Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength. Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

PULLED BREAD.

Pulled bread is likely to become one of our chief table delights. It is much nicer than mere bread. Pilled bread is made in the following simple manner and is possible in any household or inn, no matter how limited its room accommodations. Take an ordinary loaf of bread cut off all of the crust, then shred or "pull" the bread lightly apart with a silver fork with dull tines. Toast it in the lower oven on all sides or else rebake it in the regular oven in a brisk heat. The bread must be cooked this second time just when needed for eating, and then, either hot or cooled, it is delicious.

Bedroom Shades.

Every bedroom window should be provided with a dark green shade to keep out the early morning sunlight. It need not be a heavy Holland shade, which keeps out air as well as light. Side curtains of dark checked cloth hung from a rod underneath the white shade are soft and thin enough to draw out of sight against the window frame and are effective in creating a dim, religious light, conducive to slumber.

Rhubarb a Spring Tonic.

Rhubarb is a plant which should not be neglected, but stewed regularly when fresh as a spring tonic, good for young and old. Remember to cut the rhubarb without peeling it. Season it lightly with sugar. Stew it slowly in an old fashioned porcelain or platinum lettuce salad, it is one of the best and most certain remedies for the tired, worn feeling of spring that can possibly be given the family.

To Remove Stains.

For removing stains from cuffs, aprons, dresses and other white goods a weak solution of chloride of lime is excellent. Dissolve a large tablespoonful of lime in eight quarts of water and place the stained article to soak in the fluid. An occasional squeeze will facilitate the cleaning process, which will be found to have been accomplished in ordinary cases in twenty-four hours.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve

Has world-wide fame for marvelous cures. It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment, or balm for cuts, corns, burns, sores, chapped hands, skin eruptions, sores, ulcers, tetter, salt rheum, fever sores, infallible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Pickens Drug Co.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's new life pills quickly re-adjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Pickens Drug Co.

The Best Prescription for Malaria

Chills and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chills-Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Interesting Gossip and Speculation About Candidates and Officers.

Mr. August Kohn, the Columbia correspondent of the News and Courier, has the following interesting chat about State politics and politicians:

There is already a great deal of talk in various states about candidates for state offices, and for months the presidential possibilities have been seriously considered. In South Carolina, under the primary system, the election is virtually held in August every second year. The result of the system is that there is an everlasting campaign going on. Since the primary system has been in vogue candidates have been grooming as soon as one campaign closes. The last contest in this State closed a full year ago, and the wonder has been that candidates did not begin their work for the next contest a week after the second primary of 1902. Fortunately, there has been no campaign this year, and politics have been allowed to slumber for a while. County newspapers have, however, been writing about candidates and issues, and people who interested have been talking about the future of certain men now more or less in the public mind.

At the primary last year a practically new set of State officials was selected. With the exception of Treasurer Jennings all the State house officials were selected for their first terms last summer, and there seems to be an unwritten law that where office holders attend to their duties they be given a second term without opposition. This custom seems to apply to practically all elective offices, and, therefore, the chances are favorable to at least another year of political rest. Last year Governor Heyward had a strong string of opponents. He will be a candidate for re-nomination, and just now the outlook is that he will have no opposition. There was some talk immediately after the first primary of last year that Mr. Martin F. Ansel would be pressed for governor at the next primary in view of the surprising and extraordinary race that he made with the strong field in the race. He has stated that he will not oppose Governor Heyward for re-election, but he has his eye on the governor's chair after that.

Nothing has been heard politically from former Congressman Talbert since the last primary. The impression now is that if Governor Heyward's administration continues to run as smoothly and satisfactorily as at present, he will have no opposition in 1904. Then the doors will open. Mr. Ansel is already in the field, Mr. Talbert is almost certain to be, but the older man will have to look to their laurels, as it is rumored that Speaker Mendel L. Smith, of Camden, and Representative T. Yancy Williams, of Lancaster, would make excellent gubernatorial timber, and the friends of Lieutenant Governor John T. Sloan naturally expect him to be promoted.

