Estate of Leo Parrott. Lester Leo Parrott, the bright 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Parrott, died on the 7th of June. He was a bright child and a great favorite with all who knew him.

"Sad death has come into our home and snatched our little one away. His spirit with the ransomed ones roams in yonder realm of endless day— That mortal form I'll see no more; By loving hands was borne away, His sweet voice beyond that shore. Is pleading, Papa come this way. I'm sure my darling is at rest. In that supernal land of love— A home with Jesus and the best— He joins with the Saints in the realm above.

But how we miss him, none can tell, 'Ere long I'll go and with him dwell, His pleading and still whispering 'All come this way.

Camp Meeting. The annual camp meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist church will convene at Piedmont, S. C., on Wednesday night before the first Sunday in August and continue until 10th of August. Everybody cordially invited. Ministers of all denominations are urgently requested to attend; (your bed and board free.) Come and help us in our efforts to spread "scriptural holiness over these lands." A restaurant will be near by for the accommodation of the public.

Let the saints everywhere make unceasing prayer that the "Lord of Hosts" may be with us, and that scores of precious souls may be converted, and believers sanctified, and all of God's children built up and strengthened in their most holy faith. L. C. Clayton, C. B. Smith, L. W. Johnson, Committee.

July 9, 1d. Preston P. McDaniel Hurt.

Preston McDaniel was painfully and seriously injured while arresting some gamblers on the outskirts of Liberty last Wednesday night.

A big granite rock in a thick wood just within the town limits has been a favorite resort for gambling. The town marshal, accompanied by Mr. McDaniel and two other officers started for this rock on Wednesday night to arrest the lawbreakers who might be found there. A game was going on as the officers came up, cards and money were lying around. When the men, four in number, who were all white, saw the officers they broke and ran, but Preston caught two and Constable McCravy got another. The other one got away. The prisoners made a desperate effort to escape, and while in a scuffle with his two prisoners Preston was pushed off the rock and fell, still holding one of the men, down the side of the rock, which is nearly perpendicular about fifty feet into the glen below. His shoulder and left arm struck first and his prisoner fell on him. McDaniel who is a splendid specimen of physical manhood is fearfully bruised up. His left arm is broken below the elbow and his right shoulder terribly shattered, besides being bruised all over. The prisoner who was but little hurt struck the deputy and tried to wrench loose but he managed to hold him until McCravy came to his assistance.

The men who were arrested are T. B. Smith and J. M. Hoyle, both of Liberty. The latest news from Mr. McDaniel is that he is resting very well, but his injuries are somewhat serious. After the accident he was taken to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Wade C. O'Dell, in Liberty.

Esley News. Esley, S. C., July 6, 1933.

The Fourth of July passed off very quiet here. The colored populace was very much in evidence though very orderly for such a large crowd.

The Esley Cotton Mill people celebrated the day by having a free dinner and picnic, which all enjoyed, though the day was exceedingly hot. Games of ball was played between the two mill teams resulting each time in a victory for the Esley Mill team.
