B. Williams died last week of cholera infantum. —Judge R. O. Purdy and family are expected to arrive in Pickens this week to spend the summer. —Call on us for peas and cane seed. We have them in abundance. —R. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Wade. —The summer school is moving along very satisfactorily. Thirty three teachers have enrolled. Saturday afternoon the teachers took a day's lightful outing to Glassy Mountain. They went out on the 4 o'clock train, scaled the heights and viewed the sights, returning at 7 o'clock. —Your attention is directed to the advertisement of the Easley Hardware Co. in this issue. They have a complete line of shelf ware and can fit you up with anything you want that is usually carried by a first class hardware firm. They are agents for the Deering Machine Co's, line of goods, consisting of mowers, harvesters, rakes, etc., and can make it to your interest to buy of them; they also carry a complete stock of repairs for those machines. —Rich Curtis and John Montgomery, colored, got into a fight Saturday night; Montgomery was stabbed in the arm and hit on the head with a bottle, while Curtis was considerably gashed on the hip, back, body and arms. He was badly cut up and bled profusely, the wounds being many and somewhat dangerous, and Dr. Mauldin had quite a little job sewing him up. They were both drinking and a woman, Belle Stephens, colored, was the cause of the trouble. —Read the ad. of Folger & Thornley. They offer a discount of 20 per cent off of their prices on their entire line of goods, in order to keep from moving their stock into their new building. All of their lines are fresh and bought this season and this only means a very great saving to the buyer. If you need any goods at all do not purchase until you have inspected this stock of general merchandise. —Cards have been issued for the marriage of Miss Nina Gertrude Boggs to Dr. J. N. Hallum in the Presbyterian church in Easley, on next Tuesday evening, Jan. 30, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Boggs is the adopted and charming daughter of W. K. Remember the dates, and come and bring your family, and stay all day. —The Educational Conference that was in contemplation for Pickens on July 4, at which it was hoped Governor Heyward and Supt. O. B. Martin would be present, will have to be postponed until a little later in the summer. They have an engagement in Florence July 2, and it would be a very hurried trip to reach Pickens on the 4th. It would necessitate the absence of those important executive officers for about four days in succession—which they prefer not to do. They have assured Supt. Hallum, however, that they will favor Pickens with a visit some time during the summer, and the postponement has been made at the suggestion of Supt. Martin, in order to suit the convenience of the Governor. —Mrs. Lillie Porter, nee Jenkins, wife of Arthur S. Porter, of Piedmont, died at the home of her father-in-law, James H. She had come up to Mr. Porter's on a visit and was taken sick there. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Porter's Chapel on Sunday afternoon by the side of her sister, Daisy Jenkins. She leaves a father, T. N. Jenkins, and brother, W. A. Jenkins, both of Piedmont, and a husband and four children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a good mother, a true woman and consecrated Christian, a member for a long time of Porter's Chapel. To the stricken husband and motherless children and brother and father, the sympathy of friends goes out in this their hour of despair. —"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." Six Mile Items. The little grab grass has been quite a man for us, although we have been conqueror over it. Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Jake Merck on the 14th inst., a fine son. Miss Ada Mauldin, of Dalton section, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Sophia Mauldin, Sunday. Mr. Lawrence Smith's little son had the misfortune of getting bit by a rattlesnake Friday last. Married, on the 21st instant, Mr. Dock Reeves to Miss Lizzie Stone, Rev. Seabrook Atkinson officiating. We wish the young couple a happy life. C. W. Garrett had the misfortune of getting one of his fingers seriously mashed last week. Mrs. Robt. Mauldin, who has been quite sick has recovered. Girls, if you see or hear of boys wearing gloves in the field you may know that they won't do to make the hoe-ack. Henry B. Bowen, of Norris, passes through our section very often in his now tip top buggy. Mrs. W. A. Hendricks visited relatives at Liberty the past week. All of our farmers are done cutting their wheat. Very soon we will have new biscuits. Rev. J. T. Lewis filled his regular appointment third Sunday afternoon at Mt. Olivet and preached an excellent sermon. Be sure and don't forget the picnic at Birch's Ford next Saturday. Let all go and carry well filled baskets. A most enjoyable day is expected. As we haven't seen anything in the paper about Prof. Garrett's lecture on the first Sunday, we will mention and say it was grand. You would enjoy going to Six Mile and hear Prof. J. C. Garrett sing 'Ha k, the Song of Jubilee.' Blackberries are beautiful now and will make a nice dessert for a midday meal. Don't you know it suits that fellow that we spoke of? Several of our citizens are talking of going to the reunion at Polzer the Fourth of July. If it is just only half as nice as the Memorial Day was at Pickens, I know people would enjoy going. We enjoyed eating June peaches at Mr. Bob's Sunday afternoon. We will not mention their names. Uno and Ino, guess? Mr. Charley Dalton, a promising young man of Dalton section, visited our section Sunday. His best girl wasn't at home. The ground is very dry and hard, but we hope for rain soon. Our anonymous writer is blank of news at this writing but if forgiven, will try and gather up more by next writing. Many best wishes to Sentinel Journal readers. M. S. To Mothers in Town. The people of this section are in better hopes since the rain. Those who had their cotton thinned before the rain have a good stand in the row and also in the middle. The health of this section is very good at present, except Thomas T., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Hughes. He has been very ill. Dr. Milton Ponder is attending on him. The union meeting at Peter's Creek the last fifth Sunday was almost a failure, but we heard an able sermon preached by Rev. J. E. Foster, that was interesting. After the sermon had intermission of one hour and a half for dinner. In the afternoon there was some good singing by the choir. The Sunday school at Peter's Creek is progressing nicely with Mr. J. E. Friddle as superintendent and J. B. Stephens as assistant. The County convicts have been working out the roads between Peter's Creek church and the Hagood bridge.
