

S - H - O - E - S ---The Better Kind

Well, it all depends on what the name is. If it's GEISBERG on a shoe, it means as much as "Sterling" does on silver. It means the best. IT MEANS SUPERIOR materials, high class shoe making, fine finish, correct shape, smart styles--It means the best there is in footwear.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Record Breaker For the Treasurer. C. W. McGee, county treasurer for Anderson county, said yesterday that Saturday was a record breaking day with him. During the day he issued over 500 receipts, about 100 of which were for road tax.

Send Man to Foreign Markets. A meeting of the Live Stock as- sociation of Anderson county is to be held this morning for the purpose of co-operating with the movement to send a man to the western markets for the purpose of purchasing fine breeding cattle for the local farms.

Nails From the Travelers. People arriving in Anderson yester- day who had been out of the city wailed and longed for what the violent wind of the last two days had done to the railroad systems.

Anderson People Fond of Sparklets. Either Anderson people are very fond of everything that glistens and looks like gold, or in other words, they are either very fond of jewelry or a good many "drummers" are coming to this town for nothing.

County Commissioners Probably Meet Today. Today is the date for the regular meeting of the Anderson county commissioners, this being the first Tues- day in the month and the regular day set aside for the meeting.

Pension Board Will Meet Again. It had been announced that the meeting of the county pension board, held yesterday, would be the last meeting that this body would hold; but yesterday was such a busy day with the board that it was found im- possible to finish with the business presented itself.

Judge Quattlebaum Wears Jeans Suit. Judge J. W. Quattlebaum, the well- known lawyer, was highly compli- mented yesterday on the warm cloth- ing he was sporting. This was a suit of jeans, homespun, enduring, comfortable and attractive.

District Attorney Has Been Sworn In. Judge Ernest F. Cochran has re- turned from Charleston, where he ap- peared before Judge H. A. M. Smith and relinquished the office of United States district attorney, turning over the office to Senator Francis H. West- on, who was sworn in.

County Board Issued Certificates. The county registration board was in session throughout the day in the county court house yesterday. A number of applications were made for certificates, the chairman of the board saying that the majority of these ap- plications were renewals for special school elections.

SPARKS Oyster Supper at Three and Twenty. The Rural School Improvement As- sociation will give an oyster supper and other features at Three and Twen- ty school-house on Friday night, March 6. The public is cordially in- vited.

Watch Contest Has Been Closed. The great Omega watch contest which the Keese Jewelry Company has been conducting here for some- time, has come to a close and Mr. Keese said yesterday that the winner of the contest would be announced in next Tuesday's Intelligencer. This will give the judges time to canvass the list of words submitted by the con- testants and announce the award.

Many People Braved the Wind. Notwithstanding the fact that yester- day was one of the worst days of the winter, with the exception of Sun- day, a large number of people were in town for the day. This however, was doubtless due to the fact that yester- day was sales day and this day al- ways attracts a number of Anderson county farmers and people from other towns in the county.

Suit Filed Against Milling. Suit was filed in Anderson county yesterday by W. P. Williamson, guard- ian ad litem for Henry Williamson, against the Brogan mills. The plain- tiff asks $2,000, alleging that the boy suffered severe injuries while in the employ of the defendant. T. P. Dick- son and J. E. Bogan are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Negro Suing For Damages. John Walker, a Negro, yesterday filed suit against W. W. Adams, con- stable at Starr, in the sum of $1,000 in each of two cases. In one of the cases the negro asks for damages for false imprisonment and in the other he alleges assault and battery. This is another action in the now famous Huff murder case, with which Intelli- gencer readers are familiar.

New Milliner In Anderson. Miss D. Geisberg announced yester- day that Miss Elliott who has been con- nected with the popular Gelsberg mil- linery establishment, will not return to Anderson this year but instead goes to Virginia. Miss Geisberg has se- cured the services of Miss Leslie Treask, of Baltimore, who is said to be an artist in her line, and during the approaching season the Anderson lad- ies will have an opportunity to see some beautiful creations.

Going to the Bible Conference. Among those Anderson people who will attend the great Bible Conference in Atlanta are: Col. and Mrs. J. N. Brown, Miss Varena Brown, Mrs. Em- ma Tribble, Miss Bessie Tribble and Miss Berger. This Bible conference is one of the foremost religious events of the year. Some of the most prom- inent religious workers of the world are on the program and the entire event will be enjoyable from start to finish.

"Topsy-Turvy" Soon Presented. People of the Hopewell section are looking forward with pleasure to the presentation of the play "Topsy-Tur- vy" which is soon to be presented at the Hopewell church. This comedy will be seen next Friday night, begin- ning at eight o'clock, and the proceeds of the affair will go to a fund for the purpose of purchasing an organ. This is a worthy undertaking and doubtless there will be a large audience to see the effort.

