

GOVERNOR AND PRESIDENT.

Watching the Parade John Kelly's Visit to Governor Cleveland—The Magnificent Spectacle in the Streets.

The Governor left the Academy at 9:45 o'clock and drove rapidly to the hotel, entering at the entrance on Twenty-fourth street. The party returning was the same as that going, namely, Senator Barnum, Mr. J. J. O'Donohue, and Secretary Lamont. As soon as they reached the hotel Senator Cullen stepped up to Mr. Cleveland and conversed with him quietly for a moment. Both gentlemen then proceeded to parlor No. 83, where were seated John Kelly and Gen. Spicola. The greetings between the gentlemen were cordial, and after a brief conversation Governor Cleveland led the way into his private room, where he remained closeted with Mr. Kelly for twenty-five minutes. At 10:30 Mr. Kelly, accompanied by Senator Cullen and Mr. Spicola, left the hotel, and the Governor and his party ascended to the balcony to review the procession.

At this time the crowd outside extended clear across the street, far back upon the grass in the square, and from Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth streets—a dense mass of fully 15,000 persons. As Mr. Cleveland stepped upon the balcony the full glare of a calcium light was thrown upon his face, and the crowd raised a mighty shout, which lasted for five minutes. Cheers for New York's "best Governor and next President" rent the air, and as the crowd surged backward and forward, so densely was it packed in the square, that as it moved at one side the movement went over the entire mass like a wave. The Governor stood with bowed head and his right hand in the bosom of his coat, bowing from right to left in acknowledgment of his magnificent welcome. As he looked over the crowd the M. C. Murphy Battery, stationed in front of the hotel, fired a salute, the space for firing being dangerously small. For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

Around the Governor were his staff and members of the national and State committee and a large number of the distinguished visitors of the day. During the delay Mr. Cleveland passed the time in conversing with those about him, and many ladies—guests at the hotel—passed upon the balcony, and were presented to him. The crowd meanwhile stayed patiently and awaited the coming of the procession, the torches of which were seen up the avenue. Salute after salute from the battery thundered out as the purple flags of Tammany Hall went by the hotel, headed by a platoon of tall grenadiers in bearskin caps, and followed by the 1,000 gaily embroidered jackets of the J. C. Charlton regiment, a squad of shining heavy, and the baggy crimson trousers and tasseled skull caps of 800 Riley Zouaves Behind the Nicholas Muller Battery of 1,000 strong came another platoon of grenadiers in pure white, marching at the head of 2,000 Red shirts, braided with blue, and the Jefferson Battery of the Ninth District.

The crowd shouted with delight, and as the glaring advertisement machine fung out pictures of Blaine and Cleveland with the word "Which?" between them, there was a howl of derision that such a question should be asked. Then "Honesty is the first virtue" and "Remember 1876" danced in the light of rooster torches which shone and crowded above the 500 blue and white Norfolk jackets of the Tenth District, to which Mitchell's Battery added 200. Led by a rattling drum corps of boys, the crimson-rimmed helmets of the Thirtieth District shared applause with a squad of white oil-skin capes, and the dark sailor suits of the Beattie. Lines of gold-braided regimentals, crowned with 600 shining roosters, and white base ball suits, announced that the Fourteenth District voted as a whole for Cleveland, and besides them were the Fred Helbig Association of the Fifteenth, with breast-plate medallions of Cleveland and Hendrix, and a strong array from the sixteenth, with several lines of solid looking citizens beneath high silk hats.

Among the illuminated comments on Mr. Blaine were: "Cast an anchor windward," "Isce various channels in which I can be useful," "Send me a letter such as the enclosed draft," "Workmen, remember Hocking Valley." These floated above the Cleveland Clubs Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Sixteenth District. The Eighteenth District made its appearance with a hearty song of "Hurrah for Cleveland the men from Buffalo." In it were the Raymond Zouaves and the Robert Hall Battery. The McDonald Regiment and Dooley's Battery constituted the Nineteenth, and it was after midnight when the twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts filed by and were the last to salute and give hearty cheers for Grover Cleveland.

