

Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

Dr. W. F. Austin, dentist, will be in Easley July 7th and 8th. FOR SALE—Three young milch cows. H. A. Price, Sunny Dale, S. C. Dr. Wardlaw, dentist, will be in Pickens the 14th and 15th of July. Misses Ilena and Lorena Taylor are visiting their grand-father at Taylor's station. The colored Baptist Sunday school will observe Children's Day next Sunday night. Come out to the lecture tonight by Dr. Edwin Hall, if you want to have a good time. Save your force with the up-to-date Plano Mower and Rake. R. C. Carter, Liberty, agent. Little Miss Mary Latham, of Clinton, is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richey. F. P. McAlister, who has been quite sick is able to be out again, to the delight of his many friends. We are in a position to handle eggs and chickens in abundance at splendid prices. Craig Bros. J. Ollio Brock will be in Pickens during court week prepared to work on watches, clocks and jewelry. "Uncle Ephraim" Gilstrap is quite sick with drowsy. Small hopes are entertained for his ever getting well. W. A. Thomas and family, of the Glassy Mountain section, visited friends and relatives at Norris last week. Rev. J. B. Trammell will hold divine service at the Town Creek school house on next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Don't fail to hear Dr. Edwin Hall to-night (Thursday) in the court house. Prices 25c and 15c, and it will be money well spent. Mr. Jerro S. Parrott, who is eighty two years old, is suffering from Bright's disease and little hopes are entertained for his recovery. Report has it that there was frost on Crow Creek on the morning of the 13th ult., killing occasionally a stalk of corn and some cotton. We are overlanded on ladies slippers and in order to reduce our stock we offer the $1.25 kind for $1.10 and the $1.50 kind for $1.25. Craig Bros. Miss Sadie Richey is quite in disposed, and has been confined to her room for several days; her many friends hope that she will be out in a short time. Rev. J. T. Wade filled his regular appointments at the Presbyterian church Sunday and Sunday night, preaching excellent sermons to large congregations. T. McDaniel, who has been spending awhile in Pickens, returned to Columbia on Wednesday and assumed his position with the Highland Dist. Co. on the 1st inst. N. D. Taylor, photographer, will be in his studio, Carey building, on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 7th and 8th. Remember the date, and call on him for nice work. Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads, Envelopes and anything in the line of printing at the Sentinel-Journal office. Send us an order. First class work at reasonable prices. Work on all the buildings now in course of erection in Pickens is progressing rapidly and satisfactorily. The contractors are rushing things for more contracts are ahead of them. Ben F. Parsons spent a few days in Atlanta last week. While gone he spent awhile with his sons at Flower Branch, Ga., and saw J. H. Brown, formerly of Liberty, who is pushing work on the oil mill. Douglas Jenkins has evinced a mania for weddings; he attended the Hallum-Boggs wedding and then went to one in Greenville the next day. Probably when he is the groom his interest will wane. B. E. Grandy has closed a contract with H. C. Hagood at Easley, to build a commodious dwelling for him on his lot in that town. It will be a nice ornament to that growing town when it is finished. Mr. Aaron Boggs says that the recent flood washed holes in his Seneca river bottoms deep enough to bury a house, and higher up the river are similar occurrences. Very large trees were washed up. There will be a game of baseball in Pickens on the 4th inst., between colored teams from Easley and this place, and at night an entertainment will be given at the school house for the benefit of the colored church. Next month is the time for holding elections for cotton weigher in the several towns in this county and already prospective candidates are figuring how they can get a cinch on enough votes to land them safe in the office. A party composed of P. Eugene Alexander, Larry C. Thornley, Ben B. LaBoon and J. Rufus Ashmore left Wednesday for a fishing trip in Jocassee. They will spend several days up there and we hope the proverbial fisherman's luck will not be theirs. Mrs. W. K. Dandy and W. E. Jr., are spending the summer with relatives in Yorkville. Prof. Dandy will close his work in the summer school here Saturday and will join his family there, for a well earned and much-needed rest, leaving here on Monday. May he have a pleasant outing. Dr. William Edwin Hall, of New York, will lecture in the court house, tonight, (Thursday), on "The Evolution of a Girl." Dr. Hall needs no introduction to a Pickens audience, as he has lectured here before and attracted one of his very best. Dr. Hall gave this lecture in Easley Tuesday night, and every one was decidedly impressed with the neatness and hearty laugh. Ad-

