SALE OF C. & W. C. TO COAST LINE

Supt. Anderson Says It Would Mean Only Good For Road

Capt. Albert W. Anderson, general manager of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway, is quoted in the Augusta Herald as follows with reference to the taking over of the Charleston and Western Carolina road by the Atlantic Coast Line.

Mr. Anderson expressed it as his opinion that it could mean nothing but good for the future development of the road, which meant, of course, the best interests of its patrons and the public generally throughout the section served by the company.

Mr. Anderson did not appear to be uneasy as to himself and his assistants, stating, as he did, that the competent and deserving officers of the company would certainly be cared for, and if they were not competent or deserving they should not expect any particular consideration.

The Charleston & Western Carolina Railway has a trackage of 340 miles. It has a line running from Augusta to Spartanburg with branches to Greenville and Anderson. It also has a line running from Augusta to Port Royal.

DRUNK LASTED FIVE YEARS

Atlanta Woman Accuses Her Spouse of the Longest Jag on Record

Atlanta, Feb. 6.—The longest continuous record is alleged by Mrs. Ruth Reid against her husband as one of the cases for divorce, in a suit which she has filed in the Fulton county court through Attorney Madison Bell.

The most sensational feature in the suit, however, is that Mrs. Reid's home at Lake Toxaway mysteriously caught fire and was burned one night shortly after she had told her husband that she had rather see her house go up in flames than see her husband continually under the influence of drink.

CHASING BANDITS

Burning of Train and Wrecking Tunnel Arrested Great Anger

Atlanta, Feb. 6.—Arrested to a high pitch of anger by the capture of seven American railroad officials and treatment by Maximilian Castillo bandits, the burning of a passenger train and the wrecking of the big Cumberland tunnel, a posse is being formed in the Guerrero district to assist the rebels in running down the bandits. It is reported to comprise cowboys, railroad employees and men from a lumber company plant.

Boy Instantly Killed By Moving Elevator

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 6.—A D. James, Jr., aged 15, son of Dr. A. G. James, today was instantly killed when he tried to enter a moving elevator in a local office building. The lad's head was crushed. Coroner Paul Panchoo investigated the matter and announced that it was accidental. Many women in the corridor saw the accident and several fainted.

DISSENSION IN MILITANT RANKS

Pankhurst Daughters Differ on Methods of Crusade for Vote

London, Feb. 6.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the militant suffragette leader, today announced her secession from the women's social and political union, the militant women's organization, after east end of London federation which hitherto has been a branch of the parent organization, will henceforth be entirely independent.

The rift among the militant suffragettes is said to be due to Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's ultra-revolutionary aspirations, which the leaders of the women's social and political union are beginning to believe are damaging their cause.

Reports of dissension in the inner circles of the militant organization involving the Pankhurst triumvirate have been in circulation for some time. According to reports, Christabel Pankhurst is anxious to end her long exile in Paris and return to London to take control of the organization, for it is doubtful if her mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is in Switzerland, will be well enough for months to resume command.

But Christabel reports have it, desires to come back under conditions that will not necessitate frequent terms of imprisonment under the "cat and mouse" act. Therefore, it is said, she wants militancy dropped. In this stand she has the support of many older members of the organization who believe that while militancy accomplished much, future militant tactics will hurt the cause.

Sylvia Pankhurst, on the other hand, is not prepared to abandon militancy until she has fully tested the fighting capacity of her "people's army" which she organized in the east end of London and with which she is credited as believing she can start a revolution which will force the government to enfranchise women.

HAS GOOD CHANCE FOR ENCAMPMENT

South Carolina Can Probably Secure Soldiers' Question of Finance

Washington, Feb. 6.—With Spartanburg, Aiken and Greenville all determined to leave no stone unturned to get the encampment of the Ninth division of militia, consisting of troops from the two Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, as well as many regulars from nearby forts and garrisons, the indications here today are that if the State of South Carolina shows a disposition to raise a sufficient amount of money to warrant the war department in further taking official cognizance of the matter, South Carolina will see the greatest aggregation of her troops and those from nearby States which she has ever witnessed.

The man in Washington who is most directly concerned in the success of the venture is Congressman Johnson of Spartanburg. Both Spartanburg and Greenville are in his district. He is a member of the house committee on appropriations, where all "money bills" in congress must have their inception, and he is therefore the man who will have to engineer the scheme from this end of the line if congress is to appropriate anything for this purpose.

Today, when the State's correspondent asked Mr. Johnson what he was doing in the matter, he said that he was expecting to receive letters and telegrams from interested parties almost any time and that until this comes about there is little he can say. He will cooperate, of course, in any movement that will give South Carolina a big military encampment, but at the same time, with Spartanburg and Greenville both trying to get the big show, it is not known what Mr. Johnson's attitude in the matter will be. It is probable, however, that he will see the appropriation necessary for the purpose through the house and leave the disposition of a place for the encampment to the war department.

COLOMBIA WILL ELECT PRESIDENT

Two Candidates Will Compete for the Executive Office

Bogota, Thursday, Jan. 15.—The United States of Colombia will elect a new president Sunday, Feb. 8. Unusual interest is being manifested in the campaign owing to the popular belief that the new government is likely to come into control of a vast amount of money. The general impression is that negotiations with the United States of America for the settlement of the Panama treaty soon will meet with success.

President Carlos E. Rostrepo, elected by a combination of liberals and republicans, is prohibited by the constitution from being re-elected. His opponent in the last election, Jose Vicente Concha, again is the candidate of the conservatives or clerical party.

The regular liberal candidate is Dr. Nicholas Esquivel, a lawyer, 72 years old.

The republicans, an element between the extremes of conservatives and liberals, have not put forward any candidate this year.

PUBLICATION WAR ROSTERS

Confederate and Union Rosters May Be Printed

Washington, Feb. 6.—The joint resolution just offered in the house by Congressman Finley of South Carolina, providing for the printing of the rosters of officers and enlisted men of the Union and Confederate armies, will doubtless be read with interest in many parts of the country. The resolution, which is quite comprehensive, is as follows:

"That the secretary of war be and he is hereby authorized and directed to send the printing office the complete roster of the officers and enlisted men of the Union and the Confederate armies, the compilation of which was directed in the act of congress approved February 25, 1862. The publication here authorized, shall be known as the 'Roster of the Officers and Enlisted Men of the Union and Confederate Armies.' That the public printer shall cause to be printed in such manner and at such times as the secretary of war may prescribe 11,000 copies of said roster in volumes not exceeding (so near as may be) 1,000 octavo pages each, and the sum of $50,000 is hereby appropriated, out of moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to enable the secretary of war to begin the publication of said roster. There shall also be printed in said roster a summary of the 'Record of the Events' appearing on the muster rolls of the several Union and Confederate organizations.

BITTER FEUD IN GEORGIA

Father and Grandfather Both Claim Two Little Baby Girls in Atlanta

Atlanta, Feb. 6.—A bitter family feud in which a father and grandfather both claimed the right to care for two little baby girls, and in which the father is accused of kidnapping his own children, found its way into the Fulton Superior court today.

The father is L. C. Thurman, a stevedore and the grandfather is hale, A. Thurman. The father is hailed into court on a writ of habeas corpus sued out by the grandfather. The father is accused of snatching his children after signing an agreement that they were to remain with the grandfather.

The father admits signing the papers but declares that he was deceived into thinking that they simply gave the grandfather temporary custody, and that he was broken-hearted when he found he had been tricked into signing away forever his right to the little ones.
