Box Party At Welcome School.
An event of Wednesday night to be attended by a number of Anderson people is the box party at Welcome school house next Wednesday night, March 4. The occasion will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the proceeds realized will go to school improvement.

For Benefit Of School Teachers.
J. B. Felton, superintendent of education for Anderson county, has purchased a ten-volume encyclopedia for the use of the school teachers of Anderson county. Mr. Felton has placed these books in his office at the court house and says that he will be pleased to have the teachers come in and consult them whenever it may suit them.

Entertainment At Zion Graded School.
The school children of the Zion graded school will give an entertainment at the school building on Friday night, March 6. The program prepared for this occasion is a splendid one and indications are that there will be a large attendance.

Store Changed Hands Yesterday.
E. O. Burress, who has been conducting a store in Anderson for the past ten years, yesterday disposed of his stock to M. Steinstein, who will assume charge at once. It is understood that the new owner will engage in the dry goods business. Mr. Burress has been in business in Anderson for ten years, and he has hundreds of friends in all parts of the county who will regret his retirement from business. He has conducted an honest, square store, and whatever he engages in hereafter will see him backed up with many friends.

Back From Stay in Florida.
Capt. James Busby, the well-known Anderson citizen, returned to the city yesterday from Florida, where he has been spending some weeks. Capt. Busby says that he enjoyed every minute of his stay in Florida, but that he was most certainly glad to get back home. His health is much improved. The people of Anderson county give you mighty welcome home Capt. Busby.

Carried Lunatic to the Asylum.
W. A. Clump, who is connected with the supervisor's office at the county court house, returned yesterday from Columbia, where he went to carry a negro woman, Lucy Walker, by name, to the State Hospital for the Insane. Mr. Clump said that he had but little trouble with the patient and reached the asylum in good order.

Sheriff Back From Columbia.
Sheriff Joe M. H. Ashley returned yesterday from Columbia, where he has been spending the last few days in the interest of the bill giving the sheriffs of the various South Carolina towns free transportation on the railroad. The sheriff said that he did not mind in the least admitting that he had been in Columbia for the purpose of "lobbying" and said that he honestly believed the measure would be a good thing for the state if it passed. He resented the implication that it was an improper lobby, for he said he was not working for personal interests, but for public good.

Texas Man Visiting Here.
Frank Brezeale, who is a conductor on a Texas railroad, and who has been making his home in the Loos Star state for a number of years, is spending a week in Anderson and Belton with friends. Mr. Brezeale talks very interestingly of the Mexican situation and tells of many adventures he has had there. He says that his train now runs no nearer the Mexican border than 200 miles, owing to the unsettled conditions.

Dr. Potat Heard Today.
Dr. E. M. Potat of Greenville, who is scheduled to speak in Anderson at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, will probably attract one of the largest audiences ever seen in the court house. Dr. Potat is a splendid speaker and a deep thinker and he deserves to receive a warm welcome here today. He comes to Anderson under the auspices of the Anderson Y. M. C. A. and will speak on the subject, "Selling Out Cheap."

March 1, in History.
1780—An act providing for the abolition of slavery passed by the Pennsylvania Assembly.
1845—The annexation of Texas authorized by President Tyler.
1870—The founder of the American Sunday School Union, Isaac Ashmead, died in Philadelphia.
1890—British steamship "Queen" was wrecked off Cape York, 124 lives lost.
1910—Marshall Hermes Fonseca elected President of Brazil.
1913—A gold medal awarded Capt. A. R. Ronstrom of the steamship "Carpathia" by congress for heroism in the rescue of passengers from the "Titanic" presented by President Taft.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES Made Against Management New York Hospital.
New York, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Mary Crane wants the body of her son, 7 years old, exhumed, believing that evidence would be found that tests with serums caused his death in the Willard Parker Hospital. He had nasal diphtheria, for which anti-toxin was injected during his first visit to the hospital. He was taken home as "cured" less than two weeks after his entering the hospital, but examination showed he was not cured, and he was returned to the hospital. Two weeks later he died, the death certificate giving "diphtheria and septic" as the cause. Mrs. Crane said "four inoculations were made in his arm without my consent. This information was given to me when I demanded to know why my child was unconscious. I believe these inoculations were made for experimental purposes."

Another case was of a three-year-old child, who was sent to the hospital suffering from measles, shortly after his return home was found to be suffering from a blood disease contracted while in Riverside Hospital.

CARD FROM T. E. HOWARD
To My Many Friends, and All Patrons of Anderson, S. C., Postoffice:
I take this means of submitting to you my application for postmaster at Anderson. The most of you know my duties as operator, etc., will prevent my seeing all of you personally, but I will more than appreciate your endorsement on petitions or in writing to me or congressmen and senators in Washington, D. C., and if appointed I shall serve "all the people to the best of my ability and to your best interest at all times." Having served you at Anderson, S. C., for some 22 years as operator, manager, etc., of the Western Union and ticket agent of railroads here three and a half years, I sincerely ask your endorsement. Respectfully,
T. E. HOWARD.

