 PICKENS, S. C.:
 Thursday, May 28, 1903.

With cotton at ten to twelve cents, pigs, chickens, cattle and everything else in this country will be scarce, except cotton. It is a pity we have to look upon livestock anew every time cotton goes low. There ought to be a part of Noah's ark at hand to preserve the species till the wave of prosperity passes.

What dreams the farmers must have when they read the market reports to look like a load both ways next fall. Cotton going to town and money returning. We only hope the market will stay where it is or go higher. South Carolina farmers deserve an inning. The prosperity ways will look better when rolling over the old hills of Pickens county.

It isn't often that we have an opportunity to show our gratitude to the Old Confederate Soldiers. We give them, some of them, a paltry pension, but this is too little compensation. Let us give them our outspoken appreciation. Let us show them how much we really think of them. We have this privilege. Let us use it this year. The women are doing their part, as they always do, let the men do theirs.

The price of cotton seems not to have touched the ceiling yet. What a pity our farmers have none to sell. Mills are now buying at eleven and a half cents and New York quotes 11.85. It is likely we will see considerably higher prices unless the highest forces are met unless the mills to short time, in which case the market may fall off to some extent or have its advancing tendency arrested. The cotton mills which have not stocked up are being forced to buy by the high prices and the mills will be forced to off for it.

The rascals who have the state of Pennsylvania in charge and whose business it is to loot and misgovern the Keystone state, have found the newspapers a menace to their safety and have hedged by passing a law which the governor has signed, muzzling the press. The people will be pleased for awhile that the noisy old thing has had its mouth sewed up. But the time will come when they will wake up to the fact that they are gagged as well as the press. Then something will happen after the similitude of the disappearance of the negro whom the Mississippi steamboat captain used to hold down the safety valve of his engine when he was racing with a rival. An explosion of popular wrath is far worse when it comes than all the newspaper cartoons in the world. It moves things.

Wednesday, June third, will be the best day of all if you come determined to help make the Old Veterans enjoy themselves. It will be their day, but all will find enough to interest them. Come, bring full baskets. The dinner will be served on the Court House Lawn or at some convenient place close by. Make your arrangements to come, and in your arrangements see that the women and children are included. It will be a big day in Pickens. Pickens can rest from its hurry of building and growing this one day long enough to look back over the long stretch of advancement she has made in the past year, and in this breathing spell, take thought of her prospects, if all pull together. By 3 o'clock, come to Pickens on the 3d day of June. It will be Wednesday. Let's make it a big day and the best day of all.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS' DAY.
 On Wednesday, June 3d, the ladies of the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, in connection with the members of the local camp of Confederate Veterans, will observe an appropriate program in honor of the memory of this section and of the Confederate armies that made "the war between the states" the most memorable conflict of modern times. On this occasion the soldiers of the Confederacy, whether members of a Camp of Veterans or not, are urged to attend and participate in these exercises which are being planned and will be carried into effect as a fitting memorial of their faithfulness through the most exciting times that confronted their country. It is the hope and purpose of the thoughtful women that this shall be a day in which the veterans may feel themselves the guests of the women of the Confederacy—the women who have taken it upon themselves to fitly honor the heroism and sacrifice of a day of cruel war. They are always to be counted upon to see that the comfort of their friends is provided, and, in this instance, they are continuing to exemplify the devotion, their distinctive characteristic, which was so faithfully proven by their mothers and which is sacred to every loyal Southern man.

In behalf of the women, and at their request, an urgent invitation to come is extended to all Veterans of the Civil War and to all people who are interested in the welfare and happiness of those soldiers who have won the proud distinction of making a record in war and peace that has never been paralleled in the history of wars and their consequences.

Crosses of Honor will be conferred upon all who have made application for the same in due form, and distinguished speakers will address the assembled people.

Come, help make it a day long to be remembered in Pickens. Come and bring with you the women and children of the household and bring also those well filled baskets which are never the least nor the last things to be considered. Come.

TURNING OFF THE LIGHT.
 We have not a word to say against the Honorable, the board of County Commissioners and their efficient Clerk, personally, neither singly or collectively, as private citizens; nor do we propose, nor have we ever attempted, to besmirch their character. It is only their official character, and the way they have performed the duties pertaining to their high office that is such a stench in the nostrils of the people—it is this, and nothing more, that we have undertaken to show up.