With this prospect the likelihood is there will not be much of a campaign next year unless something happens and that is always possible. Capt. Jennings may stand for re-election for State treasurer, but he has before him the defeat of Dr. Timmerman, who stood for a third term, and the custom of finding new men. If there were any other office for which Treasurer Jennings might shift he would stand a better chance for a third term. If he runs there will be opposition. There is some talk that Col. Boyd will run against Adjutant and Inspector General Frost. Col. Boyd opposed Gen. Frost last year and lost, and the militia seem eminently satisfied with the present administration.

One of the big fights that will come up before the general assembly this winter will be for dispensary commissioner. It is understood that Commissioner H. H. Crum will not stand for re-election. Mr. W. O. Tatum, of Orangeburg, is an active and avowed candidate for the place. He is now a member of the house of representatives. Mr. D. Frank Bird, of Lexington, is spoken of as a candidate for the position. The position of State librarian will also be filled at the approaching session of the assembly. There will hardly be any serious opposition to the re-election of Miss

LaBorde, who now holds the position.

State house officials, most of whom are now comers here, find that Columbia is a very expensive place in which to live. Rents are high as compared with most other places in the State; provisions are as high as elsewhere and servants command good wages. The experience of most of the State officials has been that, unless they have other sources of income, from their homes or professions, they run behind.

State officials who are expected to do any amount of entertaining cannot possibly live upon their incomes. This may seem strange, but the fact is that no governor in recent years has been able to come out even on his salary, and the salary of governor is the best that is paid by the State—$3,500. Of course there will be plenty of men who want the glory of being elected governor of this glorious State and there are many men who would accept the office without pay, but it is well to know how things stand.

Aside from the expenses of living in Columbia there is the expense of the primary system. In some states the legitimate expenses of a campaign are paid by the state. In this State every candidate has to pay his own transportation—unless he has passed—has to settle with the hotels, pay for advertising, get up his plate matter for the papers, have supplementary tickets printed, encounter the committee with the list for the building of a new church or bridge, attend the fairs and perhaps arrange to have some "friend" at certain boxes, and "friend" usually accepts pay for "his time." It is surprising how these little things count up.

One of the candidates in the recent State campaign kept a clipboard on what money he spent. He is satisfied that every cent he expended was for legitimate and necessary expenses, and that he did not use any money in an improper way or to influence a single vote. His books show that he actually expended $523 for expenses during the campaign and that he "chipped away" $200 for incidentals, subscriptions, tips and the like. In other words, the expenses of the primary were $723. This applies to defeated as well as to successful candidates, and this is a low average, as some defeated candidates spent twice that much to be defeated, and it all went to meet legitimate expenses and keep pace with other candidates.

FARMER TRUST PROPOSED.

Chicago, Special.—Plans for combining farmers, fruit growers, dairymen and all other producers of natural food products into one national organization have been considered at a conference between representatives of several farmers' cooperative associations. This movement has for its purpose the maintaining of prices, the control of distribution of products and the saving of large sums of money paid in commissions. As a result of the conference, it was decided to hold a farmers' convention in Chicago Sept. 8, to consider detailed plans for organization. Progressive farmers are all invited to attend, so that one of the present plans may be adopted.

THE DEADLY HAT PIN.

Bloomington, Ill., Special.—Because she is alleged to have produced J. B. Strode, a farmer, with a hat pin to the extent of eight times, Mrs. Helen Grubb of Lincoln was fined $15 and costs. They were fellow passengers on a crowded street car returning from the Chautauqua, and Mrs. Grubb alleges that Strode took up too much space and that she was forced to prod him before he would make room.

FORMER COLUMBIAN GUILTY OF BIGAMY.

Arrested in Atlanta at the Instance of First Wife.

