Stocks and Bonds

New York, Jan. 27.—Attempts to carry further the advance in stocks were checked early in today's market, which thereafter followed an uncertain course. Speculation slackened. Investment buying was on a diminishing scale.

Union Pacific's report of a shrinkage in net earnings of $443,000 last month discouraged buying of railroad stocks. General speculation was hampered by uncertainty as to United States Steel's quarterly report, which did not appear until after the close.

The bond market moved uncertainly. Selling of some of the speculative issues offset improving tendencies elsewhere. Total sales, par value $4,080,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total stock sales, $404,900.

New York Cotton

New York, Jan. 27.—Cotton was easier today under scattering liquidation apparently chiefly promoted by predictions of a sharp falling off in spot demand after the first of the month. One or two southern wires reported that demand for spot had already slackened and there was also a little selling here which may have come from southern sources, but generally speaking, private advices reported continued firmness in the interior and the small business noted around the ring appeared to come mostly from local sources.

After showing a net loss of 8 to 10 points prices steadied slightly in covering, but there was no important demand and the lowest level of the day was reached in late trading, when May contracts sold at 12.25, or within 2 points of the lowest price reached after publication of the recent bearish spinning report.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, Jan. 27.—The best kind of spot accounts, higher prices and sales of large sales, constituted one side of the cotton market today and dull and sagging futures formed the other. Trades were puzzled over the situation and there have been few sessions in many years and there were less speculation in evidence.

Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Middling, 13 5-16c. Sales on the spot, 2,163; to arrive, 1,000.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, Jan. 27.—Cotton, spot, good business done, prices unchanged. Sales, 12,000. Receipts, 40,000. Futures closed quiet: January, 67 1/2; Jan-Feb 67 1/2; Feb-March, 67 1/2.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Jan. 27.—Cottonseed oil was lower today under liquidation induced by the weakness in lard and cotton. Nearby deliveries added to the close on covering by refiners, but late months were heavy. Final prices were 4 to 8 points higher. Sales, 8,400 barrels.

Cotton Goods

New York, Jan. 27.—Cotton goods markets were steady today with business of moderate proportions. Yarns were firm. Men's wear lines sold fairly. Retail orders for silks continued to come along steadily.

Chicago Grain and Provisions

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Rallying power showed itself today in wheat when news had been received of a falling off in the world's available supply. The market closed nervous at a shade down to 1-8c up, compared with last night. Corn finished unchanged to 1-8c higher. Oats were not altered, but provisions closed at a net decline of 5 to 10c.
