NEW DANCE COMING TO ANDERSON SOON

Latest Importation Is Direct From Mexico and Is Being Eagerly Awaited

According to information which has reached certain Anderson people from a very reliable source a new and startling dance entitled "The Bullet" is now on its way here.

"The Bullet," as its name indicates, had its origin in the stormy revolution which has been raging in Mexico and Anderson's attractive visitor has danced it in that country when sure-enough leaden bullets actually crashed into the windows of the ball room.

Rumor says that invitations are shortly to be sent out in Anderson by the prominent family where the young lady is visiting, for a magnificent ball, at which time the new dance is to be introduced.

VILLA PROTESTS HIS PATRIOTISM

Disclaims Any Ambition to Become President of Mexico; Backs Carranza

(By Associated Press.) Juarez, Mex., Jan. 28.—Gen. Francisco Villa, leader of the rebel forces, today disclaimed any ambition to become president of Mexico in the event the revolution is successful.

"Should Gen. Carranza become president he would receive my support and I would obey his commands," said Gen. Villa.

Gen. Villa's interview was given in his little plastered adobe house, where he went immediately on his arrival from Chihuahua.

Gen. Villa was garbed in a new olive green uniform, the first tailor-made uniform he ever wore.

"I have never been in anything but the fullest accord with Gen. Carranza," said Gen. Villa.

TWO TOWNS WILLING TO ENTER LEAGUE

Spartanburg and Augusta Are Both Ripe For Formation Of New Association

Either the sport writers in every one of the towns proposed for the new Georgia-Carolina baseball league are monumental prevaricators or the new league is now practically assured.

The truth of the matter is that Anderson seems to be the least anxious of any town mentioned.

What Spartanburg Says. Interest is beginning to wax warm in the project of Spartanburg entering the proposed Georgia-Carolina league, and the fans of this city are becoming more and more convinced that such a league will be a paying proposition.

Other cities of the proposed league heard from are enthusiastic over the idea of a league.

"I certainly hope Spartanburg will secure a place in the Georgia-Carolina league, and, if she does, I will do my part attending the games as often as possible.

"As to the financial part, why not sell so many shares at, say, $10 a share, and in that way nearly every person could be able to help some and, at the same time, be aiding a good cause, one which is a fine advertisement for any town?

"I hope all true citizens will get behind the movement."

Mr. Lawson's solution is a logical one, one which has been worked in other towns.

"I am better than ever satisfied with the prospect of organizing the Georgia-Carolina Baseball League," said President E. C. Kallfelz.

"One Augusta man, who is a lover of the sport and at the same time represents one of the largest business interests in the city, or in the whole county, told me yesterday that the people of Augusta ought to make it their business to get right in behind it and see that the league is formed.

"The sports writer of The Herald invites other fans of the city to express their views on the feasibility of Spartanburg entering the proposed league, The Augusta View.

Moving Steadily On Showing Each Year An Advancement.

"SUCH IS THE HISTORY OF OUR BUSINESS."

The record of 1913 is one of the most interesting and profitable we have ever shown; and we believe, 1913 was better than 1912, for the same reason that 1912 was better than 1911.

Adherence to well defined principles that have never failed wherever they have been sincerely and intelligently administered.

Quality that was not only heralded to the public thru printers ink, but was the very warp and woof of the merchandise offered for sale.

The kind of quality that sticks in the memory of the purchaser and serves as his "hunch" for the next purchaser.

Service, that takes into account the well-being of the purchaser upon his very entry into the store, and that unobtrusively goes with him until he is ready to take his departure.

We started 1914 with our sales set for the strongest commercial season in our history. January is proving the wisdom of our action—standing appreciable above 1913, and this without blare of trumpets or fanfare of words.

We renew our obligations to the public with a sense of appreciation, crystallized into a sincere purpose to render better service in 1914 than ever before.
