

Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

—B. A. Haggood is on a visit to Charleston.
—A full line of Duists turnip seed just received at R. C. Carter's, Liberty.
—Mrs. T. D. Harris, who has been quite ill for some time, is slowly improving.
—Don't fail to read the oil mill ad. in this issue. It contains important news to you.
—Mrs. J. L. Thornley is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Oliver, at Clarksville, Tenn.
—Walter H. Griffin, of Greenville, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Florence Griffin in Pickens.
—Miss Bessie and Antonia Smith, of Belton, visited the Misses Clayton, near Liberty last week.
—Folger & Thornley's store is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy by Sept. 1st.
—We want 500 dozen eggs weekly and will pay a good price for them, trade or cash. Craig Bros.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Plummer, who have been spending some time in Pickens, left for Seneca Tuesday.
—The Pickens Railroad will establish a joint ticket agency at Easley, in connection with the Southern, on Sept. 1st.
—W. L. Fleming, wife and children, of Home Path, visited the family of W. E. Garrison in Pickens Saturday.
—All interested in the Bethlehem cemetery and church are requested to meet there on Friday, August 28, to clean off the yard.
—Protracted meeting was begun at Antioch church last Sunday by Rev. A. J. Manly. Much interest is being manifested in the services.
—H. A. Looper, of Loopers, dropped in to see us Saturday and reports everything moving along satisfactorily in his part of the county.
—Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Dendy and son, W. E. Jr., returned last week from a pleasant outing spent with relatives and friends in Yorkville.
—Married, at the residence of the bride's father, W. L. Parrott, on the 9th inst., Mr. Harry Stone to Miss Eula Parrott, Rev. B. F. Murphree officiating.
—Squire Matthew Gillespie, an old and honored former citizen of this county, but now a resident of the Greenville side, was in Pickens a few days last week.
—Mrs. T. A. Rainey, wife of conductor Tom Rainey, of the Southern Railway, and children, of Atlanta, are on a visit to her sister Mrs. J. T. Taylor in Pickens.
—N. D. Taylor, photographer, will be in his studio, Carey building, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 25th and 26th. Remember the date, and call on him for nice work.
—Great crowds of people from neighboring counties, and people who had never been here before, were here Saturday; they went away greatly impressed with Pickens and her people.
—Mrs. James F. Hendricks, near Liberty, while coming down the steps one day last week, fell and broke a rib and bruised herself considerably. She is under the care of a physician and is improving nicely.
—There will be an Educational Rally at Shady Grove school house on next Tuesday, the 25th inst. The patrons and trustees have decided to have a picnic and several prominent speakers have been invited.
—Miss Mary Simmes, who has been visiting relatives in Pickens for some time left for her home in Greenville Monday; she was accompanied by Miss Lucia Folger, who will spend some time with friends and relatives.
—Frank Arrial, of Sanford, Fla., is on a visit to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Arrial, of the Ebon section of the county. Frank is a portly, fine-looking man, and is succeeding admirably in his new home.
—R. V. Royall, Professor in High school at Charleston, came up with his friend, Dr. W. J. Bowen, and enjoyed some of this pure mountain air, that blows cool from the Blue Ridge. He was perfectly delighted with Pickens.
—Work on the Oil Mill is progressing finely; the ginney will be ready for the first bale of cotton and the mill will be crushing seed by October. They want 500 cords of pine wood. See their advertisement on the front page of this issue.
—Ernest Folger, of the firm of Folger & Thornley, left Monday for the northern markets to purchase their line of fall and winter goods. Ernest is a close buyer and will have all of the season's novelties for his customers at reasonable prices.
—A good meeting at Six Mile which was conducted by Rev. B. C. Atkinson, closed on last Sunday. It was a splendid revival of religion and fourteen converts united themselves with the church. They will be baptized the second Sunday in September at 10 a. m.
—At the election for cotton weigher held in Pickens Saturday, there were 358 votes cast; of this number J. D. Holder received 198 votes and F. Bradley Field received 160 votes. Mr. Holder was elected by a majority of 38. He has been weigher for several terms and he will continue to serve the people to the best of his ability.