Their official acts are open to criticism, condemnation, censure, or commendation, and we, representing the month piece of Pickens county, have seen fit to condemn some of their official acts, because we thought they were wrong and the people demanded it at our hands.

If we have failed to make good our case, we have simply lied on them, to say the least of it; if we have made a good case, their records will bear up our statements and the Grand Jury will look into the matter, and their findings will be made public.

In justice to the people of Pickens county and the Honorable Commissioners, we would suggest that a good accountant be procured from outside of the county and the books of this office be carefully gone over and his findings published so that we, the taxpayers, may know where "they are at." The truth cannot hurt, and it is the best way to satisfy the people.

The Honorable Board of Commissioners, (simply or collectively,) their Clerk, or any of their friends, have a perfect right to reply to our editorial comments, and these columns are open for anything they wish to publish. We gladly extend to them the same privilege we have taken—that of turning on the light.

We could go on, and on, with provable assertions of extravagance, mismanagement, etc., etc., but we do not care to do so, until a future time, for we have a Grand Jury to look into the conduct of all of the officers, and if they do not probe to the bottom and give the taxpayers the light wanted and demanded on the subject, we will then begin to look after them.

Bronchitis
 "I have kept Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my house for a great many years. It is the best medicine in the world for coughs and colds."
 J. C. Williams, Attica, N. Y.

All serious lung troubles begin with a tickling in the throat. You can stop this at first in a single night with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Use it also for bronchitis, consumption, hard colds, and for coughs of all kinds.

Quick Arrest.
 J. A. Gulleger of Verbena, Ala. was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It cures aches and kills pain. 25c. at the Pickens Drug Co., Druggists.

TO SWEETEN BUREAUS.
 How to Make Sachet Powders of Lasting Fragrance.
 A sachet of long lasting fragrance can be made by keeping the peels of lemons that come into the household and mixing them with caraway seeds, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Take half an ounce of the powdered seeds and half a pound of the powdered lemon peel.
 The peels can be ground in an ordinary kitchen coffee mill.
 Mix the two powders well together, and over it all pour a mixture of one and one-half drams of oil of lemon peel and three ounces of oil of bergamot.
 This makes a dainty powder for sachets to use in the bureau drawers, linen closets, hatboxes, handkerchief cases, etc.
 A rather expensive sachet, but one that pays well for the making, is composed thus:
 Oil of patchouli, one-half dram; oil of rose geranium, one-half dram; oil of roses, one-half dram; oil of sandalwood, one dram; oil of lavender, one dram; oil of cloves, one-half dram; oil of bergamot, three and one-half drams; extract of musk, one-half dram. Mix well and add to two drams of this compound one ounce of powderedorris root, one dram of Tonicum beans and two ounces of sifted fine sandstuffs.
 This is a favorite sachet for veil rolls and blouse boxes.
 The perfume can be renewed by dropping occasionally a few drops of the scented oils on the sachets.

How to Cure Puss of Manage.
 If your cat has the mange, mix sulphur and lard into a paste and rub well into the parts affected. Continue this treatment until the cat is cured. Another cure for the mange is to take petroleum ointment or lard, a third as much sulphur, make into a smooth paste and rub well into the skin (mere patting on the fur will not help). Do this four or five times a day.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cured Me.
 A shattered nervous system nearly always leads to some affection of the heart, especially where the patient's heart is weak from heredity or other causes. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is not only a great heart regulator, but it is a blood tonic which speedily corrects and regulates the heart's action, enriches the blood and improves the circulation. It will build you up just as it did Mr. Crawford whose letter follows, and greatly improve your general health. I had pain in my left arm and shoulder, had difficulty in sleeping on my left side, had frequent smothering spells and my heart was fluttering and palpitate. I could eat scarcely any kind of food without suffering great distress, and was so restless and nervous that I slept little night or day. Now I begin to feel better with my heart, my nerves are steady as a die, I sleep well, eat well and weigh 165 pounds. I am happy again in trying to make back the money I spent for doctors who did me no good while I was ill.—T. R. CRAWFORD, Center, Texas.

LIVER MEDICINE
 A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. The Draught's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver, to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by The Draught's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than The Draught's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.
 Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901.
 I have used The Draught's Black-Draught for three years and have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints.