Read our advertising columns; you will be interested. Ice cold drinks and ice at all times. Pickens Drug Co. A large crowd attended the Hallum-Boggs wedding in Easley Tuesday night. Dr. Edwin Hall lectures in Easley tomorrow (Friday) night. Be sure and hear him. R. C. Carter, Liberty, has received a complete line of buggies, harness, saddles, whips, laprobes, etc. Call on us for pens and cane seed. We have them in abundance. Craig Bros. FOR SALE—Two nice Shoats about seven months old; will weigh about 90 pounds. Call on W. H. Johnson, Pickens, S. C. Henry Grady, who has been stationed in Charleston for some time, has returned to his old haunts and was in Pickens Monday shaking hands with his friends. W. L. Matheny and wife have moved to the B. T. McDaniel home, and R. R. Roark and wife now occupy rooms at Mrs. Ann Griffin's recently vacated by Mr. Matheny. Dr. A. B. Wardlaw will be in Pickens for three days during court, Monday, 13th, Tuesday 14th and Wednesday 15th. He is a good dentist and you will be well pleased with any work he does for you. On account of Fourth of July celebration the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway announces rate of one fare and a third for the round trip, between all points on its line. Tickets on sale July 2d, 3d and 4th, final return limit July 8th. We direct your attention to the advertisement of R. C. Carter at Liberty. When times are dull he believes in making a stir, so advertises goods at prices that are sure to bring the crowds. Read his notice, see his prices and go and get the goods. He is all right and his prices are all right. The Charleston and Western Carolina Railway announces that on account of Military week at Augusta, July 6th to 13th, it will sell round trip tickets from points on its line to Augusta at rate of one fare plus 25 cents; tickets on sale July 9th and 10th, and for morning trains of the 11th, final return limit July 16th. Warrants for the artificial limb fund have been sent out by the Comptroller General, and have been properly filled out and returned to him. Some applicants have been rejected; those who are accepted will be paid $25.00 each. Oliver T. Jones, S. P. Maw, W. L. Morgan and R. A. Bowen are applicants from this county. We hope their papers will be passed upon favorably. Jas. K. Latham, a good farmer and a substantial citizen of the eastern side of the county was in Pickens last Monday. He reports that a severe rain, amounting almost to a deluge, visited that section Saturday evening. Crops are badly hurt, and the fields are washed into gullies. We sincerely hope the citizens of that balliwick are not as badly hurt as is at present indicated. W. T. Griffin, of the Field section, while hauling up oats Monday night with a serious accident. He had a load on the wagon and was standing up pitching the bundles into the barn when a plank on which he was standing broke in two dropping him onto one of the pickets in the wagon frame, badly lacerating his arm at the shoulder. It was a peculiar accident and will be some time in healing up. Mr. Melville Barton, who for the past seven years has had charge of the Town Creek Roller Mill, has leased the Easley Roller Mill and has taken charge of same. Mr. Barton is one of the best millers in the up-country, and will make an excellent grade of flour. The product of the Easley Mill that will now be put on the market will have a higher standard of excellence than ever before. The directors of the mill will have no cause to regret getting him as manager. James A. Moore, a good citizen and a land-mark of Pickens county, died at his home in the Prater's Creek section, on last Sunday evening at an advanced age, after an illness of about two months, from a complication of diseases. He leaves a wife and seven children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. He had been for a long period a member of the Baptist church. His remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground on Monday. Truly a good man has gone to his reward. Dr. Edwin Hall, the inimitable lecturer will deliver one of his famous hits, "The Evolution of a Girl," which is one of the richest, rarest and rarest things now put out through any program course, in the court house at 25c, and 15c. Wit, humor and pathos are sublimely blended together, and it is so admirably worded that the moral for the good of mankind is so obvious that you cannot but help see it even if you are busting the buttons off of your pants from laughter. Mrs. R. E. Johnson and daughter Bertha, of Greenville, who have been at Chick Springs, are now in Pickens for the benefit of their health. A better place could not have been found. Capt. R. E. Johnson, of the Saluda Lumber Co., spent Sunday in town with them and left Tuesday for Pittsburg, Pa., where he goes, in the interest of his company. Mr. Johnson says when his company gets their saw mills in operation and the Saluda Valley Railroad running to Marietta that that country will come out and blossom like a rose. H. K. Sturdivant & Co., proprietors of "The Big Bee Hive" of Greenville, will inaugurate a big Mill End Sale, beginning July 9th. Read their advertisement in this paper and then go and get your goods at bargain prices. Everything will be just as advertised—no shoddy goods and prices in plain figures you see the goods and the price. They have been running this annual sale for several seasons and each year it is bigger and better than before. If you have never traded with them do so now and you will never regret it.

