EXCHANGE YOUR TIME FOR AN AUTOMOBILE, A PIANO OR A RUBBER TIRED CARRIAGE

If You Are Interested Call at The Intelligencer Office--- We Will Exlain How You May Be an Owner of One of the Prizes.

GET STARTED NOW—IT'S THE EARLY BIRD, YOU KNOW

Tuesday, January 13 1914—The Anderson Itelligencer was brought out as a daily paper. In the same issue we announced that we would conduct a young ladies' contest and would give the ladies of this state a chance to help our paper and also win some valuable prizes for themselves.

The news of the liberal offer has spread in a very few days to the very borders of the State, it has attracted the attention of thousands of the states best people, and many of whom have nominated themselves or their friends. The Daily Intelligencer expects to be talked about a great deal between now and the close of the contest, and after that time to be known as one of the leading Dailies of the south.

This contest has been launched by The Intelligencer as a combined circulation and advertising campaign. We want to have the people of all sections of the State our friends, and we know this could be most effectively done by the energetic efforts of the A ford automobile maybe justly considered a most liberal prize—such a prize is in keeping with the policy of The Daily Intelligencer not to do things by half. It was this same policy that caused us to add two beautiful pianos and the two rubber tired buggies to the lists of prizes, besides several special prizes to be announced later. These prizes have been purchased from some of the most reliable business houses of the city of Anderson.

If you are interested in the prizes call at The Intelligencer office and we will direct you to the business houses where they are on display.

Votes are obtained easily after a day or two of experience. They are obtained in two ways: by first clipping and sending to this office the ballots printed in The Daily Intelligencer every day and secondly by subscription.

If you are interested and would like to own one of the prizes that we are giving, come to the contest office and see the manager. He is in the office all day and will be pleased to meet the ladies and give them any information in his power in how to go to work to make one of the prizes their own. If you contemplate going for business if you will call at the office call day and night be pleased to meet the ladies and give them any information in his power in how to go to work to make one of the prizes their own. If you contemplate going for business if you will call at The Intelligencer office and get the necessary instructions on just what to do. The work is pleasant and agreeable and will be a real pleasure when once you are started. Do not delay about it. The sooner you get started the better your chances will be.

APPEAL FROM DR. DERIEUX.

Wishes The Baptist to Raise the Debt.

To the Baptists of Anderson and vicinity:

I am addressing you through your community paper, as well as through the Baptist Courier, appealing to you to enable me—by personal gift from each of you—to pay an embarrassing debt now resting on your State Mission Board.

Quite a number of people have sent contributions, varying from twenty-five cents to ten dolars, but the amount does not near pay the debt. By just a small sacrifice and some self-denial, hundreds of your people could send at least one dollar on this debt. This, I beg you to do. Please do not imagine that your neighbors will send theirs and therefore you need not bother to send yours. This is probably just what your neighbor is thinking about you.

If you send cash, you will receive a receipt at once, but if you send a check or post office order, you will need no receipt. The name of each giver, and amount given, is put on my book of remembrance. Act at once, so we can settle this early in February.

Fraternally,
W. T. DERIEUX,
Corresponding Secretary.

AT THE CHURCHES

NEW HOME LIKE CHURCH.

Large Gathering at Bethel to Cover the Church

Mr. F. S. McCarnell, superintendent of the Bethel Sunday school, writes to The Intelligencer in regard to covering Bethel church, "the home-like church." Mr. McCarnell states that the Saturday afternoon working was a great success. It was on the old time fashion of the country and all seemed to enjoy it very much. The carpenters came in promptly and mounted the building just as if they had not worked any through the week. Boards went on in a jiffy, while the men laughed and talked and everything seemed to be in splendid humor.

They left the roof on shelters fell and came in and refreshed themselves and then were invited into the dining room where there was an old fashion log rolling supper awaiting them which had been prepared by the good ladies of the community. Forty-eight partook of the supper and there was almost enough for 48 more.

We wish to express our thanks to the carpenters and friends who came to our assistance and say that if they are not members of our Sunday school we stand with open arms to receive them with us.

BAPTIST RECEPTION.

All the ladies of the First Baptist church are invited to attend an "at home" given by the Ladies Aid Society on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the church auditorium.

A unique program will be given and will be followed by a social hour.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Interdenominational Conference Here on January 27 and 28.

There will be held at St. John's Methodist church in Anderson, Jan. 27 and 28, a conference in the interest of home and foreign missions. Prof. Gaines of Richmond college will have charge of the service.

At night such speakers as Dr. H. M. Poteat and Prof. John G. Clinkscales will address the meeting. The conference is interdenominational, so every church in Anderson county is earnestly requested to have a good, live, delegation present, and in addition as many other members as will come. Homes will be assigned to all delegates who send in their names to Dr. J. E. Young on or before Jan. 20th.

Efficiency is the result of knowing how, and of doing the best you know how. We could do our work cheaper, but we won't. We would do our work better, but we can't.

Player Pianos

You people that have had idle pianos in your homes, think of the possibilities that a PLAYER PIANO opens to you.

You can have the music that you like, play it when you want it, and play it like you want it. You can play anything from the simplest popular air, to the most difficult passage from Chopin, without knowing a note of music.

We will take your old Piano in exchange on a PLAYER PIANO, and you can pay the balance on easy terms.
