LET CONTRACT APRIL FIRST

Plans for New Theater Will Be Delivered in Few Days

BE READY FOR NEXT SEASON

Mr. Charles K. Bryant, of Richmond is Coming Here in a Few Days To Start Things

Plans for Anderson's new Opera House will be delivered here in the next ten days, according to information received at the office of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday from Chas. K. Bryant, of Richmond, Va., general architect, and representative of the trust company in Richmond which is to finance the undertaking.

Mr. Bryant and a representative of the trust company will also arrive here in the next few days to close all deals in the matter, so that the local directors of the Anderson Theater Co., may be able to let the contract for the construction of the building by April 1st, work to begin on May 1st and the building to be completed and delivered to the owners on or before September 1st, when the season will open here.

As soon as the plans are received and final papers with the trust company signed, the directors will meet and close a lease contract with a representative of one of the various concerns who are bidding for the building, including representatives from Asheville, Charlotte, Jacksonville, Waycross, Abbeville, Shreveport, Atlantic City and elsewhere.

As soon as the lease is closed, a representative will be sent to New York to close for attractions for the coming theatrical season, including the opening night play, the proceeds of which will go to the local company.

RAISED MUCH COTTON HERE

John C. Pruitt of Starr Is the Biggest Farmer in South Carolina

In Mr. John C. Pruitt of Starr county of Anderson and the State of South Carolina has the largest cotton producer. His crop this year amounted to 2,010 bales, and it is doubtful if there was any farmer in South Carolina that raised within several hundred bales of that amount. Mr. Pruitt is not only the largest producer in the State, but he is one of the largest land owners. There are some few farmers down in the low country who may exceed him in the number of acres owned, but they would not exceed the number of acres in cultivation, and the farm lands down below Columbia cannot compare with those belonging to Mr. Pruitt.

It is quite likely that Mr. Pruitt himself does not know how many acres of land he planted in cotton last year. Furthermore it is likely that he does not know how many acres of land he really owns. It is a safe bet, however, that he knows of every acre that belongs to him, but it may be possible that he has never tallied up the number of acres in all of his various farms.

Mr. Pruitt is one of the most energetic farmers in the State. He can be seen going about his various farms riding on horseback from early daylight until night. He keeps in close touch with everything and everybody on his lands, and this accounts for his great success.

Just this of 2,010 bales of cotton raised by one man! Why that is almost as much as some counties in the State raise. The Daily Mail.

Anderson wants the Capitol to Capital automobile highway and proposes to have it, the claims of Columbia, Aiken and Augusta notwithstanding.

The Anderson Chamber of Commerce yesterday took this matter up with the American Highway Commission and asked officials of that association to designate Spartanburg, Greenville and Anderson as the official route to be followed.

Secretary Whaley said last night that Columbia, Aiken and Augusta had lined up to take the highway, passing up the three Piedmont towns and that Spartanburg, Greenville and Anderson would join hands in the fight to bring the route this way.

The protest forwarded out yesterday was sent to the officials of the highway commission and Col. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture and a letter was also addressed to the other towns mentioned asking that they at once lend their aid in the fight.

It is pointed out that the route as mentioned, coming by way of Anderson, is approximately 150 miles nearer in the course from Washington to Atlanta and also possesses several other material advantages.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Itches—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but becomes weak from the over-work; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stringing pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in legs, wrists or joints, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder troubles.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep clean and active.

BACON'S FUNERAL VERY SIMPLE

His Desk Was Draped in Crepe—No Other Manifestations of Grief

Washington, Feb. 16.—Out of respect to the memory of Senator O. O. Bacon of Georgia, whose funeral will be held in the Senate chamber tomorrow afternoon, the Senate today adjourned after being in session only a few minutes—just long enough to adopt the resolution necessary to approve the arrangements for the funeral.

The desk of the dead senator was draped in mourning but there were no flowers because of a rule against flowers in the Senate chamber. The same rule will prevent flowers at the funeral services tomorrow, except that one piece—the Senate offering—will be allowed to lie on the coffin.

The funeral services will be simple; there will be no eulogies, no music and no flowers. The Senate will transact no business, adjourning immediately after the ceremonies.

The body of Senator Bacon will be brought to the capital at 9 o'clock tomorrow and lie in the Senate room until 11:30, when it will be removed to the Senate chamber. During this time it may be viewed by persons holding Senate floor privileges, but the public will be excluded.

The Senate will convene at 12:10 o'clock and the funeral services will be begun at 1 o'clock. They will be simple, consisting only of a prayer by the Senate chaplain, the reading of the Episcopal burial service by Bishop Alfred Harding and the benediction.

The funeral train will leave Washington at 4:35 in the afternoon, arriving at Atlanta at 11:40 Wednesday morning.

The following senators were named to accompany the body of Senator Bacon to Georgia and attend the funeral there:

Smith of Georgia, Tillman, Clifton, Overman, Fletcher, Tomerson, Thomas, O'Gorman, Vandeman, Gallinger, Root, Nelson, Brantley and Foss.

The Trimmers and Outlets' Unions of Baltimore, Md., have secured an 8-hour day. They recently celebrated in honor of the event, because the grant was gained without a strike.