—Mrs. R. E. Bowen is visiting her son, Charles M. Rowen, in Atlanta.
—Supt. of Education O. B. Martin remained in Pickens until Sunday evening.
—B. T. McDaniel returned from Columbia Monday and will finish his interrupted vacation in Pickens.
—My mill will be opened for business again Tuesday morning, Aug. 18. B. P. Kelley.
—J. F. Bannister and wife, of Ga-teechee, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bowen, last week.
—Miss Ora Mitchell, of Princeton, S. C., is visiting the family of her uncle, James H. Clayton, near Liberty.
—R. C. Carter, Liberty, has received a lot of the celebrated "Thornhill" wagons which he will sell at the right price.
—The lower part of the county was blessed with a fine rain last Friday afternoon, and on Saturday and Sunday Pickens was given a good wetting.
—Give us your order for job printing. Our line of stationery is complete and we can do your work with neatness and despatch. Call and get our prices. We can save you money.
—That reliable clothier, L. Rothschild, of Greenville, spent Monday in Pickens. He has added a tailoring department and can cut to fit and make to order a suit of clothes while you wait for it.
—R. C. Carter is connected with two other very large stores and they buy their goods in such quantities that it enables him to save you money on most everything you buy from him. See his change in ad.
—Pickens again has a first-class meat market. J. D. Moore has bought a refrigerator and has fixed to run a good market and will have fresh meats on hand at all times. Give him a call; he also pays the top of the market for good, fat, beef cattle.
—The seventeen-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Mauldin, of the Stewart section, died on the 11th inst., after only one night's illness. The remains of the little one was laid to rest the day following at Gap Hill church. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sore bereavement.
—That excellent citizen, good farmer, and staunch friend of this paper, B. D. Loundard, of the Easley section, was in Pickens Saturday and dropped in to see us. He reports everything as running smoothly in his section; he says hard times and business have run away from his section and that energy, push and vim have won the day.
—This paper is published to disseminate the news, and we can only give the news whenever we learn of it. We want to give you value received for your money, and all the news we can, so will appreciate very much any items you will send us. While they may not be news to you, remember that others will appreciate reading them. Just send us the skeleton on a postal card and we can put the clothes on it.
—The educational rally held at Glassy Mountain school house Monday was one of the most successful yet held in the county. In the morning excellent addresses were made by Miss Marye Sholor, Solicitor J. E. Boggs and Prof. W. E. Dendy. Much enthusiasm was awakened along educational lines, so much so, in fact, that a sum of $25 was appropriated for the purchase of a school library, and an order made out for the books at the close of the meeting.
—Note change in the ad. of J. D. Holder & Co., Real Estate. There is a perfect "hum" in real estate circles now; everybody is making a rush for Pickens county dirt and the old town is gradually forging to the front. Let everybody get them a nice home in town where they can come and school their children. By so doing they make a good investment in every way. Pickens is bound to be a city, and that very soon. Nothing can keep her down. Call on these gentlemen and they will treat you right.
—The series of meetings held at Golden's Creek Baptist church, Rev. B. C. Atkinson, pastor, closed on Friday 7th inst. There were eleven additions to the church. Rev. E. A. Dunlow assisted in the meeting and the membership was greatly revived and refreshed by the earnest work of these consecrated men of God assisted in leading members to the church. At the close of the meeting there were over twenty penitent converts at the anxious seat. The membership of the church asks the prayers of all of God's people in behalf of themselves and the mourners.
—Mrs. James C. King, and children, of Brevard, N. C., who have been on a visit to relatives and friends in this county for the past two weeks, returned home Tuesday. She will be pleasantly remembered by many of our readers as Miss Esther Crenshaw, being a daughter of "Uncle Jesse" Crenshaw, of the Table Mountain section. We are glad to state that she is in good health and she and hers has greatly prospered. Mr. King is the popular sheriff of Transylvania county and is serving his second term and his friends all say he can have the office as long as he will serve.
—Messrs. H. Baker, superintendent; T. B. Sumner, road master; and Mr. _____, foreman of bridges, of the Southern Railway, spent a while in Pickens Friday. They came up on a special on the Pickens railroad, and reported the road in good condition. All of these gentlemen expressed themselves very much pleased with Pickens and her future prospects, and stated before leaving that they saw great possibilities in the future of Pickens and promised to pay this thriving little city a long visit in the fall. The naive beauty and charm of the town and her surroundings completely captivated them, and as they are all true sportsmen, the excellent shooting privileges hereabouts, will be an added incentive toward bringing them again in our midst.