RARE TREAT FOR MT. ZION

Missionary From Japan Speaks at Mt. Zion Presbyterian Tomorrow Night.

A very enjoyable and instructive event for the people of the Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church and, in fact, that entire section, will be presented tomorrow night when Rev. W. M. Buchanan, a returned missionary from Japan will deliver an address. He will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the people who attend are requested to be in their seats by that hour. Mr. Buchanan has been in the foreign field for over eighteen years and he is a well-informed man on any topic relative to conditions in Japan. He is connected with the Seminary at Kobe, where he has done much good work. He is a native of Scotland, but was reared in America and has seen life from every angle. His address tomorrow night will be decidedly interesting and all those people of the Sandy Springs section who can possibly do so should be in attendance.

SNOW AND STYLES IN GAY NEW YORK

Mrs. J. C. Holleman has returned from New York, where she has purchased her spring stock of millinery. She says that she does not know when to expect her new stocks for the streets of New York are filled with snow and slush, and it is difficult for the delivery trucks to get the orders freighted, but some of these nice spring days she expects to have a spring millinery opening that will be a joy and a delight to the ladies of the city. Mrs. Holleman has also decided to have suits for sale, in addition to her novelties and headwear. "Lent has its limitations," said Mrs. Holleman yesterday, "but evidently they are not put upon clothes. The shops are more beautiful than ever in their display of handsome frocks, materials and trimmings, and it would take volumes to tell of the wonderful ways in which they are utilized for various occasions."

"There is a craze for dancing and dining. Dinner gowns are more interesting than ever, and at some of the extremely smart affairs some original costumes are seen. As has been frequently mentioned before, much of the originality of these gowns is due to the combined ideas of dressmaker and customer, for the woman of today studies herself and, has much to say regarding the design of the frock she wears."

"The most decided change in fashions is the bonfant skirt draperies. Tiered skirts, with ripple, stonces, short, draped tunics, ample panniers, one-sided pannier draperies and narrow pleated skirts, with tie-backs, are the prominent forms. The dance frocks show a departure from these styles, for the skirts are short and some have Turkish trousers, partially concealed by drapery. In the suit, the tiered and petgot skirts predominate and a few designers favor the bustle effect, even when heavy materials are used."

Taffeta and the soft silks that permit effective draping are the material favored for these gowns. One particularly lovely model of dull-blue taffeta has a simple, to-be-fitting bodice with a square neck line. Over each shoulder, close to the neck, is stitched a band of puffing bordered with narrow frills. The sleeves are short and finished with three frills. It is in the skirt that the quaint lines of the seventies are strongly emphasized, for it is trimmed nearly to the waist with bands of the puffing. A gathered rounce eight inches wide is stitched to the bottom of the skirt."

REV. CHAS. S. VEDDER, D. D.
Has Retired as Pastor of the Huguenot Church
Charleston, Feb. 28.—After a continuous service of 40 years, the Rev. Charles S. Vedder, D. D., pastor of the Huguenot church, has resigned. His resignation which was tendered several days ago was accepted Sunday afternoon by the officers of the church. Dr. Vedder's services as a minister of the gospel began in Summerville in 1861, where he remained until 1865, at which time he was called to pastorate of the Huguenot church of this place.

The church of which he has been pastor so long is said to be the only active Huguenot church in America. Several months ago the congregation called the Rev. F. Vurpillot to the assistant pastorate of the church, and since that time he and Dr. Vedder have alternately conducted the usual services. It is presumed that the Rev. Mr. Vurpillot will succeed Dr. Vedder in the pastorate of this historic church.

Dr. Vedder recently celebrated his 87th birthday and on this happy occasion was the recipient of heartiest congratulations from numerous friends all over the country. Of recent years he has been in feeble health, and on account of his advanced age and declining strength he felt that he should retire from active service. It is needless to say that Dr. Vedder will continue in close association with the church, and his hosts of friends hope to have the pleasure of hearing him preach yet many times.

One Director "Swung" $11,400,000 Deal in Evidence.
New York, Feb. 28.—One director of the Interborough "swung" a 15-year contract involving $11,400,000 or more in which the city is interested, according to a statement made before the public service commission. The contract is between the Interborough and Artamus Ward (Ward 6 and 7), which give the latter the right to maintain news stands, slot machines and other vending machines and to display advertising in cars and stations of the elevated and subway lines. The director admitted knowing the bid of others to Mr. Ward. The opposing bidders ask that it be re-opened.
