1872 ~~~~~ 31 YEARS ~~~~~ 1903

For the past thirty-one years we have been wrapping up and rolling out bargains for the good people of Pickens—and we are still at it. We appreciate the liberal business and friendship of these good people and we hope to still deserve it. It is hardly necessary to enumerate or to even attempt a description of the various lines of merchandise that we handle. The people of the county already know that we always have in stock and at the most reasonable prices, everything needed about a home or farm. We handle no shoddy goods. We invite all to come and look through our rooms. Examine our stock of

NEW - GOODS AND NEW PRICES!

For both old and new customers on all Fall and Winter Goods for and during the Autumn months of the new year 1903.

I want all who read this to take fair notice not to buy goods from me unless you want to buy at the lowest prices that they can be sold at and guarantee fair dealings and honest prices.

For the next 3 months I will sell to all who trade with me for every $5.00 purchase worth of anything in the dry goods line I will give 20 lbs of granulated sugar for $1.00. I will not sell sugar at the above price only when a $5.00 purchase is made all at one time, and the above demanded by the customer.

With each 50 lb sack of my "ROLLER EXTRACT" flour I will give free a pound package of Arm & Hammer soda or a 5c can of Good Luck baking powder.

Give me a part of your trade and be convinced that I will sell you good goods as cheap as the cheapest. (quality considered.)

I now have a complete line of Broadcloths, Percaloes, Flannels, Sterling Dress Goods, Henriettas, Nainsook, Calicoes, Eiderdown—white, pink and blue.

A nice line of Gents fine shirts, 50 to 75c. Rubber collars, Ladies and Gents Hosiery from 5 to 25c per pair. A few old goods consisting of Suits, Overcoats and shoes at your own price. Yours for trade,

JOHN F. HARRIS.

Humor and Philosophy

MAGIC OF THE DOLLAR.

With a dollar in your pocket
You may hold your head on high,
Just as though you owned the village
And the countryside hard by;
Like a man who has a coal mine,
Or who lets a farm on rent,
But you take a mighty tumble
When you haven't got a cent.

With a dollar in your pocket
You can look men in the eye,
Step around like great Lord Ploekax
When it comes your turn to buy.
Only crook your little finger
And the waiter flies to you,
But things take a different aspect
When you haven't got a sou.

Though it is the root of evil,
Cause of trouble, source of woes,
Money comes in mighty handy
To have round your Sunday clothes.
If you have the bright spondulix
You're the cheese beyond a doubt,
But you're little Willie No-one
When your money has run out.

About the Same Thing.

He called on a celebrated architect
To consult him on professional business.
"What kind of a fence would look best around the earth?" he asked.
"Do you own the earth?" asked the architect in alarm.
"Not yet," replied the man, "but I am in the automobile repairing business."

Thinking Them Out.

"Are you writing much original stuff now?"
"Just some anecdotes of Abraham Lincoln. That is about all."

As to a Baby.

A baby is a wrapping of joy,
If any one should call you up by phone and ask you about it.
To have a darling boy
Is a constant source of pleasure. Oh, do not ever doubt it!
When talking to your friends
You never say anything about walking the floor with it at night Or how it sends Traveling up and down your spine such spasms of delight.
You tell them how it smiles
And winks at you and knowingly says
"Coo, coo!"
Never mentioning the miles
And miles and miles you travel while it makes a pack horse of you.
Oh, a baby is the greatest thing on earth,
And a merry life the father leads,
Although from the moment of its birth
It keeps him broke trying to buy half the things it needs.

To Where He Had Fallen.
"What is Clarence doing now?"
"Writing poetry for the magazines."
"That man will do anything for money."

One Thing Sure.

Our lives are fixed by accident;
We scurry here and there;
Things that we do with good intent
May vanish in thin air.
But one thing's certain in advance—
The rule don't give an inch—
That though life is a game of chance
Yet marriage is a cinch.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

That St. Paul man who can talk at language will probably do it for you at so much per.

Some people might think it would be better to be a dead lion or a dead most anything else than a live dog.

When a man buys the lead pencils that he uses, it must be that he has nothing else to do with his money.

When every day is Sunday, of course the preachers will have to get a good, stiff raise in salary.

If love is a species of intoxication,
that is perhaps the reason why a marriage license is required.

Some men are sad because they cannot get out of debt, and some men are hoping mad because they cannot get in.

Sometimes you find an honest green-grocer, though there are people who think the terms are synonymous.

One place to find dumb belles is at an institution for the deaf.

While the Congressional Record does not run to light literature, it contains more fiction than the average reader might imagine.

When a foxy man is in love, instead of asking some one to say a good word for him he gets three or four girls to plug against him.

Strange to say, the farmer never calls in a corn doctor when his corn crop is threatened.

When a man arrives at the age of fifty, he does not believe in love unless he happens to fall in.

"THE OLDEST MAN IN THE ROCKIES."

Geo. W. Hanly, 108 Years of Age, Is as Strong and Vigorous as Men Thirty Years Younger,
and Says That for a Long Time His Only Medicine
Has Been DUFFY'S
PURE MALT WHISKEY.

GEO. W. HANLY, 108 Years Old.

A familiar figure of the Rockies, the "oldest living landmark," is G. W. Hanly, of Big Timber, Mont. One of the original "49ers," Mr. Hanly in later years built up a large veterinary medicine business. Though now in his 108th year, he is hale and hearty and able to walk about as spryly as many men half his age. He states that he owes it all to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. In a recent letter he says:

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

It is an absolutely pure distillation of malt and is recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee. It is a tonic-stimulant recommended by physicians of every school; a boon to the weak and worn, to the weary and depressed. It arrests the progress of physical decay; keeps the old young, makes the weak strong. It strengthens the heart; relieves the aching head; gives to the limbs their old-time vigor, and clears the brain. It enriches the blood and nourishes the vital forces of the body. In this way it drives out disease and is a promoter of health and longevity. If you wish to keep strong and well in old age, if you wish to be free from disease now, take a tablespoonful of Duffy's Malt Whiskey three times a day, in milk or water.

Duffy's is prescribed by doctors everywhere for coughs, colds, grip, catarrh, consumption, bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, asthma and all diseases of the throat and lungs; indigestion, dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble; nervousness, malaria and all low fevers.

CAUTION.—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations and malt whiskey substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure Malt Whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only; never in flask or bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles. "Duffy's" contains no fusel oil.

Sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct, $1.00 a bottle. Interesting medical booklet postpaid to any address. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, New York.

TEETHING EASY.

We have handled Dr. Moffett's TEETHINA (Teething Powders) ever since its first introduction to the public and trade as a proprietary medicine, and our trade in it has steadily increased from year to year until our orders now amount to two or three hundred gross per year, which is a very strong evidence of its merit and the satisfaction it is giving to the mothers of the country, for they say nothing so effectually counteracts the effects of the summer's hot sun or overcomes so quickly the troubles incident to teething.
