K. Norris, of Hickory Flat; R. G. Gaines, of Central; J. J. Fretwell, of Anderson; O. A. Robbins, of Charlotte, N. C.; and Mr. Oland, of Charleston, and two more are to be elected by the five already chosen. The site will be run out tomorrow and work will begin on the building at once.

—We will also have an oil mill in operation the coming season and a $20,000 bank for the convenience of the people. Central has been dead for the past five years, but she is now coming to the front with all up-to-date machinery.
W. F. B.

—To Teachers and Trustees.
By referring to the advertising columns of this paper, you will notice that there will be an examination for teachers held at this place on the 22d of this month. The State Board at its meeting on the 19th and 17th of January adopted the following: "That after February and beginning May 1903, there shall be two county examinations for teachers certificates each year, to be held in May and September, and that hereafter no teacher shall be employed in the public schools of this State who has not registered the certificate in the office of County Superintendent of Education and submitted proof thereof to the Board of Trustees." The above applies to assistant teachers as well as principals of a school.

Double Wedding at Liberty.
The double wedding of Mr. J. A. Allgood and Miss Cora O'Dell and Mr. Prvston P. McDaniel and Miss May O'Dell, which occurred at Liberty on Wednesday evening last, was a brilliant event. The ceremony took place at the First Baptist church. The beautiful wedding march, rendered by Miss Robinson, was commenced at 8.30 o'clock and almost immediately the bridal party entered the church, one coming through the left entrance and the other through the right. Just in front of the pulpit they were met by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hiott, who performed the ceremony, which was particularly beautiful and impressive.

The church was decorated with much taste. A profusion of snowy dogwood blossoms intermingled with Easter and Calla lilies stood out against a background of evergreen. Over each aisle were arches of roses and ferns beneath which the couples entered.
The brides, who are sisters, are almost the same height and resemble each other closely. They are tall, very graceful and very handsome and were exquisitely gowned in white silk tulle, wearing veils and each carrying in her hand a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids also wore white and carried roses. They left the church in this order: Mr. R. E. Bruce and Miss Grace McDaniel, Dr. J. N. Hallum and Miss Nannie Mauldin, Mr. S. C. Smiley and Miss Jeanie Ligon, Mr. Ross O'Dell and Miss Daisy Burroughs, Dr. J. E. Allgood and Miss Nettie Parsons, Mr. Wm. R. Glenn and Miss Maggie Allgood. The ushers were: Messrs. Thor, A. Bowen, D. G. Sheldon, B. F. Parsons, Jr., and Dr. H. T. Darius. Misses Willis and Parsons, two daintily dressed little maids, acted as flower girls and opened the gates of flowers beneath the arches to let the couples enter.

The brides, as Misses Cora and May O'Dell, were among the most popular young ladies in this section of the State. They are the highly accomplished daughters of Hon. W. Taylor O'Dell, who was for several terms senator from Pickens and also a director of the penitentiary.
Mr. Allgood, who it must be said is as worthy of the prize as any man could be, is in the service of the federal government. Mr. McDaniel, the son of J. H. G. McDaniel, sheriff of Pickens, is deputy sheriff and a young man for whom the future promises much.

Mr. and Mrs. Allgood will make their home at Liberty and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel will live at Pickens.

Mattison-Cochran.
On last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, one mile north of Calhoun, in Pickens county, a beautiful home wedding took place. As we drive along the winding roadway, ravine on one side and mountain peaks on the other, beautiful rippling streams of the purest, clearest water making music at your feet, the scene was enchanting. We halt in front of a beautiful brick farm house, the home of the bride to be. The parlor was nicely decorated. Miss Ina Gaines, of Central, at the organ, the wedding march began.

Mr. Robt. Cochran, of Calhoun, and Miss Meares, of Seneca, entered the parlor and then came Mr. John R. C. Griffin, of Easley, with Miss Lulu Wyatt, of Easley, then Mr. Floyd Oliver Mattison, of Easley, leaning on his arm was Miss Rosa, the eldest daughter of Mrs. John Cochran, of Calhoun, Rev. D. W. Hiott, after a brief ceremony, declared Mr. Floyd O. Mattison and Miss Rosa Cochran husband and wife. Then followed the good things to eat. Mr Mattison and his bride were tendered a sumptuous reception at the home of the groom's father, Mr. R. J. Mattison the day following.

Floyd is to be congratulated on securing Miss Rosa for a help-mate through life. The general opinion is that she is one of the very best of girls. Floyd is well and favorably known in Easley, having been salesman in the store of Ellison Bros., for some time. He is now in rebanding and running a farm. If industry will bring success we predict for the young couple the very best success. May their lives be useful and happy.
—"Friend" in Easley progress.