A shocking story of the lightness with which marital ties are regarded has reached Columbia through the arrest of O. E. Dennard, who is charged with bigamy. He has a wife living in Atlanta. He himself was at one time a flagman in the employ of the Southern and has a number of acquaintances among the railroad people, and they were very much surprised.

But the story is told by the Atlanta papers. The Evening News says: "Because he has one more wife than the law allows, O. E. Dennard, 33 years old, who formerly resided in Atlanta, is held a prisoner at police barracks. Dennard was arrested Thursday morning at 151 Luckie street by Patrolman Phillips on complaint of Mrs. Dennard No. 1.

"Dennard admits his guilt, but says he intended securing a divorce from his first wife just after he married the second time, but was prevented by reason of not having sufficient money. Mrs. Dennard No. 1, has two children in Atlanta, and Mrs. Dennard No. 2, has a baby three weeks old at Columbia, S. C., where Dennard is in the contracting business. Wife No. 2, does not know of his arrest.

"Mrs. Dennard No. 1, was Miss Ellen Glendora Chery, and he married her 14 years ago in Atlanta. About three years ago they separated and Dennard went to Columbia, S. C., where he says he married Miss Lilia Story on Dec. 29, 1900.

INTERESTING MARRIAGE.

Miss Turner of Spartanburg is Now a Bride.

Spartanburg, S. C., Special.—Miss Lola Turner and Mr. W. W. Mills, of Clifton were married Tuesday morning at the home of Rev. J. R. Aiken of Fair Forest, Mr. Aiken performing the ceremony. Miss Lucy Ladshaw, an intimate friend of the bride, witnessed the interesting ceremony. The anger and cruelty of a parent need not disturb Miss Turner any more. It will be remembered that a few months ago she left her father's home at Clifton, vowing never to return, giving as her reason the cruel action and treatment of her father, C. A. Turner, to her. She came to this city and resided with Miss Lucy Ladshaw, at the latter's home on Pine street. Miss Turner and Miss Ladshaw roomed at Converse college and have been very close friends since early girlhood. Her father made several attempts to get his daughter to return to his home at Clifton, but was unsuccessful. During the time letters were secured for the press, stating both sides of the matter, and the entire incident was furnished "interesting reading matter" for a while. The bride is an accomplished and pretty young woman and is very popular. The groom, Mr. Mills, holds a position as traveling representative for a big cotton mill machinery company and is an energetic young business man. The best wishes of many friends in the city and county attend the young people.

FOR FIFTY THOUSAND.

Spartanburg, Special.—Mrs. Jane E. Boyesen left the city Wednesday afternoon for a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. She states that she will return in time for the civil action which she expects to bring against those who have humiliated her and degraded her by suspending her as a thief and by searching her trunks. Her counsel, Mr. Stanyarne Wilson and Carlisle & Carlisle, forwarded to the clerk of the United States court in Charleston the papers of a suit for $50,000, which Mrs. Boyesen will bring for humiliation and degradation and damage to character against the White Stone Lithia company, Jas. T. Harris, J. B. Morgan and J. C. Elliott.

A Fighting Judge.

Little Rock, Ark., Special.—Judge Carroll L. Wood of the Arkansas supreme court, who is opposing Gov. Davis as a candidate for a third term, knocked Gov. Davis off a speaking stand, four feet, to the ground, during the campaign at Bismarck Tuesday. Gov. Davis was not hurt and friends prevented further trouble. Judge Wood was immediately arrested on a charge of assault and battery. Gov. Davis publicly asked Judge Wood questions, and before they could be fully answered interrupted with more questions, which so angered Judge Wood that he knocked Gov. Davis from the platform. Later the matter was adjusted and Judge Wood returned to Little Rock Wednesday.

WOMAN USES GUN.

Mrs. Moore Heavily Fires Upon a Black Intruder.