During an interval between two parades there was a glare of torchlights down Twenty-fourth street, and a colored Blaine and Logan regiment marched proudly by and disappeared with rapidity as howls of derision and shouts of "Shoot the coons!" arose. While the gunners of the M. C. Murphy battalion were firing the salute previous to the arrival of the procession, a charge exploded before Gunner Frederick Powers had withdrawn the rammer. The gun was fortunately pointed at an elevation above the heads of the crowd, and the ramrod passed off into space without doing any injury except to Powers, whose hands and arms were badly lacerated by it, and whose face was slightly burned by the flash. An ambulance was summoned, but he declined medical assistance, and was removed to his home, No. 52 Varick street. As the ambulances moved off, tolling its bell, the crowd shouted, "There goes Blaine's funeral."

R. W. CANNON, MACHINERY!

AGENT FOR—

I AM better prepared than ever before to offer to farmers and others needing them

Steam Engines, COTTON GINS,

Cotton Presses, Saw Mills, GRIST MILLS, CANE MILLS,

Portable and Stationary Flouring Mills, and all kinds of improved Agricultural Implements. Also a full and complete stock of

Groceries & Provisions,

FRUITS, CONFECTIONERY, CIGARS, TOBACCO, Etc.,

at exceedingly low prices for cash. Price any Groceries before you buy.

I have eight years' experience in the machinery trade and can offer you inducements both in quality, price and terms. Call on me or write for any information as to prices, terms, &c.

For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

Around the Governor were his staff and members of the national and State committee and a large number of the distinguished visitors of the day. During the delay Mr. Cleveland passed the time in conversing with those about him, and many ladies—guests at the hotel—passed upon the balcony, and were presented to him. The crowd meanwhile stayed patiently and awaited the coming of the procession, the torches of which were seen up the avenue.

Salute after salute from the battery thundered out as the purple flags of Tammany Hall went by the hotel, headed by a platoon of tall grenadiers in bearskin caps, and followed by the 1,000 gaily embroidered jackets of the J. C. Charlton regiment, a squad of shining heavy, and the baggy crimson trousers and tasseled skull caps of 800 Riley Zouaves Behind the Nicholas Muller Battery of 1,000 strong came another platoon of grenadiers in pure white, marching at the head of 2,000 Red shirts, braided with blue, and the Jefferson Battery of the Ninth District.

The crowd shouted with delight, and as the glaring advertisement machine fung out pictures of Blaine and Cleveland with the word "Which?" between them, there was a howl of derision that such a question should be asked. Then "Honesty is the first virtue" and "Remember 1876" danced in the light of rooster torches which shone and crowded above the 500 blue and white Norfolk jackets of the Tenth District, to which Mitchell's Battery added 200. Led by a rattling drum corps of boys, the crimson-rimmed helmets of the Thirtieth District shared applause with a squad of white oil-skin capes, and the dark sailor suits of the Beattie. Lines of gold-braided regimentals, crowned with 600 shining roosters, and white base ball suits, announced that the Fourteenth District voted as a whole for Cleveland, and besides them were the Fred Helbig Association of the Fifteenth, with breast-plate medallions of Cleveland and Hendrix, and a strong array from the sixteenth, with several lines of solid looking citizens beneath high silk hats.

Among the illuminated comments on Mr. Blaine were: "Cast an anchor windward," "Isce various channels in which I can be useful," "Send me a letter such as the enclosed draft," "Workmen, remember Hocking Valley." These floated above the Cleveland Clubs Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Sixteenth District. The Eighteenth District made its appearance with a hearty song of "Hurrah for Cleveland the men from Buffalo." In it were the Raymond Zouaves and the Robert Hall Battery. The McDonald Regiment and Dooley's Battery constituted the Nineteenth, and it was after midnight when the twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts filed by and were the last to salute and give hearty cheers for Grover Cleveland.

