THE ANDERSON PHOSPHATE & OIL CO.

Are making a Fish, Blood and Bone goods this year that probably has no equal on the market.

When all the Fertilizer is at the same price why not get the Best? There is nothing better than this Fish, Blood and Bone goods and we are not at all sure there is any as good.

It will not pay you to take any chances on your Fertilizer, for by the time you find you have practically lost a crop, it is too late to repair the damage.

When you lose a crop you lose a year's work and that is a serious matter with all of us.

Our Fish, Blood and Bone is used in our 8-3-3 and higher grades—not in the lower grades Fish, Blood and Bone costs more than the lower grade sells for.

No better crops were made in Anderson, Abbeville, Greenwood, Newberry, Oconee and Pickens Counties last year than where our goods were used.

You Can Smile With Impunity

Financial and Commercial

Stocks and Bonds

New York, Feb. 13.—There was little to distinguish today's market from yesterday's preceding session this week. The undertone was distinctly firm, but only a comparatively few stocks made gains of a point or more. The tendency upward was challenged at intervals by pressure against particular issues, such as New Haven, New York Central and the Rock Islands.

Such headway as was made was due largely to the foreign influence. Higher prices for American stocks set over from the English market were accepted here at the opening. Strength of steel, in response to its steady absorption, gave tone to the industrials. Advances in this part of the list were influenced by accumulating evidence of improving business conditions.

Known currency movements of the week suggested another strong bank statement. A gain in cash of $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 was indicated. While there were a few weak points in the bond market, its tone in general was good. Total sales, par value, $2,935,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of shares were 237,000.

Money Market

New York, Feb. 13.—Money on call steady, 1-3-4 @ 2; filling rate, 1-3-4; closing, 1-2. Time loans steady; sixty days, 1-2 @ 3-4; ninety days, 1-3-4 @ 3-4; six months, 1-1-2. Mercantile paper, 1-1-2. Sterling exchange easy; sixty days, 1.83-75; demand, 1.85-35. Commercial bills, 1.82-3. Bar silver, 57-3-8. Mexican dollars, 45. Government and railroad bonds steady.

New York Cotton

New York, Feb. 13.—Cotton was higher today on covering, trading buying and a moderate demand from houses with Liverpool connections, which was supposed to represent a further reduction in the straddle interest. The support was by no means active or aggressive, but offerings were comparatively light, and the market closed very steady at a net advance of 2 to 11 points.

Both Liverpool and New Orleans made a steady showing over the local holiday, and first prices here were steady at an advance of 6 to 7 points on the old crop of 2 to 3 points of new crop positions. The means a rally of 20 points from the low level of the week and gradually attracted some scattered realizations. Prices acted mainly in concert, but on a setback of only 3 to 4 points, the buying became a little more active. Houses with foreign and New Orleans connections seemed to have buying orders for execution on any resumption, and this gave the market a very steady undertone.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands, 12.85; to gulf, 12.10. No sales. Cotton futures closed steady.

	Open	High	Low	Close
March	12.22	12.27	12.20	12.26
May	11.92	11.97	11.89	11.96

October	11.45	11.51	11.46	11.51

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—While the cotton market Friday had a further uptick, the tendency was to work to higher levels on more bullish views on the spot situation, increased mill takings, a falling off of the movement to eight, small spot in the eastern belt and rumors of bullish operations in the March position. The close was at a net advance of 2 to 3 points.

Weather conditions were more favorable for new crop than last week, but not so much as to be a factor in the price. At the highest prices range 5 to 6 points.

	Spot	High	Low	Close
March	12.22	12.27	12.20	12.26
May	11.92	11.97	11.89	11.96

Cotton Goods

New York, Feb. 13.—Cotton goods were quiet today and barely steady. Jobbers are doing an active trade with retailers. Wool markets were very firm here and abroad. Yarns were steady.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Feb. 13.—Cotton seed oil today was higher on lighter offerings and support from leading houses, but towards the close prices reacted slightly with a fall. Final prices were 5 cents lower to 4 cent higher. Sales, 10,400 barrels. Prime crude, 860; sales, 500. Prime yellow 710 @ 717; February, 605; March, 710; April, 713; May, 714; June, 711; July, 701; August, 698; September, 695; prime winter yellow summer, white, 700 @ 800.

Liverpool, Feb. 13.—Spot cotton quiet, higher, middling, 12.85; good middling, 12.40; middling, 12.00; low middling, 11.75; good ordinary, 11.50; ordinary, 11.45. Sales, 200,000.

Bradstreet's Review

New York, Feb. 13.—Bradstreet's review has been a shifting of activity in trade and industry, but no apparent abatement of the sanguine sentiment which is in evidence. Activity has been chiefly noticeable in the larger primary markets, where good reports of the past business have been and are being confirmed and in the ranks of final distributors, who have felt the beneficial effects of a full week of cold weather upon retail trade in heavy wearing apparel.

"If iron and steel and in cotton and woolen manufacturing, the effects of good January ordering are now visible in large outputs and increased capacity employment. Then too, the first wave of spring buying by interior jobbers and large retailers is noted at the larger markets, where, however, buying is chiefly of small lots widely distributed.

Business failures for the week were 309, which compares with 285 in 1913. Wheat exports for the week aggregate 4,092,468 bushels against 4,354,169 last year.

Hester's Statement

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—Secretary Hester's weekly statement issued today shows for the thirteen days of February, an increase over last year of $1,500,000 and a decrease under the same period year before last of 230,000.

For the 166 days of the season that have elapsed, the aggregate is ahead of the 166 days of last year, 681,000, and behind the same days year before last, 235,000.

