Matters of Interest Throughout the State.

Erskine College graduated 26 young men and 4 young women—the 5th of June.

The first shipment of peaches from Ridge Spring for the season was made on 30th ult.

In Wallhalla, last week, five warehouses and their contents, including 25 wagons, were destroyed by fire. Only one building was insured.

W. C. Irby, of Laurens, son of the late Jno. L. M. Irby, has declared himself a candidate for Congress from the Fourth District.

The Abbeville Press and Banner says it is very likely that the Seaboard Air Line will build a road from that town to Due West in a short while.

Robert Tribble, who was acting as fireman on the train that runs between Edgefield and a rock quarry, fell from his engine and his left arm was cut off by the wheels.

Dr. James Boyce, resident of the Due West Female College, says he is meeting with much encouragement in his canvass for funds for a new dormitory. It is remembered that Mr. Carnegie gave $10,000 for this, provided the people gave a similar amount.

In reply to D. F. Wiggin, President of Lodge 294 La. Union, and all others who have recently called upon our bureau for cheap plans of cotton warehouses, that just so soon as we can get in answer from inquiries sent out that our Union column will publish in concentrated form about all the information needed on the warehouse matter.

One night last week, on a public road a few miles from Walterboro, lightning struck the front wheel of Dr. Riddick Ackerman's buggy and tore all the spokes in the wheel into splinters, except one, and stripped the horse of the harness, leaving only the hames and the traces on the horse. Neither the doctor nor his horse were injured.

