MANUFACTURERS OF
PURE BLOOD, BONE AND TANKAGE FERTILIZERS

HOME OFFICE: ATLANTA
BRANCH OFFICE: MONTGOMERY

The SOURCE OF AMMONIA is the most vital consideration in the selection of fertilizers. Being the most expensive element of plant food, it should be bought in such form that it will neither leach out in the soil nor lie dormant because of its slow process of nitrification.

The MORRIS BRANDS are ammoniated with the world's best nitrogen-bearing materials, and have proven their superiority in crop production over other fertilizers by scores of tests. This claim is substantiated by the testimony of farmers who used them last year by the side of others, and whose letters appear in our current Year Book. Call on your dealer, or write us for a copy.

This is the guarantee we attach to every bag of guano we ship. Can you get a similar WRITTEN GUARANTEE on any other goods on the market?

OUR GUARANTEE:
"TO THE PURCHASER OF THIS GUANO we guarantee the Ammonia in this guano to be 200 per cent PURE ANIMAL MATTER derived entirely from the HIGHEST GRADES OF PACKING HOUSE BLOOD AND ANIMAL TANKAGE, made and selected for us by our parent organization, Morris & Company. It is the FIRST CHOICE from six of the largest packing plants in the world."

New York Cotton
New York, Feb. 25.—Cotton today showed no special feature. Trading was quiet, but prices were generally steady and the close was steady, unchanged to 7 points higher. Rumors that hard yarn spinners had not agreed to any short time proposition and reports to steady southern spot markets seemed chief factors on a rally from an opening decline. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 2 points. There was some scattering liquidation at the start, and there seemed to be some selling of May and July by "houses" with Liverpool connections. Active months eased some 2 or 3 points under this pressure, but offerings were taken by short covering or a little trade buying and prices later rallied in the absence of any important selling.

Liverpool turned a buyer here late in the afternoon, taking May and June and helping the late market's tone. Active months were some 4 or 5 points higher at the close.

Private cables reported a quiet market in Liverpool, and that prices had been standing in a steady demand in spite of some scattering liquidation. Private wires from the southeast claimed that there was a good demand for all grades and said that cotton was rapidly disappearing from the interior.

Spot cotton quiet. Middling uplands, 12.95; middling, gulf, 13.20. Sales none.

Cotton futures closed steady:

	Open	High	Low	Close
March	12.20	12.27	12.18	12.26
May	11.92	11.98	11.88	11.93
July	11.58	11.68	11.51	11.59
October	11.47	11.47	11.42	11.46

Liverpool Cotton
Liverpool, Feb. 19.—Cotton—Spot, good business done; middling fair, 7.43; good middling, 7.52; middling, 7.46; low middling, 6.66; good ordinary, 5.94; ordinary, 5.88; sales, 12,000 including 11,400 American and 1,000 foreign speculation and export receipts, 29,000 including 19,500 American. Futures closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton
New Orleans, Feb. 19.—While a considerable amount of liquidation today came from the long side at times, the cotton market held steady and closed at a net gain of 6 to 7 points. Selling out was chiefly in preparation for the coming holidays. The highest levels were 7 to 8 points over yesterday's closing. The spot market, of the south, the claim that the demand was extending to the lower grades and the growing belief in lower spot quotations were the main bullish causes. There in Texas and Louisiana, reports in the belt revived fresh talk of the net crop. The last of the day's prices only 1 cent under yesterday's close.

Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Middling 13 sales on the spot, 1,502 bales to arrive.

Cotton futures closed: March, 12.16; May, 11.92; July, 11.61; August, 11.51; October, 11.61; December, 11.61.

Cotton Goods
New York, Feb. 19.—Cotton goods markets were quiet today with prices fairly steady. Raw silk and crests were firmer. Raw silk was firm with the demand steady. Fancy dress goods and fine clothings have been opened for fall.

The cotton exchange will be closed next Saturday out of respect to the memory of George W. Neville, ex-president of the exchange, who died yesterday.

Cotton Seed Oil
New York, Feb. 19.—Cottonseed oil today declined early under speculative liquidation induced by the weakness in rice and castor oil markets, but recovered in the afternoon on room covering and buying by commission houses. Final prices were 2 to 5 points net lower. Sales, 9,000 barrels.

Money Market
New York, Feb. 19.—Call money 1 1/2 per cent. Time loans steady, sixty days, 2 1/2 per cent; ninety days, 3 per cent; six months, 3 1/2 per cent. Government paper, 3 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange, steady. Gold loans, 7 1/2 per cent. Demand, 4 1/2 per cent. Government bonds, steady.

Chicago Grain and Provisions
Chicago, Feb. 19.—Liquidation of crop damage in northern Texas, western Oklahoma and parts of Kansas and Nebraska today tended to keep wheat to demand steady.

