The tax levy for this County next year will be 12 mills.

Capt. M. C. Fishback of Ninety-Six, has moved to Newberry.

The tax levied for this County next year will be 12 mills.

The melancholy days have come—all bills have to be settled.

Mr. R. C. Wilson and Miss Lily Brooks are to be married this evening.

The School Commissioners Report takes up a great deal of our space this week.

No services in any of the churches last Sunday.

The Literary Club will meet Friday night at Capt. L. W. Waites. Mr. W. C. McGowan will read the essay.

Mr. Alice Cason, wife of the late J. Frank Cason, has sold her place at Ninety-Six, and will make her home with her brother J. R. Bullock, Esq.

Some of the pupils of the Dix West Female College, will home Saturday to spend Xmas. The holiday extends to Saturday, January 3rd.

Dr. S. M. Orr came over on Monday, in consultation with Dr. Hill on the case of Wabbe Marshall, who we are sorry to say has been quite sick.

The Legislature adjourns to-day, and is entitled to the thanks of the State for the prompt, conservative, and generally safe legislation of the session.

The Legislature for want of time failed to pass the bill Charting the Abbeville and Verdery, and the Abbeville and Greenwood Railroads.

Some valuable land is advertised for sale on next Saturday. Read the advertisements and know where to invest your surplus money.

W. O. Bradley, Esq., was before Judge Tarrant at Greenwood, on Monday, in a case involving some nice points of law.

We regret that the communication of "W. G. R." of Cornudas, was received too late for publication last week. It was not received until the evening after publication.

The health and beauty of children can be restored by giving them Shimer's Indian Vermifuge to kill the worms that darken their complexions.

On Sunday, though the face of the earth was covered with ice, there came a vivid flash of lightning, followed by an ominous and deep roar of thunder. Since then there have been several rolls of thunder.

In consequence of the space given to the School Commissioners Report, and to the demoralization incident to Xmas, our local columns are not filled with their usual variety of matter.

Capt P. W. R. Nance, who arrived a few days ago with a second large lot of fine goods, left yesterday for Peak's Station, having sold the remaining 50, for 6 cents per pound, 25 cheaper than last season.

Last Thursday it turned suddenly very cold, and continued so till Saturday night and Sunday when there was a freeze, and ice and sleet covered everything. Sunday night it moderated, and since then much rain has fallen.

A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits. When the head feels heavy and languid, and the mind works sluggishly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills will wonderfully relieve.

On Saturday, in the Legislature, Judge Kershaw was re-elected Judge of the 5th Circuit, and Col. T. J. Lipscomb re-elected Superintendent of the Penitentiary. Judge Kershaw had no opposition. Col. Lipscomb was opposed by B. H. Massey, of York.

In the law class recently admitted to the Bar, there were twenty-one members, all young men, and all seemingly well prepared. There is no danger of the legal profession collapsing for want of members. We wish them all the success they deserve.

The Railroad powers have met with poor success in their efforts in the Legislature to cripple and eventually destroy the Railroad Commission; assisted though they have been by newspaper influence and the latent strength of a few of the Legislature's position-pooled-all Railroad legislators.

Geo. Andrews, overseer of the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years, before his removal to Lowell, afflicted with salt rheum in its worst form. His operations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

The Rowland House, at Laurens, S. C., will be opened by Messrs M. and L. McCann on January 1st. These ladies have established a reputation for their House at Ninety-Six equal to that of any hostelry in the land. The Rowland is a new house with thirty nice rooms, and we risk nothing in predicting how well it will be kept.

The wholesale house of A. E. Rogers has just closed a contract for 20 years of corn and 2 years of meat. They are prepared now to make contracts for first of January delivery. Farmers see Mr. Rogers at once and make arrangements about corn and meat, while they are below cost of production. They will go higher after first of January.

The Columbia Board of Trade gave a supper on its anniversary, last Wednesday night, at which the Legislature and others were present. We had the pleasure of attending. Speeches were made in response to the various toasts, and all was joy and festivity. The Board of Trade has done much to bring about the enterprise and thrift now so apparent in Columbia. The energetic President of the Board, Col. S. A. Pearce, is himself a host of energy and vigor and strong sense.

Marriages. Mr. Charles C. Woodlaw was married yesterday, in New Orleans, to Miss Woodruff. The happy young couple will arrive home on Xmas day, and will lead a host of friends to bid them welcome.

Mr. Frank Green, the efficient and accomplished telegraph operator at Greenwood, was married on the 16th inst. to Miss Helen Clark, of Filer.

We had the pleasure of meeting the young couple on their return to Greenwood. They are both of a cheerful and contented countenance, and their mutual good fortune and happiness.

Mr. E. W. Nance and Miss M. H. Young were married by Rev. W. L. Jones, at Woodruff, on the 16th inst.

On Thursday, Dr. Wm. Hill and Miss M. A. Young were married by Rev. N. S. Ashley, at Dix West.

Mr. Wm. McNeill and Miss F. A. Hill were married by Rev. W. L. Jones, at Dix West, on the 16th inst.

Mr. J. O. Hindsley, of Dix West, was married by Rev. J. O. Hindsley.
