MR. MERCHANT

Did you ever notice our Electric Sign? No doubt you have. Most everybody has noticed it. Hasn't everybody noticed your sign? And are there a great many people who can positively remember to have seen your sign at all? Why not make it attractive enough to be remembered—attractive enough to draw trade—attractive enough to indicate your desire to be progressive—attractive enough to show people that you want to attract them—that you want their attention and trade.

We would like to talk Electric Signs with you.

SOUTHERN PUBLIC UTILITIES CO.

ing of stocks and bonds continued today. Prices rose in all directions. It was more like a genuine bull market than any which the street had seen in many months. Sentiment was decidedly optimistic, for there appeared to be a definite improvement in fundamental conditions.

The high-grade investment stocks led the advance. Among the speculative favorites there were signs of profit taking at times and their rise was less rapid than yesterday. In the bond market transactions were the largest of any day in almost two years. In some cases the advance in bonds amounted to 1 to 2 points.

The syndicate which yesterday purchased New York State's $51,000,000 issue of 4-1/2 per cent. bonds, announced that they had all been sold within less than two hours. It was understood that the price was 107 1/4. During the day the bonds were quoted in the open market as high as 107 1/2. This indicated improvement in the investment market.

Reduction of the English and German bank rates gave evidence that the change for the better in monetary conditions was world-wide. London bought Steel, Amalgamated and Southern Pacific here, while selling some Reading and Union Pacific.

Better reports came from the copper trade and it was said some business was being done at 14 5/8c. Boston was a buyer of coppers here.

Total sales, par value, $7,300,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total stock sales, 771,000.

New York Cotton

New York, Jan. 22.—Cotton was comparatively quiet today with prices showing an upward tendency. Realizing on liquidation was taken as a favorable indication to even up the accounts in preparation for the spinning report tomorrow. The close was very steady at a net advance of 1 to 7 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points. Increased Liverpool spot sales were reported, but showed an unusually large proportion of other than American growths, while lower futures than expected may have inspired some local selling for a turn, as well as scattering liquidation. Prices gradually eased off, with active months selling about 8 to 9 points net lower during the middle of the day. There was no aggressive support, but offerings were pretty well absorbed on a scale down and the market steadied later on, closing with the close showing rallies of 3 or 4 points from the lowest.

Some attention was attracted by reports from the southwest that good seed for planting was very scarce owing to bad weather during the autumn and winter and it was claimed that oil mills which usually select good seed for planters, felt that they had no seed which they could recommend for that purpose this season.

On the other hand, a message was received from Montgomery, Ala., stating that this season for fertilizer bags had opened with a rush of orders which had led to predictions that the use of fertilizer would break a year's record. Southern advisers were urged to report a good spot demand.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, Jan. 22.—While cotton was sold at a small net decline all day, the tone was lively and assistance to bear pressure was shown more than once. Buying was not arge at any time. Moderate buying led in the session, after the announcement of an advance of 1 1/2 to 2 points in local spot quotations, but the contract market to the highest level of the day and caused a very steady tone on the close.

Favorable spot reports were the chief support of the future market throughout the session. Bulls made no effort to follow up their advantage, which attitude appeared to be due to the fear that tomorrow's census bureau report on spinning would be rather full.

The opening was steady at a loss of 4 to 6 points on poor cables, so far as Liverpool contracts were concerned. The large spot sales in the Liverpool market offset to some extent the decline in futures. The lowering of the Bank of England rate to 4 per cent was considered a bullion, following the posting of spot quotations, they were 2 to 5 down. The close was a net loss of 4 to 6 points.

Spot cotton steady, 3-16c up. Middling, 3-16c. Sales, in spot, 232; to arrive to 1,055.

Cotton futures close January, 12.78c; February, 12.89c; March, 12.88c; May, 12.99c; July, 13.05c; October, 11.84c.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Jan. 22.—Cottonseed oil was higher today on renewed outside buying, induced by the strength in crude, but most of the advance was lost towards the close, due to scattered profit taking. ## A. F. L. DENOUNCED.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Attacks on the American Federation of Labor, cropped out in the convention of the United States workers of America, during the debate on the resolutions committee report late today. The speech in the debate on the resolutions were started by Duncan McDonald, Illinois Labor leader, during the discussion of a resolution regarding industrial unionism.

A number of resolutions dealing with industrial unionism, many of them demanding, a convention for April 1, 1914, to consider the subject were committed to the committee. The committee opposed the calling of the convention and drafted a substitute resolution instructing the delegates to the American Federation of Labor to work for the passage of a resolution providing for industrial unionism other than crafts unionism.

"If any one can get a progressive resolution through the A. F. of L. declared McDonald, 'he will deserve a monument for he will be as great a man as Washington. That body is reactionary, fossilized, worm-eaten and dead.'"

Thomas Kennedy, of Hamilton, Pa., declared that almost every delegate from the miners to the federation in recent years has been insured in the convention.

"That organization is rotten to the core," he concluded.

DEFIED THE LAW.

And Became Quite a Local Celebrity.

Mayville, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Edward Beardsley, who for more than a week has defied the efforts of sheriff Anderson and a posse to arrest him, surrendered to C. D. Backus, a local hotel man, early today and was locked up in the jail. Backus, who was appointed a deputy sheriff, effected the "capture" alone and in keeping with a plan agreed upon by Beardsley yesterday. Beardsley was served with a warrant charging him with assault in the first degree in having shot G. W. Putman, overseer of the poor of Chautauque County, with intent to kill.

Beardsley's capture came after eight days of open fighting of the law from "Fort Beardsley," as his farm house stronghold has come to be known.

A week ago Tuesday Beardsley shot overseer of the Poor Putman as the latter was about to take the outlaw's nine children to a county institution. He barricaded the windows and doors of his farmhouse and kept the sheriff and his posse of twenty-five men at bay by threatening to use the children as a shield against their bullets.

At a certain Scottish mansion, notorious for scanty fare, a gentleman was inquiring of the gardener about a dog which some time before he had given to the laird. The gardener showed him a lank greyhound, upon which the gentleman said:

where the homes are all new, all set back 30 feet, and none of them to cost less than $1,800—for the simple reason that there is no more vacant land inside the city and you don't want to go outside now.

Two weeks ago when lots like these would have cost $1,500 to $2,000, that might have been advisable, but now since we are selling these at $500 to $1,000 on easy terms—'What's the Use?'

Only a few of these lots left. Let us Show You.