Hendricks-Wellborn.
The good old times of "Auld Lang Syne" were brought vividly to mind by a lovely country wedding at the beautiful home of Mr. Judge M. Wellborn on last Thursday evening, April 30th, when his eldest daughter, Annie Lizzette, was led to hymen's altar by Henry D. Hendricks, of Liberty.

Even before the close of the bright Spring day, the invited guests began to assemble, and by the time the shadows of evening had gathered, the house was filled with a gay and happy company. Bright lights flashed their radiance o'er the pleasant scene, and the melodious strains of sweet music filled the balmy air—happy voices, beautiful women and gallant men reminded the writer of such scenes in the days gone by.

The spacious drawing room was beautifully decorated with flowers from the home garden, the color scheme being white and green. The arrangement of each plant and flower was so artistic as to call forth exclamations of praise and delight from the assemblage. Rarely has it been our pleasure to see any decoration more strikingly beautiful or perfected with greater skill.

Promptly at eight o'clock, as the entrancing strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march was borne upon the odorous breeze, the attendants were ushered into the parlor followed immediately by the groom with his bride. They were Miss Millie Foster with Mr. R. E. Bruce, Miss Josie Earle with Mr. Will Ambler, Miss Anita Ambler with Mr. Luther Hendricks, and Miss Fleda Fendley with Mr. Ed. Griffin.

There amidst the throng of loving friends and fragrance of blooming flowers, underneath the emblem of good luck, the flowering horse-shoe, the holy impressive vows were pronounced which binds man and wife.

The bride was robed in pale blue silk with white trimmings—her veil being held in place by bride's roses and maiden hair fern. The ladies in waiting wore handsome costumes of white organdie.
The congratulations were immediately tendered and close upon these came the invitation to supper. In the dining hall we were again carried back in imagination to the "beautiful days long ago."
Mr. Wellborn's hospitality is widely known and we must say that his reputation was well sustained in this respect on this occasion. There were turkeys, ham, chickens, cakes, fruits and sweets of all kinds "galore." Everybody ate heartily, and each family represented were presented with a box on leave-taking.

The bride received a great many useful and handsome presents.
After supper the company gave themselves up to an evening of thorough, social enjoyment, and the wee sma' hours were upon them ere they sought a few hours slumber.
The day following the bridal party were given a handsome reception at the home of the groom's father, Mr. James Hendricks.
Mr. Hendricks is a handsome young farmer whose business capacities are unlimited, and who is prosperous in his work.
The bride is a lovely young woman whose rare beauty and charming manners have won her numerous friends, and who are loath to give her up from their happy circle.
May God's richest blessings rest upon them and may they be ever as happy as on this beautiful May day.

Turkey Tales.
Mr. Editor: Since the postoffice department has changed the name of our postoffice, we are all working and pay no attention to the "Sultan."
On the morning of the 23d ult; we had a nice little frost, but not enough to injure crops very much.
This week has been busy week with the old hoppers; planting cotton seed, corn, etc. The soil seems to be a little stubborn this Spring, and the weeds are growing fine where land has not been plowed. It makes some of us think of a piece of poetry that was in some of the old school books:
"Who ye who till the stubborn soil,
Whose hand hands guide the plow,
You shall not tire till dimes to earth
From the olden time till now.
But while ye think 'tis hard to till,
And sweat the long, long day through,
Remember it is harder still
To have no work to do."
No marriages chronicled from this borg this month. So I reckon the April fools will have to fool on as Sam says till crops are laid by.
The Baptists at Mountain Grove church are trying to get up a Sunday school in connection with their Sunday evening prayer meeting, which has been kept up pretty regularly since the revival meeting last fall. Rev. A. J. Maulley is their pastor and seems to be the right man in the right place.

Some of the boys says they don't mind paying road tax, but they do hate to pay gully tax. Our public roads up here in the hill country reminds us of what an old man said some years ago about his shoes. The old brother had been accused of being a little "tipsy," and in giving his explanation he said his old shoes was all twisted down and what used to be the in-sole had got to be the out-sole. So Mr. Editor that is the way with some of our back country roads, what used to be the road-bed has got to be the road gully. And in some places they are deep gulleys at that. The one dollar commutation tax law has ruined our cross country roads, they have been neglected until in many places it isn't safe to drive a buggy over them.

FOR SALE—Eggs for hatching from pure bred barred Plymouth Rock—50 cents per dozen. Address with stamp for reply, Mrs. L. A. Dickson, Meets, S. C. 21.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive in its nature. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney disease is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs of the body and break down and waste away cell by cell.
Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures in the most distressing cases.
Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a simple bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