During an interval between two parades there was a glare of torchlights down Twenty-fourth street, and a colored Blaine and Logan regiment marched proudly by and disappeared with rapidity as howls of derision and shouts of "Shoot the coons!" arose. While the gunners of the M. C. Murphy battalion were firing the salute previous to the arrival of the procession, a charge exploded before Gunner Frederick Powers had withdrawn the rammer. The gun was fortunately pointed at an elevation above the heads of the crowd, and the ramrod passed off into space without doing any injury except to Powers, whose hands and arms were badly lacerated by it, and whose face was slightly burned by the flash. An ambulance was summoned, but he declined medical assistance, and was removed to his home, No. 52 Varick street. As the ambulances moved off, tolling its bell, the crowd shouted, "There goes Blaine's funeral."

I have eight years' experience in the machinery trade and can offer you inducements both in quality, price and terms. Call on me or write for any information as to prices, terms, &c.

For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

Around the Governor were his staff and members of the national and State committee and a large number of the distinguished visitors of the day. During the delay Mr. Cleveland passed the time in conversing with those about him, and many ladies—guests at the hotel—passed upon the balcony, and were presented to him. The crowd meanwhile stayed patiently and awaited the coming of the procession, the torches of which were seen up the avenue.

Salute after salute from the battery thundered out as the purple flags of Tammany Hall went by the hotel, headed by a platoon of tall grenadiers in bearskin caps, and followed by the 1,000 gaily embroidered jackets of the J. C. Charlton regiment, a squad of shining heavy, and the baggy crimson trousers and tasseled skull caps of 800 Riley Zouaves Behind the Nicholas Muller Battery of 1,000 strong came another platoon of grenadiers in pure white, marching at the head of 2,000 Red shirts, braided with blue, and the Jefferson Battery of the Ninth District.

The crowd shouted with delight, and as the glaring advertisement machine fung out pictures of Blaine and Cleveland with the word "Which?" between them, there was a howl of derision that such a question should be asked. Then "Honesty is the first virtue" and "Remember 1876" danced in the light of rooster torches which shone and crowded above the 500 blue and white Norfolk jackets of the Tenth District, to which Mitchell's Battery added 200. Led by a rattling drum corps of boys, the crimson-rimmed helmets of the Thirtieth District shared applause with a squad of white oil-skin capes, and the dark sailor suits of the Beattie. Lines of gold-braided regimentals, crowned with 600 shining roosters, and white base ball suits, announced that the Fourteenth District voted as a whole for Cleveland, and besides them were the Fred Helbig Association of the Fifteenth, with breast-plate medallions of Cleveland and Hendrix, and a strong array from the sixteenth, with several lines of solid looking citizens beneath high silk hats.

Among the illuminated comments on Mr. Blaine were: "Cast an anchor windward," "Isce various channels in which I can be useful," "Send me a letter such as the enclosed draft," "Workmen, remember Hocking Valley." These floated above the Cleveland Clubs Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Sixteenth District. The Eighteenth District made its appearance with a hearty song of "Hurrah for Cleveland the men from Buffalo." In it were the Raymond Zouaves and the Robert Hall Battery. The McDonald Regiment and Dooley's Battery constituted the Nineteenth, and it was after midnight when the twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts filed by and were the last to salute and give hearty cheers for Grover Cleveland.

During an interval between two parades there was a glare of torchlights down Twenty-fourth street, and a colored Blaine and Logan regiment marched proudly by and disappeared with rapidity as howls of derision and shouts of "Shoot the coons!" arose. While the gunners of the M. C. Murphy battalion were firing the salute previous to the arrival of the procession, a charge exploded before Gunner Frederick Powers had withdrawn the rammer. The gun was fortunately pointed at an elevation above the heads of the crowd, and the ramrod passed off into space without doing any injury except to Powers, whose hands and arms were badly lacerated by it, and whose face was slightly burned by the flash. An ambulance was summoned, but he declined medical assistance, and was removed to his home, No. 52 Varick street. As the ambulances moved off, tolling its bell, the crowd shouted, "There goes Blaine's funeral."

