

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Under the heading of "The Cry of Wolf" the Press and Banner in its last issue makes the point that our public speakers in the last campaign created the impression that we were menaced by danger when really there was no danger, and adds "We see no use of deceiving the people."

Many of our people had lost their certificates of registration, and it required hard work to induce them to procure new ones. Indeed on all hands there was a total lack of interest in the campaign which almost invited opposition—and did bestir hopes of success in some hearts.

AT LAST.

At last, after many days of anxiety and unrest, the result of the election is conceded by the Republicans, and there is no longer any doubt that Cleveland has a plurality in New York of about 1,250.

The annual appropriation to the University Citadel, and Columbia Canal, &c., and the perennial fight against the Railroad Company, Commission Act and many new questions, will of course arise. And as we must discuss them then we refrain from doing so now.

We will watch the proceedings and keep our readers informed of the action of the General Assembly.

STEVE ELKINS, Chairman Jones, and the various political backers of the fallen knave have thrown up the sponge and quit the ring. They have all left New York and the country has settled down to the firm conviction that our next President will be Cleveland—a conviction that only a revolution will shake.

THERE'S A GOOD TIME COMING.

What the Election of Cleveland Means for South Carolina. [Notes and Courier.] A circular letter was sent by the News and Courier some days ago to each of the Democratic county chairmen in the State who are within reach of the telegraph, asking for a brief expression of their views upon the following question: "What in your opinion will be the effect of the election of Cleveland upon the industrial life and political condition of this State in the present and the near future?"

The answers of the Democratic county chairmen, who express the sentiments of the great mass of the people of the State, breathe without exception a spirit of the greatest hopefulness and are filled with the most cheerful prophecies of growth and prosperity in the future of the State.

"There's a good time coming, boys, just wait a little longer." Below we give our readers the views of Abbeville's county chairman, Hon. W. C. Benet.

THOUGHTS ON DRESS PARADE.

The News and Courier of Monday contained expressions of opinion from all of the Democratic county chairmen of the State upon the effect of Cleveland's election with regard to the industrial improvement and political progress of the South. The words and phrases are different but the main sentiment in all is the same, that an era of reconciliation and peace and prosperity has gloriously dawned upon the South.

Under the heading of "The Cry of Wolf" the Press and Banner in its last issue makes the point that our public speakers in the last campaign created the impression that we were menaced by danger when really there was no danger, and adds "We see no use of deceiving the people."

"Your little hands were never made to tear each others eyes." "The woods are full of 'em"—that is candidates for Federal office when Cleveland is installed. For United States District Attorney, we hear mentioned, Col. J. L. Orr, Hon. W. C. Benet, Hon. L. F. Youmans, Col. J. C. Haskell, Col. Robert Aldrich, Maj. T. G. Barker, St. J. W. Jervey Esq. and Major Hart; and for Asst. U. S. District Attorney, J. P. K. Bryan, all good and talented men. For Collector of the Port, Gen. J. D. Kennedy and Capt. Legare J. Walker, are being spoken of.

The General Assembly meets on Tuesday next—and the session will not be without special interest. We presume there are members from other counties who made promises and assumed obligations in the canvass that they may find it hard to carry out. We shall be very glad to be able to endorse all the acts of our strong Representatives in both branches. But if we cannot we shall discuss their actions impartially, fearlessly and fairly.

The annual appropriation to the University Citadel, and Columbia Canal, &c., and the perennial fight against the Railroad Company, Commission Act and many new questions, will of course arise. And as we must discuss them then we refrain from doing so now.

We will watch the proceedings and keep our readers informed of the action of the General Assembly.

STEVE ELKINS, Chairman Jones, and the various political backers of the fallen knave have thrown up the sponge and quit the ring. They have all left New York and the country has settled down to the firm conviction that our next President will be Cleveland—a conviction that only a revolution will shake.

The Supreme Court met in extra session on the 11th inst. The regular session begins next Tuesday 25th. The Eighth (our) Circuit, will be first called and many of our lawyers will be there.

ABBEVILLE, November 15.—The election of Cleveland cannot fail to have a most beneficial effect upon the industrial life and political condition of this State and all the Southern States. His administration will ensure political peace, and that peace is a sure moment the political adventurer and carpet-bagger is banished from the Southern States, the colored people will work with the white man in the political field just as he has always toiled with him in the field of cotton or rice.

Cleveland's whole life and character are such as to beget in the minds of all men perfect confidence in the honesty of his purposes. His ruling idea of administering public affairs on business principles may not be the most statesman like, but when carried into practice it will be the death blow of partisan office seekers, and will do more real good than any loftier theory of civil service reform it will teach white and black alike that the responsibilities of a political party are greater than its perquisites and the spoils of office. In short it will restore the true Democratic doctrine and practice of a government of the people, for the people and by the people.

Under the heading of "The Cry of Wolf" the Press and Banner in its last issue makes the point that our public speakers in the last campaign created the impression that we were menaced by danger when really there was no danger, and adds "We see no use of deceiving the people."

The annual State Fair is over, and many of us have enjoyed the pleasures incident to the occasion. In all respects, perhaps, the Fair was not as large as last year—but it was in others a greater success. In the exhibit of horses we don't think there has been anything to excel the ring of two year olds exhibited on Wednesday. The show of cattle, sheep and goats was unmistakably fine. The Jerseys were perhaps the handsomest display; but there were some fine herds of Guernseys and Ayrshires. In field crops, we thought the display not very good. In machinery, household departments &c., there was great variety.

Notwithstanding the hard times we have spared neither pains nor expense in the selection of our stock for this spring. The ladies can rely upon getting the latest fashions and lowest prices at R. M. HADDON & CO.

On Friday night the grandest torch-light procession was ever seen took place. There were the students, the military companies, the drummers in Mother Hubbard dresses, mounted red shirts and all the bands in the city. And there were fire works of all sorts and descriptions. The procession marched from the post office to the State House grounds, where Governor Thompson, Senators Butler and Hampton and other distinguished gentlemen addressed the crowd, which was simply wild with enthusiasm.

After the parade came the ball given by the Columbia Social Club. The races every day of the Fair were under the charge of that most courteous gentleman, Mr. J. M. Nelson, and were very attractive to large crowds. The managers of the Fair have cause to be proud of their very handsome new building and the State owes them thanks for giving to its citizens the benefit of this annual reunion.

AYER'S Hair Vigor restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, and keeps it so, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured. It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. BROWN writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

Mr. ANGELO FAIRBANKS, leader of the celebrated "Fairbank Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1883: "Ever since my hair began to fall, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mr. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charleston, S. C., April 18, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before. I regularly use it, but only on the top of the crown, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."
