Financial and Commercial

Stocks and Bonds

New York, Feb. 9.—Higher prices for American stocks in London today stimulated the home market at the opening. The effect of the rise abroad was negated by free buying here, particularly of steel for foreign account. There was a steady investment inquiry, although the demand was not as large as recently. The market held firm for a time, but eventually weakened and gains were eliminated.

Increased weakness of a few stocks affected the general market and was primarily responsible for checking the uptick. Stock island issues added other markets to their accession of low records recently. The common stock sold down to 5 3/4, the preferred to 10 7/8 and the collateral 4s to 44 7/8. New York Central sold down to 89 3/8.

The copper producers' monthly report made an unexpectedly good showing, supplies of the metal having decreased over 4,000,000 pounds. Copper shares rose sharply.

Bonds were irregular with pronounced weakness in a few issues. Total sales, par value, $4,150,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales were 281,300.

New York Cotton

New York Feb. 9.—Reports of the closing of a bank at Memphis today seemed to increase the nervousness and confusion of sentiment that had been noted in the local cotton market toward the end of last week. Prices made new low ground for the movement, but there was nothing in the news to suggest that financial troubles were forcing any spot holdings of consequence on the market and there were rallies of several points from the lowest; with the close steady at a net decline of 1 to 11 points. Active old crop months were from 7 to 11 points lower.

The market opened barely steady at a decline of 5 to 10 points in near months and 4 to 5 points on new crop deliveries in other cables, predictions that short time would become more general in Lancashire, and heavy selling March 4 and July 4. Most active old crop months rallied 2 or 3 points from the lowest on evening, but quickly weakened under continued liquidation with March cotton selling off to 12.92 and May to 11.71, or 13 to 17 points under Saturday's closing. Offerings then became less active and prices rallied about 7 or 8 points from the lowest. Some of the leading buyers appear to have considerable stocks for sale, particularly in the range of 12 to 13 March, but part of it is expected to be cleared up by closing the market at one time or another.

Settled and unsettled uplands: 12.35; mid. 12.30. No sales. Cotton futures closed quiet.

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, Feb. 9.—Considerable selling pressure today was put on the cotton market with the result that prices were down to seven points under Saturday's close, remained below Saturday's low all day and closed at a net loss of 4 to 7 points. At the close the trading months were 11 to 14 points down. The only support for the market had any time came from the purchases of shorts who are satisfied with their profits. Weather conditions over the belt were still unfavorable and there was an entire lack of news talk regarding the new crop, but without any increase in buying activity.

Spot cotton: middling, 11.50; up at 12.10. Sales on the spot 500 to arrive, 510.

JONES HOLDS UP WARRANT

(An Not Permit Diversion of Unexpended Balance of Letter Relief.)

Columbia, Feb. 9.—Comptroller General Jones yesterday refused to issue a warrant for $739 to the headquarters of the First Infantry, National Guard of South Carolina. A letter was addressed by him to Col. W. W. Lewis, suggesting that the courts be asked to decide the matter. There was a small amount left over from the state appropriation for the National Guard, as military board decided to give out money to the headquarters to be used in paying the debts of companies failing to pass the government inspections. Adj. Gen. Moore refused to certify the money, saying that the headquarters had no bills to pay. Jones said that the money was not to be used for the purpose of paying the debts of companies failing to pass the government inspections. Jones said that the money was not to be used for the purpose of paying the debts of companies failing to pass the government inspections.

SANDS OF THE SEA

REPRODUCED IN THE SEA.

Unusual Phenomenon Witnessed Last Night by People of Anderson.

The ribbed sands of the sea were reproduced in the sky last night about seven o'clock, when the rare sight of a form of "cumulus" clouds was witnessed by Anderson people in various parts of the city. These clouds, as was later explained by a weather bureau, make the halo to be often seen around the sun, but seldom do they come so close to the surface of the earth that they can be seen in a formation that resembles the picture of the aurora borealis. It was an unusual sight, and hastening pedestrians expressed words of admiration.

OYSTER SUPPER SATURDAY.

Given by Benson Camp, W. O. W., at the Hall at Orr Mill.

(Daily Mail.)

A very happy occasion was the oyster supper given by Benson Camp No. 198, Woodmen of the World at their hall at the Orr Mills Saturday night. More than one hundred were present, including the invited guests, among which were the two Orrville brothers, W. T. Selvin and H. W. Stone. Mr. James A. Anderson, who has had a wide and varied experience and enjoys an enviable reputation as chef was in charge of the tables and did the cooking. A most enjoyable occasion, it is said by those in attendance, never took place at Orrville.

After the supper had been looked after to the satisfaction of every one present, speeches were made by the presiding and by Mr. John B. Hubbard. They both were in keeping with the good things prepared by Chef Anderson and will long be remembered.

Your Boy

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.

First, ask your doctor about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. Then use it or not, as he says.