I have eight years' experience in the machinery trade and can offer you inducements both in quality, price and terms. Call on me or write for any information as to prices, terms, &c.

For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

Around the Governor were his staff and members of the national and State committee and a large number of the distinguished visitors of the day. During the delay Mr. Cleveland passed the time in conversing with those about him, and many ladies—guests at the hotel—passed upon the balcony, and were presented to him. The crowd meanwhile stayed patiently and awaited the coming of the procession, the torches of which were seen up the avenue.

Salute after salute from the battery thundered out as the purple flags of Tammany Hall went by the hotel, headed by a platoon of tall grenadiers in bearskin caps, and followed by the 1,000 gaily embroidered jackets of the J. C. Charlton regiment, a squad of shining heavy, and the baggy crimson trousers and tasseled skull caps of 800 Riley Zouaves Behind the Nicholas Muller Battery of 1,000 strong came another platoon of grenadiers in pure white, marching at the head of 2,000 Red shirts, braided with blue, and the Jefferson Battery of the Ninth District.

The crowd shouted with delight, and as the glaring advertisement machine fung out pictures of Blaine and Cleveland with the word "Which?" between them, there was a howl of derision that such a question should be asked. Then "Honesty is the first virtue" and "Remember 1876" danced in the light of rooster torches which shone and crowded above the 500 blue and white Norfolk jackets of the Tenth District, to which Mitchell's Battery added 200. Led by a rattling drum corps of boys, the crimson-rimmed helmets of the Thirtieth District shared applause with a squad of white oil-skin capes, and the dark sailor suits of the Beattie. Lines of gold-braided regimentals, crowned with 600 shining roosters, and white base ball suits, announced that the Fourteenth District voted as a whole for Cleveland, and besides them were the Fred Helbig Association of the Fifteenth, with breast-plate medallions of Cleveland and Hendrix, and a strong array from the sixteenth, with several lines of solid looking citizens beneath high silk hats.

Among the illuminated comments on Mr. Blaine were: "Cast an anchor windward," "Isce various channels in which I can be useful," "Send me a letter such as the enclosed draft," "Workmen, remember Hocking Valley." These floated above the Cleveland Clubs Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Sixteenth District. The Eighteenth District made its appearance with a hearty song of "Hurrah for Cleveland the men from Buffalo." In it were the Raymond Zouaves and the Robert Hall Battery. The McDonald Regiment and Dooley's Battery constituted the Nineteenth, and it was after midnight when the twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts filed by and were the last to salute and give hearty cheers for Grover Cleveland.

During an interval between two parades there was a glare of torchlights down Twenty-fourth street, and a colored Blaine and Logan regiment marched proudly by and disappeared with rapidity as howls of derision and shouts of "Shoot the coons!" arose. While the gunners of the M. C. Murphy battalion were firing the salute previous to the arrival of the procession, a charge exploded before Gunner Frederick Powers had withdrawn the rammer. The gun was fortunately pointed at an elevation above the heads of the crowd, and the ramrod passed off into space without doing any injury except to Powers, whose hands and arms were badly lacerated by it, and whose face was slightly burned by the flash. An ambulance was summoned, but he declined medical assistance, and was removed to his home, No. 52 Varick street. As the ambulances moved off, tolling its bell, the crowd shouted, "There goes Blaine's funeral."

I have eight years' experience in the machinery trade and can offer you inducements both in quality, price and terms. Call on me or write for any information as to prices, terms, &c.

For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

Around the Governor were his staff and members of the national and State committee and a large number of the distinguished visitors of the day. During the delay Mr. Cleveland passed the time in conversing with those about him, and many ladies—guests at the hotel—passed upon the balcony, and were presented to him. The crowd meanwhile stayed patiently and awaited the coming of the procession, the torches of which were seen up the avenue.

