Bagain during today's trading. Demand was not general, but there appeared to be few sellers around the riug, and prices worked higher on firmer cables, favorable India trade advices, reports of a steady spot situation and predictions of rather builish week-end figures tomorrow. The close was steady, net uachanged to 8 points ligher, active months being generally 4 to 8 points above yesterday's close, March and May were relatively firm, March holding a premium over May of about 44 points, while May sold—2 points above July.

The market was relatively active during the early trading. Liverpool . Enough to Win

Only two days in which to work for the twenty dollars in gold. Do you think you are going to win? Will you be satis fied after prize winners are declared and find that you have lost by a very few months? Don't you wish that you had exerted yourself a little more and gotten one or two more yearly subscriptions?

There are still plenty of subscriptions to be secured; some one will get them, why not you? When you read this little article do not let it go unheeded. Go out and see the first porson that you think of and try to get his aubacription. You are not any worse off, and on the other hand suppose he subscribes. Look at the great will give you, towards win.