Prices closed fairly steady, a slight off to a like amount on. In corn the outcome was unchanged to 1/4¢ higher and for the week the same as yesterday. Provisions unchanged to 1/4¢ higher. Live stock, 1/4¢ higher.

Stocks and Bonds
New York, Feb. 19.—Speculative activity today diminished and was confined to a few isolated cases. The market was unimportant. The market improved slightly in the afternoon, but not enough to attract attention.

The morning session was unimportant. The market was unimportant. The market improved slightly in the afternoon, but not enough to attract attention.

ATTORNEY FOR DR. SAUNDERS.

Bivens Didn't Explain Why She Needed One Now for a Change.

Columbia, Feb. 20.—If Eleanora B. Saunders, M. D., did not need an attorney when she was under fire at the hands of several physicians and Gov. Blease relative to her moral and professional character, why should she need an attorney to question a member of the board of regents who was being examined by a legislative committee?

This was the question propounded at the hearing before the legislative committee today by W. F. Stevenson, a member of the committee, to J. D. Bivens, member of the board of regents.

After Mr. Bivens had read a carefully prepared statement, which he constantly referred to in his testimony, he stated that he preferred Dr. Saunders to be represented by an attorney, because it might be hard for her to receive certain statements that he might make. Mr. Stevenson said that he had a memory on the fact that the attorneys for Dr. Saunders were excluded when she was grilled by several men physicians and Gov. Blease at the executive meeting of the board regents at the state hospital for the insane on December 12. Mr. Bivens did not give a clear answer to this question and the large number of spectators in the supreme court room just finished at his examination.

News From the State

Iva, Feb. 19.—Mrs. D. A. Burris entertained the Priscillas very delightfully on last Tuesday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in social conversation, during which a delicious salad course was served.

Miss Louise Jackson is visiting relatives in Anderson this week.

Mrs. J. T. Jackson and son of Storeville spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Burris.

Mr. Melvin Means of Anderson was here for a day on so this week.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of J. Stuart Baskin and Miss Annie Besselle Lamb, which event takes place in Columbus, Ga., March 1th.

Mrs. J. H. Bass was called to Lumbert Tuesday to see her brother, Mr. Will Hall, who is ailing.

Prof. C. W. Ambrose and Mr. J. D. Felton were here Wednesday on business.

Mr. J. H. Ozzard, who while attempting to amuse an unknown throng was painfully hurt yesterday by having his shoulder dislocated, was carried to the Anderson Hospital immediately by Dr. D. A. Burris, who returned to his home here we are glad to say, was not so badly hurt as was feared.

The Ladies and Good Hope schools met here Wednesday afternoon at the Iva high school to practice for Field Day. There were accompanied by the respective teachers, Misses Jessie Harrod and Lillian Campbell.

There is a movement on foot to extend road No. 2 from this town on to go by Aulaville. This will be a great convenience as the Aulaville office will be able to get the daily papers from Anderson on day of leave and will bring Aulaville in much closer touch with the outside world than it is now.

OBITUARY FOR CHAIRMAN.

(By Associated Press)

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Every official session of Gov. CLEVELAND chose for state chairman of the Democratic party, William Church, who apparently was removed to a private residence.

The incumbent announced he would resign March 2. Palmer will probably be appointed counsel for the workmen's compensation committee.

THE MILLANT

A very special feature at the Bijou Theatre today will be "The Millant," a three reel drama by Calder Johnson, scenario editor of the eastern branch of the Universal. "The Millant" finds its subject in one of the most important political problems of the civilized world, "women's suffrage." In America this question is being solved without resort to militancy, but in England the politicians' persistent refusal to face the issue has brought violent disaster and a destruction of property never before equalled in the annals of history.

Mr. Johnston, in writing this play, has not attacked the right of woman to the vote. He has confined himself to the attack on the present destruction of property, homes, and lives in the wrong way of going about getting it. It is a fine thing that he has taken, and he handled it in a big way. He has approached it in a big way.

THE MILLANT

A very special feature at the Bijou Theatre today will be "The Millant," a three reel drama by Calder Johnson, scenario editor of the eastern branch of the Universal. "The Millant" finds its subject in one of the most important political problems of the civilized world, "women's suffrage." In America this question is being solved without resort to militancy, but in England the politicians' persistent refusal to face the issue has brought violent disaster and a destruction of property never before equalled in the annals of history.

Mr. Johnston, in writing this play, has not attacked the right of woman to the vote. He has confined himself to the attack on the present destruction of property, homes, and lives in the wrong way of going about getting it. It is a fine thing that he has taken, and he handled it in a big way. He has approached it in a big way.