The amount brought into sight during the past week has been 287,379 bales, against 225,187 for the seven days ending this date last year, and 199,882 year before last.

The movement since Sept. 1 shows receipts at all United States ports $476,205, against $1,178,178 last year; overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to Southern Mills and Canada, 819,700, against 819,711 last year; interior stocks in excess of those held at the close of the commercial year, 707,871, against 619,900 last year. Southern mill takings, 2,100,000, against 1,528,187 last year.

The total for the 166 days of the season, since Sept. 1, is 13,100,000, against 11,428,100 last year. Foreign exports for the same period have been 142,453, against 101,054 last year.

Exports to Great Britain and the Continent, 100,000, against 100,000 last year. Exports to the West Indies, 42,453, against 10,000 last year. Exports to other foreign ports, 100,000, against 100,000 last year.

World's Cotton Supply

New Orleans, Feb. 13.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows a decrease for the week just closed of 56,000, against a decrease of 91,700 last year.

The total visible is 6,197,166, against 6,253,866 last week, 6,396,125 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 5,470,185, against 5,447,061 last week and 5,373,125 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 727,000, against 779,000 last week, 1,023,000 last year.

The total world's visible supply of cotton shows a decrease compared with last week of 56,000, an increase compared with the same date last year of 1,912,000 against 1,499,000 last year.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, Feb. 13.—Day in Congress: Senate—Senator Wainwright introduced a bill for construction of mine shafts and related oil and mineral land acts.

House—President Van Hise, of the University of Wisconsin, testified on the bank commission bill.

President Van Hise, of the University of Wisconsin, testified on the bank commission bill. Introduced a bill to prohibit common carriers from carrying any livestock.

IS NOT DEFTING COUNCIL

V. B. Cheshire Makes Statement in Reference to His Business

Editor Intelligencer: In justice to myself, the members of the city council and police officials, I ask space to explain article appearing in this morning's Intelligencer in reference to my intentions in complying with the "blue laws" to go into effect next Sunday. While the Intelligencer quoted me correctly, I said in reply to a question as to what I was going to do, that I expected to do business next Sunday, but did not want anything to say about it. However, in giving the change of address, I stated in this ad. that I would be open for business next Sunday. My reason for this was that I wanted those who usually patronize me on Sundays to know that they could get turnouts as usual. While I know that the article was not so intended, it would lead the public to believe that I intend to "buck" the city officials and that I proposed to go to war with them. Such is not the case. I am friendly to every member of council, as well as to the police and fire departments, as far as I know they are all friends of mine. Two of the best friends I have are members of council and the majority of the police force are warm friends of mine and have been for years while the whole force is friendly to me. Recorder Russell and myself worked together on the same newspaper for several years and have always been and are now personal friends. In other words the city officials and myself are on the very best of terms and I hope and believe these relations will continue. I have never had anything but words of praise for the present council and while editorially a number of times that it was the most progressive council that had been elected within my memory and I still say so. To show my appreciation of their good work and my belief in their ability to handle the proposition with credit to themselves and the city, I voted for the recent issue that was lost. I don't think that the present council feel their authority any less strong or get cheaply like some of those in the past, but that each and every member honestly tries to do what he thinks best for the city. They have on several occasions taken the people into their confidence and asked them to meet with them and give advice on public matters in which taxpayers are interested. I have never known a progressive council to do this.

In criticizing these few words of commendation, I am not attempting to sell the city officials as they and the public know that I am only reiterating what I have said in the past. I am never on the fence and the public always knows where I can be found on any question. I said that the rich man did not need to hire a turnout on Sundays in order to give his family an outing or visit some relative or friend in the touring cars, but the poor man did. There should be no partiality shown and the heavy burden must close on both sides. I am not in the case of the touring cars. As I do not run a stable, the most of my business is done on Sundays. If I was forced to close on Sundays, I would not make enough out of livery on week days to feed my horses, as fully half of my horses were only one day in the week and that day is Sunday. In other words if I am forced to close on Sundays I will have to go out of business as I would not make enough to feed my horses to say nothing of paying stable hands, coal and many other expenses. I have in my barn about twenty-five horses and the feed bill is heavy, averaging $15 a head per month. I hope I will not be forced to say anything further on this matter, but in case I do, I am going to get into it personal with those who shove it in my face on council.

Respectfully,
V. B. Cheshire.

GENTLE VILLA

Will Not Hurt the Spanish Merchants of Chihuahua. Juanes, Mex., Feb. 13.—An object lesson which Gen. Francisco Villa desires shall be known as illustrating his opinion toward Spaniards resident in other territory, today was given at the city of Juanes, Chihuahua.

While repeatedly has declared his intention of executing every Spaniard convicted of political activities in behalf of the federal government, although efforts have been made by his agents at Washington to give a milder interpretation to his utterances.

The friendly note of today's interview, however, is regarded as the latest at least of the fact that the general's animosity does not extend to all Spaniards.

"What do you want?" inquired Gen. Villa, as he faced the visitors. "We wish merely to return to our homes and conduct our business," replied Martin, who spoke as spokesman.

"I will give you both guarantees of safety for I understand that you have maintained a neutral attitude in subjects of the crown."

You may tell Spain, however, that the thought of Spaniards who appear to be connected to overthrowing the Mexican government, was infinitely a reason to them and to all others. As you have not much to the revolution, I will permit you to take 500,000 worth of supplies to your places of business without imposing an import tax.

After the interview, Gen. Villa departed for Lynch Ranch, where he is personally supervising the construction of a new road to the coast. The press is correctly reflecting his attitude.
