Near Kennedy St. School-South Fahl and

SOCIAL NEWS

PALMETTO CHAPTER

The Palmetto Chapter U. D. C. held its regular meeting Tuesday after-noon with Miss Martha Bonham on ncon with Miss bias.

Greenville street.

After a short business session the grim: Instrumental solo—Miss Lydis

Paper—Lee as a Scholar—Miss Kathleen Sorryce. Eulogy on Mr. Cunningham written by Gen. Young-Mrs. Arthur Holl-Reading by historian Mrs. Ray mond Fretwell. Gleamings—Mrs. Walter Dixon. Instrumental deut—Mrs. Jo Instrumental deut-Mrs. John Humbert and Mrs. Charles Spearman. The thirty guests present

The members of the Dixie Chapter U. D. C. were entertained most de

DIXIE CHAPTER

PHOTOGRAPHER COMMENDED

The Following is a Voluntary Testimonial

I wish to recommend to my friends in and around Belton, S. C., Mr. N. D. Taylor who has recently settled there. I have known him and dealt with him for several years and can most heartily recommend him as one of the very best citizens and as a splendid photographer. If you need any work in his line, give him a trial and I feet sure he will give you satisfaction.

Daspectfully.

Intionary times seemed and the served to the accompaniment of one of Chopin's Nocturnes beautifully rendered by Missa Zenobia Welch. The hosters will give you satisfaction.

Payne and Mrs. Marcus Payne, The dainty little maids, Misses Cora Jane Davis and Cora Payne McCown also

D. W. HIOTT. Easley, S. C., Jan. 28, 1914.

We are hustling for busines and the best of it is we're getting it. Your patronage is greatly TAYLOR'S PHOTO GALLERY

North End of Public Square

Belton, S. C.

lightfully Tuesday afternoon when they met with Mrs. A. M. Sharp and

Mrs. Daisy Wilson.

The business of the chapter was first taken up and Mrs. Carrie. Mc C. Patrick, the president, resigned. Since Mrs. Patrick has been elected State Historian of the U. D. C. she finds that she cannot serve both. The members regret very much that Mrs. Patrick has resigned and her successor will be elected at the next meeting.

This well selected program was Instrumental duet—Mrs. A. M. Sharpe and Miss Alberta Farmer.

Reading—Mrs. Daisy Wilson.
Gleanings—Mrs. Carrie McCully.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. W. H. Nardin. Original story written by a friend-Miss Mae Russell.

Instrumental Solo-Mrs. W. At the close of the program the hostess assisted by Misses Jean Har-ris and Alberta Farmer served a delightful salad course.

CATEECHE CHAPTER

The Cateeche Chapter D. A. R. held the Catesche Chapter D. A. R. held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Davis on Calhoun street. A nut ber of potted plants and cut flowers in several shades of rose and pink added their beauty and fragrance the enjoyment of the occassion and gave just the note of brightness needed to be in keeping with the sun-sine outside. There were several visitors present whom the chapter was delighted to have.

was delighted to have.

After the business meeting the program for the afternoon was spent with a duet by the Missess Bewley, "All Through the Night" which was sweetly rendered and enjoyed by all. Mrs. T. S. Cryaton then read an interesting and amusing anecdote of revolutionary days in Boston. This was followed by a song "The Songs my Mother Used to Sing," given by Mrs. Waller H. Nardin in her usual charming style. Mrs. Et. Horton then told us in a manner so bright and entertaining of the cutoms of colonial days, that these folk of Revolutionary times seemed actually before us.

guests were served a delightful oyster course with coffee. Those enjoying this party were: Misses Mary and Angela Gibboney, Miss Myers, Mrs. Charles Green, Mrs. R. C. Webb, Mrs. Ralph Ramer, Mrs. Harry Orr, Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mrs. T. S. Crayton, Mrs. J. J. Baldwin, Mrs. Nardin Webb and Mrs. LeRoy Failes.

