FOR CONGRESS.

Honorables Julius E. Boggs and Vyatt Aiken are both announced in he Third, Congressional District 'hey are both good men, and true, nd the district will be well taken are of no matter which one happens o get elected.

This paper is peculiarly situated in his race: Mr. Boggs is a fellow ownsman, neighbor and friend to no editor, and at one time editor of ais paper; he has served his town, bunty and State well and should be e elected to the office to which he is spiring the interests of the district ill be in good bands. Mr. Aiken qually our friend. He is a pleasant entleman, an in lefatigable worker. od stands high in the eyes of the cople and the estimation of his colingues: he has been faithful to the ust reposed in him by the yeters of ack on him or fight his record which clean, straight and honest.

Both these honorable gentlemen ave friends in this county, who are ir friends and supporters of this iper, we are taking no part in the

NEDOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exed ten per cent of his earnings. - He mst spend nine dollars in living expen ga for every dollar saved. That being to ease he cannot be too careful about unecessary expenses. Very often a few mts properly invested, like buying seeds or his garden, will save several dollars utlay later on. It is the same in buy og Chamberlain's Colie, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a fow ents, and a bottl of it in the home ofter. ives a dector bill of several dollars; old by Pickens Daug Co, and T. N. unter, Liberty.

raffic Association of South carolina

This office has received a letter and a explanatory circular signed by F. f. McMaster, secreterry of the Traffic ssociation of South Carolina, in hich it is urged upon every town, lmost as a matter of self projection, nnite in the effort to secure that ossistent management of the traffic usiness of the country as will insure nable merchants and business mer gure. This will inure to the ulu nate benefit of the people, and, after I, the people need the protection sterests to look into the work and miller to our thoughtful Mayor and ouncil.

BUY IT NOW.

Now is the time to buy Chamberlain's holie, Cholera Diarrhoea Remedy. I s certain to be needed sooner or late nd when that time comes you will nec. t badly—you will need it quickly. Buy t now, it may save life. For side by lickens Drug Co. and T. N. Hunter liberty.

Senator Tillman at Pickens.

ing Senator Tillmans visit to Pickens The Easley band was in attendance and had enlivened the crowd with several stiring airs, the hour had arrived for the Senator to appear on the stand and as he approached it an onthusiastic admirer loped up on the stand and with a mighty Istentoriou voice velled: "Three Cheers for Tillman; Three Cheers for Tillman, Three Cheers for Tillman." But no re sponse was heard and the effort to stir the flame of gone by days was rebuked by perfect silence.

When the Senator was introduced and arose to make his speech the same painful silence prevailed.

During his speech he asked; "Why have you people voted for me and his paper for Congress from this, kept me in office these eigteen years? An enthusiastic admirer answered: "Because we believed you to be an honorable man."

> Fillman: "Yes, and for one other eason; you know what it is?" Admirer: "No!"

Tiltman: "Because I had more sense than you have."

Congressman Legare had a seat on the stand during the speech and then about half through offered th Sonator a glass of water. He repliehat a wind mill could not be rue

The feature of his speech that prought out the hearthest approve was at the close when he told of h lectures in the North on the rac question and said he had told then that there was not crough Yankee to Third District and we cannot go from Cape God to hell to keep the white man from rading the South.

It is reported that when the Sena or boarded the train at Pickens for Easley every seat in the car was occur pied and not a one was vacated for him and that he sat on the stool used unity campaign, and for these rea for getting up on the car steps all the ms this paper is strictly out of this way. It is also said that no one atpronobed him and that when he as Persons wishing to "boost" these rived at Easley no one met him or intlemen through the columns of showed any attention whatever and is paper can do so at our regular that he sat on a box at the railroad mpaign rates, but articles deroga station alone until one of the rail road men got a chair for him.

· His speech on the dispensary issue fell on stony ground. The people of Pickens have themselves set against it and the expression is heard on many sides that Senator Tillman injured the cause he represented rather than helped it.