The greatest bargain event of the season is going on at R. C. Carter's Liberty. See his advertisement. The summer school at Pickens will close Saturday. The teachers have labored hard and have had a nice and intelligent set of scholars and are proud of the work done. Last Wednesday the teachers and scholars all assembled on the court house lawn and had Mr. Taylor to make a group picture of them. Mr. Thomas Anderson has took charge of the Bonding Factory and has put in some new machinery and is now turning out some mighty nice work in the way of banistering, columns, moulding, etc., and can fill all orders promptly. Give him a call when needing anything in his line and you will be pleased with his work. The South Carolina State Press Association will begin its annual session at White Stone Springs next Tuesday, the 7th. After the business session is over a party of the editors will meet in Columbia and he themselves away for a two weeks trip to Denver, Colorado. An enjoyable time and a pleasant trip is promised the "Knights of the Quill" by President E. H. Hull. Our regret is that our "delinquent list" has decreed that we should spend the summer in Pickens. We humbly bow to the inevitable. Pickens is a good place to spend the summer in. N. D. Taylor spent this week in his studio at Pickens. He is certainly as well pleased with the patronage he is getting as his patrons are with the work he is turning out. Everybody loves to go where they can get the best; that is why so many folks are having him to make their pictures—his work is so good that after giving one order to him you are so well pleased that you give him another sitting. Any kind and style of picture you want, is his motto, and the price is very reasonable for the quality of the work. How about a brooch or cuff button, or scarf pin photo, for your best "feller?" Ed. Ellenburg, for whom the authorities held a warrant some time ago, but who escaped to North Carolina and was there nabbed and sent to the penitentiary for the crime of adultery, but who subsequently escaped and wended his way back to Pickens, was captured by Deputy Sheriff P. P. McDaniel and Constable H. A. Nealey on Monday night at Pet. Ellenburg's house, near town. Ed. will probably now face two proper indictments to be returned to the pen to finish his sentence and then will be turned over to the South Carolina authorities to stand trial for abduction, seduction and adultery. The picnic at Birch's Ford last Saturday was well attended. It was an ideal day and fair maidens and gallant young men from the country side around gathered to spend a pleasant day. The speeches were timely and well delivered and up to the standard of such oratorical outbursts. The dinner spread around in the shade of the giant oaks was one calculated to please the most epicurean taste and was an abundant one. The glades and sylvan retreats were well patronized by the young men and ladies and many events in future history will be dated from this day, and no doubt a few pains were felt by some of the sterner sex, but they will probably eventually out-grow it, and be the better for the momentary heart-ache. Hallum-Boggs. A beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian church at Easley Tuesday evening—Miss Nina Boggs was wedded to Dr. J. N. Hallum. The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated with ferns, ivy and varied evergreens and choice potted plants, and the scene within was one of entrancing beauty. The church was filled to overflowing with friends of the popular young couple long before the arrival of the bridal party. Softly the strains of the ever sweet and beautiful Mendelssohn's Wedding March—the lovely old air that thrills the inmost soul—skillfully rendered by Miss Lida Folger, announced the entrance of the bridal party. The ushers were Messrs J. Toomer Richey, J. Rufus Ashmore, Richard Wyatt and Edgar Morris. Then came the bridesmaids and the groomsmen. Miss Nannie Mauldin with J. Douglas Jenkins. Miss Julia Smith with Judge T. Latham. Miss Jennie Gribble with Gwin Humbert. Miss Josie Boggs with James P. Carey, jr. Miss Marie Folger with Dr. Ossie Mauldin. Miss Bessie Hamilton with A. Brandon Taylor. Miss Ada Gossett with Frank Pickens. The maid of honor, Miss Etta Boggs, sister of the bride, preceded the groom. Then came the groom, Dr. J. N. Hallum, attended by his best man, P. Eugene Alexander. Brides are always beautiful—there may be slightly varying degrees of beauty—this bride was a vision of loveliness that beggars description. The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Horace Horton, of Clinton, and met the groom at Hymon's sacred altar and the two pledged their troth—the words were spoken by Rev. J. T. Wade, the bride's pastor. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. K. Boggs where there was music and feasting. Many and beautiful were the gifts that testify of the popularity of the young couple. The bride is a daughter of the late Rev. W. K. Boggs, a niece of Solicitor Julius E. Boggs and a granddaughter of Mrs. Sarah Alexander, and is possessed of rare beauty and a sweetness of disposition that endears her to a large circle of friends. The groom is a rising young man in business—a member of the Pickens Drug Co. The groom was accompanied by a train-load of friends on his happy mission to Easley. Wednesday morning the happy couple left for Asheville and other points of interest in the mountains of North Carolina.

SPECIAL: The best parched and green coffees I have.

Great Bargains in Laces!
and embroidery with insertions to match! A man who makes it his business to scrape up bargains in goods sent me a lot of fine laces, broderies and insertions with instructions "to sell"; that means as this lot lasts you can buy it for less than half the usual price with the lot is some extra fine laces; were it not for the low price he made on this I would ship it back. Several pairs of dices and other up to date dress goods; you will be interested in prices on this stuff. A few pairs very nice oxfords, hardly mentioned, 45c. for your choice. Last year a house shipped me 10 times as many cotton hose as I bought; it is a good thing I bought as they are much higher. I can sell you cotton hose for less than you can buy at wholesale, and still make a little profit. I am willing to do it.
Produce always wanted.
T. D. HARRIS.

We are always Glad to see you