SPONSORS AND MAIDS

Gen. U. R. Brooks of the 1st brigade of the South Carolina divi-sion of the U. C. V. announces the appointment of Miss Mac Neetze of Columbia as sponsor. The maids of honor of Mess Ernestine Johnson of Columbia and Miss Nellie Pearson of Winnsbero. The sponsor for the second brigade is Miss Alberta Brock of Aaderson, and the maids of honor are Misses Aldrich Bonham of Anderson and Louise Ligon of Spartanburg. Gen. C. A. Reed of Anderson commands the Second brigade. The sponsor and maids for State divison are to be named by Gen. B. Hammett Teague of Aiken. The county organization also may send wedding that Anderson society has been very much interested in was solemnized Tuesday at high noon in the Methodist church at Lowndesville, when Miss El Louise Harper and Theren Allen were married, the bride's pastor officiating. The church was very pressite. The church was very prettily and attractively decorated with ferns and paims. The bridal party entering to the strains of Menedlasohn's wedding march. First came the dainty little ribbon girls wearing exquisite white lingeric frocks, with pink ribbons. They were Misses Dessie Harper, Madeline Franks, Catherine Allen, and Margaret Wilson. Then came Frances Harper and Walter Hucka-bee scattering flowers.

HARPER-ALLEN

bee scattering flowers.

They were followed by ten attractive little girls carrying burning candles. These were Misses Alice Allen, Alice Harper, Ruth Timmons, Martha Cook, Virginia Wilson, Lucile Kirkpairick, Annie Wilson, Alice Meschine, Carrie Mae Gibert, and Caroline Chalmon. Then came Henry B. Harper, Bruce Harper, Frits Watson and Wade Watson who acted as ushers.

ers.

The dame of honor, Mrs. E. F. Latimer entered alone. She wore an exquisite blue gown, Miss Ella Nichols the maid of honor followed her. Her Payne and Mrs. Marcus Payse, The dainty little maids, Misses Cora June Davis and Cora Payne McCown also assisted in serving.

MISSES GIBBONEY

Misses Mary and Argela Gibboney of Virgina, who are the guests of Mrs. Nardia Webb, were the homorees at a lovely card party Monday after noon when Mrs. Mary J. Robinson entertained for them.

Three tracks were arranged for the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large and Mrs. B. A. Henry and Argela Gibboney of Virgina, who are the guests of Mrs. Nardia Webb, were the homorees at a lovely card party Monday after noon when Mrs. Mary J. Robinson entertained for them.

Three tracks were arranged for the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the players and after a number of interesting rubbers of acction the large of the maid, of honor foliowed her. Her kown was a deficate shade of plak.

The bridge entered with her ficher was the large and was met at the distribution. E. W. Harper and was met at the distribution of the structure of the valley.

In mediately after the ceremony a delignment for the bridge parents, Mr. and was met at the distribution of the bridge of the valley.

In mediately after the ceremony a delignment reception was given at the large parents, Mr. and was met at the distribution of the bridge parents, Mr. and the province of the bridge and an exquisite contains the large parents and a con

DANCE FOR MISSES GIBBONEY .

Most of the entertainments for this wek have centered around the Misses Gibboney, the attractive guests of Mrs. Nardin Webb. One of the pleasntest being the informal little dance given on Thursday evening by Mrs. R. C. Webb, at her pretty home on S. McDuffle street. During the evening the hostess served a delicious Those invited to meet menu. the Misses Gabboney on this occassion were: Misses Lydia Brown, of sion were: Misses Lydia Brown, or Boston, Elizabeth Van Wyck, Zoo Broyles, Isabel Webb, Mab Bonham, Mrs. T. R. Shuford, Mr. and Mrs. Nardin Webb, Mr. Frank Thouj son, Dr. Thompson, Mr. Stark Sul-livan, Mr. Foster Jones, Mr. Fulph Gossett, Mr. Willie Marshall, White, Mr. Harold Webb.

Smith-Elmore

Jack Elmore and Miss Ethel Smith, two popular young people of Clear-son College were married in Atlanta Smiday afternoon and are now at home to their friends at the residence of Mr. John Cary, at Clemson. The or ar, sonn cary, at Clemson. The marriage was a complete surprise to the friends of the young people. Quietly they boarded a train for At-lar, and wired the news of their marriage to friends at home. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore returned to Clemson the following day. Miss Smith was one of the most popular young was one of the most popular young ladies of Calhoin, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith. Mr. Shith holds a responsible position in the office of the commundant at Clemson and is a young man of business ability, popular among a large circle of friends.