Hogansville, Ga., Special.—At this place an unknown negro walked up on the back steps of George Moore's house about 1 mile east of Franklin and asked Mrs. Moore, who was getting her baby to sleep on the bed, for something to eat. She told him she had nothing cooked. He then asked if she had any money and she said no. He then said he had to have something to eat and stepped up into the door.

He turned his head to look back, and as he looked out Mrs. Moore seized a shot gun which stood near the bed and pointed it at him, but he threw up his left hand and knocked the gun off just as she fired.

She then took her baby and ran to a neighbor's house about a quarter of a mile. She looked back once and saw the negro standing in the door.

Posses have scoured the country looking for the negro, but he is still at large.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Holiness of Negro Desperadoes at Pendleton Saturday Night.

Mr. S. L. Eskow, of Pendleton, was in Anderson Thursday and told of a bold attempt at highway robbery in that town Saturday night.

Two negroes who live near Pendleton had started to their home about 10 o'clock. They were walking, and had several bundles in their arms. As they reached the railroad bridge they were stopped by two strange negroes armed with pistols, and commanded to deliver their goods. They were a little slow in complying with the request, and one of the highwaymen struck one of negroes over the head with a bludgeon, inflicting a painful wound. The highwaymen captured one of the negro's packages, a bundle of dry goods, and made off in the darkness.

The alarm was given, but it was impossible to get on track of the desperadoes that night. Some arrests have been made since, but the suspected parties were released for lack of evidence. Mr. Eskow said, however, that he is satisfied that the guilty parties will yet be brought to justice.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding 18 miles for life, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip, proves its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Pickens Drug Co.

GROWERS AGAINST TRUST.

Tobacco Men Forming Local Manufacturing Companies.

Raleigh, N. C., Special.—The action of the state convention of the farmers who grow tobacco, held at Rocky Mount, which took strong ground against the tobacco trust, is very heartily commended by the growers in all parts of the state, and assurances of full sympathy and co-operation are coming in from South Carolina and Virginia, while it is said that Tennessee and Kentucky are also in sympathy.

The convention has declared in favor of a system of loan stock companies to buy, store and manufacture tobacco, while the latter is below the cost of production, the purpose being to establish these in every tobacco growing section so as to enable the home people to control the situation.

It is the plan to put the price of shares of stock in these corporations at only $5 so as to give even the smallest farmer an opportunity to become shareholders. It is said that the farmers were never more determined than they are at present.

Secretary of State Grimes, who is a large tobacco grower, and who attended the convention, says 1,500 growers were present.

When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effects. For sale by Pickens Drug Co., Earle's Drug Store, T. N. Hunter, Liberty.

THE STARS ARE FOR HIM.

St. Louis, Mo., Special.—The stars say that Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Folk will be elected Governor of Missouri and President of the United States in 1908. The horoscope of the eminent St. Louis circuit attorney has been read by Julius Erickson, the St. Louisian, who foretold McKinley's career with remarkable accuracy.

Curious to see what fate the stars and planets held in store for Mr. Folk, Astrologer Erickson obtained the hour of his birth and prepared the horoscope, which is remarkable in that it makes great predictions of the future success of the circuit attorney, and tells some things in his past with an accuracy that is almost amazing.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Pickens Drug Co., Earle's Drug Store, T. N. Hunter, Liberty.

BADLY CLUBBED BY CONSTABLES.

Charleston, S. C., Special.—A. W. Wieters, president and treasurer of the Consumers' Ice company, and his brother, R. D. Wieters, were severely clubbed by dispensary constables at the store of R. D. Wieters at midnight Saturday night.

The constables went to the place of Wieters to make a raid and he closed the door against them. They gained access through another entrance and at once engaged in a controversy with him in which harsh language was used.

The constables were armed with pistols and blivies and the latter were used upon Wieters until he was insensible.

In the meantime a messenger was sent for A. W. Wieters, president of the ice company. When he arrived on the scene he protested against the treatment accorded his brother and he also was clubbed.

Both men are painfully though not seriously bruised about the head and face. The constables say they were grossly insulted by language used by Wieters.