—Wanted new crop of sound dry peach seed; $1.00 per bushel in trade. Craig Bros.
—A good meeting is in progress in the Pickens Baptist church this week, conducted by the pastor, Dr. A. J. S. Thomas.
—Prof. Duff Bolding will conduct a singing at Bethel church next Sunday. Everybody cordially invited to come and bring well-filled baskets and song books.
—In the communication from Knob it should read "there are about 85 miles in Pumpkintown township and about 1100 miles in the county." On a 5 year contract "B. J. W." will take the contract and keep the roads in Pumpkintown township in first class condition for $4.50 a mile, per year. This would cost the county $382.50 per year, or $1,912.50 for the 5 years. This would be a great saving to the county over the present system, and, we think, should be adopted.
—A very interesting protracted service has just closed at Fairview M. P. church. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Loudmilk, was most ably assisted by Rev. William Porter, of High Point, N. C. Much interest was manifested by all denominations and all were benefited by the sound forceful sermons. Fourteen were added to the church and the only drawback was that the meeting could not continue longer. Mr. Loudmilk is a very popular pastor and he was quite fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Porter. All extend to Mr. Porter a most cordial invitation to come again.
—Dr. W. Joel Bowen, of Mount Pleasant, S. C., has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bowen, near Pickens. After roaming over the scenes of his childhood, he returned to his practice last Tuesday. He is succeeding admirably in his adopted home, and ranks high in his profession and is surgeon for the Consolidated Railway Co., but with all of this, and notwithstanding his prosperity, deep down in his heart, there is a secret longing for the free and easy life that is enjoyed here in the foot hills of the old Blue Ridge; so much so, that he may become a citizen of Pickens.
—A representative of this paper spent the night, last week, at the lovely country home of the Misses Clayton, near Liberty. This is one of the most beautiful homes in the up country; the house is well appointed and sits on an eminence in a beautiful grove of majestic oaks, and the lawn, of some five acres, is well laid out and beautifully kept. Their brother, H. L. Clayton, who lives with them, is very much a "home man," but not a "homey one," and he takes great pride in keeping the place up and has every appointment for comfort and enjoyment. Truly it is a splendid place to visit.
—The meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Mrs. McFall's was well attended last Thursday. Several important matters were discussed. It was decided to send a delegate to the convention of the State division at Camden in December, also, if practicable, to send one to the annual convention of the U. D. C. in Charleston in November. As a means of increasing the treasury fund the Daughters expect to give an entertainment in the near future. After the chapter was adjourned the hostess served most delightfully refreshments and the members spent some time in social enjoyment.
—Liberty Locals.
Liberty, S. C., Aug. 18, 1903.
We certainly have had fine rains the past few days which has greatly improved the crops.
The addition to the factory building is nearing completion and will soon be ready for the machinery. It is a foregone conclusion that the company will have to erect more houses at an early date.
Work on the new station house is progressing finely and the walls are nearly completed.
T. N. Hunter has broken dirt for a large and commodious two-story brick store, which, when done, will be one of the most complete and up to date business buildings in the county and an ornament to any town.
The protracted meeting that was to begin in the Baptist church has been put off until Monday after the fourth Sunday. It will continue through the week, maybe longer.
Rev. L. J. Ehrlich, of Morganton, N. C., arrived here yesterday on his way to assist the Rev. Lewis in a protracted meeting in the Pen Ridge section. Mr. Ehrlich is a converted Jew and is said to be an excellent preacher.
The looks of the school house has been wonderfully changed, and for the better, by a liberal application of paint.
A few delegates left here yesterday to attend the Sunday School Institute now in session at Richland, Oconee county, S. C.
Beverly News.

Too Small.
FOR the last two months we have hardly had time to get a long breath trying to handle so many chickens and we wish to say to the poultry raisers for their good and ours to stop selling your chickens so small as they are not wanted anywhere at any price. Large chickens will bring a much better price and are always wanted. Hens are in good demand. We want all the eggs we can get and will give the highest market price for them. Call on us for all kinds of merchandise at the lowest cash price.
Notice.