50 Dozen Eggs Found Quick Sale. That the blackboards at the Cham- ber of Commerce do good is shown al- most every day. Farmers who have produce to sell are welcomed to ad- vertise it free on these blackboards, and person who wish to buy produce or stock are invited to make inquiries on the blackboards. The latest illus- tration of the usefulness of the black- boards was the case yesterday of Col. J. V. Stribling of Pendleton. He came to town with 50 dozen eggs to sell, and because Secretary Waley had ap- plied on for the eggs the negotiations were made as soon as the Colonel walked into the Chamber of Commerce.

Missionary Spoke At Orr Mills. On account of the inclement weather there was but a small congregation at the Orrville Methodist church Sunday night to hear Miss Mary Davies speak. She is field secretary of the Woman's Missionary conference, and her ad- dress thrilled the few who were privi- leged to hear it. Rev. W. T. Belvin, who came to this charge recently, has begun to take hold of these people in a remarkable manner and is doing good work at Orrville.

Family at Riverside Is Sorely Afflicted. Mr. and Mrs. John Chasteen of Riv- erside have the sympathy of many friends in the death Sunday of their little son, aged 3 years. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. T. Belvin. There are two other children very ill in the same family, aged 5 and 7 re- spectively.

W. J. Barnes and J. P. Owen from near First creek were in the city Mon- day. Mr. Owens was one of the suf- fers in the hail stricken section and lost 15 acres of cotton that was very promising at that time. G. P. Browne, publisher of the Daily Mail, has been suffering very greatly for the last few days with a severe attack of neuritis in his right arm and shoulder.

Brown Leghorn Eggs, Pen No. 1-- $2.00, Pen No. 2, $1.00 for setting. White Leghorn, $1.00 and $2.00 per setting. Barred Plymouth Rocks, Pen No. 1, $3.00 for 15. This pen is headed by a cockerel that won first prize at Richmond, Va., second prize at Nor- folk, Va., and second cockerel at Bal- timore and is sired by the Champion of Virginia.

W. E. BAZOR 801 South Main Street or Hotel Chi- quola Barber Shop. Book Mention. "The Passionate Friends" by H. G. Wells, is one of the biggest successes of the day. The writer is too well- known to require comment, all of his works being specimens of beautiful English and his foresight into affairs of the day is keen and penetrating. Published by Harper & Bros., New York.

and the illustrations are of a fanciful nature. The newest volume is "The Happy Prince and other Fairy Tales," published by Stokes. The small book entitled, "The Art of Short Story Writing Simplified," by Modeste Hannels Jordan, Litt. D., editor of the Writer's Magazine, is a helpful little volume to the novice, and should be a good seller. Published by the Hannis Jordan Co. "The Lady of the Lighthouse," written by Helen S. Woodruff, has been dedicated to the blind by the autho-ress. It is pleasing and its sentimental interest adds to its literary value. Published by George H. Doran Co. "Mary Queen of Scots," by H. T. Skae, is a handsome volume, bountifully illustrated, and is written in finished style. It is a book that will please lovers of English history. Published by Frederick Stokes & Co. "Above the Shame of Circumstance," by Gertrude Capen Wainey, is a book of interest to people of religious ten- der. The illustrations are good, and the book pleasing. Published by Sherman French & Co. Gilbert K. Chesterton's book, "The Flying Iron," has been unusually suc- cessful. The book tells the triumph of the simple, the honest, the human and natural over the whole mad futurism, that has threatened to engulf Eng- land. Published by John Lane Co. "The Witness for the Defence," by A. E. Mason, is one of Scribner's latest contributions. It is a story of love and ad-venture, with many thrills--and a truly worth reading. "A Handbook of Figure Skating," is of unusual value to fancy skaters and is a convenient size to carry in the pocket. Published by Darney & Berry, Eppimfield, Mass.

FILIPINOS WANT INDEPENDENCE Request Made to Provide for Same at the Present Session (By Associated Press.) Washington, March 2.--The Philip- pine assembly last night adopted res- olutions urging the American congress to provide at the present session for the independence of the islands, ac- cording to a cablegram today received by Delegate Quason.

FIRE IN ATLANTA SCHOOL Children Scared Out to the Tune of "Dixie" (By Associated Press.) Atlanta, March 2.--Five hundred pupils were hurried from the Peoples street public school building here to- day when fire broke out in a cloak- room. Boys of the school extinguished the blaze before it had done any ma- terial damage. The children left the building in an orderly manner march- ing to the strains of "Dixie," played by one of their number on a piano. The building was emptied in less than one minute.