The Wieters brothers are both owners of property and are well known in the city.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite is not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and cures the injury to heal in about one third the time usually required, and as it is antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept on hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which assures a quick recovery. For sale by Pickens Drug Co., Earle's Drug Store, T. N. Hunter, Liberty.

AMERICAN CONSUL KILLED BY TURKS.

BEIRUT ASSASSINATED.

Admiral Cotton Ordered to Hold His Ships Ready to Sail—Consul Was From Minnesota.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Minister Leishman at Constantinople, announcing that William G. Magelssen, United States vice consul at Beirut, Syria, was assassinated yesterday, while riding in a carriage. The American minister immediately demanded action by Turkey.

Acting Secretary Loomis today cabled Leishman, instructing him to demand the immediate arrest and punishment of the persons guilty of the murder. No demand for money indemnity for the man's family has yet been made but probably this will follow.

Admiral Cotton, commanding the European squadron, has been cabled by the Navy Department to have his vessels in readiness to move to Beirut, which is on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean sea, in case the demands of the United States government upon the Turkish government are not complied with.

Magelssen, who was a Scandinavian, was appointed vice consul at Beirut, Sept. 20, 1899. At the time of his appointment as vice consul he was consular clerk in Turkey. Magelssen was appointed on recommendation of Senator Nelson of Minnesota, who says that he was the son of a prominent Lutheran minister. He was born in Minnesota.

Minister Leishman's cablegram was dated yesterday and stated that the assassination occurred Sunday, the minister being informed of the crime by Consul Ravndal. The consul stated that the murderer was not seen and was not known.

The State Department has forwarded Minister Leishman's dispatch to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, and is now in communication with him on the subject.

The announcement of the assassination of the American vice consul, following so soon upon the assassination of the Russian consul in Turkey, created strong comment in official circles and the suggestion was made that such frequent assassinations indicate a very disturbed condition of affairs in the Turkish dominion. Minister Leishman gave no particulars of the assassination and the State Department has no information as to cause of murder.

What Became of William Smith?

Mrs. P. T. Chapman, writing from Vienna, Ill., asks for information concerning her great-grandfather, William Smith, who she says was a Revolutionary soldier from this State and probably lived in Spartanburg district. She thinks he might have emigrated to Georgia. She finds by the records available to her that there were five William Smiths in the Revolutionary war from this State, which speaks well both for the Smith's and the State. The letter is addressed to Gov. Heyward—Columbia, S. C.

TO COAL FIELDS.

Southern Mail Line From Wall-halla Into Tennessee.

A year or more ago there was much talk about a railroad from Wallhalla, S. C., through Macon county, N. C., and into Tenn. but the question has for some time been still. It is now learned that this line has been surveyed and the contract has been partly let for a new road for the Southern from Wallhalla to Maryville, Tenn.

A look at the map of the country will show at a glance what a saving in carrying coal can be effected by the building of a 100 miles or less of railroad, through a fertile country that needs the road and will produce enough to give it business. From Maryville to Wallhalla a direct line is less than 100 miles, and while it is a mountainous country, the grade is easy. Leaving Maryville for 20 miles or more you strike the Tennessee River, and following it and its tributaries you get very near Wallhalla without crossing any hills. We are informed on good authority that, many years ago a tunnel was made nearly through the hills, four miles from Wallhalla, by a railroad company which failed, and it is possible that the Southern will utilize this long lost work in crossing to South Carolina.

From Knoxville to Seneca, S. C., where the road from Wallhalla crosses the Southern's main line, it is 288 miles; and that is the route over which is hauled coal and other freight. From Knoxville to Seneca, by Wallhalla, it is but little more than 100 miles.

It Does not take an expert to see that this road opens a new route that is surprising.

Freight traffic is now congested over the long lines named, and the building of this road would be an easy solution of that congested state, and open a comparatively unknown and beautiful part of North Carolina.