Salute after salute from the battery thundered out as the purple flags of Tammany Hall went by the hotel, headed by a platoon of tall grenadiers in bearskin caps, and followed by the 1,000 gaily embroidered jackets of the J. C. Charlton regiment, a squad of shining heavy, and the baggy crimson trousers and tasseled skull caps of 800 Riley Zouaves Behind the Nicholas Muller Battery of 1,000 strong came another platoon of grenadiers in pure white, marching at the head of 2,000 Red shirts, braided with blue, and the Jefferson Battery of the Ninth District.

The crowd shouted with delight, and as the glaring advertisement machine fung out pictures of Blaine and Cleveland with the word "Which?" between them, there was a howl of derision that such a question should be asked. Then "Honesty is the first virtue" and "Remember 1876" danced in the light of rooster torches which shone and crowded above the 500 blue and white Norfolk jackets of the Tenth District, to which Mitchell's Battery added 200. Led by a rattling drum corps of boys, the crimson-rimmed helmets of the Thirtieth District shared applause with a squad of white oil-skin capes, and the dark sailor suits of the Beattie. Lines of gold-braided regimentals, crowned with 600 shining roosters, and white base ball suits, announced that the Fourteenth District voted as a whole for Cleveland, and besides them were the Fred Helbig Association of the Fifteenth, with breast-plate medallions of Cleveland and Hendrix, and a strong array from the sixteenth, with several lines of solid looking citizens beneath high silk hats.

Among the illuminated comments on Mr. Blaine were: "Cast an anchor windward," "Isce various channels in which I can be useful," "Send me a letter such as the enclosed draft," "Workmen, remember Hocking Valley." These floated above the Cleveland Clubs Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Sixteenth District. The Eighteenth District made its appearance with a hearty song of "Hurrah for Cleveland the men from Buffalo." In it were the Raymond Zouaves and the Robert Hall Battery. The McDonald Regiment and Dooley's Battery constituted the Nineteenth, and it was after midnight when the twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts filed by and were the last to salute and give hearty cheers for Grover Cleveland.

During an interval between two parades there was a glare of torchlights down Twenty-fourth street, and a colored Blaine and Logan regiment marched proudly by and disappeared with rapidity as howls of derision and shouts of "Shoot the coons!" arose. While the gunners of the M. C. Murphy battalion were firing the salute previous to the arrival of the procession, a charge exploded before Gunner Frederick Powers had withdrawn the rammer. The gun was fortunately pointed at an elevation above the heads of the crowd, and the ramrod passed off into space without doing any injury except to Powers, whose hands and arms were badly lacerated by it, and whose face was slightly burned by the flash. An ambulance was summoned, but he declined medical assistance, and was removed to his home, No. 52 Varick street. As the ambulances moved off, tolling its bell, the crowd shouted, "There goes Blaine's funeral."

I have eight years' experience in the machinery trade and can offer you inducements both in quality, price and terms. Call on me or write for any information as to prices, terms, &c.

For fully half an hour before the line of the procession reached the hotel, the crowd continued its cheers. Whenever one group raised a cheer, the rest all joined in, and this continued without cessation.

DRY GOODS,

SILKS, Satins, Velvets, Trimmings, Russian Circulars, New Markets, Jersey, &c., &c.

R. M. HADDON & CO. A. M. AIKEN,

Cokesbury P. O., S. C., is duly authorized and licensed for Abbeville county to write risks on Dwellings and Furniture, Barns, Stables and Contents, (including live stock) Stores, Warehouses and Sheds, Theaters, Churches, Mills and Cotton (baled), in the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. against loss or damage by FIRE; in the Rochester German Insurance Co. against loss or damage by FIRE and LIGHTNING.