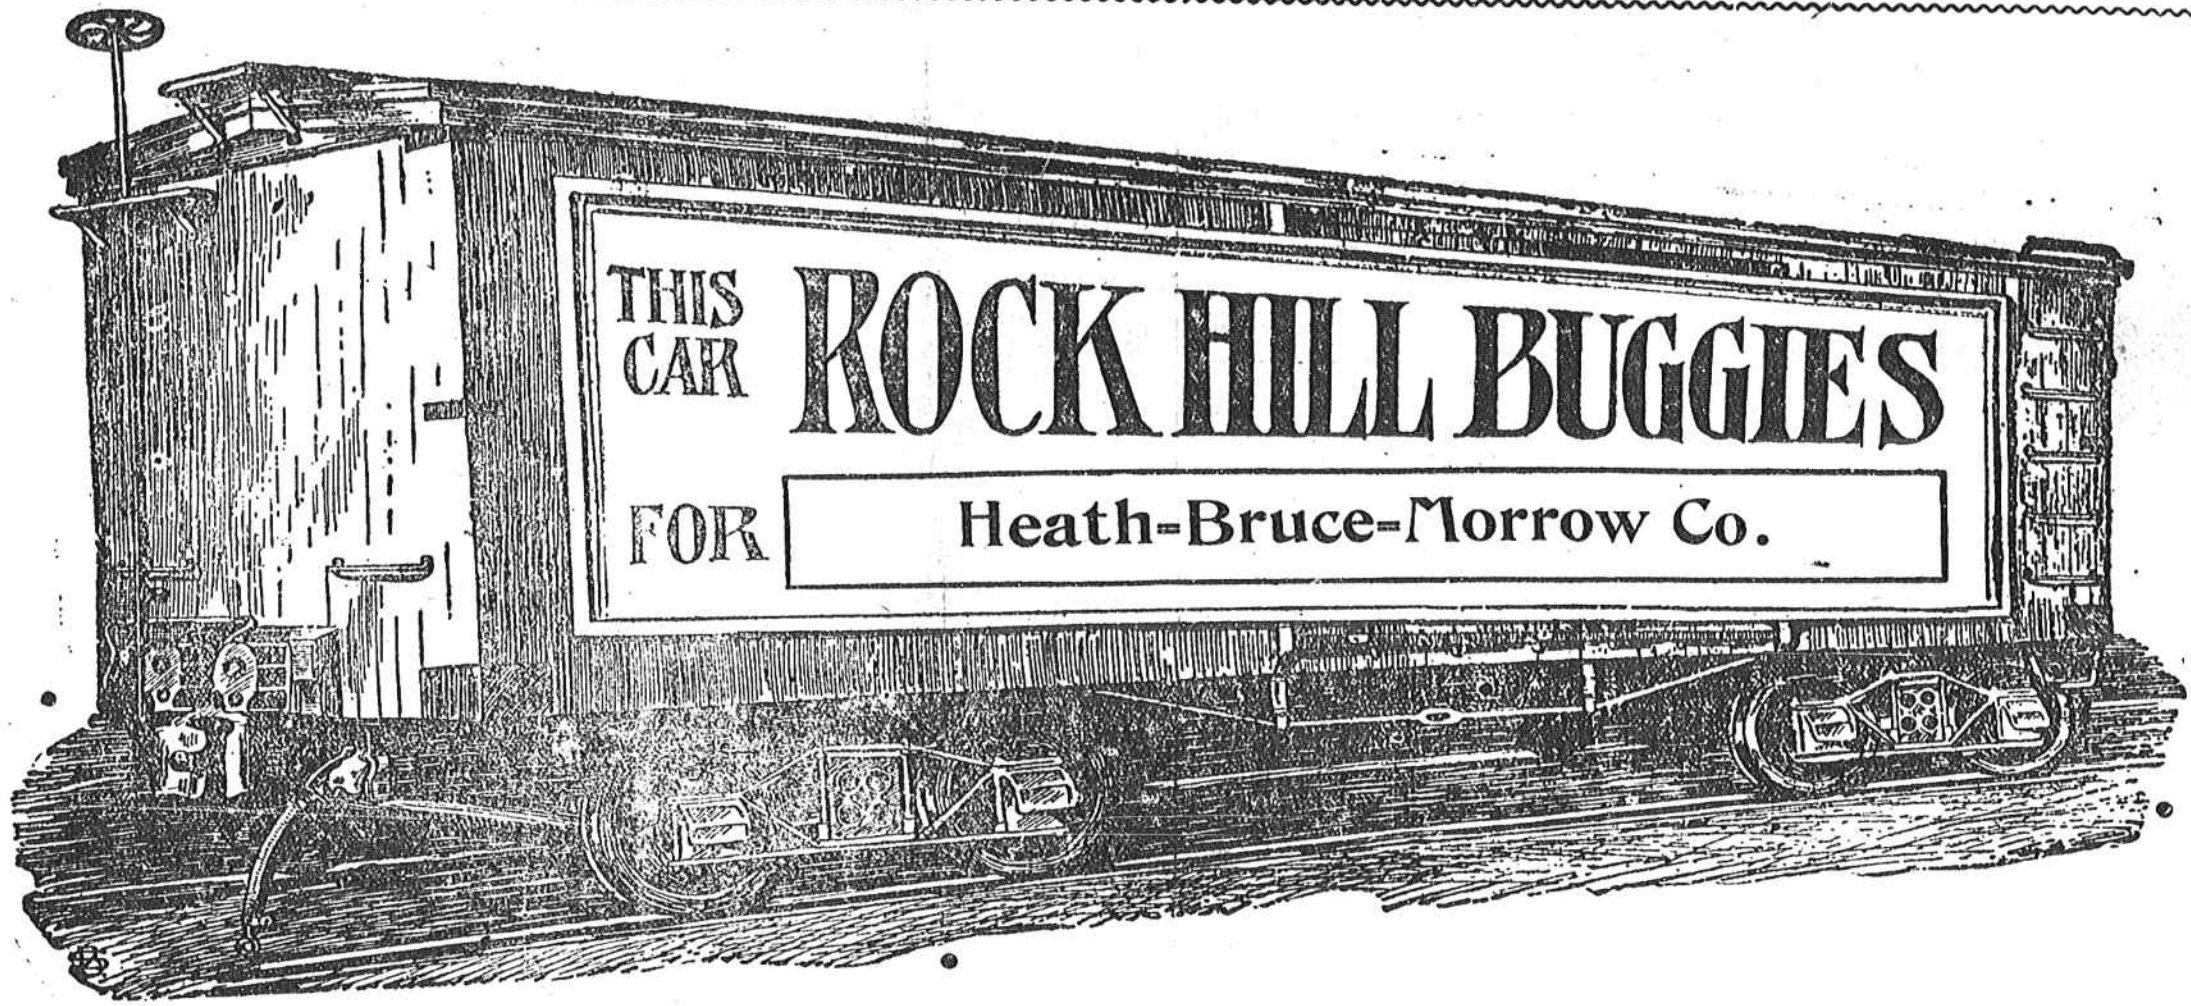

Mrs. E. B. Wilson, wife of a well-known farmer near Boech Island, Aiken county, was shot in the head through a window on the evening of the 22nd ult., and mortally wounded. She was sleeping in the bed with her small baby, her husband and other children being in an adjoining room. Two negroes are under arrest, being charged with the crime.

Mr. Thos. P. Cothran is a candidate for re-election as a member of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in August. Mr. Cothran is one of the best legal practitioners in the Piedmont, and he keeps in close touch with affairs in this county, so that he has made a most excellent record as a legislator.

Elliot Rouse, a negro, committed an unusually atrocious murder near Greenwood last week. He was trying to make his wife, who had left him, return to his home, and upon the woman's refusal he struck her with an axe, grazing the skull. She turned to run and then he smote her again, sinking the axe up to its eye in the woman's brain. Her death was instantaneous. He fled bareheaded and has not been seen since.

President E. L. Archer, of the Spartan county branch of the Southern Cotton association, has issued a statement to the farmers that it is the intention this year to sell their cotton in bulk. It has been estimated that there are about 5,000 bales to be marketed this year in Spartanburg county which will be held in lots varying from 20 to 80 bales. Already President Archer has received notices from many of the farmers that they intend to place their cotton in the common pool and in that way to sell through one medium and for a higher price than would be obtained in any other way.

Obituary.

Mrs. Margaret Thomas, wife of W. P. Thomas, died suddenly at the home of her son-in-law, Thos. King. She had been married twice, the first time marrying Wm. Brewer, and the second time W. P. Thomas. She leaves two children and fifteen step children. She was a kind, loving mother and step-mother, and was a consistent member of the Baptist church, having joined many years ago. Her place cannot be filled in the home, in the church, and as a neighbor, and while we mourn her loss, we bow in humble submission to Him who doth all things well, feeling assured that our loss is her gain. The funeral and interment took place at Flat Rock church, on Thursday last, and was conducted by Rev. T. F. Nelson.

REV. T. F. NELSON.