Ellison-Massengale

Ellison-Massengale
On Tuesday, January 27th at 11 o'clock Miss Marie Ellison and Mr.
Furman Massengale were wedded in the beautiful parlor of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Ellison, parents of the bride. The ceremony was imprestively performed by Rev. D. W.
Hiott in the presence of a large number' of friends of the contracting parties. Most elaborate preparaing parties. Most elaborate prepara-tions had been made for the event tions had been made for the event. The paior, dining room and hall had been profusely decorated with ever greens and potted plants. The color scheme was white and green. In the parlor a beautiful bank of ferns had been farmed above which stretched an arch and as Mrs. James Childress sweetfully struck the set tones of the wedding march, Misses Bessie Massengale and Vivian Ellison en-tered followed by the bride and groom who stood beneath the arch while the who stood beneath the arch while the words were profounced that made the two one. After the ceremony a young couple were the recipierts of deligning dinner was serve. This many useful and valuable presents which tend to show their popularity. The bride was handsomely dressed in many useful and valuable presents which tend to show their popularity. The bride was handsomely dressed in a going-away gown with hat and gives to match and carried bride's roses. The bride has a large circle of friends who admire her greatly for her many traits and lively disposition. The scane of St Paul's west remarking women. The groom is also of this section, and a young man of integrity and has many warm relegies. After a weeks stay in Casticson and Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Massengale will be at home to their friends. To this happy young couple we extend congratuations, wishing for them all the Joy and happiness that this world affords and may their free gilde onward as smoothly as the fibrid waters of an unimpeded stream until they conver the id waters of an unimpeded stream until they empty into the great ocean of eternity. LANDER ALURNAN The meeting of the Lander Alumnae ociation was held on Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Trammell on tonance of members, besides a number of visitors, and this with the interstingly-arranged program, made an unusually pleasant meeting. The visy being the 81st birthday of Dr. lander, the founder of Lander College, it is always observed as Foundets Dry, and the association sent greeting: to Lander College. The study for the atternoon was on Brazil and South America, and the first, paper on this subject was given by Mrs. Chaimers Burriss. Mrs. W. W. Griffin of Williamston, read a paper on the Winners of the Country, and the T. C. Wiglangton an interesting description of the country Itself. Mass Garlington, the inpactor of abools, was present and save an instructive little talk on behoots, and het work. Miss Geraldine Trambell and Alies Heles Burries gave asveral pairs referred as which was a very attrictive part of the program, as was attrictive part of the program, as was attrictive part of the program. Day, and the association sent Miss Mary Ramsay. Mrs. Trammell served a deligning saled course dur-iv; the secial fail of the hour.

MR. AND MRS. ORR ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orr entertained on Friday evening for the Misse Gibboney at a most delightful dance Dhring the evening a dainty hot menu-yak ferved after which dancing was energed for several hours. Mr. and Mrs. Orr's guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Blimer Mr. and Mrs. Bond Abder-off, Sr. and Mrs. Coronie De-Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Alers Farmer,

Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Lumer, Misses Lydia Brown Mary and Angela Gib-sonry and Vina Patrick, Modern Marshail, McClain, Cartwright and Winterop. YOUNG LABITA OF

AS SEVEN YOUNG LADIES GO PLACES ARE FILLED

Seven Students are Graduated From Lander College as Seven Begin Work

Greenwood, Jan. 31.—Seven young the course and were awarded diplo-mas Tuesday of last week and seven new students enrolled the same day for this second half of the term. The seven young women who graduated were: Misses Eleanor Rosa mand Buist, Daisy Myrtie Epting, Sarab Edna Harvey, Annie Margaret Hill, Francis Ryan Lockman, Lify Sophronia Smith, and Ruth Shieles. The exercise began at 8:45 o'clock, after prayer by Rev. J. D. Kinard. President Jno. O. Wilson addressed the graduating class on "Lander College Ideal of a Woman." The diplomas were presented by Rev. L. P. McGree, a trustue.

Trainediately after these exercises Miss Mary Boyd, of Greenville; Miss Ruby Calvert, of Greenvood; Miss Ruby Calvert, of Greenwood; Miss mand Buist, Daisy Myrtie Epting, Samatriculated and entered the college. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the class of 1914 planted a class tree, a Darlington oak.

Ruby Calvert, of Greenwood; Miss Lidte Carson, of Orangeburg; Miss Helen Child, of Hendersonville, N. C.; Miss Marie Cornell, of Chester; Miss Tucile McCleod, of Bennettsville, and Miss Damaris Stubbs, of Bishopville, matriculated and entered the college.