Rates low; companies solvent; no litigation. For particulars, address as above. ap31

The Place to get What You Want

THOS. M. CHRISTIAN,

HAVING bought the interest of Mr. JOHN WILSON in the business formerly conducted by them jointly, will keep always in store a complete stock of

Fancy Groceries, CANNED GOODS

CONFECTIONERIES!

of all kinds. The Best and Cheapest Cigars and Tobacco,

THE FINEST WINES and LIQUORS.

SWEET MASH CORN WHISKEY for medicinal purposes. Also choice LIQUORS of any kind for medicinal purposes. Give him a call. Satisfaction guaranteed.

All persons indebted to the firm of Christian & Wilson must make immediate payment.

THOS. M. CHRISTIAN, 1-3m Abbeville, S. C.

Out of the Jaws of Death

The gentleman who outlines his case below is a man considerably advanced in life, and is noted for his sterling integrity. His post office is Yatesville, Upson County, Georgia. The following is

Mr. John Pearson's Statement.

In the Spring of 1882 I was attacked with a very bad cough, which continued to grow worse until I felt when I got so weak that I could not get about. I tried a great many kinds of medicine, but nothing grew worse. I was notified that I had consumption, and would probably die. Dr. Holloway finally told me to try Brover's Lung Restorer. They sent to Ward's Store and got a bottle, and I commenced taking it right away. After taking two or three doses, I began to improve, and by the time I had used up one bottle I was able to get on my feet again. I am now in excellent health. I am confident that the Lung Restorer saved my life, and my neighbors are of the same opinion. It is the best Lung Remedy ever made. In my opinion, Dr. H. promised me that he would write to the manufacturers and tell them of the wonderful cure it made in my case.

Statement of Mr. Benj. F. Hearndon:

Early in November, 1881, while sewing on the machine, my wife was taken with a severe pain in her side, which was soon followed by hemorrhages from her lungs and a severe cough. Fever commenced, she could neither eat nor sleep, and in a few weeks she was reduced to a living skeleton. The attending physician told me that he thought one of her lungs was entirely gone. She could not retain the most delicate nutriment on her stomach. I then agreed with Dr. Sullivan, my family physician, to call Dr. Holloway in consultation. They made a final examination of the patient, and pronounced the case hopeless. Dr. Holloway then suggested the Brover's Lung Restorer as a last resort. I sent for a bottle, and gave her a dose. I found that she could retain it on her stomach, and after about the third dose I began to notice some improvement in her condition. I continued the medicine regularly, and by the time she had taken two bottles she was able to walk about the house. She is now in better health than she has enjoyed for several years. I believe the Lung Restorer saved her life.

Mr. Hearndon's post office is Yatesville, Upson County, Ga. He is a thoroughly reliable man in every particular.

LAMAR, RANKIN, & LAMAR, MACON, GA.

For sale by Calhoun, Hugley & Holloway, Greenwood, S. C.

G. H. U. Pianos & Organs

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

The great Artists of the world acknowledge the Superiority of the Pianos and Organs sold by

C. O. ROBINSON & CO.

They are selected from Ten of the best makers, and are so much superior to others at prices so much less that purchasers save from

$10 TO $100

By visiting or writing to C. O. ROBINSON & CO. E. I. O. M.—L. P. Q. S

G. O. ROBINSON & CO. pay all freight and save money to every purchaser.

SHEET MUSIC, the latest publications, music books of every description the best Italian songs.

The latest and most popular Sunday school book,

"Love and Praise."

Lowest prices at GEO. O. ROBINSON & CO'S, 831 Broad St., Augusta, Ga.

PAVILION HOTEL,

CHARLESTON, S. C.

First Class in all its appointments.

RATES, $2.00, $2.50.

Excellent Cuisine, large airy rooms. Dis Passenger Elevator. Electric Bells and Lights. Heated Rotunda. Hotel Centrally Located.

FOUZZ'S HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS

No horse will die of Colic, Bore or Liver Pain. FOUZZ'S POWDERS will cure and prevent Colic, Bore and Liver Pain. FOUZZ'S POWDERS will increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet.

