

Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

J. E. Parsons continues to improve slowly. W. H. Prince and family have moved back to their property in town. Mrs. Lilla Cox, of Belton, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. W. Barie. If you want the top of the market for your cotton bring it to Pickens. John P. Griffin, who has been quite sick with fever, is able to be out again. The road from Pickens to Pumpkintown is reported as being in fairly good fix. The Pickens Band has rented the store room in the Anthony building for a practice room. Triplets born to the wife of Orange Cole, of Lona, Va., were named Alphonso, Gaston and Leon. Remember J. D. Moore is in the market business. Call on him when in need of meats or any other goods. Henry Bolt, while playing last week fell and broke his arm between the elbow and wrist. He is doing well. Booker Washington's wife has taught a class of colored girls eight different ways of preparing cow pens. Farmers are now busy pulling fodder, picking cotton, mowing hay and making up their "long sweetening." When in town come in and see us. We always have something new and something that you want. Pickens Drug Co. J. Wesley Curtis, of the Mile Creek section, is quite sick; said to be fever. As yet he is not dangerous and his friends hope for him a speedy recovery. When you come to town, drop in at The Sentinel-Journal office and square your subscription with the printer's devil and avoid trouble with the next. Lost a black cap with blue lining between McFall's store and A. Kelley's on the 26th ult. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at this office. There will be an all day singing at Geor. A. Creek church on the third Sunday in October. Every body invited and bring song books and well filled baskets. J. E. Hendricks, of Liberty, was in Pickens Tuesday and called to see us and had his subscription dated ahead. He reports everything quiet and flourishing in his neighborhood. Tom McManey, colored, who lived on Charlie Cureton's place, near town, while out "peasum hunting" last Thursday night, dropped a dead heart failure was the cause of his death. Miss Lilla Cox, of near Cox Bridge, has returned home from Chattanooga, Tenn., and Birmingham, Ala., where she has been visiting her sister and other relatives for the past several weeks. R. C. Carter, Liberty, has rented the Brown House store room and carries a complete line of buggies, wagons, harness, saddles and a beautiful line of winter lap robes. Don't fail to see them and get his prices. The Clayton (Ga.) Tribune says: "We are reliably informed that 1,200 convicts are at work on the Southern Railroad from Knoxville to Wallata. It is now an assured fact that this road will be pushed to completion." All persons who are now on rural routes are requested to so notify this office so that we can properly address and get their paper to them. Rural route carriers do not carry out any mail unless it is marked for their routes. Our old friend, D. F. Sutherland, of Mien, was in Pickens Tuesday on business and while in town moved his subscription up a peg. He reports everything in a good condition in his section. He is suffering from Job's complaint. Under the existing laws of this State all the nomadic and gregarious Gypsy horse-traders that habitually infest the country during the money season, may be classed as vagrants and punished. Let the law be remembered and enforced especially against such as these. Magistrate T. L. Grant, of Calhoun, was in Pickens Tuesday on business. While here he called on The Sentinel-Journal and moved his subscription a notch ahead. He reports everything quiet in his bailiwick and says crops are a little short and awful dry. Call again, "Squire, glad to see you." W. H. Johnson has a full line of Musical Instruments, Clocks, Watches, Chains, Pocket Cutlery, Razors, etc. You will also find in his establishment one of the nicest lines of Pictures, Frames and Enamels, you have ever seen in Pickens. When you want to decorate your home call on him and profit thereby. Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, on Crow Creek the 30th ult., Miss Laura E. Eilenburg to Mr. Robert L. Redmon, of Oconee, son of the late famed Maj. Redmon, who proved a thorn in the flesh to many a U. S. Deputy Marshal. Bold, unlike his father, is a very unassuming Christian boy. May their lives be long and happy. It was the wish of their friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. F. Murphy. All of our correspondents are earnestly urged to get their matter to us by Saturday's mail, sure. This applies, particularly, to our country correspondents, as our correspondents who reach us by railroad mail have the advantage of the Sunday schedule to Pickens. When country notices reach us later than 8:30 Monday morning, we cannot consistently handle them then, and have to run them over to the next issue, which often causes them to be stale. Please bear in mind the above and get your letters to us as soon as possible.

Crops in the Pumpkintown and Liberia sections are generally good. Mason Simmons, who lives on the Oconee, has two eleven month old hogs that will weigh 300 pounds each. An usual Pickens county is well represented this fall at the various institutions of learning throughout the country. FOR SALE—I have a lot of pigs ready for delivery. Price four weeks old, three dollars. Eight weeks old four dollars. John Ferguson. J. C. Carter, Liberty, is receiving one of the largest stocks of dry goods and notions from New York ever brought to that place, and when you want bargains call on him and he will save you money. This paper is published to disseminate the news, and we can only give the news whenever we learn of it. We want to give you value received for your money and all the news we can, so will appreciate very much any items you will send us. While they may not be news to you, remember that others will appreciate reading them. Just send us the skeleton on a postal card and we can put the clothes on it. See change in the schedule of the Pickens Railroad. The afternoon train now leaves Pickens at 4:40 and arrives in Pickens at 7 p. m. This change is made to give closer connections with Southern trains. No. 11 on the main line does not leave Greenville until 5:18, and arrives at Easley at 5:33. This gives nearly three hours in Greenville between trains and will suit the public better, as does the change on the Pickens road. We hope that all the mothers of our community have read the advertisement of Dr. Moffett's teething powders, (Teethina) that has been appearing in this paper, as it comes to us highly endorsed by the best people of the land who have used it. Teethina is not a patent medicine, but a favorite prescription of Dr. C. J. Moffatt, who graduated at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., and has had many years of experience in the treatment of children, and his Teethina becoming so popular he was forced to abandon the general practice to devote his time to the manufacture of these powders that have saved the lives of thousands of children. It is claimed that nothing equals them for the irritations of teething and the summer troubles of children of any age, and no mother with small children should be without them. Hotel "Hiawatha." Last Monday night, October 5th, the recently erected and commodious hotel building, the product of the indefatigable labors of the proprietor, Mr. T. D. Harris, was thrown open to the public and christened "Hotel Hiawatha." Mr. Harris was happily fortunate in the selection of this beautiful name, and this enterprise helps to commend the town of Pickens to the public and gives increased assurance to the traveller, and the secker after health and the pleasures of a modernly equipped hostelry, with all the necessary and proper accommodations, that his wants, whatever they may be, may be fully satisfied in Pickens. From eight to eleven, a reception was held, and to this, by announcement publicly made, all were invited. And the people of the town turned out to see for themselves, what in many respects was a surprise, yet not an unpleasant surprise, for those who know Mr. T. D. Harris and his lady and their reputed hospitality are always ready to accord to them that merited praise which, to the public spirited citizen, is often the chief compensation for personal study and the expenditure of means for the promotion of the interests of the community. Delicious refreshments were served in the ample dining room and all through the evening the guests roamed through corridors wide inspecting the lovely apartments and spending praise upon the convenience of the arrangement and the home-like and inviting aspect of all the house, while that indispensable adjunct to every creditable undertaking in Pickens of this character—the Pickens Band—discoursed sweet music and made the people feel that here indeed had some of the hopes of Pickens been realized in this time of business venture.