These exercises were peculiarly interesting The history of Miss Buist, the explanation of the class emplem by Miss J. R. Wiggins, and the class song by Miss Margaret Lanter were skeelear. The fine weather permitted the procession and added to the pleasure of the occasion.

a service to . PERSONAL

Mr. B.H. Todd was the hest yester-day at a chekrning luncheon at the Tayern club in honor of Mrs. J. P. Todd and W. E. Atkinson, of Andercovers were taid for Mrs. Toud, Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Elimer Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Elimer Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Rebecca Toud of Lexington.—Louisville Herald.

Mr. B. H. Todd returned Friday from Mobile, where he went to attend the wedding of his Prother, Mr. Frank dward Todd, of Anderson, So., and Miss Edith Wintersmith of obile.—Louisville Heraid. Misses Ahns Hove 2nd Jean Con-ningham, of Anderson, S. C., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. L. C. Harrison, at her home on Carneste Court. Miss Cuaningham has visited here on numerous, occasions and is pleasantly remembered by a wide circle of friends.—Charlotte, Obsercircle of friends.—Charlotte Observer.

Mrs. H. H. Walkins, of Anderson is the gut t of Mrs. Eugene Bates.—Greenville Piedmont.

Mrs. Henry Laucus of Judith G.p. Moni., who has been visiting Brs. G. C. Sullivan, left Friday for a visit to relatives in Greenville.

Mr. L. R. Whitlow left Friday for Greenwood where she will make left future house. Mr. Whitlow has returned from a visit to Columbia.

Mrs. W. L. Brissey has returned from a visit to Columbia.

Mrs. Ban Allen has returned from a week's visit to Lowndowlile where she attended the Harper-Allen wed-

CHINA-BERRY BEADS.

Have all the children and grown-be, too, in and around Antierson arned to make the heads from the learned to make the beads from the China berry?

Here is the way is is done, and motive, let all the HATE folia make some. They emply it so much. Boil the forries buth the Dulp and hain will wash off. When runned between the hands into a pair of water, their wash well and boil again and aring while warm with a fine modile. Dye and color. Some has the gots beads with the nerry beads attending one with the other. The makes a pleasure textination, especially what the circle ones are used with the gold or be both Judge and Jury Let the Trial last Thirty Days

Buy a pair of "Headlight" overalls at our. store today.

If thirty days of the hardest wear does not convince you that these are the best overalls you ever bought, bring them back and get your money.

There will be no argument. You are the Supreme Court in this case. Your der ion will be favorable or we will stend the coats. Lawrence & David Comment

Up-To-Date Department Store Anderson, S. C.

OLIVER CHILLED PLOW with less expenditure of money and physical force that plow made are Callied Matc I means perfection in wearing

Mrs. 1st. Alles has returned from a week's "sit to Lowndosville where she attended the Harper-Allen wedges, and the ether instead can apparently and the other instead can apparently at the other instead can be other instead can apparently and the other instead can be other instead can apparently and the other instead can apparently apparently and the other instead can apparently apparently and the other instead can apparently and the other instead can Bros., and saved from $25,00 to $30.00 per head by payling the Cash, and believe me you can do the same thing if you will give them a chance to show you." We will have one Car of Nice Mares and Horses, and Two Cars of Nice Mules for Manday's Trade. Come and it the Spot Trade. Come and icr the Cash Mule Men prove this state-

Thirty acre Field of Cotton on farm or W. H. Tollison, Piedmont, S. C., raised by UNION GUANO Colle PANY'S Pertilizers Mr. Tollison is one of the thousand 62 estaned customers using these Fertilizers. All your dealer for our goods and accept it soubstitut a A botter Fertilizer will produce a better crop. "UNION BRANDS" have demonstrated to many of the la

Hudgens & Ragedale, Petren.

Hudgens & Ragedale, Petren.

Hennett Mercantile Co., Easley.

February Qualities. And the man who uses them.

Hudgens & Ragedale, Petren.

Hampton Mercantile Co., Fieldment.

Hennett Mercantile Co., Easley.

Field Mercantile Co., Williams

P. F. Cox, Greenville.

J. B. Douthit, Zandy Springs, and many other dealers in Anderson, Greenville and Pickers sprint patter. For further information write our rep and many other dealers in Anderson, Greenville and Principal Princ