FOUZZ'S POWDERS will cure or prevent almost every disease to which Horses and Cattle are subject. FOUZZ'S POWDERS WILL GIVE SATISFACTION. Sold everywhere.

DAVID E. FOUZZ, Proprietor, BALTIMORE, MD.

SPEED & LOWRY

DON'T forget to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. We keep always on hand well selected stock of

Drugs, Chemicals, Paints, Oils,

PATENT MEDICINES,

A large stock of the best selection

Fancy and Toilet Articles, Tooth Brushes,

Stationery, Pens, Ink, and various other articles too numerous to mention, which we will take great pleasure in showing our customers if they will but give us a call. Don't forget, when you come to town, to try just one

Plug of Our Log Cabin or Natural Leaf Chewing Tobacco, best in town, and you will be convinced upon trying it. We also keep

A GOOD LINE OF CIGARS.

"Our Team," "Gullier's Favorite" and "Red Lion" are all very fragrant.

All orders by hand or mail promptly and carefully attended to.

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED at all Hours.

Give us a call—first door above Central Hotel. Most Respectfully,

SPEED & LOWRY. STOVES

—ARE—

Cheaper Than Ever.

WE ARE now selling a first rate NO. 7 STOVE, Fixtures and Pipe Complete for $13.00.

A BETTER GRADE NO. 7, COMPLETE for $15.50, and a still better NO. 7, COMPLETE, for $16.50.

No. 8s at $17, $18.50 and $20, complete.

These are all good stoves and warranted to give satisfaction. Give us a call.

H. W. LAWSON & CO.

PROPRIETOR of the largest SALOON in the up-country, don't intend to dispense customers by false advertisements. The half is not mentioned in the three Abbeville papers. He is well prepared for fall trade. The Palmetto House is well stocked with everything in the line of Foreign and Domestic Wines and Liquors.

the best the market affords. He has got Liquors nine years old, from the

Rye and Corn, Irish and Scotch Whiskies,

Apple, Peach, California and French Brandy.

Porter, Ale and Fresh Lager Beer

He can cheerfully recommend his goods to the public for MEDICINAL USE, and medicinal drinks with all the DELICIOUS BEVERAGES of the season. Also COOL, TEMPERATE DRINKS. His specialty is a large stock of PURE GOODS. Call at the

Gentlemen's Resort, No. 4 Washington Street, and you will not forget again THOMAS McGETTIGAN.

A Good Line of Tobacco and Cigars.

Facts, Facts, Facts!

The Centennial Saloon,

One of the best arranged houses in the up-country, proposes to keep in stock for fall trade the choicest and most popular grades of

FAMILY WINES AND LIQUORS,

Domestic and Imported Brandy,

Ales and Porter, Champagne, etc., together with a fine stock of CIGARS and TOBACCOS, that cannot be excelled in quality. We cordially invite people who appreciate good goods to give us a trial, hoping to guarantee satisfaction in any goods we sell.

O'Donnell & Cunningham, Propr's,

Between Russell's and Douglas'

Good Billiard and Pool Room

A CYCLOPEDIA Has Struck

The Furniture Business

AND WE

FOR LOW PRICES

Business in the South is everything in our line. We have a Book Cases, Bedsteads, Baby Crib, and other goods. Adjustable Bedstead, &c. Give us a call.

J. L. McNEELY & CO., 81 Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GA.

AT GOODYEAR'S

Carriage Repository.

Can be found the LARGEST STOCK OF CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, PILETONS, Road Carts, Plantation Wagons, all sizes, 1 to 6 horse, Single and Double Harness, Saddles, Belting, Leather of all kinds, Wagon Material, &c., &c. For the next thirty days I will OFFER SPECIAL BARGAINS IN A LOT OF OPEN and TOP BUGGIES, as well as other Superior Buggies. These Buggies are all Fine Northern and Eastern makes, which I will guarantee equal to the best. Call and examine them and convince yourselves that they are absolute bargains.